PREFACE.

A Translation into Modern English.

FEW English-speaking people of to-day have the opportunity of reading the Bible in the English of their own time. In the course of the last hundred years the Bible has been translated into the every-day language of the natives of most countries, but the language of our Bible is still the English of three hundred years ago.

The translation now offered to the public had its origin in the discovery that the English of the Authorized Version (closely followed in that of the Revised Version), though valued by the more educated reader for its antique charm, is in many passages difficult for those who are less educated, or is even unintelligible to them. The retention, too, of a form of English no longer in common use not only gives the impression that the contents of the Bible have little to do with the life of our own day, but also requires the expenditure of much time and labour on the part of those who wish to understand or explain it. The Greek used by the New Testament writers was not the Classical Greek of some centuries before, but the form of the language then spoken. Moreover, the writers represent those whose utterances they record as using the words and phrases of ordinary conversation.

We believe that the New Testament will be better understood by modern readers if presented in a modern form. In this respect the present translation differs altogether in its plan from that of the Revised Version of 1881. No attempt is made in that Version to translate into the language of our own time. Its authors say:

> "We have faithfully adhered to the rule that the alterations to be introduced should be expressed, as far as possible, in the language of the Authorized Version, or of the Versions that preceded it. We have habitually consulted the earlier Versions; and in our sparing introduction of words not found in them, or in the Authorized Version, we have usually satisfied ourselves that such words were employed by standard writers of nearly the same date."

Our constant effort, on the contrary, has been to exclude all words and phrases not used in current English. We have, however, followed the modern practice of using an older phraseology in the rendering of poetical passages and quotations from the Old Testament, and in the language of prayer.

Neither a Revision nor a Paraphrase.

The translation of 1611, known as the "Authorized Version," was the outcome of many successive revisions of the translation completed by Tyndale in 1534, which was, at least to some extent, founded on that completed by Wycliffe about 1380. Further, the last named translation was not made from the original Greek, but from a Latin Version. The present translation is not a revision of any previous one, but is made directly from the Greek. Nor is it a paraphrase. A paraphrase might be useful as a help to the interpretation of the New Testament, but it would not be the New Testament itself. Yet, on the other hand, our work is more than a literal translation. No purely literal rendering can ever adequately represent the thoughts conveyed in the idioms of another language. In this translation not only every word, but also the emphasis placed upon every word, has been carefully weighed, and an effort made to give the exact force and meaning in idiomatic modern English.

The Greek Text. Since the publication of the Authorized Version of 1611, more than 1,500 manuscripts of the New Testament have been discovered or become accessible, and among them are the three oldest and most important. The Greek text here translated, that of Bishop Westcott and the late Dr. Hort, is mainly founded on these oldest manuscripts, and is widely acknowledged to be, as Dr. Philip Schaff called it, "the purest Greek text," and "the last and best edition of the Greek Testament."

Parallel Passages. A large amount of time and care has been expended upon those passages of the gospels which record the same or similar events or discourses, in order to show where the same or different words have been used. Such passages abound in the first three gospels, while in the fourth they are more numerous than is commonly supposed. Dr. Westcott writes:

> "The English reader has a right to expect that he will find in the Revision which is placed in his hands a faithful indication of the verbal agreement or difference between the several narratives. These afford the clue, often slender and subtle, to the particular meaning of a passage."

In addition to such help as that here referred to, the English reader will be able to study more easily the composition of the gospels, and to discern their relation to a common source. This important matter was neglected by King James's translators. To the Revisers of 1881 the public are indebted for very careful work in this direction, in which we have gladly followed and endeavoured to surpass them. There are, however, many minute points where such an indication as that alluded to by Dr. Westcott seems impossible.

Quotations and "Borrowed Phrases." The numerous and important quotations from the Old Testament are in this translation placed in special type. In addition to these, a large number of "borrowed Old Testament phrases," as Westcott and Hort call them, are indicated in the same way. These have been carefully compared with the Septuagint, and, where necessary, with the original Hebrew, and, in some cases, with the Aramaic versions. Passages quoted from the Apocrypha (references to which were formerly given in the Authorized Version, but have been long omitted by the printers) are here also indicated. It is believed that the use of a different type for all such passages, which show how the writers of the New Testament often borrowed the language of the Old, will be of considerable advantage to the careful student, without embarrassing the ordinary reader. Other quotations are in ordinary type.

Proper Names. The names of persons and places we have, as a rule, left in the forms with which English readers have been made familiar by the Authorized and Revised Versions. But in the case of names which occur in the Old Testament as well as in the New, we have reverted, with some exceptions, to the more correct Hebrew forms. This principle was partly adopted by the Revisers of 1881.

Measures and Coins. We have given measures of space and time, and also the values of coins, in their nearest English equivalents. In estimating the latter, the insufficient amounts usually given in the margins of our Bibles, and in popular commentaries, have been abandoned. Larger values, which more correctly represent the purchasing power of the precious metals in New Testament times, have been substituted.

Bracketed Passages. A few passages, numbering fourteen in all, will be found placed between square brackets. These are judged by Westcott and Hort "not to have originally formed part of the work in which they occur," but to be "stray relics from the Apostolic or sub-Apostolic age." The three most important of these will be found at pages 35 and 197.

Order of the Books. In early times very great variety prevailed in the arrangement of the books of the New Testament. The order depended partly on their length, partly on the relative importance of the cities to which they were addressed, still more on the different degrees of authority attributed to the writers. The "Gospels" were always placed first, and of these the two attributed to Apostles usually had the precedence. The position of the "Acts" varied somewhat. The "Revelation," though far from being the latest book, was on account of its prophetical character almost always placed last. In the middle position came the two groups of Letters, one comprising those written to Jewish Christians by the Apostle Peter and by the Master's brothers, James and Jude, together with the Letters attributed to John, two of these last being private letters. The other group of Letters comprises nine from the Apostle Paul, addressed to seven churches in Italy, Greece, and Asia Minor, and four private Letters. The anonymous Letter "to the Hebrews" (otherwise entitled "to the Alexandrians") was added to this group, usually at the end of the thirteen. Of these two groups of Letters the former had the precedence in Eastern, the latter in Western Christendom. Westcott and Hort have followed the order of two out of the three oldest Manuscripts.

It might, at first sight, appear best, in a translation intended principally for general readers, to keep to the common order, but this would help to perpetuate an arrangement which greatly hinders the comprehension of the Pauline Letters, placing, as it does, the earlier ones after those written in later years. On the other hand, to put the whole of the books in the order of their composition (in which the "Epistle of James" would probably stand at the beginning and the "Gospel according to John" at the end, and in which Historical Books and Letters would be curiously mixed) would be an arrangement, not very difficult in the present state of chronological learning, but more puzzling than helpful.

It has been thought best, therefore, to retain the usual grouping, but to arrange the books contained in each group in chronological order, according to the judgement of the best experts. By the adoption of this method the reader begins with the "Gospel according to Mark," the earliest, shortest, and simplest of the gospels, and is enabled to trace the new matter introduced by each successive Evangelist. When he comes to the Letters, he is enabled to read them with reference to the corresponding position of the Christian Church, the development of doctrine, and the varying personal history of the writers.

It is probable that our translation will meet with a cold reception from many. This was the case with the Authorized Version itself, when it first made its appearance. Long after that date, many preferred to use the plain and vigorous "Geneva Version," which, like the present translation, was without authority from Church or State. Each successive translation, indeed, has been received with some amount of distrust by those who have preferred the retention of the familiar form of words to an accurate presentation of the meaning in more modern language. But, as Bacon asks, "since things alter for the worse spontaneously, if they be never altered for the better designedly, how is the evil to stop?"

Our work has extended over many years, in the course of which death has deprived us of the help of one of our first, and most valued, workers. Undertaken, as a labour of love, by a company of about twenty persons, members of various sections of the Christian Church, we now commend this translation to the good-will of all English-speaking people, and to the blessing of Almighty God.

THE TRANSLATORS.

November, 1898.

NOTE:—The present volume contains about three-fifths of the New Testament. The remainder is in preparation.

When the Revised Version of 1881 was in progress, it was proposed by the present Bishop of Worcester that it should first appear in a Tentative Edition, as had been the case with the German Revised Bible, so that it might "circulate experimentally for two or three years." The difficulties of the plan thus proposed appeared to the English Revisers to be insurmountable. We, however, have adopted it, and issue this Edition as a Tentative Edition only.

Proof sheets, printed for private circulation in the progress of our work, have been already submitted to a large number of critics, and their suggestions have been carefully considered. The co-operation of a wider circle of readers is now cordially invited. All criticisms and suggestions will be welcomed. They should be addressed:—

THE GOOD NEWS
ACCORDING TO MARK.

I.—The Preparation.

The beginning of the Good News about Jesus Christ. 1 1

Coming of John foretold. It is said in the Prophet Isaiah— 2 'Behold! I send my Messenger before thy face;
He shall prepare thy way.'
'The voice of one loudly crying in the desert: 3
"Make ready the way of the Lord,
Make his paths straight."'

It was in fulfilment of this that John the Baptizer appeared 4
John's Proclamation. in the desert, proclaiming a baptism upon repentance for forgiveness of sins. All Judaea, with all 5 the inhabitants of Jerusalem, went out to see him; and they were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. John wore clothing of camels' hair, and had 6 a belt of leather round his waist, and lived upon locusts and wild honey; and he made this proclamation— 7

"There is One Coming after me more powerful than I, and I am not fit even to stoop down and undo his shoes. I have 8 baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the holy Spirit."

II.—The Work in Galilee.

Baptism of Jesus. About that time Jesus came from Nazareth in 9 Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan.
Just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the sky 10 parting, and the Spirit, like a dove, coming down upon him, while from the sky there came a voice— 11
"Thou art my Son, my beloved,
In thee I delight."

1 Ps. 2. 2. 2—3 Mal. 3. 1; Isa. 40. 3. 6 2 Kings 1. 8. 7 Ps. 118. 26.
11 Ps. 2. 7; Isa. 42. 1.

Temptation of Jesus.

Immediately afterwards the Spirit impelled Jesus 12 to go into the desert; and he was there in the 13 desert for forty days, tempted by Satan, and among wild beasts, while angels attended on him.

Jesus begins his Work.

After John had been given into custody, Jesus 14 went to Galilee, proclaiming the Good News of God—

"The time has come, and the Kingdom of God is close at 15 hand; repent, and believe the Good News."

Call of four Disciples.

One day, as Jesus was going along by the Lake 16 of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew, who were fishermen, casting a net into the lake.

"Come and follow me," Jesus said, "and I will set you to 17 fish for men."

They left their nets at once, and followed him. Going 18 on a little further, he saw James, Zebediah's son, and his 19 brother John, who were in the boat mending the nets. Jesus at once called them, and they left their father Zebediah in the 20 boat with the crew, and went after him.

Cure of a possessed Man.

Then they walked on into Capernaum. 21
On the very first Sabbath Jesus went into the Synagogue and began to teach; the people were 22 greatly struck with his teaching, for he was teaching them like one who had authority, and not like the Rabbis. Now just 23 then there was in the Synagogue a man under the power of a wicked spirit, who called out:

"What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you 24 come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!"

But Jesus rebuked the spirit. 25

"Silence! come out from him," he said.

The wicked spirit threw the man into a fit, and with a loud 26 cry came out from him; and everyone was so amazed at it 27 that people kept asking one another:

"What does this mean? Strange teaching this! He gives orders with authority even to the wicked spirits, and they obey him!"

And the fame of Jesus extended at once in all directions, 28 through the whole neighbourhood of Galilee.

Cure of Peter's Mother-in-law.

As soon as they had left the Synagogue, they 29 went, with James and John, into the house of Simon and Andrew; and as Simon's mother-in- 30 law was lying ill with fever, they at once told Jesus about her.

So he went up to her, and grasping her hand, raised her up. 31

The fever left her, and she began waiting upon them.

Cure of many Persons.

In the evening, after sunset, people kept bring- 32 ing to Jesus all who were ill, and those who were possessed; and the whole city was gathered round the door. Jesus cured many who were ill with various diseases, and drove out many evil spirits; he would not permit the spirits to speak, because they knew him to be the Christ.

Jesus retires for Prayer.

In the morning, long before daylight, Jesus got up and went out, and going to a lonely spot, he there began to pray. But Simon and his companions hastened after him; and when they found him, they exclaimed:

"Everyone is looking for you!"

"Let us go away from here," Jesus said, "into the country towns near, that I may preach in them, too; indeed, that was my object in coming."

Then he went and preached in their Synagogues all through Galilee, and drove out the evil spirits.

Cure of a Leper.

One day a leper came to Jesus and went down on his knees to him, begging for pity.

"If only you are willing," he said, "you are able to heal me."

Jesus' heart was moved, and, stretching out his hand, he touched him and said:

"I am willing, be healed."

Instantly the leprosy left the man, and he was healed; and then Jesus immediately sent him away with urgent injunctions, saying to him:

"Take care not to tell anything to any one; but go and show yourself to the Priest, and make the offerings in connexion with your healing, as Moses directed, for a proof of your cure to the people."

The man, however, went away, and began to say so much about it, and to spread the story so widely, that Jesus could no longer go openly into a town, but stayed outside in lonely places; and people kept coming to him from all parts.

Cure of a paralyzed Man.

Some days later, when Jesus came back to Capernaum, the news spread that he was at home; and such numbers of people collected that after a while there was no room for them even round the door; and he began telling them his Message. Presently there came some people bringing to him a paralyzed man, carried by four of them. But being unable to get him near to Jesus, owing to the crowd, they removed the roofing below which Jesus was; and when they had made an opening, they let down the mat on which the paralyzed man was lying.

When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the man:

"My son, your sins are forgiven."

But there were some of the Rabbis sitting there, debating with themselves:

[a] Lev. 13. 49.

"Why does this man speak like this? It is blasphemy! 7
Who can forgive sins except God himself?"
As soon as Jesus became conscious that they were debating 8 like this with themselves, he said to them:
"Why are you debating with yourselves about this? Which 9 is easier?—to say to the paralyzed man 'Your sins are forgiven'?
or to say 'Get up, and take your mat, and walk'? But that you 10 may know that the Son of Man has authority to forgive sins on earth"—here he addressed the paralyzed man—"To you I say, 11 get up, take your mat, and go home."
The man got up, and immediately took his mat, and went 12 out before them all; at which they were all astounded, and praised God.
"We have never seen anything like this!" they said.

Call of Levi.

Jesus went out again to the lake side; and all 13
the people came to him, and he taught them.
As he was passing along, he saw Levi, Alphaeus' son, sitting 14 in the tax-office, and said to him: "Follow me."
Levi got up and followed him.

Jesus blamed for his Companions.

Later on he was in his house at table, and a 15 number of tax-gatherers and godless people were at table with Jesus and his disciples; for there were many of them who used to follow him. When 16 the Rabbis belonging to the party of the Pharisees saw that he was eating in the company of such people, they said to his disciples:
"Does he eat in the company of tax-gatherers and godless people?"
Hearing this, Jesus said: 17
"It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but only those who are ill. I did not come to invite the pious, but the godless."

The Disciples blamed for not fasting.

Now John's disciples and the Pharisees were 18
keeping a fast, so people came and asked Jesus:
"Why is it that John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees are fasting, while yours are not?"
Jesus answered: 19
"Is it possible for the bridegroom's friends to fast, while he is still with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot. A time, however, will come, when 20 the bridegroom will be parted from them, and they will fast then—when that time comes. No one ever sews a piece of 21 unshrunk cloth on an old garment; if he does, the patch tears away from it—the new from the old—and a still worse rent is made. And no one puts new wine into old wine-skins; if he 22 does, the wine will burst the skins, and the wine is lost as well as the skins. But new wine is put into fresh skins."

[18] Dan. 7. 13.

The Disciples accused of breaking the Sabbath.

One Sabbath Jesus was walking through the cornfields. His disciples began to make their way across, picking the ears of corn. 23

"Look!" the Pharisees said to him, "why are they doing what it is wrong to do on the Sabbath?" 24

"Have you never read," Jesus answered, "what David did when he was hard-pressed and hungry, he and his companions —how he went into the House of God, in the time of Abiathar the High Priest, and ate the consecrated bread, which no one but the priests have a right to eat, besides giving some to his comrades?" 25 26

Then Jesus added: 27

"The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath; so the Son of Man is master even of the Sabbath." 28

Cure of a Man with a withered Hand.

On another occasion Jesus went into a Synagogue; and there was a man there with his hand withered. The people watched Jesus closely, to see if he would cure the man on the Sabbath, in order to have a charge to bring against him. 1 2 3

"Get up and come forward," Jesus said to the man with the withered hand; while of the people he asked: 3 4

"Which is right? to do good on the Sabbath, or harm? to save a life, or destroy it?"

As they made no reply, Jesus, looking round at them indignantly, grieved at the hardness of their hearts, said to the man: 5

"Stretch out your hand!"

The man stretched it out; and his hand had become sound.

Immediately on coming out, the Pharisees, in concert with the Herodians, laid a plot against Jesus, with a view to putting him to death. 6

Cures by the Lake side.

Afterwards Jesus and his disciples went away to the lake side, followed by great numbers of people from Galilee. A great number, too, hearing of all that he was doing, came to him from Judaea, from Jerusalem itself, from Edom, from the other side of Jordan, and from the country round Tyre and Sidon. So Jesus told his disciples to keep a small boat close by, for fear the crowd should crush him. For he had cured numbers of people, and consequently they kept pressing up to him, that all who were afflicted might touch him. The wicked spirits, too, whenever they caught sight of him, flung themselves at his feet, and called out: 7 8 9 10 11

"You are the Son of God"!

But he repeatedly warned them not to tell anyone about him. 12

Choice of the twelve Apostles.

Then Jesus went up the hill, and summoned to him those he wished for. They went to him; and he appointed twelve—whom he also named 13 14

26 1 Sam. 21. 6. 11 Ps. 2. 7.

'Apostles'—that he might have them about him, and that he might send them out to preach, giving them also power 15 to drive out evil spirits. So he appointed the Twelve. They 16 were Peter (which was the additional name Jesus gave to Simon), James the son of Zebediah and his brother John (to 17 whom he gave the name of Boanerges, which means the Thunderers), Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, 18
James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot, and 19
Judas Iscariot, who was the man that betrayed him.

The Relations of Jesus interfere.

After this Jesus went into a house; and again 20 such a crowd collected that he and those with him could not even get their food. When his 21 relations heard of it, they went to secure him.

"He is out of his mind!" they exclaimed. The Rabbis, too, 22 who had come down from Jerusalem said:

Jesus accused of acting by the Help of Satan.

"He has Baal-zebub in him, and he drives the evil spirits out by the help of Baal-zebub, their chief."

So Jesus called them to him, and to answer them used an 23 illustration:

"How can Satan drive Satan out? When a kingdom is at 24 variance within itself, it cannot last; and when a household is 25 at variance within itself, it will be unable to last. So if Satan 26 is in opposition to and at variance with himself, he cannot last; on the contrary he comes to an end. Indeed no one can get 27 into a strong man's house, and carry off his goods, without first securing him. Not till then will he plunder his house.

Believe me, men will be forgiven everything—their sins, and 28
all their slanders|that they utter; but whoever slanders the holy 29
Spirit remains unforgiven to the end—yes, and has to answer for an enduring sin."

This was said in answer to the charge that he had a wicked 30 spirit in him.

The true Brotherhood.

Presently Jesus' mother and his brothers came 31 up, and standing outside, sent to ask him to come to them. There was a crowd sitting round him, and they 32 said to him:

"Look, your mother and your brothers are outside, asking for you."

"Who is my mother? and my brothers?" was his reply. 33
Then, having looked round on the people sitting in a circle 34 round him, he said:

"Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the 35 will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Parable of the Sower.

Afterwards Jesus began to teach again by the 4 1 lake side; and since a very great crowd was gathering round him, he got into a boat, and sat in it on the water, while all the people remained upon the shore at the water's edge. Then he taught them many truths in stories; and in the course of his teaching he said to them: 2

"Listen to me. There was once a man who went out to sow; and presently, as he was sowing, some of the seed fell along the path; and the birds came, and ate it up. Some of it, too, fell on rocky ground, where it had not much soil; and having no depth of soil, it sprang up at once. When the sun rose, it was scorched; and as it had no root, it withered away. Some of the seed fell among thorn-bushes, which shot up, and so completely choked it, that it gave no crop. Some fell into good soil; and shooting up and growing, gave a crop, yielding thirty, sixty, or a hundred times as much." 3 4 5 6 7 8

"Let every one who has ears to listen with, listen."

Explanation of the Parable of the Sower.

Later on, when he was left to himself, the Twelve joined his followers in asking him about his stories. 10

"To you," answered Jesus, "the secret of the Kingdom of God has been imparted; but for the people yonder who are outside it, everything is put in the form of stories, that— 11 12

'Though they have eyes, they may see without perceiving;
And though they have ears, they may hear without understanding:
Lest some day they should turn and be forgiven.'

You do not understand this story!" Jesus exclaimed; "then how will you learn the meaning of all the other stories? 13

What the man sows is the Message. What is meant by the seed falling along the path is this—where the Message is sown, and as soon as people have heard it, Satan immediately comes, and carries away the Message that has been sown in them. So, too, with the seed sown on the rocky places. What is meant is this—when, as soon as people hear the Message, they joyfully accept it at once; but as they have no root, they stand for only a short time; consequently when trouble or persecution arises on account of the Message, they fall away at once. It is otherwise with the seed sown among the thorn-bushes. What is meant is this—when people have heard the Message, but the anxieties of life, and the snares of wealth, and all sorts of other ambitions come in, and so completely choke it that nothing comes of it. Lastly, what is meant by the seed sown on the good ground is this—when people hear the Message, and welcome it, and produce fruit, either thirty, sixty, or a hundred times as much." 14 15 16 17 18 19 20

Lesson from a Lamp.

Then Jesus went on to say: 21

"Is a lamp brought in to be covered over or put under a bench, instead of being put on the lamp stand? There is indeed nothing kept secret without the 22

prospect of its being brought to light, and nothing was ever considered a secret but with the prospect that it would come to light. Let any one who has ears to listen with, listen. 23

How to Listen. Take care," he continued, "what you listen to. 24 The measure that you give will be given to you; and you will get something over. For those who retain 25 anything will have more given them; while those who retain nothing will have even what they had taken away from them."

Parable of the Seed growing unobserved. Jesus also said: 26
"The Kingdom of God is like a man sowing seed on the ground, and then sleeping at night 27 and getting up by day, while the seed is shooting up and growing—he does not know how. The ground bears the crop 28 of itself—first the blade, then the ear, and then the full grain in the ear; but as soon as the crop is ready, the man at once 29 puts in the sickle because harvest has come."

Parable of the Mustard Seed. Jesus went on to say: 30
"Where can we find anything to which to liken the Kingdom of God? or by what story can we explain it? Perhaps by the growth of a mustard seed. This seed, 31 when sown in the ground, though it is smaller than any other that is sown, yet, when sown, shoots up, and becomes 32 larger than any herb, and puts out such great branches that even the wild birds can roost in its shelter."

With many such stories Jesus used to tell the people his 33 Message, as far as they were able to receive it; and to them he 34 never spoke except in stories; but to his disciples he explained everything in private.

Jesus stills a Storm. On the evening of the same day, Jesus proposed 35 that they should cross the lake. So, leaving the 36 crowd behind, they took him with them, just as he was, in the boat, other boats also going with him. A great 37 squall began, and the waves kept dashing into the boat, so that she was actually filling. But Jesus himself was in the stern, 38 asleep upon the cushion; and the disciples roused him and said:

"Teacher! do not you care that our lives are in danger?"

Jesus got up and rebuked the wind, and said to the lake: 39
"Hush! Be still!"

Then the wind dropped, and a great calm followed.

"Why are you so cowardly?" he exclaimed. "Have you no 40 faith yet?"

But they were struck with great awe, and said to one another: 41

"Who can this be that even the wind and the water obey him?"

Cure of a Madman. Afterwards they got to the other side of the 1 5 lake—the country of the Gerasenes; and as soon 2 as Jesus had got out of the boat, he met a man coming out of the tombs, who was under the power of a wicked spirit, and who made his home in the tombs. No one could 3 secure him, even with a chain; for though he had many 4 times been left secured with fetters and chains, he had snapped the chains and shattered the fetters, and no one was able to master him. Night and day alike, he was con- 5 tinually calling out in the tombs and on the hills, and cutting himself with stones. Catching sight of Jesus from a distance, 6

he ran and bent low before him, calling out loudly: 7

"What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? For God's sake do not torment me!"

For Jesus was saying: 8

"Come out from the man, you wicked spirit."

"What is your name?" Jesus asked. 9

"My name," he said, "is Legion, for there are numbers of us;" and he begged Jesus again and again not to send them 10 away out of that country. There was a large drove of 11 pigs there, feeding on the hill side. So the spirits begged Jesus 12 to send them into the pigs, that they might take possession of them; and Jesus gave them leave. They came out, and took 13 possession of the pigs; and the drove, numbering about two thousand, rushed down the steep slope into the lake, and were drowned there. On this the herdsmen ran away, and 14 carried the news to the town, and to the country round; and the people went to see what had happened. When they came 15 to Jesus, they found the possessed man sitting there, clothed and in his right senses—the very man who had had the 'Legion' in him—and they were awe-struck. Then those who had seen 16 it related to them all that had happened to the possessed man, as well as about the pigs; upon which they began to beg Jesus 17 to leave their district. As he was getting into the boat, 18 the possessed man begged him to let him stay with him. 19
But Jesus refused.

"Go home to your own people," he said, "and tell them of all that the Lord has been doing for you, and how he took pity on you."

So the man went, and began to make known in the district of 20 the Ten Towns all that Jesus had done for him; and everyone was astonished.

Jair's Request.

By the time Jesus had re-crossed in the boat to 21 the opposite shore, a great number of people had gathered to meet him, and were standing by the lake side. Here one of the Presidents of the Synagogue, 22 whose name was Jair, came up to Jesus, and as soon as he saw him, threw himself at his feet with repeated entreaties. 23

"My little daughter," he said, "is at the point of death; I beg you to come and place your hands on her, that her life may be saved."

So Jesus set out with him. A great number of people 24 followed Jesus, and kept pressing round him.
Cure of an afflicted Woman.
Meanwhile a woman who for twelve years had 25 suffered from haemorrhage, and had gone through 26 much under many doctors, spending all she had without gaining any relief, but, on the contrary, growing worse, having 27 heard about Jesus, came behind in the crowd, and touched his cloak.

"If I can touch even his clothes," she said, "I shall get well!" 28
Immediately the mischief was stopped, and she felt in herself 29 that she was cured of her complaint. Jesus instantly became 30 conscious that there had been a demand upon his powers, and turning round in the crowd, said:

"Who touched my clothes?"

"You see the people pressing round you," exclaimed his 31 disciples, "and yet you say 'Who touched me'!"

But Jesus still kept looking about to see who had done it. 32
Then the woman, in fear and trembling, aware of what had 33 happened to her, came and threw herself down before him, and told him the whole truth.

"My daughter," he said, "your own faith has made you well. 34
My blessing go with you; be free from your complaint."

Jair's Daughter restored to Life.
Before he had done speaking, some people 35 came from the house of the President of the Synagogue, and said:

"Your daughter is dead! Why should you trouble the Teacher any more?"

But Jesus, overhearing what they were saying, said to the 36
President of the Synagogue:

"Do not be afraid; only have faith!"

And he allowed no one to accompany him, except Peter, 37
James, and John, James's brother. Presently they reached the 38
President's house, where Jesus saw a scene of confusion—people weeping and wailing incessantly.

"Why is there this confusion and weeping?" he said on 39 entering. "The little child is not dead, she is asleep."

They began laughing at him; but he sent them all out, and 40 then took the child's father and mother, and his companions, and went in where she was lying. Taking her hand, Jesus 41 said to her;

"Taleitha, koum!"—the meaning of which is 'Little girl, I am speaking to you, get up.'

The little girl stood up immediately, and began walking about; 42 for she was twelve years old. Directly they saw it, they were utterly astounded; but Jesus repeatedly cautioned them not to 43 let anyone hear of it, and told them to give her something to eat.

Jesus teaches at Nazareth.
On leaving that place, Jesus, followed by his 1 6 disciples, went to his own part of the country.

When the Sabbath came, he began to teach in the Synagogue; 2 and the people, as they listened, were greatly impressed.
"Where did he get all this?" they said, "and what is the meaning of this wisdom that has been given him? and of miracles like these which he is doing? Is not he the carpen- 3 ter, the son of Mary, and brother of James, Joses, Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters, too, living here among us?"
This proved a hindrance to their believing in him; on which 4
Jesus said:
"A Prophet is not without honour, except in his own country, and among his own relations, and in his own home."
And he could not work any miracle there, except that he 5 placed his hands upon a few invalids, and cured them, wonder- 6 ing at the want of faith shown by the people.

The Mission of the twelve Apostles.

Jesus went round the villages, one after another, teaching. Then he called the Twelve to 7 him, and began to send them out two and two, giving them authority over wicked spirits. He directed them 8 to take nothing but a stick for the journey—not even a bit of bread, or a bag, or pence in their pocket; but they were 9 to wear sandals, and not to take a change of clothes to put on.
"Whenever you go to stay at a house," he said, "remain 10
there till you leave that place; and if a place does not welcome 11 you, or listen to you, as you go out of it shake off the dust that is on the soles of your feet, as a warning to them."
So they set out, and proclaimed the need of repentance. They 12 drove out many evil spirits, and anointed many invalids with 13 oil, and cured them.

Herod's Opinion about Jesus.

Now King Herod heard of Jesus—for his name 14 had become well known. People were saying that John the Baptizer must have risen from the dead, and that was why these powers were so active in him.
Others again said that he was Elijah, and others that he was a 15 Prophet, like one of the great Prophets. But when Herod 16 heard of him, he said: "The man whom I myself beheaded—John—he must be risen from the grave!"

Account of John's Execution.

For Herod himself had sent and arrested John, 17 and put him in prison, in chains, to please Herodias, the wife of Herod's brother Philip, Herod having taken her as his own wife. For John had told 18
Herod that he had no right to be living with his brother's wife.
So Herodias owed him a grudge, and wanted to put him to 19 death, but was unable to do so, for Herod stood in fear of 20
John, knowing him to be a good, holy man, and protected him. After listening to John, he still remained much perplexed, but yet he found pleasure in listening to him.
However a convenient day came, when Herod, to keep his 21 birthday, gave a dinner to his high officials, generals, and the foremost men in Galilee. And when his daughter—that is the daughter of Herodias—came in and danced, she pleased Herod and those who were dining with him. 'Ask me for whatever you like,' the King said to the girl, 'and I will give it to you'; and he swore to her that whatever she asked him for he would give her—up to half his kingdom. The girl went out, and said to her mother 'What must I ask for?'

'The head of John the Baptizer,' answered her mother. So she went in as quickly as possible to the King, and made her request. 'I want you,' she said, 'to give me directly, on a dish, the head of John the Baptist.' The King felt very sorry; yet, on account of his oaths and of the guests at his table, he did not like to refuse her. So he immediately despatched one of his bodyguard, with orders to bring John's head. The man went and beheaded him in the prison, and bringing his head on a dish, gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother. When John's disciples heard of it, they came and took his body away, and laid it in a tomb.

After a time the Apostles came back to Jesus, and told him all that they had done and had taught.

"Come without attracting attention to some lonely spot yourselves," he said, "and rest a little while"—for there were so many people coming and going that they had no time even to eat. So they set off in their boat for a lonely spot, endeavouring not to attract attention. But many people saw them going and recognised them, and left all the towns and flocked together by land, and got there before them.

On getting out of the boat, Jesus saw a great crowd, and his heart was touched at the sight of them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd[14]; and he began to teach them a great many things.

Jesus provides Food for five thousand Men.

As it was already late, his disciples came up to him, and said:

"This is a lonely spot, and it is already late. Send the people away, so that they may go to the farms and villages round and buy themselves something to eat."

"It is for you to give them something to eat," replied Jesus.

"Are we to go and buy twenty pounds worth of bread," they asked, "to give them to eat?"

"How many loaves have you?" he asked; "go, and see." When they had found out, they told him that they had five, and two fishes. Jesus gave them instructions that the people should all take their seats on the green grass, in parties. So they sat down in groups—in hundreds, and in fifties. Next, taking the five loaves and the two fishes, Jesus looked up to [14] Num. 27. 17.

Heaven, and blessed God. After this he broke the loaves into pieces, and proceeded to give them to his disciples for them to set before the people, dividing the two fishes as well among them all. Every one had plenty to eat, and enough pieces were taken away to fill twelve baskets, and some of the fish besides. There were five thousand men who ate the bread.

Jesus walks on the Water.

Immediately afterwards Jesus made his disciples get into the boat, and cross over in advance, in the direction of Bethsaida, while he himself was dismissing the crowd. After he had taken leave of them, he went on to the hill to pray. When evening fell, the boat was in the middle of the lake, and Jesus on shore quite alone. Seeing them labouring at the oars—for the wind was against them—about three hours after midnight Jesus came towards them, walking on the water, with the intention of joining them. But when they saw him walking on the water, they thought it was a ghost and cried out, for all of them saw him, and were terrified. But Jesus at once spoke to them.

"Courage!" he said, "it is I; do not be afraid!"

Then he got up into the boat with them, and the wind dropped. The disciples were intensely astonished, for they had not understood about the loaves, as their minds were slow to learn.

Jesus at Gennesaret.

When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret, and moored the boat. They had no sooner left her than the people, recognizing Jesus, hurried all over the country-side, and began to carry about upon mats those who were ill, wherever they heard he was. So wherever he came—to villages, or towns, or farms—they would lay their sick in the market-places, and would beg him just to let them touch but the tassel of his cloak; and all who did so were made well.

The Disciples blamed for neglecting Ceremonies.

One day the Pharisees and some of the Rabbis who had come from Jerusalem gathered round Jesus. They had noticed that some of his disciples ate their food with their hands 'defiled,' by which they meant unwashed. (For the Pharisees, and all Jews, will not eat without first washing their hands up to the elbow, keeping to the traditions of their ancestors. When they come from market, they will not eat without first sprinkling themselves; and there are many other things which they have accepted as binding, such as the scrupulous washing of cups, and jugs, and copper pans). So the Pharisees and Rabbis asked Jesus this question—

"How is it that your disciples do not follow the traditions of our ancestors, but eat their food with defiled hands?"

His answer was:

[66] Num. 15. 38.

"It was well said by Isaiah when he prophesied about you hypocrites, in the words—

> 'This is a people that honours me with their lips,
> While their hearts are far removed from me;
> But vainly do they worship me, 7
> For their teaching is only the commands of men.'

For you neglect God's commandments and cling to the traditions of men. 8
You think it right, do you?," he exclaimed, 9
"to set aside God's commandments, in order to keep your own traditions! For while Moses said 'Honour thy father and thy 10 mother,' and 'Let him who reviles his father or mother suffer death,' you say 'If a man says to his father or mother "Whatever of 11 mine would have been of service to you is Korban"' (which means 'Given to God')—then you do not let him do anything 12 further for his father or mother. In this way you cancel the 13 words of God by your traditions, which you have passed on in your turn; and you do many other things like that."

Sin inward not outward.

Then Jesus called the people to him again, and 14
said:

"Listen to me all of you and mark my words. There is 15 nothing external to a man, which can defile him by entering him; but the things that come out from a man are the things that defile him."

When Jesus went indoors, away from the crowd, his disciples 17 began questioning him about this saying.

"Have even you so little comprehension as this?" Jesus 18 exclaimed. "Do you not see that anything external cannot, by entering a man, defile him, because it does not pass into his 19 heart, but into his stomach, and is afterwards got rid of?"—by which words Jesus pronounced all food equally 'pure.'

"It is what comes out from a man," he added, "that defiles 20 him, for it is from inside, out of the hearts of men, that all 21 suggestions of evil come, whether unchastity, theft, murder, adultery, greed, wickedness, deceit, lewdness, envy, slander, 22 haughtiness, or folly; all these wicked things come from inside, 23 and defile a man."

Cure of a heathen Girl.

Leaving that place, Jesus went into the dis- 24
trict of Tyre and Sidon. Here he entered a house, and did not wish any one to know it, but could not escape notice. For a woman, whose little daughter 25 had a wicked spirit in her, heard of him immediately, and came and threw herself at his feet—she was a heathen woman, a 26 native of Syrian Phoenicia—and she begged him to drive the evil spirit out of her daughter.

7 Isa. 29. 13. 10 Exod. 20. 12; 21. 17.

"Let the children have enough first," Jesus answered. "It 27 is not fair to take the children's food, and throw it to dogs."
"Yes, Master," she replied; "even dogs under the table 28 feed on the children's scraps."
"Since you have said that," he answered, "you may go. 29
The evil spirit has gone out of your daughter."
The woman went home, and found the child lying on her bed, 30 and the evil spirit gone.

Cure of a deaf Stammerer.

On returning from the district of Tyre, Jesus 31 went, by way of Sidon, to the Lake of Galilee, right across the district of the Ten Towns.
There some people brought to him a man who was deaf and 32 stammered, and they begged Jesus to place his hand on him.
Jesus took him aside from the crowd so as not to attract 33 attention, put his fingers into the man's ears, and touched his tongue with saliva. Then, looking up to Heaven, he 34 sighed, and said to the man:
"Ephphatha!" which means 'Open.'
The man's ears were opened, the string of his tongue was 35 freed, and he began talking plainly. Jesus insisted upon their 36 not telling any one; but the more he insisted, the more perseveringly they made it known, and a profound impression was 37 made upon the people.
"How well he has done everything!" they said. "He makes even the deaf hear and the dumb speak!"

Jesus provides Food for four thousand Men.

8 About that time, when there was again a great 1 crowd of people who had nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples to him, and said:
"My heart is touched at the sight of all these 2 people, for they have already been with me three days and they have nothing to eat; and if I send them away to their 3 homes hungry, they will faint on the road; and some of them are from a long distance."
"Where will it be possible," rejoined his disciples, "for one 4 to get enough bread for the people to have plenty—here at a lonely place like this?"
"How many loaves have you?" he asked. 5
"Seven," they answered.
Jesus then told the crowd to sit down upon the ground. Taking 6 the seven loaves, and giving thanks, he broke them up, and proceeded to give them to his disciples to serve out; and they served them out to the crowd. They had also a few small fish; 7 and after he had blessed them, he told the disciples to serve out these as well. They had plenty to eat—there were about 8 four thousand of them—and seven baskets full of spare broken pieces were taken away. Then Jesus dismissed them. 9 Immediately afterwards, getting into the boat with his disciples, 10
Jesus went to the district of Dalmanutha.

A Sign from the Sky asked for.

Here the Pharisees came to Jesus, and began a discussion with him, by asking him for some sign of his power from the sky, by way of testing him. 11
At this Jesus sighed deeply. 12
"Why does the present generation," he said, "ask for a sign? Believe me, no sign will be given it."
So he left them to themselves, and getting into the boat again, went away to the opposite shore. 13

Warning against false Teaching.

Now the disciples had forgotten to take any bread with them, a single loaf being all they had in the boat. And Jesus gave them this warning: 14 15
"Take care to be on the watch against the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod."
They began discussing with one another their being short of bread. Noticing this, Jesus said to them: 16 17
"Why are you discussing your being short of bread? Do you not yet understand or see? Are your minds so slow of comprehension? Though you have eyes, do you not see? and though you have ears, do you not hear? Do you not remember, when I broke up the five loaves for the five thousand men, how many baskets filled with broken pieces you took away?" 18 19
"Twelve," they said.
"And when the seven for the four thousand people, how many baskets did you fill with the broken pieces you took away?" 20
"Seven," they said.
"Do you not see now?" he repeated. 21

Cure of a blind Man.

Presently they came to Bethsaida. 22
Here some people brought a blind man to Jesus, and begged Jesus to touch him. Taking the blind man's hand, Jesus led him to the outskirts of the village, and when he had put saliva on the man's eyes, placed his hands on him, and asked him if he could make out anything. 23
The man looked up, and said: 24
"I can make out the people, for, as they walk about, they look to me like trees."
Then Jesus again placed his hands on the man's eyes; and the man looked hard, and his sight was restored, and he made out everything distinctly. Jesus sent him home, telling him not even to go into the village. 25 26

Jesus owned as the Christ.

Afterwards Jesus and his disciples left for the villages round Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples this question— 27
"Who do people say I am?"
"John the Baptist," they answered, "but others say Elijah, while others say 'one of the Prophets.'" 28
"But you," he asked, "who do you say I am?" 29

[18] Jer. 5. 21.

And to this Peter replied :
"You are the Christ."
At this Jesus impressed on them not to say this about him to anyone. 30

Jesus foretells his Death.

Then he began to explain to them that the Son of Man had much to undergo, and that he must be rejected by the Councillors, Chief Priests, and Rabbis, and be put to death, and rise up again after two days had passed. This statement he made unfalteringly. But Peter drew Jesus to him, and began to remonstrate with him. Turning round, and seeing his disciples, Jesus remonstrated with Peter. 31 32 33
"Out of my way, Satan!" he exclaimed; "for you look at things not in God's way but in man's."

A Call to renounce Self.

Calling the people and his disciples to him, Jesus said : 34
"If any man wishes to go where I go, he must renounce self, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, and whoever, for my sake and for the sake of the Good News, will lose his life will save it. What good is it to a man to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Indeed what could a man give that is of equal value to his life? For whoever is ashamed of me and of my teaching, in this unfaithful and wicked generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him, when he comes in his Father's glory with the holy angels. Believe me," he added, "some of those who are standing here will certainly not die, till they have seen the Kingdom of God come in power." 35 36 37 38 9 1

The Transfiguration.

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John, and led them by themselves up a high mountain apart from the rest. Here his appearance underwent a change before their eyes, while his clothes became of a more dazzling white than any bleaching in the world could produce. Then Elijah and Moses appeared to them; and they were talking with Jesus. 2 3 4
"Rabbi," said Peter, interposing, "it is good to be here; let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." For he did not know what to say, since they had become greatly alarmed. Then a cloud came down and enveloped them; and from the cloud there came a voice : 5 6 7
"This is my Son, my beloved. It is to him you must listen."
And suddenly, on looking round, they saw that there was now no one with them but Jesus alone. 8

A Question about Elijah.

As they were going down the mountain side, Jesus cautioned them not to relate what they had seen to a single person, till after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. They clung to these words and discussed with one another what this 'rising from the dead' meant. 9 10 m Hos. 6. 2. l Ps. 2. 7; Isa. 42. 1.

"How is it," they asked Jesus, "that the Rabbis say that 11 Elijah has to come first?"

"Elijah indeed does come first," Jesus answered, "and restore 12 everything; and does not Scripture speak, with regard to the Son of Man, of his undergoing much suffering and being utterly despised? Why, not only has Elijah come, I tell you, 13 but people have treated him just as they pleased, as Scripture says about him."

Cure of an epileptic Boy.

On their joining the other disciples, they saw 14
a great crowd round them, and some Rabbis engaged in a discussion with them. But directly 15 they saw Jesus, the people, in great astonishment, all ran up and greeted him.

"What are you discussing with them?" Jesus asked. 16

"Teacher," one of the people in the crowd answered, "I 17 brought my son to see you, as he has a dumb spirit in him;
and wherever it seizes him, it dashes him down; he foams at 18 the mouth and grinds his teeth, and he is pining away. So I asked your disciples to drive the spirit out, but they failed."

"Faithless generation!" Jesus exclaimed. "How long must I 19 be with you? how long must I have patience with you? Bring the boy to me."

So they brought him to Jesus; but when the boy saw him, the 20 spirit at once threw him into a fit; and he fell on the ground, and rolled about, foaming at the mouth.

"How long has he been like this?" Jesus asked the boy's 21 father.

"From his childhood," he answered; "and it has often 22 thrown him into fire and into water to put an end to his life;
but if you can possibly do anything, for pity's sake help us!"

"Why say 'possibly'?" Jesus replied. "Everything is possible 23 for one who has faith."

The boy's father immediately cried out: 24

"I have faith; help my want of faith!"

But when Jesus saw that a crowd was quickly collecting, he 25 rebuked the wicked spirit:

"Deaf and dumb spirit, it is I who command you. Come out from him and never enter him again."

With a loud cry the spirit threw the boy into fit after fit, and 26 then came out from him. The boy looked like a corpse, so that most of them said that he was dead. But Jesus took his 27 hand, and lifted him; and he stood up. When Jesus had gone 28 indoors his disciples asked him privately why they could not drive the spirit out.

"A spirit of this kind," he said, "can only be made to come 29 out by prayer."

[18] Mal. 4. 5—6.

Jesus, a second time, foretells his Death.

Leaving that place, Jesus and his disciples went 30 on their way through Galilee; but he did not wish any one to know it, for he was explaining to 31 his disciples that the Son of Man was to be betrayed into the hands of his fellow-men, and that they would put him to death, but that, when he had been put to death, he would rise up again after two days. But the dis- 32 ciples did not understand his meaning, and were afraid to question him.

A Lesson in Humility.

After a while they came to Capernaum. 33
When Jesus had gone into the house, he asked them what they had been discussing on the way. But they 34 were silent; for on the way they had been debating with one another which was the greatest. Sitting down, Jesus called 35
the Twelve and said:

"If any one wishes to be first, he must be the last of all, and be servant of all."

Then Jesus took a little child, and placed it in the middle of 36 them. Folding it in his arms, he said to them:

"Any one who, for my sake, welcomes even a little child 37 like this is welcoming me, and any one who welcomes me is welcoming not me, but him who made me his Messenger."

Lesson in Toleration.

"Teacher," John said, "we saw a man driving 38 out evil spirits by using your name, and we tried to stop him, because he did not follow us."

"Do not any of you try to stop the man," Jesus answered, 39
"for there is no one who will use my name in working a miracle, and yet find it possible to speak ill of me easily. The 40 man who is not against us is for us. Indeed, if any one gives 41 you a cup of water because you belong to Christ, believe me, he will certainly get his recompence.

Warning against being a Hindrance to Others.

And 42
if any one proves a hindrance to one of these lowly ones who are learning to believe, it would have been far better for him if he had been thrown into the sea with a great millstone round his neck.

If your hand proves a hindrance to you, cut it off. It 43 would be better for you to enter the Life maimed, than to keep both your hands and go to the Pit, into the fire that cannot be put out. If your foot proves a hindrance to you, cut it off. It 45 would be better for you to enter the Life crippled, than to keep both your feet and be thrown into the Pit. If your eye proves 47 a hindrance to you tear it out. It would be better for you to enter the Kingdom of God with only one eye, than to have both your eyes and be thrown into the Pit, where 'their worm does 48 not die and the fire is not put out.' For it is by fire that every 49 one will be preserved, just as salt preserves. Salt is a 50 good thing, but should salt lose its saltness, what will you use to give it strength? You must have salt in yourselves, and live at peace with one another."

The Journey to Jerusalem.

A Question about Divorce.

10 1 On leaving that place, Jesus went into the district of Judaea on the other side of the Jordan. Crowds gathered about him again; and again, as usual, he began teaching them. 2 Presently some Pharisees came up and asked, by way of testing him, whether a man had a right to divorce his wife.

3 "What direction did Moses give you?" Jesus asked in reply.

4 "Moses," they said, "permitted us to 'draw up in writing a notice of separation, and divorce her.'"

5 "Moses, owing to your perversity," Jesus said, "gave you this direction; 6 but at the beginning of the Creation God 'made them male and female.' 7 8 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother, and the man and his wife shall become one;' and hence they are no longer two but one. 9 What God himself, then, has yoked together, men must not separate."

10 When they were indoors, the disciples asked him again about this, and he said:

11 "Any one who divorces his wife and marries another woman becomes an adulterer as regards his first wife; 12 and if the woman divorces her husband and marries another man, she becomes an adulteress."

Jesus blesses little Children.

13 Some of the people were bringing children to Jesus, for him to touch them; but the disciples found fault with those who had brought them. 14 This vexed Jesus when he saw it.

"Let the children come to me," he said, "do not hinder them; for the Kingdom of God belongs to the childlike. 15 Believe me, unless a man receives the Kingdom of God like a child, he will not even enter it."

16 So he folded the children in his arms, and placing his hands on them, gave them his blessing.

A rich Man questions Jesus.

17 Presently, as Jesus was starting, a man came running up to him, and threw himself on his knees before him.

"Good Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to gain enduring Life?"

18 "Why do you call me good?" Jesus answered. "There is no one good but one—God himself. 19 You know the commandments—Do not kill. Do not commit adultery. Do not steal. Do not say what is false about others. Do not cheat. Honour thy father and thy mother."

6 Deut. 24. 1. 6 Gen. 1. 27. 7 Gen. 2. 24. 19 Deut. 5. 17—20.

"Teacher," he replied, "I have observed all these from my 20 childhood."
Jesus looked at him, and his love went out to him. 21
"There is one thing," he said, "still wanting in you; go and sell all that you have, and give to the poor; and you shall have wealth in Heaven; then come and follow me."
But the man's face clouded at these words, and he went away 22 sad, for he had large possessions.

Lesson about Money.

Then Jesus looked round, and said to his dis- 23
ciples:
"How hard it will be for moneyed men to enter the Kingdom of God!"
The disciples were amazed at these words of his. But Jesus 24 repeated the statement.
"My children," he said, "how hard a thing it is to enter the Kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to get through 25 the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God."
"Then who can be saved?" they exclaimed in the greatest 26
astonishment.
Jesus looked at them, and answered: 27
"With men it is impossible, but not with God; for everything is possible with God."

Rewards of Self-sacrifice.

"But we," began Peter, "we left everything and 28 have followed you."
"Believe me," said Jesus, "there is no one who has left house, 29 or brothers, or sisters, or mother, or father, or children, or land, on account of me and on account of the Good News, but will 30 receive a hundred times as much, even now in the present—houses, and brothers, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and land—though not without persecutions, and, in the age that is coming, enduring Life. But many who are first now 31 will then be last, and the last will be first."

Jesus, a third time, foretells his Death.

One day, when they were on the road, going 32 up to Jerusalem, Jesus was walking in front of the rest; and they were dismayed, while those who were following were filled with alarm. Then, gathering the Twelve round him once more, Jesus began to tell them what was about to happen to him.
"Listen!" he said. "We are going up to Jerusalem; and 33
there the Son of Man will be betrayed to the Chief Priests and Rabbis, and they will condemn him to death, and hand him over to the heathen, who will mock him, spit upon him, flog 34 him, and put him to death; and after two days have passed he will rise up again."

[24] Hos. 6. 2.

Request of James and John.

Presently Zebediah's two sons, James and John, 35
went up to Jesus, and said:
"Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask you."
"What is it you want me to do for you?" he asked. 36
"Grant us this," they replied, "that we may sit, one on 37 your right, and the other on your left, when you come in glory."
"You do not know what you are asking," Jesus said. "Can 38 you drink the cup that I am to drink? or receive the baptism that I am to receive?"
"Yes," they answered, "we can." 39
"You shall indeed drink the cup that I am to drink," Jesus said, "and receive the baptism that I am to receive, but as to a 40 seat at my right or at my left—that is not mine to give, but it belongs to those for whom it has been reserved."
On hearing of this, the other ten were at first much annoyed 41 about James and John. But Jesus called the ten to him, and 42
said:
"Those who are regarded as rulers of the heathen, as you know, lord it over them, and their great men are their masters.
But among you it must not be so. On the contrary, whoever 43 wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and 44 whoever wishes to take a first place among you must be at the call of everyone; for even the Son of Man came not to be 45 served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

The Cure of blind Bartimaeus.

Afterwards they came to Jericho. 46
When Jesus was going out of the town with his disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. 47 Hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to call out:
"Jesus, son of David, take pity on me."
Many of the people repeatedly told him to be quiet; but the 48 man kept calling out all the louder:
"Son of David, take pity on me."
Then Jesus stopped. "Call him," he said. 49
So they called the blind man.
"Courage!" they exclaimed. "Get up; he is calling you."
The man threw off his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. 50
"What do you want me to do for you?" Jesus said, addressing 51
him.
"Great Rabbi," the blind man answered, "I want to recover my sight."
"You may go," Jesus said; "your own faith has cured you." 52
And immediately he recovered his sight, and began to follow Jesus along the road.

IV.—The Last Days.

Jesus enters Jerusalem.

When they were nearly reaching Jerusalem, and had reached Bethphage and Bethany, as far as the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent on two of his disciples. 1 11

"Go to the village facing you," he said; "and as soon as you get into it, you will find a foal tied up there, on which no one has ever ridden; unfasten it, and bring it. And if anybody says to you 'Why are you doing that?', say 'The Master requires it'; and he is sure to send it back here at once." 2 3

They set off, and they found a foal tied up outside a door in the street; and they untied it. Some of the by-standers asked what they were doing, untying the foal, but the two disciples answered as Jesus had told them; and so they allowed them to go. Then they brought the foal to Jesus, and when they had laid their cloaks upon it, he seated himself on it. Many of the people spread their cloaks on the road, while others strewed boughs which they had cut from the fields; and those that led the way, as well as those that followed behind kept shouting: 4 5 6 7 8 9

> "God bless him!
> Blessed is the One who is coming in the name of the Lord!
> Blessed is the coming Kingdom of our father David! 10
> God bless him from on high!"

Jesus then entered Jerusalem, and went into the Temple Courts; and after looking round at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve. 11

The fruitless Fig Tree.

The next day, after they had left Bethany, Jesus became hungry; and noticing a fig tree at a distance in leaf, he went to it to see if by any chance he could find something on it; but, on coming up to it, he found nothing on it but leaves, for it was not the time for figs. So, addressing the tree, he exclaimed: 12 13 14

"May no one ever again eat fruit off you!"

And his disciples heard what he said.

Traders driven from the Temple Courts.

Presently they came to Jerusalem. Then Jesus entered the Temple Courts, and began to drive out those who were buying and selling there. He upset the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of the pigeon-dealers, and would not allow any one to carry anything across the Temple Courts. Then he began to teach. 15 16 17

"Does not Scripture say," he asked, "'My House shall be called a House of Prayer for all the nations'? You, however, have made it a den of robbers."

Now the Chief Priests and Rabbis heard this, and were eager to find a means of making away with Jesus; for they were 18 9 Ps. 118. 25. 26. 10 Ps. 148. 1. 17 Isa. 56. 7; Jer. 7. 11.

afraid of him, since all the people were greatly struck with his teaching. As soon as evening fell, Jesus and his disciples used to go out of the city. 19

Lesson from the doomed Fig Tree.

As they passed in the morning, they noticed that the fig tree was withered up from the very roots. Then Peter recollected what had occurred. 20 21

"Look, Rabbi," he exclaimed, "the fig tree which you doomed is withered up!"

"Have faith in God!" Jesus replied. "Believe me, if any one should say to this hill 'Up, and hurl yourself into the sea!', without a single doubt in his mind, but in the faith that what he says will be done, it will. And therefore I say to you 'Have faith that whatever you ask for in prayer is already granted you, and it will be yours.' And whenever you stand up to pray, forgive any grievance that you have against any one, that so your Father in Heaven also may forgive you your offences." 22 23 24 25

The Priests question the Authority of Jesus.

They came to Jerusalem again. While Jesus was walking about in the Temple Courts, the Chief Priests, Rabbis, and Councillors came up to him. 27

"What right have you to act as you do?" they said. "Who gave you the right to act in this way?" 28

"I will put one question to you," Jesus said. "Answer me that, and then I will tell you what right I have to act as I do. It is about John's baptism. Was it of divine or of human origin? Answer me that." 29 30

They began arguing together: 31

"If we say 'divine,' he will say, 'Why then did not you believe him?' Yet can we say 'human'?"—— 32

They were afraid, however, of the people, for every one regarded John as undoubtedly a Prophet. So their answer to Jesus was: 33

"We do not know."

"I too," replied Jesus, "refuse to tell you what right I have to act as I do."

Parable of the wicked Tenants.

Presently Jesus began to speak to them in stories: 12 1

"A man once planted a vineyard, put a fence round it, dug a wine-press, built a tower, and then let it out to tenants and went abroad. At the proper time he sent a servant to the tenants, to receive from them a share of the produce of the vintage; but they seized him, and beat him, and sent him away empty-handed. A second time the owner sent a servant to them; this man as well they struck about the head, and ill-used. He sent another, but him they killed; and so with many besides, beating some, and killing others. He 2 3 4 5 6

had still one left to send—a son whom he dearly loved, and him he sent to them last of all. 'They will respect my son,' he said.
But those tenants said to one another 'Here is the heir! 7
Come and let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.'
So they seized him, and killed him, and threw his body outside 8 the vineyard. What will the owner of the vineyard do? He 9 will come and put the tenants to death, and let others have the vineyard. Have you never read this passage of 10
Scripture?—

> 'The very stone which the builders despised
> Has now itself become the corner-stone;
> This stone has come from the Lord, 11
> And is marvellous in our eyes.'"

After this his enemies began to be eager to arrest him, but 12 they were afraid of the crowd. They saw that it was at them that he had aimed the story; so they left him alone, and went away.

Question about Taxes. Afterwards they sent to Jesus some of the 13 Pharisees and some of the Herodians, to trap him in the course of conversation. So they came to him and said: 14
"Teacher, we know that you are an honest man, and are not afraid of anybody, indeed you pay no regard to a man's position, but honestly teach the Way of God; are we right in paying taxes to the Emperor, or not? Should we pay, or not pay?"
Knowing their hypocrisy, Jesus said to them: 15
"Why are you putting this test to me? Bring me a florin to look at."
"Whose head and title are these?" he asked, when they had 16 brought it.
"The Emperor's," they said; to which Jesus replied: 17
"What belongs to the Emperor pay to the Emperor, and to God what belongs to God."
They were greatly surprised at him.

Question about the Resurrection. Next came some Sadducees, who maintain that 18 there is no resurrection. Their question was this—
"Teacher, Moses laid down for us in his writings that if a 19 man's brother dies, leaving a widow, but leaving no child, he, as his brother, should marry the widow, and raise up a family for his brother. There were once seven brothers; of whom the eldest 20 took a wife, but died and left no family; and the second 21 took her, and died without family; and so did the third.
All the seven died and left no family. The woman herself 22 died after them all. After the resurrection whose wife will she 23 be, all seven brothers having married her."

10—11 Ps. 118. 22, 23. 19 Deut. 25. 5, 6.

"Is not the reason of your mistake," Jesus answered, "your ignorance of the Scriptures and of the power of God? When people rise from the dead, there is no marrying or being married; but in Heaven they live like angels. As to the dead, and the fact that they rise from the grave, have you never read in the Book of Moses, in the passage about the Bush, how God spoke to him thus—'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? God is not God of dead, but of living, people. You are greatly mistaken."

Question about the Commandments.

Just then there came up one of the Rabbis who had heard their discussions. Knowing that Jesus had answered them well, he asked him:

"Which is the first of all the commandments?"

"The first one," Jesus answered, "is 'Hear, O Israel; the Lord our God is the one Lord; and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength.' The second is this—'Thou shalt love thy neighbour as if he were thyself.' No greater commandment than these is to be found."

"Well answered, Teacher!" the Rabbi exclaimed. "It is true, as you say, that 'there is one God,' and that 'there is no other beside him'; and to 'love him with all one's heart, and with all one's understanding, and with all one's strength' and to 'love one's neighbour as if he were one's self' is far beyond all 'burnt offerings and sacrifices.'"

Seeing that he had answered wisely, Jesus said to him:

"You are not far from the Kingdom of God."

After that no one ventured to question him further.

Jesus puts a Question about the Christ.

While he was teaching in the Temple Courts, Jesus, in his turn, asked them:

"How is it that the Rabbis say that the Christ is David's son? David said himself, speaking under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit—

> 'The Lord said to my master: "Sit at my right hand, Until I put thy enemies beneath thy feet."'

David himself calls him 'master,' so how comes it that he is his son?"

Warnings against the Rabbis.

Meanwhile, the great mass of the people were listening to Jesus with delight. In the course of his teaching, Jesus also said:

"Beware of the Rabbis, who are fond of walking about in long robes, and being greeted in the streets with respect, and having the best seats in the Synagogues, and places of honour at dinners. They are the men that eat widows out of house and home under the pretext of saying long prayers. These men will receive all the heavier sentence."

The Widow's Offering.

Then Jesus sat down opposite the chests for 41
the Temple offerings, and watched how the people were putting money into them. Many rich people were putting in large sums; but one poor widow came, and 42 put in two farthings, which make a halfpenny. On this, call- 43
ing his disciples to him, Jesus said:

"Believe me, this poor widow has put in more than all the others who were putting money into the chests; for every one 44 else put in something from what they had to spare, while she, in her poverty, put in all she possessed—the whole of what she had to live on."

Jesus foretells the Destruction of the Temple.

As Jesus was walking out of the Temple Courts, 1 13
one of his disciples said to him:

"Teacher, look what fine stones and buildings these are!"

"You see these great buildings?" Jesus asked. "Not a 2 single stone will be left here upon another, but every one will be thrown down."

Jesus foretells Wars and Persecutions.

When Jesus had sat down on the Mount of 3 Olives, facing the Temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately to tell them when 4 this would be, and what would be the sign when all this was near its completion. Then Jesus began: 5

"Be careful that no one leads you astray. Many will come 6 taking my name, and saying 'I am He'; and will lead many astray. And when you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do 7 not be alarmed; such things must occur; still the end is not yet here. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against 8 kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This will be the beginning of the birth-pangs.
But look to yourselves; for they will give you up to courts of 9 law; and you will be taken to Synagogues and beaten; and you will be brought up for my sake before governors and kings, that you may witness for me to them. But the Good 10 News must first be proclaimed to every nation. Whenever 11 they give you up for trial, do not be anxious beforehand about what you will say, but say whatever is given you at the moment; for it is not you who will be speaking, but the holy Spirit. Brother, too, will give brother up to death, and a father 12 his child; and children will turn against their parents, and have them put to death; and you will be hated by every one on my 13 account. But the man that endures to the end will be saved. As soon, however, as you 14 see the desecrating Horror set up where it should not be" (the reader will see what is meant) "then those of you who are in Judaea must take refuge in the mountains; and a 15 man on the house-top must not go down, or go in to get anything out of his house; nor must one who is on his farm turn 16 back to get his cloak. And alas for women that are with child, 17 and for those that are nursing infants in those days! Pray, too, 18 that it may not occur in winter-time. For those days will be a 19 time of distress, the like of which has not occurred from the beginning of God's creation down to the present time—and never will again.

And had not the Lord put a limit to those days, there would 20 have been no escape for a single person; but for the sake of God's own chosen People, he did limit them. At that 21 time if anyone says to you 'Look, here is the Christ!' 'Look there he is!', do not believe it; for pretended Christs 22 and pretended Prophets will arise, and display signs and marvels, to lead astray, were it possible, even God's People. As for 23 yourselves, take care; I have told you all beforehand.
In those days, after that time of distress, the sun will be darkened, 24 and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will be falling from 25 the sky, and the forces that are in the skies will be convulsed. Then 26 will be seen the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory; and then he will send the angels, and gather his 27 chosen ones from the four winds, from one end of the world to the other.

The Need for Watchfulness. Learn the lesson taught by a fig-tree. As soon 28 as ever its branches are full of sap, and it is bursting into leaf, you feel sure that summer is near; and so 29 may you, as soon as you see these things happening, feel sure that he is at your very doors. Believe me, even the present 30 generation will not pass away until all this has taken place.
Earth and sky will pass away, but my words will not pass 31 away. But about that day or the hour no one knows— 32 not even the angels in Heaven, nor yet the Son—but only the Father. Take care and be on the alert; for you do not know 33 when the time will be. It is like a man going on a journey, 34 who leaves his home, puts his servants in charge—each having his special duty—and orders the porter to be on the watch. So 35 be on the watch, for you do not know when the Master of the house is coming—whether in the evening, at midnight, at daybreak, or in the morning—for fear he should come suddenly 36 and find you asleep. And what I say to you I say to all—Be 37 on the watch."

Plot against Jesus. It was now two days before the Festival of the 1 14 Passover and of Unleavened Bread. The Chief Priests and Rabbis were eager to find a way of arresting Jesus by a stratagem, and putting him to death; for they said that they had better not do so during the Festival, for fear of a riot. 2

Jesus anointed by a Woman.

When Jesus was still at Bethany, in the house of Simeon the leper, a woman came, while he was at table, with an alabaster jar of choice spikenard perfume of great value. She broke the jar, and poured the perfume on his head. 3 Some of those who were present said to one another indignantly: 4

"Why has the perfume been wasted like this? It could have been sold for more than thirty pounds, and the money given to the poor." 5

"Let her alone," Jesus said, as they began finding fault with her, "why are you interfering with her? This is a beautiful thing that she has done for me. 6 You always have the poor with you, and whenever you like you can do good to them; but you will not always have me. 7 She has done what she could; she has, in anticipation, perfumed my body for my burial. 8 And believe me, wherever, in the whole world, the Good News is proclaimed, what this woman has done will be told in memory of her." 9

Judas agrees to betray Jesus.

After this, Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went to the Chief Priests, to betray Jesus to them. 10 On hearing what he had to say they were glad, and promised to pay him for it. 11 So he began to watch for a way of opportunely betraying Jesus.

Preparation for the Passover.

On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, when it was customary to kill the Passover lambs, his disciples said to Jesus: 12

"Where would you like us to go and make preparations for you to eat the Passover?"

In reply, Jesus sent on two of his disciples with these directions: 13

"Go into the city, and there a man carrying a jug of water will meet you; follow him; and wherever he goes in, say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher says—Where is the room for me to eat the Passover in with my disciples?' 14 He will himself show you a large upstairs room ready prepared; and that is where you are to prepare everything for us." 15

So the disciples set out, went into the city, and found everything just as Jesus told them; and they got the Passover ready. 16

The Passover Meal.

In the evening, Jesus went there with the Twelve, 17 and when they had taken their places and were eating, he said solemnly: 18

"It is one of you who will betray me—one who is eating with me."

18 Ps. 41. 9.

At this they grew sad, and began to ask him, one after another: 19
"It is not I, is it?"
"It is one of you Twelve," Jesus said, "the one beside me 20 who is dipping his bread into the dish. True, the Son of 21 Man is to go, as Scripture says of him, yet alas for that man by whom the Son of Man is being betrayed! For that man 'it would have been better never to have been born!'"

The 'Lord's Supper.'

While they were still eating, Jesus took some 22
bread, and after blessing God, broke it up, and gave it to them, with the words:
"Take it; this is my body."
Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks, gave it to them, 23 and they all drank from it.
"This is my Covenant-blood," he said, "which is poured out on 24 behalf of many. Believe me, I shall never again drink of the 25 juice of the grape, until that day when I shall drink it new in the Kingdom of God."
They then sang a hymn, and went out on to the Mount of 26 Olives.

Peter's Fall foretold.

Presently Jesus said to them: 27
"All of you will fall away; for Scripture says—
'I will strike down the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.'
But, after I have risen from the grave, I will go before you into 28 Galilee."
"Even if everyone else falls away," Peter said, "yet I will 29 not."
"Believe me," answered Jesus, "you yourself to-day—yes, 30 this very night—before the cock crows twice, will disown me three times."
But Peter kept protesting again and again: 31
"Even if I am to die with you, I will never disown you!"
They all said the same.

Agony of Jesus at Gethsemane.

Presently they came to a garden known as 32
Gethsemane.
"Sit down here," Jesus said to his disciples, "while I am praying."
He took Peter, James, and John with him, and began to show 33 signs of great dismay and deep distress of mind.
"I am sad at heart," he said, "sad even to death; stay here, 34 and watch."
Going on a little further, he threw himself on the ground, and 35 began to pray that, if possible, he might escape his time of trial.
"Abba (Father)," he said, "all things are possible to thee; 36 take away this cup from me; yet, not what I wish, but what thou wishest."
Then he came and found the three Apostles asleep. 37

[32] Enoch 38. 2. [34] Exod. 24. 2. [37] Zech. 13. 7.

"Simon," he said to Peter, "are you asleep? Had you not strength to watch for a single hour? Watch and pray," he said 38 to them all, "so that you may not fall into temptation. True, the spirit is eager, but human nature is weak."
Again Jesus went away, and prayed in the same words; and 39 on his return he found them asleep, for their eyes were very 40 weary; and they did not know what to say to him. A third 41 time he came, and said to them:

"Sleep on now, and rest yourselves. It is over! My time has come. Listen! the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of wicked men. Get up, and let us be going. Look! 42 my betrayer is close by."

Jesus taken Prisoner. He had hardly so much as said the words when 43
Judas, who was one of the Twelve, came up.
With him was a crowd of people with swords and staffs, from the Chief Priests, Rabbis, and Councillors. Now the betrayer 44 had arranged a signal with them.

"The man that I kiss," he had said, "will be the one; take him prisoner, and remove him in safe custody."
So as soon as Judas came, he went up to Jesus. 45

"Rabbi!" he said, and kissed him. Then the men seized 46
Jesus, and took him prisoner. But one of those who were 47 standing round, drawing his sword, struck a blow at the High Priest's servant, and cut off his ear. However Jesus interposed, 48 and said to the men:

"Have you come out with swords and staffs to arrest me as if I were a robber? I have been among you day after day in 49 the Temple Courts teaching, and yet you did not take me prisoner; but this is in fulfilment of the Scriptures."
At this his friends forsook Jesus, and all took to flight. 50

Jesus followed by a young Man. A young man did indeed follow him, wrapped in 51 a linen sheet. They tried to take him prisoner; but the young man left the sheet in their hands, 52
and ran away without it.

Trial of Jesus before the High Priest. Then they took Jesus to the High Priest; and 53 all the Chief Priests, Councillors, and Rabbis assembled. Peter, who had followed Jesus at a 54 distance right into the court-yard of the High Priest, was sitting there among the constables, warming himself at the blaze of the fire. Meanwhile the Chief Priests and the whole of the 55 High Council were trying to get evidence against Jesus to warrant his being put to death, but they could not do so; for 56 though there were many who gave false evidence against him, yet their evidence did not agree. Presently some men stood 57 up, and gave this false evidence against him—

"We ourselves heard him say, 'I will myself destroy this 58 Temple made with hands, and, in three days' time, build another made without hands.'"

Yet not even on that point did their evidence agree. Then the 59
High Priest stood forward, and questioned Jesus. 60
"Have you no answer to make?" he asked. "What have you to say to the evidence which these men are giving against you?"
But Jesus remained silent, and made no answer. A second 61 time the High Priest proceeded to question him.
"Are you," he asked, "the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?"
"I am," Jesus answered, "and you will all see the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of the Almighty; and coming in the clouds of the sky." 62
At this the High Priest tore his vestments. 63
"Why do we want any more witnesses?" he asked. "Did 64 you hear his blasphemy? What is your verdict?"
They all voted that he deserved death. Some of those 65 present began to spit at him, and to blind-fold his eyes, and strike him on the head, saying as they did so:
"Now play the Prophet!"—even the constables receiving him with blows.

Peter disowns Jesus.

While Peter was in the court-yard down below, 66
one of the High Priest's maidservants came up; and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked closely at him. 67
"Why, you," she said, "were with Jesus of Nazareth!"
But Peter denied it. 68
"I do not know or understand what you mean," he replied. Then he went out into the porch; and there the maidservant, 69 on seeing him, again began to say to those standing round:
"This is one of them!"
But Peter again denied it. Soon afterwards the bystanders 70 again said to him:
"There can be no doubt that you are one of them, why, you are a Galilean."
But he began to swear with the most solemn imprecations: 71
"I do not know the man you are speaking about."
Just then, for the second time, a cock crowed, and Peter 72 recollected the words that Jesus had said to him—'Before a cock has crowed twice, you will disown me three times'; and as he thought of it, his tears began to fall.

Trial of Jesus before the Roman Governor.

As soon as it was daylight, the Chief Priests, 1 15
after holding a consultation with the Councillors and Rabbis—that is to say, the whole High Council—put Jesus in chains, and took him away, and handed him over to Pilate.
"Are you the King of the Jews?" Pilate asked him. 2
"It is as you say," replied Jesus.

[62] Ps. 110. 1; Dan. 7. 13.

Then the Chief Priests made a number of charges against him; 3 upon which Pilate questioned Jesus again. 4
"Have you no reply to make?" he asked. "Listen how many charges they are making against you."
Jesus, however, still made no reply at all; at which Pilate was 5 astonished. Now at the Festival, Pilate used to grant 6 the people the release of any one prisoner they might ask for.
A man known as Barabbas was in custody, with the rioters who 7 had committed murder during a riot. So when the crowd went 8 up, and began to ask Pilate to follow his usual custom, he 9 answered:
"Do you want me to release the 'King of the Jews' for you?"
For he could see that it was out of jealousy that the Chief 10 Priests had handed Jesus over to him. But the Chief Priests 11 incited the crowd to get Barabbas released instead. Pilate, 12 however, spoke to them again:
"What shall I do then with the man you call the 'King of the Jews'?"
Their cry now was: "Crucify him!" 13
"Why what harm has he done?" Pilate kept saying to 14
them.
However they shouted furiously: "Crucify him!"
So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released Barabbas to 15 them, and after having had Jesus flogged, handed him over to be crucified.

Jesus mocked at by the Soldiers.

The soldiers then removed Jesus, and led him 16
inside the court-yard—into the Government House; and they called the whole regiment together. They dressed Jesus in purple, and having twisted a 17 crown of thorns, put it on him, and then began to salute him. 18
"Long life to you, King of the Jews!" they said.
Then they kept striking him on the head with a cane, spitting 19 at him, and bowing low to him—going down on their knees; and when they had finished mocking him, they took off the 20 purple robe, and put his own clothes on him.
Then they led Jesus out to crucify him; and they compelled a 21 passer-by—Simeon from Cyrene—who was on his way in from the country—the father of Alexander and Rufus—to go with them to carry the cross. They brought Jesus to Golgotha—a 22 Crucifixion of Jesus. name which means 'Skull.' There they wanted to 23 give him drugged wine; but Jesus refused it.
Then they crucified him, and divided his clothes among them, 24 casting lots for them to settle what each should take. It was 25 nine o'clock in the morning when they crucified him. The 26 words of the charge against him, written up over his head, ran thus—'THE KING OF THE JEWS.' And with him 27 they crucified two robbers, one on the right, and the other on the left. The passers-by, meanwhile, kept 29 jeering at him, shaking their heads, as they said:

"Ah! you who 'destroy the Temple and build one in three days,' come down from the cross and save your- 30 self!"
Even the Chief Priests, too, kept saying in mockery to each 31 other, while the Rabbis joined in:
"He has saved others, but cannot save himself! Let the 32 Christ, the 'King of Israel,' come down from the cross now, so that we may see and believe."
Even the men who had been crucified with Jesus kept railing at him.

Death of Jesus.

At mid-day a darkness came over the whole 33
country, lasting till three in the afternoon. And, 34
at three, Jesus called out loudly:
"Eloi, Eloi, lama sabacthani?" which means "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?"
Some of those standing round heard this, and said: 35
"Listen! He is calling for Elijah!"
Then a man ran, soaked a sponge in common wine, put it on the 36 end of a cane, and offered it to him to drink, saying as he did so:
"Wait and let us see if Elijah is coming to take him down."
But Jesus, with a loud cry, expired. The Temple curtain 37 was torn in two from top to bottom. The Roman Officer, 38 who was standing facing Jesus, on seeing the way in which he 39 expired, exclaimed:
"This man must indeed have been a Son of God!"
There were some women also watching from a distance, 40 among them being Mary of Magdala, Mary the mother of James the Little and of Joseph, and Salome—all of whom used 41 to accompany Jesus when he was in Galilee, and attend on him—besides many other women who had come up with him to Jerusalem.

Burial of Jesus.

It was the Preparation Day—the day before 42
the Sabbath. When it was already evening, a 43 much-respected Councillor, Joseph who belonged to Ramah, who was himself living in expectation of the Kingdom of God, ventured to go in to see Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. Pilate, however, was surprised to hear that he was 44 already dead; so he sent for the Officer, and asked if it was really so. On learning the fact from the Officer, he gave 45 Joseph leave to take the corpse. So Joseph, having bought a 46 linen sheet, took Jesus down, wound him in the sheet, and laid him in a tomb which had been cut out of the rock; and then rolled a stone up against the entrance of the tomb.
Mary of Magdala, and Mary the mother of Joses, were 47 watching to see where he was laid.

V.—The Risen Life announced.

Women visit Jesus' Grave. When the Sabbath was over, Mary of Magdala, Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought some spices in order to go and anoint the body of Jesus. And very early on the first day of the week, they went to the tomb, after sunrise. They were saying to one another: 1 2 3 16

"Who will roll the stone away for us from the entrance of the tomb?"

But, on looking up, they saw that the stone, which was a very large one, had been already rolled back. Going into the tomb, 4 5

A young Man announces the Resurrection. they saw, to their dismay, sitting on their right, a young man in a white robe. But he said to them: 6

"Do not be dismayed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth who has been crucified; he has risen from the grave, he is not here! Look! Here is the place where they laid him. Now go, and say to his disciples and to Peter 'He is going before you into Galilee, where you will see him, as he told you.'" 7

So they went out, and ran from the tomb, for they were trembling and bewildered; and they did not say a word to any one, in their awe; * * * * * * 8

A Late Appendix.

[But all that had been enjoined on them they reported briefly to Peter and his companions. Afterwards, Jesus himself sent out by them, from east to west, the sacred and imperishable proclamation of enduring Salvation.]

An Alternative Appendix.

[After his rising again, early on the first day of the week, Jesus appeared first of all to Mary of Magdala, from whom he had driven out seven evil spirits. She went and told the news to those who had been with him and were now in sorrow and tears; yet even they, when they heard that he was alive and had been seen by her, did not believe it. Afterwards, altered in appearance, he made himself known to two of them, as they were walking, on their way into the country. They also went and told the rest, but they did not believe even them. 9 10 11 12 13

Later on, he made himself known to the Eleven themselves as they were at a meal, and reproached them with their want of faith and their perversity, because they did not believe those 14 who had seen him after he had been raised from the dead.

Then he said to them: 15
"Go into all the world, and proclaim the Good News to all creation. Those who believe it, and are baptized, will be 16 saved; but those who reject it will be condemned. Moreover 17 these signs will attend those who believe it. By my name they will drive out evil spirits; they will speak with 'tongues';
they will take up serpents in their hands; and if they drink any 18 poison, it will not hurt them at all; they will place their hands on sick people and they will recover."
So then Jesus, the Master, after he had spoken to them, was 19 taken up into Heaven and sat at the right hand of God. But they 20 set out, and made the proclamation everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the Message by the signs which followed.]

Birth of Jesus

The birth of Jesus Christ took place in this 18 way:—His mother Mary was engaged to be married to Joseph, but before the marriage took place, she was found to be with child—by the power of the holy Spirit. Her intended husband, Joseph, was a good man, and being 19 unwilling to make an example of her, wished to break off his engagement with her privately. He had been think- 20 ing of doing this, when an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream.

"Joseph, son of David," the angel said, "do not be afraid to take Mary for your wife, for her unborn child has been conceived by the power of the holy Spirit. She will give birth to 21 a son; and you shall give him the name Jesus, for he it is who will save his people from their sins."

All this happened in fulfilment of these words of the Lord by 22
the Prophet—

'Behold! the virgin will be with child and give birth to a son, 23
And they will give him the name Immanuel'

—a word which means 'God is with us.' When Joseph 24 awoke from his sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord had directed him. He made Mary his wife, but did not live with her as her husband until after the birth of her son, to whom he gave the name Jesus. 25

23 Isa 7. 14.

Visit of the Magians. After the birth of Jesus at Bethlehem in Judaea, in the reign of King Herod, some Magians from the East arrived in Jerusalem, enquiring: 1 2

"Where is the new-born King of the Jews? for we saw his star in the eastern sky, and have come to do homage to him." 2
When King Herod heard the news, he was much troubled, 3 and his anxiety was shared by the whole of Jerusalem. So he 4 called together all the Chief Priests and Rabbis in the nation, and began making enquiries of them as to where the Christ was to be born.

"At Bethlehem in Judaea," was their answer; "for it is said 5
in the Prophet—

> 6 'And thou, Bethlehem in Judah's land,
> Art in no way least among the chief towns of Judah;
> For out of thee will come a Chieftain—
> One who will shepherd my people Israel.'"

On this, Herod secretly sent for the Magians, and found out 7 from them the exact length of time that the star had been in sight. He then sent them to Bethlehem with directions to go 8 and make careful enquiry about the child, "and as soon as you have found him," he added, "bring me word, that I, too, may go and do homage to him."
The Magians listened to what the King had to say, and then 9 set out. To their surprise the star which they had seen in the eastern sky led them on, until it reached, and hung over, the place where the child was. At the sight of the star they were 10 greatly delighted. Entering the house, they saw the child with 11 his mother Mary, and fell at his feet and did homage to him. Then they unpacked their treasures, and offered to the child presents of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. But afterwards, as 12 they had been warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, they returned to their own country another way.

Flight into Egypt. After they had left, an angel of the Lord 13 appeared to Joseph in a dream, and said:

"Get up and take the child and his mother, and go for refuge into Egypt; and stay there until I tell you otherwise; for Herod is going to search for the child, in order to put him to death."
Joseph got up, and taking with him the child and his mother 14 by night, retired to Egypt, where he stayed until Herod's death; 15 in fulfilment of these words of the Lord by the Prophet—

> 'Out of Egypt I called my Son.'

6 Mic. 5. 2. 15 Hos. 11. 1.

Herod kills the Children. As soon as Herod found that he had been trifled with by the Magians, he was very angry. He sent and put to death all the boys in Bethlehem and the whole of that neighbourhood who were two years old or under, to suit the exact date which he had ascertained from the Magians. 16

Then were fulfilled these words spoken through the Prophet Jeremiah— 17

'A voice was heard in Ramah, 18
Weeping and much lamentation—
Rachel weeping for her children;
And she refused all comfort,
"Because," said she, "they are gone!"'

Removal from Egypt to Nazareth. But on the death of Herod, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, and said: 19

"Get up and take the child and his mother, and go into the Land of Israel, for those who wanted to take the child's life are dead." 20

Joseph got up, and taking the child and his mother with him, went to the Land of Israel. 21

But hearing that Archelaus had succeeded his father Herod as King of Judaea, he was afraid to go back there; and in consequence of a warning received in a dream, he retired to the part of the country called Galilee. There he settled in the town of Nazareth, in fulfilment of these words in the Prophets—'He shall be called a Nazarene.' 22 23

II.—The Preparation.

John's Proclamation. In those days John the Baptist first appeared, making this proclamation in the desert of Judaea— 1 3

"Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is close at hand." 2

This John it was who was spoken of in these words in the Prophet Isaiah— 3

'The voice of one loudly crying in the desert:
"Make ready the way of the Lord,
Make his paths straight."'

As for John, his clothing was of camels' hair, and he had a belt of leather round his waist, and his food consisted of locusts and wild honey. 4

Upon this, Jerusalem, with all Judaea, and the whole neighbourhood of the Jordan, went to him and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. 5 6

[a] Ver. 31. 15. [20] Exod. 4. 19. [2] Dan. 2. 44. [3] Isa. 40. 3. [4] 2 Kings 1. 8.

When, however, John saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to receive his baptism, he said to them: 7

"You offspring of vipers! Who has prompted you to seek refuge from the coming judgement? Make your life, then, consistent with your repentance. Do not dream of saying to yourselves 'Abraham is our ancestor,' for, I tell you, out of these very stones God is able to raise descendants for Abraham! Already, too, the axe is lying at the root of the trees. So every tree that fails to bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire. I, for my part, baptize you in water to teach repentance; but the One who is Coming after me is more powerful than I am, and I am not of sufficient importance even to carry his shoes. He will baptize you in the holy Spirit and in fire. His flail is in his hand, and he will thoroughly clear his threshing-floor, and store his corn in the barn, while the chaff he will burn with inextinguishable fire." 8 9 10 11 12

Baptism of Jesus. At this time Jesus came up from Galilee to the Jordan, to John, to be baptized by him. But John tried to prevent him. 13 14

"It is I," he said, "who need to be baptized by you; why then do you come to me?"

"Let it be so for the present," Jesus answered, "for it is proper for us to satisfy in this way every religious requirement." 15

Upon this, John yielded. After his baptism Jesus had but just come up from the water, when the sky opened, and he saw the Spirit of God coming down, like a dove, and alighting upon him, while from the sky came a voice which said: 16 17

"This is my son, my beloved,
In whom I delight."

Temptation of Jesus. Then Jesus was led up into the desert by the Spirit to be tempted by the Devil. And after he had fasted for forty days and forty nights, he became hungry. 1 2 4

Then the Tempter came up to him, and said: 3

"If you are really the Son of God, tell these stones to become loaves of bread."

But Jesus answered: "Scripture says— 4

'It is not on bread alone that man is to live, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"

The Devil next took him to the Holy City, and placing him on the parapet of the temple, said to him: 5 6

"If you are really the Son of God, throw yourself down, for Scripture says—

'He will give his angels commands about thee,
And on their hands they will upbear thee,
That thou may'st never strike thy foot against a stone.'"

11 Ps. 118. 26. 17 Ps. 2. 7; Isa. 42. 1. 3 Ps. 2. 7. 4 Deut. 8. 3. 6 Ps. 91. 11—12.

"Scripture also says," Jesus answered, 7
"'Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.'"
The third time, the Devil took Jesus on to a very high moun- 8 tain, and showing him all the kingdoms of the world and their grandeur, said to him: 9
"Everyone of these I will give you, if you will fall at my feet and do homage to me."
Upon this Jesus said to him: 10
"Begone, Satan! for Scripture says—
'Thou shalt do homage to the Lord thy God, and worship him only.'" Then the Devil left him alone, and angels came and attended 11 on him.

III.—The Work in Galilee.

Jesus settles at Capernaum. When Jesus heard that John had been given 12 into custody, he retired to Galilee. Afterwards, 13 leaving Nazareth, he went and settled at Caper-naum, which is by the lake-side, within the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali; in fulfilment of these words in the Prophet 14 Isaiah—

'The Land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, 15
And that along the Road by the Lake, and beyond the Jordan,
With Galilee of the heathen—
The people who were sitting in darkness 16
Have seen a great Light,
And for those who were sitting in the shadow-land of Death,
A Light has risen!'

Jesus begins his Work. At that time Jesus began to make this procla- 17 mation—
"Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is close at hand."

Call of four Disciples. One day, as Jesus was walking by the Lake of 18 Galilee, he saw two brothers—the Simon who is called Peter and his brother Andrew, who were fishermen—casting a net into the lake.
"Come and follow me," Jesus said, "and I will set you to 19 fish for men."
At once the two men left their nets and followed him. 20
Going further on, he saw two other men who were also 21 brothers, Zebediah's sons James and his brother John, in the 1 Deut. 6. 16. 10 Deut. 6. 13. 15—16 Isa. 9. 1—2.

boat with their father, mending their nets. Jesus called them, 22 and at once they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

Jesus preaches in Galilee.

Jesus then went round the whole of Galilee, 23 teaching in their Synagogues, proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom, and curing every kind of disease and illness among the people; and his fame 24 extended through the whole of Syria. People brought to him all who were ill with various diseases, or who were suffering pain—any who were either possessed, or lunatic, or paralyzed; and he cured them. He was followed, too, by large crowds 25 from Galilee, the district of the Ten Towns, Jerusalem, Judaea, and the other side of the Jordan.

'THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT.'

At the sight of the crowds of people, Jesus 1 5 went up the hill, and when he had taken his seat, his disciples came up to him; and he began to 2 teach them as follows:

The truly Happy.

"Happy are the poor—in spirit, for it is to them 3 that the Kingdom of Heaven belongs.
Happy are the sorrowful, for it is they who will be comforted. 4
Happy are the gentle, for it is they who will inherit the earth. 5
Happy are those that hunger and thirst—for the Right, for it 6 is they who will be plentifully fed.
Happy are the merciful, for it is they who will have mercy 7 shown them.
Happy are the pure—in heart, for it is they who will see God. 8
Happy are the peacemakers, for it is they who will be called 9 sons of God.
Happy are those that have been persecuted—in the cause of 10
Right, for it is to them that the Kingdom of Heaven belongs.
Happy are you whenever people abuse you, and persecute 11 you, and say everything bad of you—untruly, and on my account. Be glad and rejoice, because your recompence in 12 Heaven is great; it was indeed, in just the same way, that people persecuted the Prophets who preceded you.

A real Disciple of Jesus.

It is you who are the Salt of the earth; but 13 should salt lose its strength, what will you use to restore its saltness? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown away, and trampled underfoot. It is 14 you who are the Light of the world. It is impossible for a town that stands on a hill to escape notice. Nor do people 15

Lesson from a Lamp.

light a lamp and cover it over, but they put it on the lamp-stand, where it gives light to every one in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before 16 the eyes of your fellow-men, so that, seeing your good actions, they may praise your heavenly Father.

The old Law and the new—

Do not imagine that I have come to do away 17 with the Law or the Prophets; I have not come

[3] Isa. 61. 1. [4] Isa. 61. 2. [5] Ps. 37. 11. [6] Ps. 24. 4.

to do away with them, but to complete them. For, believe 18 me, till the earth and the sky disappear, not even the dot of an
'i' or the cross of a 't' will disappear from the Law—not until all is done. Any one therefore who breaks one of the 19 least of these commandments, and teaches others to do so, will be counted of least importance in the Kingdom of Heaven;
whereas any one who acts up to them, and teaches others to do so, will be counted great in the Kingdom of Heaven.
Unless, indeed, your religion is superior to that of the Phari- 20 sees and Rabbis, you will not, I tell you, even enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

on Anger,

You have heard that to our ancestors it was 21 said—'Thou shalt not commit murder, and whoever commits murder shall be liable to be brought to trial.' I, 22 however, tell you that any one that is angry with his brother will be liable to be brought to trial; and if any one says to his brother
'You fool,' he will be liable to be brought before the High Council, while if any one says 'You scoundrel,' he will be liable to be sent to the fiery Pit. So if, when presenting your gift at the 23 altar, you there remember that your brother has some grievance against you, leave your gift there, before the altar, and go and 24 make friends with your brother first; then come, and present your gift. Be ready for a reconciliation with your opponent, 25 even when you meet him on your way to the court; for fear he should hand you over to the judge, and the judge to his officer, and so you should be thrown into prison. Believe me, you will 26 not get out from there until you have paid the last farthing due.

on Impurity,

You have heard that it was said—'Thou shalt not 27 commit adultery.' I, however, tell you that 28 any one who looks at a woman with a lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. So if your right eye is a 29 snare to you, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body, than to have the whole of it thrown into the Pit. And if your right hand is a snare to you, cut 30 it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body, than to have the whole of it go down to the Pit.

on Divorce,

It was also said—'Let any one who divorces his wife 31 serve her with a notice of separation.' I, how- 32 ever, tell you that any one who divorces his wife, except on the ground of her unchastity, leads to her becoming an adulteress;
while any one who marries her after her divorce becomes an adulterer.

on Oaths,

Again, you have heard that to our ancestors it was 33 said—'Thou shalt not break an oath, but thou shalt keep thine oaths as a debt due to the Lord.' I, however, tell you not 34 to take an oath at all, either by Heaven, since that is God's 21 Exod. 20. 13. 27 Exod. 20. 14. 31 Deut. 24. 3. 33 Num. 30. 2; Deut. 23. 21.

throne, or by the earth, since that is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, 35 since that is the city of the Great King. Nor must you swear by 36 your head, since you cannot make a single hair either white or black. Your words then should be simply 'Yes' or 'No'; 37 anything beyond this has evil at its root.

on Revenge, You have heard that it was said—'An eye for an 38 eye and a tooth for a tooth.' I, however, tell you 39 not to resist a man who injures you; but if any one strikes one of you on the right cheek, turn the other to him too; and when any 40 one wants to go to law with you and get your coat, let him take your cloak as well; and if any one forces you to go one mile, go 41 two miles with him. Give to those that ask of you; and, when 42 people want to borrow from you, do not turn away from them.

on Love. You have heard that it was said—'Thou shalt love 43 thy neighbour and hate thy enemy.' I, how- 44 ever, say to you—Love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you, that you may become true children of your 45 heavenly Father; for he causes his sun to rise upon the bad as well as the good, and sends rain upon those who do wrong as well as upon those who do right. For if you love only those that 46 love you, what recompence will you get? Even tax-gatherers do that! And if you show courtesy to your brothers only, what 47 more are you doing than others? Even heathen do that!
You then are to be perfect as your heavenly Father is. 48

About Giving. Take care not to fulfil your religious duties in 1 6 public with a view to being seen by others; if you do, your heavenly Father has no recompence for you.
So when you distribute charity, do not have a trumpet blown 2 in front of you, as hypocrites do in the Synagogues and in the streets, that they may be praised by other men. That, believe me, is all their recompence! But when you are giving in 3 charity, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your charities may be in secret; and then your 4
Father, who sees what is done in secret, will repay you.

About Praying. And when you pray, you are not to behave as 5 hypocrites do. They like to pray standing in the Synagogues and at the corners of the streets, for others to see them. That, believe me, is all their recompence! But whenever 6 one of you prays, let him go into his own room, shut the door, and pray to his Father who is in secret; and then his Father, who sees what is done in secret, will repay him. When praying, do not 7 say the same words over and over again, as is done by the heathen, who fancy that by using many words they will get a hearing. Do not copy their example, for God, your Father, 8 knows your needs before you ask him. You, therefore, 9 are to pray in this way—

34 Isa. 66. 1. 35 Ps. 48. 2. 38 Exod. 21. 24. 43 Lev. 19. 18. 43 Deut. 18. 13.
6 Isa. 26 30; 2 Kings 4. 33.

The 'Lord's Prayer.'

'Our heavenly Father,
May thy Name be held holy,
thy Kingdom come,
and thy will be done—
on earth, as in Heaven.
Give us to-day
our bread for the day before us;
And forgive us our debts,
as we, too, have forgiven our debtors;
And do not take us into temptation,
but rescue us from Evil.'

For if you forgive other people their offences, your heavenly Father also will forgive you yours; whereas if you do not forgive others their offences, your Father will not forgive yours either.

About Fasting.

And when you fast, do not put on gloomy looks, as hypocrites do who disfigure themselves for other people to see that they are fasting. That, believe me, is all their recompence! But when one of you fasts, let him anoint his head and wash his face, so that others may not notice that he is fasting, but that his Father who is in secret may; and then his Father, who sees what is done in secret, will repay him.

About the true Treasure.

Do not store up treasures for yourselves on earth, where moths and rust destroy them, and thieves break in and steal. But store up treasures for yourselves in Heaven, where no moths or rust destroy them, and where thieves do not break in or steal. For where your treasure is, there, too, will your heart be.

Light and Darkness.

The lamp of the body is the eye. If your eye is unclouded, your whole body will be lighted up; but if your eye is diseased, your whole body will be dark. And if the inner light is darkness, how intense must that darkness be!

The Cares of Life.

No one can be servant to two masters, for either he will dislike one and like the other, or he will attach himself to one and scorn the other. You cannot serve both God and Gold.

That is why I say to you—Do not be anxious about your life here—what you will have to eat or drink; nor yet about the clothes for your body. Is not your life more important than its food, and your body than its clothes? Look at the wild birds—they neither sow, nor reap, nor gather into barns; and yet your heavenly Father feeds them! And are not you worth more than they? Which of you, however anxious he is about it, can prolong his life a single moment? What use either is there in being anxious about clothing? Mark the wild lilies, how they grow! They neither toil nor spin; yet, I tell you, even Solomon in all his grandeur was not robed like one of them. If, then, God clothes in this way the very wild-flowers, which are living to-day, and will be used for the oven to-morrow, will he not much more do the same for you, you who have so little faith? Do not then ask anxiously 'What can we get to eat?' or 'What can we get to drink?' or 'What can we get to wear?' For all these things the heathen are eager about, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But first be eager about his Kingdom, and about what he thinks right, and then all these things will be given you in addition. So do not be anxious about to-morrow, tor to-morrow will have anxieties of its own. Each day brings trouble enough for itself.

About Judging of Others.

Do not sit in judgement upon others, so that others may not sit in judgement upon you. For just as you judge others, you yourselves will be judged, and the same measure that you give will be given to you. Why, too, do you look at the splinter in your brother's eye, and pay no attention at all to the beam in your own's? How are you going to say to your brother 'Let me take out the splinter from your eye,' when all the time there is a beam in your own? Hypocrite! Take out the beam from your own eye first, and then you will see clearly how to take out the splinter from your brother's.

Do not give what is sacred to dogs; nor yet throw your pearls before pigs, for fear they should trample them under their feet, and then turn and attack you.

Encouragement to Prayer.

Ask, and your prayer will be granted; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you. Indeed, it is always those that ask who get, those that search who find, and those that knock to whom the door will be opened. Who among yourselves, when his son asks him for a loaf, will give him a stone, or when he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? Well then, if you, wicked as you are, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give good things to those that ask him!

The Golden Rule.

Always, then, treat others as you would like them to treat you; that indeed is both the Law and the Prophets.

The two Roads.

Go in by the small gate. Broad and spacious indeed is the road which leads to destruction, and those that go in by it are many; whereas small is the gate, and narrow the road, which leads to Life, and those that find it are few.

True and false Teachers.

Beware of pretended Teachers—men who come to you wrapped in sheepskins, but are ravenous wolves underneath. It is by the fruit of their lives that you must judge them. Do people gather bunches of grapes from thorn-bushes, or figs from thistles? So, too, every sound tree bears good fruit, while an unhealthy tree bears bad fruit. It is not possible for a sound tree to bear bad fruit, nor for an unhealthy tree to bear good fruit. Every tree that fails to bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Hence it is by their fruit that you must judge Teachers. It is not every 21 one who says to me 'Master! Master!' who will enter the Kingdom of Heaven, but only those who do the will of my heavenly Father. On that Day many will say to me 'Master, 22 Master, was it not in your name that we taught, and in your name that we drove out evil spirits, and in your name that we did many miracles?' And then I shall say to them plainly 'I 23 never knew you. Leave me, you who live in sin.'

The two Foundations.

Every one, then, that listens to this teaching 24 of mine and acts upon it may be compared to a prudent man, who builds his house upon rock. Down comes 25 the rain, the rivers rise, the winds blow and beat upon the house, and yet it does not fall, because its foundations are upon rock. But every one that listens to this teaching of 26 mine and does not act upon it may be compared to a foolish man, who builds his house on sand. Down comes the rain, 27 the rivers rise, the winds blow and strike upon that house, and it falls; and great indeed is its downfall."

By the time Jesus had finished speaking, the crowd was 28 greatly struck with his teaching. For he was teaching them 29 like one who had authority, and not like their own Rabbis.

Cure of a Leper.

When Jesus had come down from the hill, great 1 8 crowds of people followed him. And here 2 he saw a leper who came up and bending low to him, said:
"Master, if only you are willing, you are able to heal me."
Stretching out his hand, Jesus touched him, saying as he did 3 so:
"I am willing; be healed."
Instantly his leprosy was healed; and then Jesus said to him: 4
"Take care not to tell anyone, but go and show yourself to the Priest, and offer the gift which Moses directed, for a proof of your cure to the people."

Cure of an Officer's Servant.

After Jesus had entered Capernaum, a Captain 5 in the Roman army came up to him, begging for help.
"Sir," he said, "my manservant is lying ill at my house with 6 a stroke of paralysis, and is suffering terribly."
"I will come and cure him," Jesus replied. 7
"Sir," the Captain went on, "I am not important enough for 8
you to come under my roof; but only say the word and my manservant will be cured. For I myself am a man under the 9 orders of others, with soldiers under me; and if I say to one of them 'Go,' he goes, and to another 'Come,' he comes, and to my servant 'Do so and so,' he does it."

On hearing this, Jesus was surprised, and said to those following him: 10

"Never in any Israelite have I met with such faith as this! Yes, and many will come in from East and West and take their 11 places at table beside Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, in the Kingdom of Heaven; while the heirs to the Kingdom will be 12 'banished into the darkness' outside, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth."

Then Jesus said to the Captain: 13

"Go now, and it shall be according to your faith."

And the man was cured that very instant.

Cure of Peter's Mother-in-law.

When Jesus went into Peter's house, he found 14 Peter's mother-in-law down with fever. On his 15 touching her hand, the fever left her, and she rose and began waiting upon him.

Cure of many Persons.

In the evening the people brought to Jesus 16 many who were possessed; and he drove out the spirits with a word, and cured all who were ill, in 17 fulfilment of these words in the Prophet Isaiah—

'He took our infirmities on himself, and bore the burden of our diseases.'

Tests of Sincerity.

Seeing a crowd round him, Jesus gave directions 18 to cross the lake.

Here a Rabbi came up to him, and said: 19

"Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

"Foxes have holes," Jesus answered, "and wild birds have 20 roosts, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."

"Master," said another, who was a disciple, "give me leave 21 to go and bury my father first."

But Jesus answered: 22

"Follow me, and leave dead men to bury their own dead."

Jesus stills a Storm.

Then he got into the boat, followed by his dis- 23 ciples. Suddenly so great a storm began on the 24 lake, that the waves broke right over the boat. Jesus himself was asleep; and the disciples came and roused 25 him.

"Master," they said, "save us, our lives are in danger!"

"Why are you so cowardly?" said Jesus. "How little faith 26 you have!"

Then Jesus got up and rebuked the winds and the lake, and a great calm followed. The men were amazed, and 27 exclaimed:

"What kind of man is this, that even the winds and the lake obey him!"

11 Mal. 1. 11. 12 Enoch 10. 4. 17 Isa. 53. 4. 20 Dan. 7. 13.

Cure of Two Madmen.

Afterwards, on getting to the other side—the country of the Gadarenes—Jesus met two men who were possessed, coming out of the tombs. They were so extremely violent that no one was able to pass that way. Suddenly they called out: 28

"What do you want with us, you Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before our time?" 29

A long way off, there was a drove of many pigs, feeding; and the evil spirits begged Jesus, if he were going to drive them out, to send them into the drove of pigs. 30 31

"Go," he said. 32

So the spirits came out, and went into the pigs; and the whole drove rushed down the steep slope into the lake, and met their death in the water! At this the men who tended them ran away to the town, and carried the news of all that had occurred, including what had happened to the possessed men. At the news the whole town went out to meet Jesus, and when they saw him, they entreated him to go away from their district. 33 34

Cure of a paralyzed Man.

Afterwards Jesus got into a boat, crossed the lake, and came to his own city. Here some people brought to him a paralyzed man on a bed. 9 1 2

When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the man:

"Courage, my son! your sins are forgiven."

Then some of the Rabbis said to themselves: 3

"That is blasphemy!"

Knowing their thoughts, Jesus said: 4

"Why do you cherish such wicked thoughts? Which, I ask, is the easier?—to say 'Your sins are forgiven'? or to say 'Get up, and walk'? But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins—" then he addressed the paralyzed man—"Get up, take your bed, and go home." 5 6

The man got up and went home. When the crowd saw this, they were awe-struck, and praised God for giving such power to men. 7 8

Call of Matthew.

As Jesus was passing on, he saw a man, called Matthew, sitting in the tax-office, and said to him: 9

"Follow me."

Matthew got up and followed him.

Jesus blamed for his Companions.

Later on, when he was in the house at table, a number of tax-gatherers and godless people had come in, and were at table with Jesus and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples: 10 11

"Why does your Teacher eat in the company of tax-gatherers and godless people?"

On hearing this, Jesus said: 12

"It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but only those who are ill. Go and learn what this means—'It is mercy I wish for, 13 and not sacrifice'; for I did not come to invite the pious, but the godless."

The Disciples blamed for not Fasting.

At this point John's disciples came to Jesus, 14
and asked:

"Why is it that we and the Pharisees are fasting, while your disciples are not."

Jesus answered: 15

"Is it possible for the bridegroom's friends to mourn as long as he is with them? A time, however, will come, when the bridegroom will be parted from them, and they will fast then.

No one ever puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; 16 for such a patch tears away from the garment, and a still worse rent is made. Nor do people put new wine into old 17 wine-skins; for, if they do, the skins burst, the wine runs out, and the skins are lost; but they put new wine into fresh skins, and so both are preserved."

Jair's Request.

As Jesus was speaking to them in this way, a 18
President of a Synagogue came up, and bending low before him, said:

"My daughter has just died; but come and place your hand on her, and she will be restored to life."

So Jesus got up and followed him, and his disciples went too. 19

Meanwhile a woman, who had been suffering from hae- 20

Cure of an afflicted Woman.

morrhage for twelve years, came up behind and touched the tassel of his cloak.

"If I only touch his cloak," she said to herself, 21
"I shall get well."

Turning and seeing her, Jesus said: 22

"Courage! my daughter, your own faith has made you well."

And the woman got well from that moment. When 23

The President's Daughter restored to Life.

Jesus reached the President's house, he saw the fife-players, and a number of people all in confusion.

"Go away," he said; "the little girl is not 24 dead; she is asleep."

They began laughing at him; but, when the people had been 25 sent out, Jesus went in, and took the little girl's hand, and she got up. The news of this spread over all that part of 26 the country.

Cure of two blind Men.

As Jesus was passing on from there, he was 27 followed by two blind men, who kept calling out:

"Take pity on us, Son of David!"

When he had gone indoors, the blind men came up to him; 28 and Jesus said to them:

"Do you believe that I am able to do this?"

13 Hos. 6. 6. 20 Num. 15. 38.

"Yes, Master!" they said.
Upon that he touched their eyes, and said: 29
"It shall be according to your faith."
Then their eyes were opened. Jesus sternly cautioned 30 them to be careful not to let any one hear of it. But the men 31 went out, and spread the news about him through all that part of the country.

Cure of a dumb Man.

Just as they were going out, some people brought 32 up to Jesus a dumb man who was possessed; and 33 as soon as the evil spirit had been driven out, the dumb man spoke. The people were astonished at this.
"Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel!" they exclaimed; but the Pharisees said: 34
"He drives the evil spirits out by the help of their own chief."

The People Taught and cured.

Then Jesus went round all the towns and the 35 villages, teaching in their Synagogues, proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom, and curing every kind of disease and sickness.
But when he saw the crowds, his heart was touched with 36 pity for them, because they were distressed and harassed like sheep without a shepherd; and he said to his disciples: 37
"The harvest is heavy, but the labourers are few. So pray 38 to the Owner of the harvest to send labourers to do the harvesting."

The twelve Apostles commissioned.

Then calling his Twelve Disciples to him, Jesus 1 10 gave them authority over wicked spirits, so that they could drive them out, as well as the power of curing every kind of disease and sickness.
The names of the Twelve Apostles are these: 2
The Simon who is called Peter, first, and his brother Andrew, James the son of Zebedíah, and his brother John;
Philip and Bartholomew; 3
Thomas, and Matthew the tax-gatherer;
James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus;
Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot—the one who betrayed 4
him.

Directions to the Apostles.

These twelve Jesus sent out, after giving them 5
the following directions—

"Do not go to the heathen, or enter any Samaritan town, but 6 make your way to the lost sheep of Israel. And on your way 7 make this proclamation—'The Kingdom of Heaven is close at hand.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, heal lepers, drive out evil 8 spirits. You have received free of cost, give free of cost.
Do not provide yourselves with gold, or silver, or pence in your 9 pockets; not even with a bag for the journey, or a change of 10 clothes, or shoes, or even a stick; for the worker is worth his food. Whatever town or village you go to stay at, inquire for 11 some worthy person there, and remain there till you leave. As 12 you enter his house, express your good wishes for it. Then, if 13 the house proves worthy, let your blessing rest upon it, but if it proves unworthy, let your blessing return upon yourselves. If 14 no one welcomes you, or listens to what you say, as you leave that house or that town, shake off its dust from your feet.

Believe me, the doom of the land of Sodom and Gomorrah will 15 be more bearable in the 'Day of Judgement' than the doom of that town.

Cautions to the Apostles.

Remember, I am sending you out like sheep 16 among wolves. So be as wise as serpents, and as blameless as doves. And be on your guard against 17 your fellowmen, for they will give you up to courts of law, and flog you in their Synagogues; and you will be taken, for my 18 sake, before governors and kings, so as to witness for me to them and to the heathen. Whenever they give you up, do not 19 be anxious about how you will speak or what you will say, for you will be told at the moment what to say; for it is not you 20 who will be speaking, but the Spirit of your Father which speaks within you. Yes, and brother will give brother up to 21 death, and a father his child; and children will turn against their parents, and have them put to death; and you will be hated by 22 every one on my account. But the man that endures to the end will be saved. But when they persecute you in one town, 23 escape to the next; for, believe me, you will not have got to the end of the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

A scholar is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his 24 master. It is enough for a scholar to be treated 25 like his teacher, and a servant like his master. If the head of the house has been called Baal-zebub, how much more the members of his household! Do not, 26 therefore, be afraid of them. There is indeed nothing covered up which will not be uncovered, nor anything kept secret which will not become known. What I tell you in the dark, say again 27 in the light; and what is whispered in your ear, proclaim upon the housetops. And do not be afraid of those that kill the 28 body, yet are unable to kill the soul; but rather be afraid of him who is able to destroy both soul and body in the Pit. Do 29 not two sparrows sell for a halfpenny? and yet not one of them will fall to the ground without your Father's consent. While 30 as for you, the very hairs of your head are all counted. Do not 31 therefore be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows.

Encouragements to the Apostles.

Every one indeed who will acknowledge me before his fel- 32 low men, I, on my part, will acknowledge before my heavenly 15 Enoch 10. 6. 21 Mic. 7. 6.

Father; but if any one disowns me before his fellow men, I too will disown him before my heavenly Father. 33

Cost of Christ's Service.

Do not imagine that I have come to bring peace upon the earth. I have come to bring, not peace, but the sword. Indeed I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. A man's enemies will be the members of his own household. Those who love father or mother more than me are not worthy of me; and those who love son or daughter more than me are not worthy of me. And the man who does not take his cross and follow where I go is not worthy of me. Those who have secured their lives will lose them, while those who, for my sake, have lost their lives will secure them. 34 35 36 37 38 39

Rewards of Service.

Those who welcome you are welcoming me; and those who welcome me are welcoming him who made me his Messenger. Those who welcome a Prophet, because he is a Prophet, will get a Prophet's recompence; and those who welcome a good man, because he is a good man, will get a good man's recompence. And if any one gives but a cup of cold water to one of these lowly ones because he is a disciple, believe me, he will certainly get his recompence." 40 41 42

Jesus preaches in the Towns.

After Jesus had finished giving instructions to his Twelve Disciples, he left that place in order to teach and preach in their towns. 1 11

John's Message to Jesus.

Now John heard in prison what the Christ was doing, and sent some of his disciples with this message— 2 3

"Are you the Coming One, or are we to look for some one else?"

To this question Jesus' answer was— 4

"Go and report to John what you hear and see—The blind are gaining their sight and the lame are walking, the lepers are being healed and the deaf are getting their hearing, the dead too are being raised to life, and the Good News is being told to the poor. And happy is the man who finds no hindrance in me. 5 6

Testimony of Jesus to John.

While these men were going back, Jesus began to say to the crowds with reference to John: 7

"What did you go out into the desert to look at? A reed waving in the wind? If not, what did you go out to see? A man richly dressed? Why, those who wear rich things are to be found in the courts of kings! What then did you go out for? To see a Prophet? Yes, indeed, and something more 8 9 35—36 Mic. 7. 6. [8] Ps. 118. 26. [9] Isa. 61. 1.

than a Prophet; for this is the very man of whom Scripture 10 says—

'Behold, I am myself sending my Messenger before thy face,
And he shall prepare thy way before thee.'

Believe me, no one born of a woman has yet arisen who is 11 greater than John the Baptist; and yet those of least importance in the Kingdom of Heaven are greater than he. From 12 the time of John the Baptist, till this very hour, the Kingdom of Heaven has been taken by force, and men using force have been seizing it. For the teaching of all the Prophets and of the 13 Law continued till the time of John; and—if you are ready to 14 accept it—John is himself the Elijah who was to come.
Let all who have ears listen! 15
But to what shall I 16 compare the present generation? It is like some little children sitting in the market-places and calling out to their play- 17 mates—

'We have played the fife for you, but you have not danced;
We have wailed, but you have not wrung your hands.'

For when John came—a man who neither ate nor drank like 18 other people—men said 'He has an evil spirit in him'; and now 19 that the Son of Man has come, eating and drinking like other people, they are saying 'Here is a glutton and a wine-drinker, a friend of tax-gatherers and godless people!' In all this, Wisdom is vindicated by her actions."

Doom of the Towns of Galilee.

Jesus then began to reproach the towns in 20 which most of his miracles had been done, because they had not repented:

"Alas for you, Chorazin! Alas for you, Bethsaida! For if 21 the miracles which have been done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented in sack-cloth and ashes long ago. Yet, I tell you, the doom of Tyre and Sidon 22 will be more bearable in the Day of Judgement than yours.
And you, too, Capernaum! Will you exalt yourself to Heaven? 23
You shall go down to the Place of Death. For if the miracles which have been done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have been standing to this day. Yet, I tell you the doom 24 of Sodom will be more bearable in the Day of Judgement than yours."

Blindness of human Wisdom.

At that same time Jesus uttered the words: 25
"I thank thee, Father, Lord of Heaven and earth, that, though thou hast hidden these things from the wise and clever, thou hast revealed them to the childlike! Yes, Father, I thank thee that this has seemed good to 26 thee. Everything has been committed to me by my 27 Father; nor does any one fully know the Son except the Father, or fully know the Father except the Son and any one to 10 Mal. 3. 1. 23 Isa. 14. 13—15.

whom the Son may choose to reveal him. Come to 28
Jesus invites the Weary. me, all you who are toiling and burdened, and I will give you rest! Take my yoke upon you, and 29 learn from me, because I am gentle and lowly-minded, and you will find rest for your souls; for my yoke is easy, 30 and my burden is light."

The Disciples accused of breaking the Sabbath. About the same time Jesus walked through the 1 12 cornfields one Sabbath. His disciples became hungry, and began to pick some ears of corn and 2 eat them. But when the Pharisees saw this, they said:

"Look! your disciples are doing what it is wrong to do on a Sabbath!"

"Have not you read," Jesus replied, "what David did, when 3
he and his companions became hungry—how he went into the 4 House of God, and how they ate the consecrated bread, which he and his companions had no right to eat, but only the priests? And have not you read in the Law that, on the Sabbath, the 5 priests in the Temple break the Sabbath and yet are not guilty? Here, however, I tell you, there is something greater 6 than even the Temple! And had you learnt the meaning of the 7 words 'It is mercy I wish for, and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned those who are not guilty. For the Son of 8 Man is master of the Sabbath."

Cure of a Man with a withered Hand. Passing on, Jesus went into their Synagogue, 9 and there he saw a man with a withered hand. 10
The people asked Jesus whether it was allowable to work a cure on the Sabbath—in order to have a charge to bring against him. But Jesus said to them: 11

"Which of yourselves, if he had only one sheep, and that sheep fell into a pit on the Sabbath, would not lay hold of it and pull it out? And how much more precious is a man than a 12 sheep! Therefore it is right to do good on the Sabbath."
Then he spoke to the man. 13

"Stretch out your hand," he said.
The man stretched it out; and it had become as sound as the other. On coming out, the Pharisees plotted against 14
Jesus, with a view to putting him to death.

Jesus avoids the Pharisees. Jesus, however, came to know of it, and went 15 away from that place. A number of people followed him, and he cured them all; but 16 he warned them not to tell any one about him, in fulfilment of 17 these words in the Prophet Isaiah—

18 'Behold! the servant of my choice,
My beloved—the delight of my heart!
I will breathe my spirit upon him,
And he shall announce a time of judgement to the heathen.

[2] Jer. 6. 16. [4] 1 Sam. 21. 1. [7] Hos. 6. 6. [18] Isa. 41. 8; 42. 1.

He will not wrangle or brawl, 19
Nor will any one hear his voice in the streets;
A reed that has been bruised he will not break, 20
And a smouldering wick he will not quench,
Till he has brought the judgement to a victorious end.
And on his name will the heathen rest their hopes.' 21

Cure of a blind and dumb Man.

Then some people brought to Jesus a possessed 22 man, who was blind and dumb; and he cured him, so that the man who had been dumb both talked and saw. At this all the people were astounded. 23
"Is it possible that this is the son of David?" they exclaimed.
The Pharisees heard of this and said: 24

Jesus accused of Acting by the Help of Satan.

"He only drives out evil spirits by the help of Baal-zebub their chief."
Jesus, however, was aware of what was passing in 25
their minds, and said to them:
"Any kingdom at variance within itself is on the way to desolation, and any town or household at variance within itself will not last. So if Satan drives Satan out, he must be at 26 variance with himself; and how then can his kingdom last?
In my case, too, if it is by Baal-zebub's help that I drive out 27 evil spirits, by whose help is it that your own sons drive them out? Therefore they shall themselves be your judges. But if 28 it is by the help of the Spirit of God that I drive out evil spirits, then the Kingdom of God must already be upon you. How, 29 again, can any one get into a strong man's house and carry off his goods, without first securing him? Not till then will he plunder his house. Those who are not with me are against me, 30 and those who do not join me in gathering are scattering.
Therefore, I tell you, men will be forgiven every sin and 31 slander, except slander against the holy Spirit, which will not be forgiven. Whoever speaks against the Son of Man will 32 be forgiven, while whoever speaks against the holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in the present age, or in the age to come.

Words a test of Character.

You must either assume that both tree and 33 fruit are good, or that both tree and fruit are unhealthy; since it is by its fruit that a tree is judged. You offspring of vipers! how can you, bad as you are, 34 say anything good? For the heart is the source of the words on the lips. A good man, from his good stores, produces good 35 things; while a bad man, from his bad stores, produces bad things. I tell you, that for every trifling remark which 36 people make, they must answer on the Day of Judgement. For 37 it is your words that will acquit you, and your words that will condemn you."

A Sign asked for.

At this point, some of the Rabbis and Pharisees 38 broke in.

19—21 Isa. 42. 2—4.

"Teacher," they said, "we should like to see some sign from you."

"A wicked and unfaithful generation," Jesus answered, "asks for a sign, and no sign shall be given it except the sign of the Prophet Jonah. For just as Jonah was inside the sea-monster three days and three nights, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. The men of Nineveh will stand up at the Judgement side by side with this generation, and will condemn it, because they repented at Jonah's proclamation; and here is more than a Jonah! The Queen of the South will rise up at the Judgement side by side with the present generation, and will condemn it, because she came from the very ends of the earth to listen to the wisdom of Solomon; and here is more than a Solomon!

No sooner does a wicked spirit leave a man, than it passes through places where there is no water, in search of rest, and fails to find it. Then it says, 'I will go back to the home which I left;' and on its arrival there, it finds it unoccupied, and swept out, and put in order. Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in, and make their home there; and the later state of that man proves worse than the earlier.

Such, too, will be the case with this wicked generation."

Danger of imperfect Reformation.

While he was still speaking to the crowds, his mother and brothers were standing outside, asking to speak to him. Someone told him this, and Jesus replied:

"Who is my mother? and who are my brothers?"

Then stretching out his hand towards his disciples, he said:

"Here are my mother and my brothers! For any one who does the will of my heavenly Father is my brother and sister and mother."

The true Brotherhood.

46 47 48 49 50

That same day when Jesus had left the house, and was sitting by the lake side, such great crowds gathered round him, that he got into a boat, and sat in it, while all the people stood upon the beach. Then he told them many truths in stories.

Parable of the Sower.

13 1 2 3

"There was once," he said, "a man who went out to sow; and as he was sowing, some seed fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up. Some fell on rocky places, where it had not much soil; and having no depth of soil, it sprang up at once. As soon as the sun had risen, it was scorched, and as it had no root, it withered away. Some again fell into the thornbushes, which shot up and choked it. Some, however,

4 5 6 7 8

40 Jon. 1. 17. 42 1 Kings 10. 2—4.

fell on good soil, and gave a crop varying from one hundred to sixty or thirty times as great. Let all who have ears listen!" 9

Why Jesus used Parables.

Later on his disciples came up to him, and said: 10

"Why do you use stories in speaking to them?"

"To you," Jesus replied, "the knowledge of the secrets of 11 the Kingdom of Heaven has been imparted, but not to the people yonder. For those that retain anything, will have more 12 given them, till they have abundance; but those who retain nothing, will have even what they had taken away from them.
That is why I speak to them in stories, because, though they 13 have eyes, they do not see, and though they have ears, they do not hear or understand. And in them is being fulfilled that 14 prophecy of Isaiah which says—

'You will hear with your ears without ever understanding,
And though you have eyes, you will see without ever perceiving,
For the mind of this nation has grown dense, 15
And their ears are dull of hearing,
Their eyes also have they closed;
Lest some day they should perceive with their eyes,
And with their ears should hear,
And in their mind should understand, and should turn—
And then I should cure them.'

But you are happy in having eyes that see and ears that hear; 16 for, believe me, many Prophets and good men have longed for 17 the sight of the things which you are seeing, yet never had it, and to hear the things which you are hearing, yet never heard them.

Explanation of the Parable of the Sower.

You, then, may listen to the explanation of the 18 story of the Sower. When any one hears 19 the Message of the Kingdom without understanding it, the Wicked One comes and snatches away what has been sown in his mind. This is what is meant by the seed which was sown along the path. By the seed which 20 was sown on rocky places is meant the man who hears the Message, and joyfully accepts it at once; but as he has no 21 root, he stands for only a short time; and when trouble or persecution arises on account of the Message, he falls away at once. By the seed which was sown among the thornbushes 22 is meant the man who hears the Message, but the anxieties of life and the snares of wealth so completely choke it that nothing comes of it. But by the seed which was sown on the 23 good ground is meant the man who hears the Message and understands it, and really produces fruit, varying from a hundred to sixty or thirty times as much."

Parable of the Tares.

Another story which Jesus told them was this:— 24
"The Kingdom of Heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field. But 25

14—15 Isa. 6. 9—10.

while everybody was asleep, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and then went away. So when the blades 26 of corn shot up, and came into ear, the tares made their appearance too. On this the owner's servants came to him, 27 and said 'Was not it good seed that you sowed in your field? Where then do the tares in it come from?'

'It must be the work of an enemy,' was his reply. 28

'Would you like us then,' they asked, 'to go and gather them together?'

'No,' said he, 'for fear while you are doing so, you should 29 root up the wheat as well. Let both grow side by side till 30 harvest-time; and then I will tell the reapers to gather together the tares first, and tie them in bundles ready for burning; but to bring all the wheat into my barn.'"

Parable of the Mustard Seed.

Another story which he told them was this:— 31
"The Kingdom of Heaven is like a mustard-seed, which a man took and sowed in his field. This seed is smaller than any other, but, when it has grown 32 up, it is larger than the herbs and becomes quite a tree, so that the wild birds come and roost in its branches."

Parable of the Leaven.

This was another story which Jesus related:— 33
"The Kingdom of Heaven is like some leaven which a woman took and covered up in three half-pecks of flour, until the whole was leavened."

All this Jesus told the crowd in stories; indeed to them he 34 never spoke at all except in stories, in fulfilment of these words 35
in the Prophet—

'I will speak to them in stories;
I will utter things kept secret since the foundation of the world.'

Explanation of the Parable of the Tares.

Then Jesus let the crowds go, and went into 36
the house. Presently his disciples came up to him, and said:

"Will you explain to us the story of the tares in the field?"

"Yes," he answered; "the sower of the good seed is the 37 Son of Man. The field is the world. The good seed is the 38 people of the Kingdom; the tares are wicked people. The 39 enemy who sowed them is the Devil. The harvest-time is the end of the age, and the reapers are the angels. And just as 40 the tares are collected and burned up, so it will be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send his 'angels,' and they 41 will collect from his kingdom everything that is a hindrance to men, and all who live in sin, and 'will throw them into the fiery 42 furnace,' where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.

Then will those who do right shine out, like the sun, in the 43 Kingdom of their Father. Let all who have ears listen!

[32] Dan. 4. 12. [35] Ps. 78. 2. [41] Zeph. 1. 3; Enoch, 54. 6. [43] Dan. 12. 3.

Parable of the Treasure.

44 The Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid again, and then in his delight went and sold everything he had, and bought that field.

Parable of the Pearl.

45 Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a mer-46 chant in search of beautiful pearls. Having found one of great value, he went and sold everything he had, and bought it.

Parable of the Net.

47 Or again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a net which was cast into the sea, and caught fish of 48 all kinds. When it was full, they hauled it up on the beach, and sat down and sorted the good fish into baskets, but threw 49 away the useless ones. So will it be at the end of the age. The 'angels' will go out and separate the wicked from the 50 righteous, and 'will throw them into the fiery furnace', where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.

New and old Truths.

51 "Have you understood all this?" Jesus asked.
"Yes," they answered.
52 Then he added:

"Therefore every Rabbi who has received instruction about the Kingdom of Heaven is like a householder who produces from his storeroom things both new and old."

Jesus teaches at Nazareth.

53 When Jesus had finished these stories, he with-54 drew from that place. Going to his own part of the country, he taught the people in their Synagogue, with the result that they were greatly impressed.

"Where did he get this wisdom," they said, "and the power 55 to work these miracles? Is not he the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary, and his brothers James, Joseph, 56 Simon, and Judas? And his sisters too—are they not all living among us? Where, then, did he get all these powers?"
This proved a hindrance to their believing in him; on which 57 Jesus said:

"A Prophet is not without honour except in his own country and in his own house."
58 And he did not work any miracle there, because of their want of faith.

Herod's opinion about Jesus.

14 1 At that time Prince Herod heard of the fame of 2 Jesus, and said to his attendants:

"This must be John the Baptist; he must be risen from the dead, and that is why these powers are so active in him."

Account of John's Execution.

3 For Herod had arrested John, put him in 4 chains, and shut him up in prison, to please Herodias, the wife of Herod's brother Philip. For [49] Enoch 53. 6.

John had told him that he had no right to be living with her.
Yet though Herod wanted to put him to death, he was afraid 5 of the people, because they looked on John as a Prophet. But 6 when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced before the company, and so pleased Herod, that he promised 7 with an oath to give her whatever she asked for. Prompted 8 by her mother, the girl said, 'Give me here, on a dish, the head of John the Baptist.' The king was sorry for this; yet on 9 account of his oath and of the guests at his table, he ordered it to be given her. He sent and beheaded John in the prison; 10 and his head was brought on a dish and given to the girl, and 11 she took it to her mother. John's disciples came, and 12 took the body away, and buried it; and then went and told Jesus.

Jesus provides Food for five thousand Men.

When Jesus heard of it, he retired in a boat to 13 a lonely spot without attracting attention. The people, however, heard of his going, and left the towns and followed him in crowds by land. On getting 14 out of the boat, Jesus saw a great crowd, and his heart was touched at the sight of them; and he cured those of them who were invalids. In the evening the disciples came up to 15
him, and said:

"This is a lonely spot, and the day is now far advanced;
send the crowds away, that they may go to the villages, and buy themselves food."

"They need not go away," Jesus answered, "it is for you to 16 give them something to eat."

"We have nothing here," they said, "except five loaves and 17 two fishes."

"Bring them here to me," was his reply. 18
Jesus directed the people to take their seats upon the grass; 19 then taking the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to Heaven and blessed God, and after he had broken up the loaves, gave them to his disciples, who gave them to the crowds.
Every one had plenty to eat, and enough spare pieces were 20 taken away to fill twelve baskets. There were about five 21 thousand men who partook of the meal, without counting women and children.

Jesus walks on the Water.

Immediately afterwards Jesus made the disci- 22 ples get into a boat and cross over in advance of him while he dismissed the crowds. After doing 23 so, he went up the hill by himself to pray, and when evening fell, he was there alone. The boat was by this time a 24 long way from shore, and was labouring in the waves, for the wind was against her. Three hours after midnight, 25 however, Jesus came towards the disciples, walking on the water. But when they saw him walking on the water, they 26 were terrified.

"It must be a ghost," they exclaimed, and cried out for fear.

But Jesus at once spoke to them: 27
"Courage!" he said, "it is I, do not be afraid!"
"Master," Peter replied, "if it is you, tell me to come to you 28 on the water."
"Come," said Jesus. 29
So Peter got down from the boat, and walked on the water towards Jesus; but when he felt the wind, he was frightened, 30 and beginning to sink, called out:
"Master! Save me!"
Upon this, Jesus instantly stretched out his hand, and caught 31 hold of him.
"How little faith you have!" he said, "What made you hesitate?"
When they had got up into the boat, the wind dropped. But 32 the men in the boat threw themselves on their faces before 33
him, and said:
"You are indeed the Son of God!"

Jesus at Gennesaret. When they had crossed over, they landed at 34
Gennesaret. The men of that place, recognizing 35
Jesus, sent out to all the country round, and brought to him all that were ill, and begged him only to let them touch the tassel 36 of his cloak; and all who did so were completely cured.

The Disciples blamed for neglecting Ceremonies. Then some Pharisees and Rabbis came to Jesus, 1 15
and said:
"How is it that your disciples break the tra- 2 ditions of our ancestors? For they do not wash their hands before a meal."
His reply was: 3
"How is it that you on your side break God's commandments out of respect for your own traditions? For God said 'Honour 4 thy father and mother,' and 'Let him who reviles his father or mother suffer death,' but you say 'Whenever any one says to his father 5 or mother "Whatever of mine might have been of service to you is Given to God," he is in no way bound to honour his 6 father.' In this way you have cancelled the words of God out of respect for your traditions. Hypocrites! It was well said by 7 Isaiah when he prophesied of you—

> 'This is a people that honours me with their lips, 8
> While their hearts are far removed from me;
> But vainly do they worship me, 9
> For their teaching is only the commands of men.'"

Sin inward, not outward. Then Jesus called the people to him, and said: 10
"Listen, and mark my words. It is not what 11 goes into a man's mouth, but what comes out from it that defiles
him!"
On this his disciples came up to him, and said: 12

4 Exod. 20. 12; Exod. 21. 17. 8—9 Isa. 29. 13.

"Do you know that the Pharisees were shocked on hearing what you said?"

"Every plant," Jesus replied, "that my heavenly Father has not planted will be rooted up. Leave them to themselves; they are but blind guides; and if one blind man guides another, both of them will fall into a ditch." 13 14

Upon this, Peter said to Jesus: 15

"Will you explain the saying to us?"

"Have even you so little comprehension still?" Jesus exclaimed. "Do you not see that whatever enters the mouth passes into the stomach, and is afterwards expelled? But those things that come out from the mouth proceed from the heart, and it is these that defile a man. For out of the heart proceed suggestions of wickedness, whether murder, adultery, unchastity, theft, perjury, or slander. These are the things that defile a man; but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a man." 16 17 18 19 20

Cure of a heathen Girl.

On going away from that place, Jesus retired into the country round Tyre and Sidon. 21

There, a Canaanite woman from that district came out and began calling to Jesus: 22

"Take pity on me, Master, Son of David; my daughter is entirely under the power of an evil spirit."

But not a word did Jesus say in reply. His disciples came up and begged him to send her away. 23

"She keeps calling out after us," they said.

"I have been sent," Jesus replied, "to no one except the lost sheep of Israel." 24

For all this the woman came, and bending low before him, said: 25

"Master, help me!"

"It is not fair," Jesus replied, "to take the children's food and throw it to dogs." 26

"Yes, Master," she said, "for dogs do feed on the scraps that fall from their owner's table." 27

"Your faith is great," was his reply to the woman; "it shall be as you wish!" 28

And her daughter was cured that very moment.

Jesus cures many Persons.

On quitting that place, Jesus went to the shore of the Lake of Galilee; and then went up the hill, and sat down there. There crowds of people flocked to him from all sides, bringing with them those who were lame, crippled, blind, or dumb, and many others. They put them down at his feet, and he cured them—to the astonishment of the crowd, seeing, as they did, dumb people talking, cripples restored to health, lame men walking about, and the blind with their sight restored; and they praised the God of Israel. 29 30 31

Jesus provides Food for four thousand Men.

Afterwards Jesus called his disciples to him, and said: 32

"My heart is touched at the sight of all these people; they have already been with me three days and they have nothing to eat; and I am unwilling to send them away hungry, for fear they should faint on the road."

"Where can we," his disciples asked, "in a lonely place like this, find all the bread necessary for such a crowd as this to have plenty?" 33

"How many loaves have you?" said Jesus. 34

"Seven," they anwered, "and a few small fish." 35

Then, having told the crowd to sit down on the ground, he took the seven loaves and the fish, and giving thanks, broke them up, and proceeded to give them to the disciples, who gave them to the crowds. Every one had plenty to eat, and spare pieces enough were taken away to fill seven baskets. There were four thousand men who partook of the meal, without counting women and children. Then, after dismissing the crowds, Jesus got into the boat, and went to the neighbourhood of Magadan. 36 37 38 39

A Sign from the Sky asked for.

Here the Pharisees and Sadducees came up, and by way of testing him, requested him to show them some sign of his power from the sky. He answered them in this way— 16 1 2

["In the evening you say 'It will be fine weather, for the sky is as red as fire.' But in the morning you say 'To-day it will be stormy, for the sky is as red as fire and threatening.' You learn to read the sky; yet you are unable to read the signs of the times!] 3

It is a wicked and unfaithful generation that is asking for a sign, and no sign will be given it except the sign of Jonah." 4

So he left them, and went away.

Warning against false Teaching.

Now the disciples had crossed to the opposite shore, and had forgotten to take any bread. 5

Presently Jesus said to them: 6

"Take care and be on your guard against the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

The disciples began discussing among themselves their having brought no bread. 7

On noticing this, Jesus said: 8

"Why are you discussing among yourselves your being short of bread? How little faith you have! Do you not yet understand or remember the five loaves for the five thousand men, and how many basketfuls you had left? 9 10

Nor yet the seven loaves for the four thousand people, and how many basketfuls you picked up? How is it that you do not understand that I was not referring to bread when I spoke to you, but I told you to be on your guard against the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. 11

Then they saw that he had told them to be on their guard not 12 against the leaven of bread, but against the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Jesus owned as the Christ.

On coming into the neighbourhood of Caesarea 13
Philippi, Jesus asked his disciples this question—
"Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"
"Some say 'John the Baptist,'" they answered, "others, how- 14 ever, say that he is Elijah, while others again say 'Jeremiah,' or 'One of the Prophets.'"
"But you," he said, "who do you say I am?" 15
And to this Simon Peter answered: "You are the Christ, 16
the Son of the living God."
"Happy are you, Simon Son of Jonah!" Jesus answered, 17
"From no human source was this revealed to you, but from my heavenly Father! And I, in turn, say to you, your name is 18 Peter'—a Rock, and on this rock I will build my Church, and the Powers of the Place of Death shall not prevail over it. I will 19 give you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven. Whatever you forbid on earth will be held in Heaven to be forbidden, and whatever you allow on earth will be held in Heaven to be allowed."
Then he impressed on his disciples not to tell any one that he 20 was the Christ.

Jesus foretells his Death.

At that time Jesus Christ began to point out to 21 his disciples that he had to go to Jerusalem, and had much to undergo at the hands of the Councillors, Chief Priests, and Rabbis, and that he must be put to death, and rise on the third day from the grave. But Peter drew 22 Jesus to him, and began to remonstrate with him.
"God help you, Master!" he said, "that shall never be your fate!"
Turning to Peter, Jesus said: 23
"Out of my way, Satan! you are a hindrance to me; you look at things not in God's way but in man's."

A Call to renounce Self.

Then Jesus said to his disciples: 24
"If any man wishes to go where I go, he must renounce self, take up his cross, and follow me.
For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, and whoever 25 for my sake loses his life will secure it. What good will it do 26 a man to gain the whole world if he forfeits his life? or what can a man give that is of equal value to his life? For the Son 27 of Man is about to come in his Father's glory, and his angels with him, and then he will give each his due in accordance with his actions. Believe me, some of those who are standing here will 28

18 Job 38. 17. 19 Isa. 22. 22. 21 Hos. 6. 2. 27 Ps. 62. 12.

certainly not die, till they have seen the Son of Man coming as King."

The Transfiguration.

17 Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter, and the brothers James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart from the rest. Here his appearance underwent a change in their presence, and his face shone like the sun, while his clothes became as white as light. Then Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Jesus.

"Master," exclaimed Peter, interposing, "it is good to be here; if you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

While he was still speaking, a bright cloud enveloped them, and from the cloud there was heard a voice, which said—

> "This is my Son, my beloved,
> In whom I delight.
> It is to him you must listen."

The disciples, on hearing this, fell on their faces, and were extremely alarmed. So Jesus went up and touched them, saying as he did so:

"Get up, and do not be alarmed."

And when they raised their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus by himself, alone. As they were going down the mountain side, Jesus told them not to speak of this vision to a single person, till after the Son of Man had been raised from the dead.

A Question about Elijah.

"How is it," his disciples asked, "that the Rabbis say that Elijah has to come first?"

"It is true Elijah was to come," Jesus answered, and restore everything, but Elijah has already come, I tell you, and people have not recognized him, but have treated him just as they pleased. In the same way, too, the Son of Man is about to suffer at men's hands."

Then the disciples understood that it was of John the Baptist that he had been speaking to them.

Cure of an epileptic Boy.

On their joining the crowd, a man came up to Jesus, and kneeling down before him, said:

"Master, take pity on my son, for he is a lunatic and in a bad state; indeed he often falls into the fire and into the water; so I brought him to your disciples, but they could not cure him."

"Faithless and perverse generation!" Jesus exclaimed, "how long must I be among you? how long must I have patience with you? Bring the boy here to me!"

Then Jesus rebuked the evil spirit, and it came out of the boy; and he was cured that very moment. Afterwards the disciples came up to Jesus, and privately asked him how it was they could not drive the spirit out.

"Because you have so little faith," he answered; "for, believe me, if only your faith is like a mustard-seed, you can say to this mountain 'Move from this place to that!' and it will do so; and you will find nothing impossible." 20

Jesus, a second time, foretells his Death.

While Jesus and his disciples were travelling about Galilee, he said to them: 22

"The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men, who will put him to death, but 23 on the third day he will rise from the grave."

At this the disciples were greatly distressed.

A Question about Rates.

After they had reached Capernaum, the collectors of the four shilling Temple-rate came up to Peter, and said: 24

"Does not your Master pay the Temple-rate?"

"Yes, he does," said Peter. 25

But on Peter's entering the house, before he could speak, Jesus said:

"What is your own opinion, Simon? From whom do earthly kings take tolls or taxes? From their own sons, or from the sons of other people?"

"From those of other people," Peter answered. 26

"Well then," Jesus went on, "their own sons go free. Still, 27 that we may not scandalize them, go and throw a line into the lake; take the first fish that rises, open its mouth, and you will find an eight-shilling piece in it. Take that, and give it to the collectors for both of us."

Lesson in Humility.

On the same occasion the disciples came to Jesus, and asked him to tell them which was really the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. Jesus called a little child to him, and placed it in the middle of them, and then said: 18 1 2 3

"Believe me, unless you quite change and become like children, you will not even enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Any one, therefore, who shall humble himself like this child will be the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. And any one who, for my sake, welcomes even one little child like this, is welcoming me. On the other hand, if any one proves a hindrance to one of these lowly ones who are learning to believe in me, it would be best for him to be sunk in the depths of the sea, with a great millstone hung round his neck. Alas for 4 5 6 7

Warning against being a Hindrance to Others.

[23] Hos. 6. 2.

the world because of such hindrances! There cannot but be hindrances; but alas for the man who occasions the hindrance!

So, if your hand or your foot proves a hindrance to you, 8 cut it off, and throw it away. It is better for you to enter the Life maimed or lame, than to keep both hands, or both feet, and be thrown into the enduring fire. If your eye proves 9 a hindrance to you, take it out, and throw it away. It is better for you to enter the Life with only one eye, than to keep both eyes, and be thrown into the fiery Pit.

Beware of despising one of these lowly ones, for in Heaven, 10
I tell you, their angels always see the face of my heavenly Father. What is your own opinion? If a man owns a hun- 12

dred sheep, and but one of them strays, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hills to themselves, and go and search for the one that is straying? And if he succeeds in finding it, he rejoices more 13 over that one sheep, believe me, than over the ninety-nine which did not stray. So, too, it is the will of my heavenly 14 Father that not one of these lowly ones should be lost.

How to deal with Offenders.

If your brother wrongs you, go to him and 15 convince him of his fault when you and he are alone. If he listens to you, you have won your brother. But if he does not, take with you one or two others, 16 so that on the evidence of two or three witnesses, every word may be put beyond dispute.

If he refuses to listen to them, speak to the Church; and if 17
he also refuses to listen to the Church, treat him as you would a heathen or a tax-gatherer.

Believe me, all that you forbid on earth will be held in 18
Heaven to be forbidden, and all that you allow on earth will be held in Heaven to be allowed. And more than this, 19

Encouragement to united Prayer.

if but two of you on earth agree about what they shall pray for; whatever it is, it shall be granted them by my heavenly Father. For where two or 20 three are assembled as my followers, I am there among them."

Parable of the unforgiving Servant.

Peter then came up, and said to Jesus: 21
"Master, how often am I to forgive my brother when he wrongs me? As many as seven times?"

"Not merely seven times," Jesus answered, "but seventy-seven 22 times. Thus the Kingdom of Heaven may be compared 23 to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. When he began to do so, a man was brought to him who owed 24 him six million pounds; and as he was unable to pay, his 25 master ordered him to be sold towards the payment of the debt, with his wife, and his children, and everything that he had. Upon this the servant threw himself down on his face, 26 and said 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you all.' The 27 master's heart was touched; and he let him go, and forgave him the debt. But on going out, that same servant came upon 28 one of his fellow-servants who owed him ten pounds. Seizing him by the throat, he nearly strangled him. 'Pay what you owe me,' he said.

At this his fellow-servant threw himself on the ground, and 29 begged for mercy. 'Have patience with me,' he said, 'and I will pay you.' The other, however, would not do so, but went 30 and had him put in prison till he should pay his debt. When 31 his fellow-servants saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed. They went to their master, and explained the whole matter to him. Upon that the master sent for the ser- 32 vant, and said to him, 'You wicked servant! When you begged me for mercy, I forgave you the whole of your debt.
Ought not you, too, to have shown mercy to your fellow- 33 servant, just as I did to you?' Then his master, in his anger, 34 handed him over to the gaolers, until he should pay the whole of his debt. In the same way will my heavenly Father 35 treat you, unless you each forgive your brother from your heart."

IV.—The Journey to Jerusalem.

A Question about Divorce.

At the conclusion of this teaching, Jesus took 1 19
his departure from Galilee, and went into that district of Judaea which is on the other side of the Jordan. Large crowds followed him, and he cured them 2 there.

Presently some Pharisees came up to him, and by way of 3 testing him, enquired whether a man had a right to divorce his wife for any and every cause.
"Have not you read," Jesus replied, "that at the beginning 4 the Creator 'made them male and female,' and said, 'For this reason 5 a man shall leave his father and mother, and be united to his wife, and the man and his wife shall become one'?—and hence they are 6 no longer two, but one. What God himself, then, has yoked together men must not separate."
"Why, then," they said, "did Moses direct us 'to serve her 7 with a notice of separation and divorce her'?"
"Moses, owing to your perversity," Jesus answered, "allowed 8 you to divorce your wives, but that was not so at the beginning. But any one who divorces his wife, I tell you, except 9 on the ground of her unchastity, and marries another woman, becomes an adulterer."
"If that," the disciples said, "is the position of a man with 10 regard to his wife, it is better not to marry."

[4] Gen. 1. 27. [5] Gen. 2. 24. [7] Deut. 24. 1.

"It is not everyone," Jesus replied, "who can accept this teaching, but only those who have been enabled to do so. 11
Some men, it is true, have from birth been disabled for marriage, while others have been disabled by their fellowmen, and others again have disabled themselves for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven. Let all accept it who can." 12

Jesus blesses little Children.

Then some children were brought to Jesus for him to place his hands on them, and pray; but the disciples found fault with those who had brought them. Jesus, however, said: 13
"Let the children alone, and do not hinder them from coming to me, for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to the childlike." 14
So he placed his hands on them, and then went on his way. 15

A rich Man questions Jesus.

Presently a man came up to him, and said: 16
"Teacher, what good action must I do to obtain enduring Life?"
"Why ask me about goodness?" Jesus answered. "There is but One who is good. But if you want to enter the Life, keep the commandments." 17
"Which commandments?" the man asked. 18
"These," Jesus answered:—"'Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not say what is false about others, Honour thy father and thy mother,' and 'Thou shalt love thy neighbour as if he were thyself.'" 19
"All these I have observed," the young man replied. "In what am I still wanting?" 20
"If you wish to be perfect," Jesus answered, "go and sell your property, and give to the poor, and you shall have wealth in Heaven; then come and follow me." 21
On hearing these words, the young man went away sad, for he had large possessions. 22

Lesson about Money.

At this, Jesus said to his disciples: 23
"A rich man, I tell you, will find it hard to enter the Kingdom of Heaven! It is easier, I repeat, for a camel to get through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of Heaven!" 24
On hearing this the disciples exclaimed in extreme astonishment: 25
"Who then can possibly be saved?"
But Jesus looked at them, and said: 26
"With men this is impossible, but with God everything is possible."
"But we," said Peter, addressing Jesus, "we left everything, and followed you; what then shall we get?" 27

Rewards of Self-sacrifice.

"Believe me," answered Jesus, "at the New Creation, 'when the Son of Man takes his seat 28

18—19 Exod. 20. 12—17; Lev. 19. 18.

upon his glorious throne,' you, who followed me shall be seated upon twelve thrones, as judges of the twelve tribes of Israel.
Everyone who has left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, 29 or mother, or children, or land, on my account, will receive many times as much, and will 'share enduring Life.'
But many who are first now will then be last, and those who 30 are last will be first. For the Kingdom of Heaven is 1 20 like an employer who went out in the early morn-Parable of the Labourers in the Vineyard.
ing to hire labourers for his vineyard. He agreed 2 with the labourers to pay them two shillings a day, and then sent them into his vineyard. On 3 going out again, about nine o'clock, he saw some others standing in the market-place, with nothing to do.
'You may go into my vineyard, too,' he said, 'and I will pay 4 you what is fair.'
So the men went. About mid-day he went out a third time, 5 and again about three, and did the same as before. When he 6 went out about five o'clock, he found some other men standing there, and said to them, 'Why have you been standing here all day long doing nothing?'
'Because no one has hired us,' they answered. 7
'You may go into my vineyard, too,' he said.
In the evening the owner of the vineyard said to his bailiff, 8
'Call the labourers, and pay them their wages, beginning with those hired last, and ending with the first.'
Now when those who had been hired about five o'clock went 9 up, they received two shillings each. So when the men first 10 hired went up, they took for granted that they would receive more, but they, too, received two shillings each; on which they 11 began grumbling at their employer.
'These last hired,' they said, 'have done only one hour's 12 work, and yet you have put them on the same footing with us, who have borne the brunt of the day's work, and the burning heat.'
'My friend,' was his reply to one of them, 'I am doing you 13 no injustice. Did you not agree with me for two shillings?
Take what belongs to you, and go. But I choose to give to the 14 man last hired the same as to you. Have I not the right to do 15 as I choose with what belongs to me? Are you envious because I am kind?' In the same way, those who are 16 last now will then be first, and those who are first will be last."

Jesus a third time foretells his Death.
When Jesus was on the point of going up to 17 Jerusalem, he gathered the twelve disciples round him privately, and said to them as they were on the road:

[28] Enoch, 62. 5. [29] Enoch, 40. 9.

"Listen! We are going up to Jerusalem; and there the Son 18 of Man will be betrayed to the Chief Priests and Rabbis, and they will condemn him to death, and hand him over to the 19 heathen for them to mock, to flog, and to crucify; and he will rise from the grave on the third day.

Request of the Mother of James and John.

Then the mother of Zebediah's sons came up 20 to him with her sons, bending low, and asking a favour.

"What is it you want?" Jesus said to her. 21

"I want you to say," was her reply, "that in your Kingdom these two sons of mine may sit, one on your right, and the other on your left."

"You do not know what you are asking," Jesus said in reply. 22
"Can you drink the cup that I am about to drink?"

"Yes," they exclaimed, "we can."

"You shall indeed drink my cup," he said, "but as to a seat 23 at my right and at my left—that is not mine to give, but belongs to those for whom it has been reserved by my Father."

On hearing of this, the other ten were much annoyed about the 24 two brothers. Jesus, however, called the ten to him, and said: 25

"The rulers of the heathen, as you know, lord it over them, and the great men among them are their masters. Among 26 you it must not be so. On the contrary, whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever 27 wishes to take a first place among you, must be at your call;
just as the Son of Man came, not to be served, but to serve, 28 and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Cure of two blind Men.

As they were going out of Jericho, a great 29 crowd followed him. Two blind men who were 30 sitting by the road side, hearing that Jesus was passing, called out:

"Take pity on us, Master, Son of David!"

The crowd told them to be quiet; but the men only called out 31
the louder:

"Take pity on us, Master, Son of David!"

Then Jesus stopped and called them. 32

"What do you want me to do for you?" he said.

"Master," they said to him, "we want our eyes to be opened." 33
So Jesus, moved with pity, touched their eyes, and at once they 34 recovered their sight, and followed him.

V.—The Last Days.

Jesus enters Jerusalem.

It was when they had nearly reached Jerusalem, 1 21 having got as far as Bethphage, on the Mount of Olives, that Jesus sent on two disciples.

"Go to the village facing you," he said, "and you will soon 2 find an ass tied up there, with a foal by her side; unfasten them, and lead them to me. And if anybody says anything to 3 you, you are to say 'The Master requires them'; and he will send them at once."

This happened in fulfilment of these words in the Prophet— 4

'Say to the daughter of Zion— 5
"Behold, thy King is coming to thee,
Gentle, and riding on an ass,
And on the foal of a beast of burden."'

So the disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them. 6
They led back the ass and the foal, and when they had put 7 their cloaks on them, he seated himself on these. The vast 8 crowd of people then spread their cloaks in the road, and others kept cutting branches off the trees, and spreading them on the road. The crowds that led the way, as well as those 9 that followed behind, kept shouting:

"God bless the Son of David!
Blessed is the One who Comes in the name of the Lord!
God bless him from on high!"

When he had entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred, 10 every one asking—"Who is this?"; to which the crowd replied 11
—"This is the Prophet Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee."

Traders driven from the Temple Courts.

Then Jesus entered the Temple Courts, and 12 drove out all those who were buying and selling there. He upset the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of the pigeon-dealers, and said to them: 13
"Scripture says—'My House shall be called a House of Prayer';
you, however, are making it a den of robbers."

While he was still in the Temple Courts, some blind and lame 14 people came up to him, and he cured them. But when 15

Children welcome Jesus.

the Chief Priests and Rabbis saw the wonderful things which Jesus did, and the boys who were calling out in the Temple Courts, "God bless the Son of David!", they were indignant, and said to him: 16
"Do you hear what these boys are saying?"
"Yes," he said; "but did you never read the words, 'Out of the mouths of babes and sucklings thou hast produced perfect praise'?"
Then he left them, and went out of the city to Bethany, 17 and spent the night there.

The fruitless Fig Tree.

Next morning in returning to the city, Jesus 18 became hungry; and noticing a solitary fig tree 19 on the road-side, he went up to it, but found nothing on it but leaves. So he said to it:

[8] Isa. 62. 11; Zech. 9. 9. [9] Ps. 118. 25—26; Ps. 148. 1.
[13] Isa. 56. 7; Jer. 7. 11. [16] Ps. 8. 2.

"Never again shall fruit be gathered from you."
Upon this the fig tree withered up instantly. When the 20 disciples saw this, they exclaimed in astonishment:
"How instantly the fig tree withered up!"
"Believe me," replied Jesus, "if you have faith, without a 21 single doubt, you will not only do what has been done to the fig tree, but even if you should say to this hill, 'Up, and hurl yourself into the sea!', the thing will be done. And whatever 22 you ask for in your prayers will, if you have faith, be granted
you."

The Priests question the Authority of Jesus.

After Jesus had entered the Temple Courts, the 23 Chief Priests and Councillors of the Nation came up to him as he was teaching, and said:
"What right have you to act as you do? Who gave you this right?"
"I, too," said Jesus in reply, "have one question to ask you; 24
if you tell me, then I, on my side, will tell you what right I have to act as I do. It is about John's baptism. What was 25 its origin? divine or human?"
But they began arguing together:
"If we say 'divine,' he will say to us, 'Why then did not you believe him?' But if we say, 'human,' we are afraid of the 26 people, for everyone regards John as a Prophet."
So the answer they gave Jesus was—"We do not know." 27
"I, too," he said, "refuse to tell you what right I have to act as I do.

Parable of the two Sons.

What is your own opinion? There was once 28 a man who had two sons. He went up to the elder and said, 'Go and work in the vineyard to-day, my son.'
'Yes, sir,' he answered; but he did not go. Then the father 29 went up to the second son, and said the same. 'I will not,' he 30 answered; but afterwards he felt sorry and went. Which of 31 the two sons did as his father wished?"
"The second," they said.
"Believe me," added Jesus, "tax-gatherers and prostitutes are going into the Kingdom of Heaven before you. For when 32 John came to you, on strict religious lines, you did not believe him, while tax-gatherers and prostitutes did; and yet you, though you saw this, did not even after that feel sorry and believe him.

Parable of the wicked Tenants.

Listen to another story. A man, who was 33 an employer, once planted a vineyard, put a fence round it, dug a winepress in it, built a tower, and then let it out to tenants, and went abroad. When the time for the 34 vintage came near, he sent his servants to the tenants to receive his share of the produce. But the tenants seized his servants, 35 beat one, killed another, and stoned a third. A second time 36

[33] Isa. 5. 1—2.

the owner sent some servants, a larger number than at first, and these were treated in the same way. As a last resort, he 37 sent his son to them. 'They will respect my son,' he said. But the tenants, on seeing his son, said to each other, 'Here is 38 the heir! Come and let us kill him, and get his inheritance.' So they seized him, and threw him outside the vineyard, and 39 killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard arrives, 40 what will he do to those tenants?"

"Miserable wretches!" they exclaimed, "he will put them to 41 a miserable death, and let the vineyard to other tenants, who will pay him his share of the produce at the proper times."

Then Jesus added: "Have you never read in the Scriptures?— 42

> 'The very stone which the builders despised—
> Has now itself become the corner-stone;
> This stone has come from the Lord,
> And is marvellous in our eyes.'

For this reason the Kingdom of God, I tell you, will be taken 43 from you, and given to a nation that does produce the fruit of the Kingdom. Yes, and those who fall on this stone will 44 be dashed to pieces, while any one on whom it falls—it will scatter him as dust."

After listening to these stories, the Chief Priests and Pharisees saw that it was about them that he was speaking. But 45 46 though eager to arrest him, they were afraid of the crowds, who regarded him as a Prophet.

Once more Jesus addressed them in the form of a story. 22 1

Parable of the Marriage Feast.

"The Kingdom of Heaven," he said, "may be 2 compared to a king who gave a feast in honour of his son's marriage. He sent his servants to 3 summon the invited guests to the feast, but they were unwilling to come. A second time he sent some servants, with 4 orders to say to those who had been invited, 'I have got my feast ready, my cattle and fat beasts are killed—everything is in readiness; come to the feast!'

They, however, took no notice, and went off, one to his farm, 5 another to his business; while the rest, seizing his servants, 6 insulted and killed them. Enraged at this, the king sent his 7 troops and put those murderers to death, and set their city on fire. Then he said to his servants, 'The feast is ready, but 8 those who were invited were not fit to come. So go to the 9 cross-roads, and invite to the feast every one you find.'

The servants went out into the roads and got together all the 10 people they found there, whether bad or good; and the banquet-hall was filled with guests. When the king went in to 11 see his guests, he noticed there a man who had no wedding-robe on. So he said to him, 'My friend, how have you come 12 in here without a wedding-robe?'

42 Ps. 118. 22.

The man was dumbfounded. Then the king said to the attendants, 'Tie his hands and feet, and 'put him out into the darkness' outside, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.' 13

For while many are invited, few are chosen." 14

A Question about Taxes.

Then the Pharisees went and held a consultation as to how they might lay a snare for Jesus in the course of conversation. So they sent their disciples, with the Herodians, to say to him: 15 16

"Teacher, we know that you are an honest man, and that you honestly teach the Way of God, and are not influenced by anybody; indeed you pay no regard to a man's position. So tell us your own opinion. Are we right in paying taxes to the Emperor, or not?" 17

Perceiving their malice, Jesus answered: 18

"Why are you putting this test to me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin with which the tax is paid." 19

So they brought him a florin.

"Whose head and title are these?" he asked. 20

"The Emperor's," they answered; on which he said to them: 21

"Then pay to the Emperor what belongs to the Emperor, and to God what belongs to God."

They were surprised at his answer, and went away and left him. 22

A Question about the Resurrection.

That same day some Sadducees came up to Jesus maintaining that there is no resurrection. Their question was this— 23

"Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man dies without children, his brother shall become the husband of the widow, and raise up a family for his brother.' Now we had living among us seven brothers; of whom the eldest married and died, and as he had no family, left his wife for his brother. The same thing happened to the second and the third brothers, and indeed to all the seven. The woman herself died last of all. After the resurrection, then, which of the seven will have her as his wife, all of them having married her?" 24 25 26 27 28

"Your mistake," Jesus replied, "is due to your ignorance of the Scriptures, and of the power of God. For after the resurrection there is no marrying or being married, but in Heaven they live like angels. Again, as to the resurrection of the dead, have you not read these words of God—'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? God is not God of dead, but of living, people." 29 30 31 32

The crowds, who had been listening to him, were greatly struck with his teaching. 33

13 Enoch, 10. 4. 24 Deut. 25. 5. 32 Exod. 3. 6.

A Question about the Commandments.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they collected together. 34
Then one of them, a Teacher of the Law, by way of testing him, put this question— 35
"Teacher, which is the chief commandment in the Law?" 36
His answer was: "'Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.' This is the chief and first commandment. The second, which is like it, is this—'Thou shalt love thy neighbour as if he were thyself.' On these two commandments hang the whole Law and the Prophets too." 37 38 39 40

Jesus puts a Question about the Christ.

Before the Pharisees separated, Jesus put this question to them— 41
"What is your opinion about the Christ? Whose son is he?" 42
"David's," they said.
"How is it then," Jesus replied, "that David, speaking under inspiration, calls him 'Master,' in the passage— 43

> 'The Lord said to my Master: "Sit at my right hand, Until I put thy enemies beneath thy feet"?' 44

Since, then, David calls him 'master,' how is he David's son?" 45
No one could say a word in answer; nor did any one after that day venture to question him further. 46

Then Jesus, speaking to the crowds and to his disciples, said: 1 2 23

Warnings against the Rabbis.

"The Rabbis and Pharisees now occupy the chair of Moses. Therefore practise and lay to heart everything they tell you, but do not follow their example, for they preach but do not practise. While they make up heavy loads and pile them on other people's shoulders, they decline, themselves, to lift a finger to move them. Indeed, all their actions are done to attract attention. They widen the texts which they wear as charms, and increase the size of their tassels, and like having the place of honour at dinners, and the front seats in the Synagogues, and being greeted in the streets with respect, and being called Rabbi by everybody. But do not you allow yourselves to be called 'Rabbi,' for you have only one Teacher, and you yourselves are all brothers. And do not call any one upon the earth your 'Father,' for you have only one Father, the heavenly Father. Nor must you allow yourselves to be called 'Leaders,' for you have only one Leader, the Christ. The man who would be the greatest among you must act as your servant. All who exalt themselves will be humbled, and all who humble themselves will be exalted. 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 37 Deut. 6. 5. 39 Lev. 19. 18. 44 Ps. 110. 1.

Jesus denounces the Pharisees.

But alas for you, Rabbis and Pharisees, hypocrites that you are!—because you close the Kingdom of Heaven in men's faces. You do not go in yourselves, nor yet allow those who are going in to do so. 13

Alas for you, Rabbis and Pharisees, hypocrites that you are!—because you scour both land and sea to make a single convert, and when he is gained, you make him twice as ready for the Pit as you are yourselves. 15

Alas for you, you blind guides, who say, 'If any one swears by the Temple, his oath counts for nothing; but if any one swears by the Temple-gold, his oath is binding on him'! Fools that you are, what blindness! Why, which is the more important? the gold? or the Temple which has given sacredness to the gold? You say, too, 'If any one swears by the altar, his oath counts for nothing, but if any one swears by the offering placed on it, his oath is binding on him'! What blindness! Why, which is the more important? the offering? or the altar which gives sacredness to the offering? Therefore a man swearing by the altar is swearing by it and by everything on it, and a man swearing by the Temple is swearing by it and by him who dwells in it, while a man swearing by Heaven is swearing by the throne of God and by him who sits upon it. 16 17 18 19 20 21 22

Alas for you, Rabbis and Pharisees, hypocrites that you are!—because you pay tithes on mint, fennel, and carraway-seed, and have neglected the weightier matters of the Law—justice, mercy, and good faith. These last you ought to have put into practice, without neglecting the first. You blind guides, to strain out a gnat but swallow a camel! 23 24

Alas for you, Rabbis and Pharisees, hypocrites that you are!—because you clean the outside of the cup and of the dish, while inside they are full of the fruits of grasping and self-indulgence. You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and the dish, that so the outside may become clean as well. 25 26

Alas for you, Rabbis and Pharisees, hypocrites that you are!—because you are like tombs that have been white-washed and look beautiful outside, while inside they are filled with dead men's bones and all kinds of filth. It is the same with you. Outwardly, and to others, you have the look of religious men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and sin. 27 28

Alas for you, Rabbis and Pharisees, hypocrites that you are!—because you build tombs for the Prophets, and decorate the monuments of religious men, and say, 'Had we been living in the days of our forefathers, we should have taken no part in their murder of the Prophets!' In this way you supply evidence against yourselves that you are true children of the men who murdered the Prophets. Fill up the measure of your forefathers' guilt. You serpents and offspring of vipers! How can you escape being sentenced to the Pit? This is why I send you Prophets, wise men, and Rabbis; some of whom you will kill and crucify, 29 30 31 32 33 34 and some you will flog in your Synagogues, and pursue from town to town; that upon your heads may fall every drop 35 of innocent 'blood spilt on earth,' from the blood of innocent Abel down to that of Zachariah, Barachiah's son, whom you murdered between the Temple and the altar. All this, believe 36 me, will come home to the present generation. Jeru- 37

Jesus foretells the Destruction of the Temple.

Leaving the Temple Courts, Jesus was walking 1 24 away, when his disciples came up and drew his attention to the Temple buildings.
"Do you see all these things?" was his answer. 2
"Believe me, not a single stone will be left here upon another, but all will be thrown down."
While Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, his disciples 3 came up to him, and privately requested him to tell them when this would be, and what would be the sign of his Coming, and of the close of the age.

Jesus replied to them as follows: 4
"Be careful that no one leads you astray; for many will 5 come taking my name, and saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will lead many astray. And you will hear of wars and rumours of 6 wars; take care not to be alarmed, for such things must occur;
still the end is not yet here. For nation will rise against nation 7 and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places. All this, however, will be but 8 the beginning of the birth-pangs! When that time comes, 9 they will give you up to be punished, and men will put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations on my account.
And then many will fall away, and they will betray one another, 10 and hate one another. Many pretended Prophets, too, will 11 appear and lead numbers astray; and owing to the increase of 12 wickedness, most men's love will grow cold. Still those who 13 persevere to the end will be saved. And this Good News of 14 the Kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the world as a testimony to all nations; and then will come the end.

Jesus foretells the end of the Age.

then those of you who are in Judaea must take refuge in the 16 mountains, and a man on the house-top must not go down to 17 get the things in his house, nor must one who is on his farm 18 turn back to get his cloak. And alas for the women that are 19 with child, and for those that are nursing infants in those days!
Pray, too, that your flight may not occur in winter-time, or on 20 a Sabbath; for that will be a time of great distress, the like of 21 which has not occurred from the beginning of the world down to the present time—no, nor ever will again. And had not those days 22 been curtailed there would have been no escape for a single person; but for the sake of 'God's People' they will be curtailed. If any one says to you then, 'Look! here is the 23 Christ!' or 'He is here!', do not believe it; for pretended 24 Christs and pretended Prophets will arise, and will display great signs and marvels, so that, were it possible, even God's People would be led astray. Remember, I have forewarned you. 25
So if people say to you, 'He is in the desert!', do not go out 26
there; or 'He is in an inner room!', do not believe it; for just 27 as lightning will start from the east and flash across to the west, so will the Coming of the Son of Man be. Wherever a 28 dead body lies there will the vultures flock. Immediately 29 after the distress of those days, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from the sky, and the forces of the skies will be convulsed. Then will appear the sign 30 of the Son of Man in the sky; and all the tribes of the land will mourn, when they see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory; and he will send his angels 31 with a great trumpet, and they will gather his People round him from the four winds, from one horizon to the other.

Need for Watchfulness. Learn the lesson taught by a fig tree. As soon 32
as ever its branches are full of sap and it is bursting into leaf, you feel sure that summer is near. And so may you, as soon as you see all these things, 33 feel sure that he is at your very doors. Believe me, even the 34 present generation will not pass away, till all this has taken place. Earth and sky will pass away, but my words can never 35 pass away. But about the actual Day and Hour, no one 36 has any knowledge—not even the angels of Heaven; nor yet the Son himself—but only the Father. For just as in the days 37 of Noah, so it will be at the Coming of the Son of Man. In 38 those days before the flood they went on eating and drinking, marrying and being married, up to the day on which Noah entered the ark, taking no notice till the flood came and swept 39 them one and all away, and so it will be at the Coming of the Son of Man. At that time, of two men on a farm one will be 40 taken and one left; of two women grinding with the hand-mill 41 one will be taken and one left. So be on the watch; for you 42 do not know on what day your Master is coming. Of this you 43 may be sure, that, had the owner of the house known what time of night the thief was coming, he would have been on the watch, and would not have allowed his house to be broken into. Therefore you also should get ready, since it is just when 44 you are least expecting him that the Son of Man will come.

Who, I wonder, answers to the trustworthy, thoughtful ser- 45 vant, who has been placed by his master over his household, to give them their food at the proper time? Happy will that servant be whom 46 his master, when he comes home, shall find doing as he was told. Believe me, his master will give him the management 47 of the whole of his property. But should he be a bad ser- 48 vant, and say to himself, 'My master is a long time in coming,' 49 and so begin to beat his fellow-servants, and eat and drink with drunkards; that servant's master will come home on a day 50 when he does not expect him, and at an hour of which he is ignorant, and will flog him severely, and allot him a place 51 among hypocrites, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.

Parable of the good and bad Servants.

Parable of the ten Bridesmaids.

The Kingdom of Heaven will then be like ten 1 25
bridesmaids who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish, 2 and five prudent. The foolish ones took their lamps, but took 3 no oil with them, while the prudent ones, besides taking their 4 lamps, took oil in their cans. As the bridegroom was a long 5 time in coming, they all became drowsy, and went to sleep.
But at midnight a shout was raised—'The bridegroom! The 6 bridegroom! Come out and meet him!' At this all the brides- 7 maids got up and trimmed their lamps. Then the foolish 8 bridesmaids said to the prudent ones, 'Give us some of your oil; our lamps are going out.'

'No,' answered the prudent ones, 'we fear there will not be 9 enough for us and you as well. You had better go to those who sell it, and buy some for yourselves.'

While they were on their way to do so, the bridegroom came, 10 and the bridesmaids who were ready went in with him to the feast; and the door was shut. Afterwards the other brides- 11 maids came.

'Sir, Sir,' they said, 'open the door for us!'

But the bridegroom answered, 'No, I do not know you.' 12

So be on the watch, since you do not know either the Day or 13
the Hour.

Parable of the Servants entrusted with Money.

It is as though a man, going on his travels, 14 called his private servants, and entrusted them with his property. He gave three thousand 15 pounds to one, twelve hundred to another, and six hundred to a third, fixing the amount in proportion to the ability of each. Then he set out on his travels. The man who 16 had received the three thousand pounds went at once and earned more with them, till he had made another three thousand. In the same way the man who had received the twelve 17 hundred pounds made another twelve hundred. But the man 18 who had received the six hundred went and dug a hole in the ground, and hid his master's money. After a long time the 19 master of those servants returned, and settled accounts with them. The man who had received the three thousand pounds 20 came with an additional three thousand, and said, 'Master, you entrusted me with three thousand pounds; look, I have made another three thousand!'

'Well done, you good, faithful servant!' said his master. 21
'You have been faithful with a small sum; now I will put a large one into your hands; come and share your master's enjoyment!'

Then the one who had received the twelve hundred pounds 22 came up and said, 'Master, you entrusted me with twelve hundred pounds; look, I have made another twelve hundred!'

'Well done, you good, faithful servant!' said his master. 23
'You have been faithful with a small sum; now I will put a large one into your hands; come and share your master's enjoyment!'

The man who had received the six hundred pounds came up 24 too, and said 'Master, I knew you were a hard man; you reap where you have not sown, and gather where you have not thrashed; and, in my fear, I went and hid your money in the 25 ground; look, here is what belongs to you!'

'You lazy, good-for-nothing servant!' was his Master's reply. 26
'You knew, did you?, that I reap where I have not sown, and gather where I have not thrashed. Then you were bound to 27 have placed my money in the hands of bankers, in which case I, on coming home, should have received my money, and interest in addition. Therefore,' he continued, 'take away 28 from him the six hundred pounds, and give them to the one who has the six thousand. For all who retain anything will 29 have more given them, till they have abundance; but those who retain nothing will have even what they had taken away from them. As for the useless servant, 'put him out into the 30 darkness' outside, where there will be weeping and grinding
of teeth.'

Principles of the Divine Judgement.

'As soon as the Son of Man' has come in glory 31 and with him all the angels, he 'will take his seat on his glorious throne'; and all the nations will be 32 gathered before him, and he will separate the people—just as a shepherd separates sheep from goats—placing the sheep on his 33 right, and the goats on his left. Then he, the King, will say 34 to those on his right, 'Come, you on whom my Father's bless-[30] Enoch, 10. 4. [31] Zech. 14. 5; Enoch, 62. 5.

ing rests, enter upon possession of the Kingdom prepared for you ever since the beginning of the world. For, when I was 35 hungry, you gave me food; when I was thirsty, you gave me something to drink; when I was a stranger, you took me to your homes; when I was half-naked, you clothed me; when 36
I fell ill, you visited me; and when I was in prison, you came to see me.'
On this the Good will answer, 'Master, when did we see you 37 hungry, and feed you? or thirsty, and give you something to drink? When did we see you a stranger, and take you to our 38 homes? or half-naked, and clothe you? When did we see 39 you ill, or in prison, and come to visit you?'
'I tell you,' the King will reply, 'so far as you did so to one 40 of these my brothers, however lowly, you did it to me.'
Then he will say to those on the left, 'Leave my presence, you 41 on whom a curse rests, and go into the enduring 'fire' which is 'prepared for the Devil and his angels.' .For, when I was 42 hungry, you gave me no food; when I was thirsty, you gave me nothing to drink; when I was a stranger, you did not take 43 me to your homes; when I was half-naked, you did not clothe me; and when I was ill, and in prison, you did not visit me.'
On this they, in their turn, will answer, 'Master, when did we 44
see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or half-naked, or ill, or in prison, and not attend to your wants?'
And to this he will reply, 'I tell you that so far as you neglected 45 to do so to one of these, however lowly, you neglected to do it to me.'
Then these last will go away to enduring punishment, but the 46
Good to enduring Life."

Plot against Jesus.

When Jesus had finished all this teaching, he 1 26
said to his disciples:
"You know that in two days' time the Festival of the Pass- 2 over will be here; and that then the Son of Man is to be given up for crucifixion."
About that time the Chief Priests and Councillors of the 3
Nation met in the house of the High Priest, who was called Caiaphas, and plotted together to arrest Jesus by a stratagem 4 and put him to death; but they said that they had better not 5
do so during the Festival, for fear of causing a riot.

Jesus anointed by a Woman.

After Jesus had reached Bethany and was in 6
the house of Simeon the leper, a woman came up 7 to him with an alabaster jar of very costly perfume, and poured it over his head as he was at table. The 8 disciples were indignant at seeing this.

[41] Enoch 54. 1, 5. [46] Dan. 12. 2.

"What is this waste for?" they exclaimed. "This perfume 9 could have been sold for a very large sum, and the money given to the poor."

"Why are you interfering with the woman?" Jesus said, 10 when he noticed it. "For this is a beautiful action that she has done to me. You always have the poor with you, but you 11 will not always have me. In pouring this perfume on my 12 body, she had my burying in view. Believe me, wherever in 13 the whole world this Good News is proclaimed, what this woman has done will be told in memory of her."

Judas agrees to betray Jesus.

It was at that time that one of the Twelve, 14 named Judas Iscariot, made his way to the Chief Priests, and asked what they were ready to give 15 him, if he betrayed Jesus to them. The Priests weighed him out thirty pieces of silver as payment. So from that time Judas 16 began to watch for an opportunity for betraying Jesus.

Preparation for the Passover.

On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened 17
Bread, the disciples came up to Jesus, and said:

"Where would you like us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?"

"Go into the city to so and so," he answered, "and say to 18 him, 'The Teacher says—My time is near. It is at your house that I will keep the Passover with my disciples.'"

The disciples did as Jesus directed them, and prepared the 19 Passover.

The Passover Meal.

In the evening Jesus took his place with the 20 twelve disciples. While they were eating, he 21 said solemnly:

"It is one of you who will betray me."

In great sadness they began to ask him, each in turn: 22

"It is not I, is it, Master?"

"The one beside me who dipped his hand in the dish," 23 replied Jesus, "is the one who will betray me. True, the Son 24 of Man is to go, as Scripture says of him, yet alas for that man by whom the Son of Man is being betrayed! For that man 'it would have been better never to have been born!'"

In reply to this his betrayer, Judas, said: 25

"It is not I, is it, Rabbi?"

"It is as you have said," answered Jesus.

'The Lord's Supper.'

While they were still eating, Jesus took some 26
bread, and after blessing God, broke it up, giving it to his disciples with the words:

"Take it and eat it; this is my body."

Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks, gave it to them, 27 saying as he did so:

[15] Zech. 11. 12. [24] Enoch 38. 2.

"Drink from it, all of you; for this is my Covenant-blood, 28 which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. I 29 tell you, I shall never after this drink of this juice of the grape, until the day when I shall drink it with you new in the Kingdom of my Father."

Peter's Fall foretold.

They then sang a hymn, and went out on to 30
the Mount of Olives.

Then Jesus said to them: 31

"Even you will all fall away from me to-night; for Scripture says—'I will strike down the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.' But after I have risen from the grave, I will go 32 before you into Galilee."

"If every one else falls away from you," Peter replied, 33
"I will never do so!"

"Believe me," answered Jesus, "this very night, before the 34 cock crows, you will disown me three times!"

"Even if I am to die with you," Peter exclaimed, "I will 35 never disown you!"

All the disciples spoke in the same way.

Agony of Jesus at Gethsemane.

Then Jesus went with them to a garden called 36
Gethsemane.

"Sit down here," he said to the disciples,
"while I go and pray yonder."

Taking with him Peter and the two sons of Zebediah, he be- 37 gan to show signs of sadness and deep distress of mind.

"I am sad at heart," he said, "sad even to death; stay here, 38 and watch with me."

Going on a little further, he threw himself on his face, in 39 prayer:

"My Father, if possible, let me escape this cup; only, not as I wish, but as thou wishest."

Then he came to his disciples, and found them asleep. 40

"What!" he said to Peter, "had none of you strength to watch with me for a single hour? Watch and pray, so that 41 you may not fall into temptation. True, the spirit is eager, but human nature is weak."

Again, a second time, Jesus went away, and prayed. 42

"My Father," he said, "if I cannot escape this cup without drinking it, thy will be done!"

On his return he found them asleep, for their eyes were heavy. 43

So he left them, and went away again, and prayed a third 44 time, again using the same words.

Then he came to the disciples, and said: 45

"Sleep on now, and rest yourselves. Listen!" he exclaimed,
"my time is close at hand, and the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of wicked men. Get up, and let us 46 be going, Look! my betrayer is close at hand."

[28] Exod. 24. 8. [31] Zech. 13. 7. [38] Ps. 42. 5.

Jesus taken Prisoner.

He had hardly said the words, when Judas, 47 who was one of the Twelve, came in sight. With him was a great crowd of people with swords and staffs, from the Chief Priests and Councillors of the Nation. Now the 48 betrayer had arranged a signal with them.

"The man that I kiss," he had said, "will be the one; take him prisoner."

So he went up to Jesus at once, and exclaimed: "I am glad 49 to see you, Rabbi!" and kissed him; on which Jesus said to 50
him:

"My friend, do what you have come for."

Thereupon the men went up, seized Jesus, and took him prisoner. Suddenly one of those who were with Jesus 51 stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and striking the High Priest's servant, cut off his ear.

"Sheath your sword," Jesus said, "for all who use the 52 sword will be put to the sword. Do you suppose that I cannot 53 ask my Father for help, when he would at once send to my aid more than twelve legions of angels? But if I did, how would 54 the Scriptures be fulfilled, which say that things must happen as they are doing."

Jesus at the same time said to the crowds: 55

"Have you come out with swords and staffs to arrest me as if I were a robber? I have sat teaching day after day in the Temple Courts, and yet you did not take me prisoner.

But this has all occurred in fulfilment of the Prophetic Scrip- 56
tures."

And after that all the disciples forsook Jesus and took to flight.

Trial of Jesus before the High Priest.

Those who had taken Jesus prisoner took him 57
to the High Priest, Caiaphas, where the Rabbis and Councillors had assembled. Meanwhile Peter 58 followed him at a distance up to the court-yard of the High Priest, and went in and sat down among the constables, to see how it would end. The Chief Priests and the whole of 59 the High Council were trying to get false evidence against Jesus, to ensure that he should be put to death, but could not, 60 although many came forward with false evidence. Later on, however, two men came forward and said: 61

"This man said, 'I am able to destroy the Temple of God, and in three days' time build one again.'"

Then the High Priest stood up, and said to him: 62

"Have you no answer? What have you to say to the evidence which these men are giving against you?"

But Jesus remained silent. On this the High Priest said to 63
him:

"Upon your oath, and before the Living God, tell us whether you are the Christ, the Son of God."

"It is as you say," replied Jesus, "yet I tell you all that before long you will see the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of the Almighty, and coming on the clouds of the sky." 64

Upon that the High Priest tore his clothes. 65

"What blasphemy! Why do we want any more witnesses?" he asked. "You have actually heard his blasphemy now. What is your decision?" 66

"He deserves death," they replied.

Then they spat in his face, and struck him on the head, while 67 others dealt blows at him, saying as they did so: 68

"Now play the Prophet for us, you Christ! Who was it that struck you?"

Peter disowns Jesus.

Peter, meanwhile, was sitting outside in the 69
court-yard; and a maidservant came up to him, and said:

"Why, you were with Jesus the Galilean!"

But Peter denied it before them all. 70

"I do not know what you mean," he replied.

When he had gone out into the gateway, another girl saw him, 71 and said to those who were there:

"This man was with Jesus of Nazareth!"

Again he denied it. 72

"I do not know the man!" he said with an oath.

But soon afterwards the bystanders came up and said to 73
Peter:

"There can be no doubt that you, too, are one of them; why, your very way of speaking proves it!"

Then Peter began to swear, with most solemn imprecations: 74

"I do not know the man."

Just then a cock crowed; and Peter recollected the words 75 which Jesus had said—'Before a cock has crowed you will disown me three times'; and he went outside, and shed bitter tears.

The end of Judas.

27 At daybreak all the Chief Priests and Councillors 1 of the Nation had a consultation about Jesus, to see how they could secure his death. They put him in chains 2 and led him away, and handed him over to the Roman Governor, Pilate.

Then Judas, who had betrayed him, seeing that Jesus was 3 condemned, was sorry for what he had done, and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the Chief Priests and Councillors, saying as he did so: 4

"I have done wrong in betraying a good man to his death."

"What has that to do with us?" they replied. "You must see to that yourself."

Judas flung down the pieces of silver in the Temple, and left; 5

64 Ps. 110. 1; Dan. 7. 13.

and then went and hanged himself. The Chief Priests 6 took the pieces of silver, but they said:
"We must not put them into the Temple treasury, because they are blood-money"
So, after consultation, they bought with them the 'Potter's Field' 7 for a burial-ground for strangers; and that is why that field is 8 called 'Blood-Field' to this very day. Then it was that 9 these words spoken by the Prophet Jeremiah were fulfilled—
'They took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him who was valued, whom some of the people of Israel valued, and gave them 10 for the Potter's field, as the Lord commanded me.'

Trial of Jesus before the Roman Governor.

Meanwhile Jesus was brought before the Roman 11
Governor, who asked him:
"Are you the King of the Jews?"
"It is as you say," answered Jesus.
While charges were being brought against him by the Chief 12
Priests and Councillors, Jesus made no reply; upon which 13
Pilate said:
"Do not you hear how many accusations they are making against you?"
Yet Jesus made no reply—not even a single word; at which 14
the Governor was greatly astonished. Now at the 15 Festival the Governor was accustomed to grant the people the release of any one prisoner they might choose. At that time 16 they had a notorious prisoner known as Barabbas. So when 17
the people had collected, Pilate said to them:
"Which do you wish me to release for you? Barabbas? or Jesus whom people are calling 'Christ'?"
He knew that it was out of jealousy that Jesus had been handed 18 over to him. While he was still on the bench, his wife 19 sent this message to him—
"Do not have anything to do with that good man, for I have been very unhappy to-day in a dream on account of him."
The Chief Priests and Councillors, however, persuaded the 20 crowds to ask for Barabbas, and to get Jesus made away with.
But the Governor's reply was: 21
"Which of these two do you want me to release for you?"
"Barabbas," they answered.
"What then," Pilate asked, "shall I do with Jesus whom 22 people are calling 'Christ'?"
"Let him be crucified," they all replied.
"Why, what harm has he done?" he asked. 23
However they kept shouting furiously: "Let him be crucified!"
When Pilate saw that his efforts were of no use, but that on 24 the contrary a riot was beginning, he took some water, and washed his hands in the sight of the crowd, saying as he did so:
"I am not answerable for this bloodshed; you must see to it yourselves."

9—10 Zech. 11. 13.

And to this the whole of the people answered: 25
"His blood be on our heads and on our children's!"
Then Pilate released Barabbas to them, while, as for Jesus, 26 after having had him flogged, he handed him over to be crucified.

Jesus mocked at by the Soldiers.

After that, the Governor's soldiers took Jesus 27 with them into the Government House, and got the whole regiment round him. They stripped 28 him, and dressed him in a red military cloak, and then made 29 a crown with some thorns and placed it on his head. They put a cane in his right hand, and then going down on their knees before him, mocked at him.
"Long live the King of the Jews!" they said.
They spat at him, and then, taking the cane, kept striking him 30 on the head. When they had done mocking at him, they took 31 the military cloak off, and put his own clothes on him, and then led him away for crucifixion.
Just as they were on their way out, they came upon a man 32 from Cyrene of the name of Simeon; and they compelled him to go with them to carry the cross. On reaching 33

Crucifixion of Jesus.

Golgotha as it is called (it is called after a skull) they gave him some wine to drink which had been 34 mixed with gall; but after tasting it, Jesus refused to drink it. When they had crucified him, they divided his 35 clothes among them by casting lots. Then they sat down, and 36 kept watch over him there. Above his head they fixed up the 37 charge against him in writing—'THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.' After this two robbers were crucified with 38 him, one on the right, and the other on the left. The 39

Jesus mocked at upon the Cross.

passers-by kept jeering at him, shaking their heads
as they said: 40
"You who can 'destroy the Temple and build one in three days,' save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross!"
Even the Chief Priests did so; they kept saying in mockery, 41 while the Rabbis and Councillors joined in:
"He has saved others, but cannot save himself! He is the 42
'King of Israel'! Let him come down from the cross now and we will believe in him. He has trusted in God; if God wants 43 him, let him save him now; for he said, 'I am the Son of God.'"
The robbers, too, who were crucified with him, kept railing 44 at him in the same way.

Death of Jesus.

After mid-day a darkness came over all the 45 country, lasting till three in the afternoon. And 46
about three Jesus called out loudly:
"Eloi, Eloi, lema sabacthani"—that is to say, 'O my God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?'

34 Ps. 69. 21. 35 Ps. 22. 18. 39 Ps. 22. 7. 43 Ps. 22. 8. 46 Ps. 22. 1.

Some of those standing by heard this, and said: 47
"The man is calling for Elijah."
One of them immediately ran and took a sponge, and filling it 48 with common wine, put it on the end of a cane, and offered it to him to drink. But the rest said: 49
"Wait and let us see if Elijah is coming to save him."
[However another man took a lance, and pierced his side; and water and blood flowed from it.] But Jesus with another loud 50 cry surrendered his spirit. Suddenly the Temple 51 curtain was torn in two from top to bottom, the earth shook, the rocks were torn asunder, the tombs opened, and the bodies 52 of many of God's people who had fallen asleep rose, and 53 leaving their tombs, went, after the resurrection of Jesus, into the Holy City, and showed themselves to many people.
The Roman Captain and the men with him who were watching 54
Jesus, on seeing the earthquake and all that was happening, became greatly alarmed and exclaimed:
"This must indeed have been a Son of God!"
There were several women there, watching from a distance, 55 who had accompanied Jesus from Galilee and had been attending on him. Among them were Mary of Magdala, Mary 56 the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebediah's sons.

Burial of Jesus. In the evening, there came a rich man belonging 57 to Ramah, named Joseph, who had himself become a disciple of Jesus. He went to Pilate, and asked for the body 58 of Jesus; upon which Pilate ordered it to be given him. So 59 Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen sheet, and laid it in his newly-made tomb which he had cut in the 60 rock; and before he left, he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb. Mary of Magdala and the other Mary 61 remained behind, sitting in front of the grave.

Tomb of Jesus guarded. The next day—that is the day following the 62 Preparation-Day—the Chief Priests and Pharisees 63 came in a body to Pilate, and said:
"We recollect, Sir, that during his lifetime that impostor said 'I shall rise from the grave after two days have passed.'
Will you therefore order the tomb to be made secure till the 64 third day? Otherwise his disciples may come and steal him, and then say to the people, 'He has risen from the dead,' in which case the latest imposture will be worse than the first."
"You may have a guard," was Pilate's reply; "go and make 65 the tomb as secure as you can."
So they went and made the tomb secure, by sealing the stone, 66 in presence of the guard.

48 Ps. 69. 21. 54 Wisd. of Sol. 2. 18.

VI.—The Risen Life.

Women visit Jesus' grave.

28 1 After the Sabbath, as the first day of the week began to dawn, Mary of Magdala and the other
2 Mary had gone to look at the grave, when suddenly a great shock of earthquake occurred. An angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the 3 stone, and seated himself upon it. In his appearance he was as dazzling as lightning, and his clothing was as white as 4 snow; and in their terror of him, the men on guard trembled 5 violently and became unconscious. But the angel, addressing the women, said:

"Do not you be afraid. I know that it is Jesus, who was 6 crucified, whom you are looking for. He is not here; for he has risen from the grave, as he said he would. Come, and see the 7 place where he was lying; and then go quickly and say to his disciples, 'He has risen from the dead, and is going to Galilee before you, and there you will see him.' Remember, I have told you."
8 On this they quickly left the tomb in awe and great joy, and 9 ran to tell the news to the disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them.

"Welcome!" he said.

The women went up to him, and clasped his feet, bending low before him.

10 "Do not be afraid," Jesus said, as they did this; "go and tell my brothers to set out for Galilee, and they will see me there."

The Guards bribed to be silent.

11 While they were still on their way, some of the guard came into the city, and reported to the Chief Priests everything that had happened.
12 So they and the Councillors met, and after holding a consultation together, gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, 13 and told them to say that his disciples came in the night, and 14 stole him while they were asleep; "and should this matter come before the Governor," they added, "we will satisfy him, and prevent your getting into trouble."
15 So the soldiers took the money, and followed their instructions. And this story has been current among the Jews from that day to this.

Jesus appears to the Apostles.

16 The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus told them to meet him;
17 and when they saw him, they bent low before him; although some felt doubtful.
18 Then Jesus came up, and spoke to them thus:

Jesus gives the Apostles their Commission.

19 "All authority in heaven and on the earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the Faith of the Father, the Son, and the holy 20 Spirit, and teaching them to lay to heart all the commands that I have given you; and, remember, I shall myself be always with you until the close of the age."

THE GOOD NEWS
ACCORDING TO LUKE.

DEDICATION.

To his Excellency, Theophilus. 1

Many attempts have been already made to draw up an account of those matters that are accepted as true among us, exactly as they have been handed down to us by those who 2 from the very first were eye-witnesses, and afterwards became bearers of the Message. I also, therefore, having investigated 3 all these matters with great care from the beginning, have resolved to write a connected history of them for you. In this 4 way you will be able to satisfy yourself of the accuracy of the story which you have heard from the lips of others.

I.—BIRTH, PARENTAGE, INFANCY, AND BOYHOOD.

Zechariah and Elizabeth.

In the reign of Herod, King of Judaea, there 5 lived a priest of the Division called after Abijah, whose name was Zechariah. His wife, who was named Elizabeth, was also a descendant of Aaron. They were both 6 God-fearing people, who lived irreproachable lives in conformity to all the commandments and requirements of the Lord. They had no children, Elizabeth being barren; and 7 both of them were advanced in years.

The Baptist's Birth foretold.

On one occasion, when Zechariah was officiating as priest before God during the turn of his 8 9 Division, it fell to him by lot, in accordance with the practice among the priests, to go into the Temple of the Lord and burn incense. It being the Hour of Incense, the 10 people were all praying outside. While he was there, an 11 angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right of the Altar of Incense. Zechariah was startled at the sight, and 12 was overcome with fear. But the angel said to him: 13

"Do not be afraid, Zechariah; your prayer has been heard, and your wife Elizabeth shall bear you a son, whom you are to call by the name of 'John.' He will be a source of joy and 14 delight to you; and many others also will rejoice over his birth. For he will be a great man in the sight of the Lord; 15 he will not drink any wine or strong drink, and he will be filled with the holy Spirit from the very hour of his birth, and will 16 win many of the Israelites back to the Lord their God. He 17 will precede him in the spirit and with the power of Elijah, so as to reconcile fathers to their children, and bring back the disobedient to the wise ways of good men, and so make ready for the Lord a people prepared for him."

"How can I be sure of this?" Zechariah asked the angel. 18
"For I am an old man myself, and my wife, too, is advanced in years."

"I am Gabriel," the angel answered, "and my station is in 19 the presence of God; I have been sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news. Listen! you will be silenced and 20 unable to speak until the day when this takes place, because you have not believed what I have said, though my words will be fulfilled at the proper time."

All this time the people were watching for Zechariah, wonder- 21 ing at his remaining so long in the Temple. When he came 22 out, he was unable to speak to them, and they felt sure that he had seen a vision there. Meanwhile Zechariah kept making signs to them, and continued dumb. As soon as his 23 term of service was finished, he returned home.

Elizabeth's Happiness. Shortly after this his wife, Elizabeth, expecting 24 to become a mother, remained in seclusion for five months.

"This is what the Lord has done for me," she said, "now 25 that he has condescended to take away the reproach under which I have been living."

Announcement of the future Birth of Jesus. When the sixth month came, the angel Gabriel 26 was sent from God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, to a maiden there who was engaged to 27 be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of David. Her name was Mary. Gabriel came into her 28 presence and greeting her, said:

"You are highly favoured; the Lord is with you."

Mary was greatly startled at his words, and was wondering 29 to herself what such a greeting could mean, when the angel 30 spoke again:

"Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favour with God. Listen, you will become a mother and will give birth to 31 a son, whom you are to call by the name of 'Jesus.' The child 32 will become great and be called 'Son of the Most High,' and the Lord God will give him the throne of his ancestor David, and he will be king over the descendants of Jacob for ever. To 33 his kingdom there will be no end."

15 Num. 6. 3. 17 Mal. 4. 5—6. 32 Isa. 9. 7.

"How can this be," Mary asked of the angel; "for I am unmarried?" 34

"The holy Spirit will come to you," the angel replied, "and the Power of the Most High will envelop you; and therefore it is that your child will be called 'holy,' and 'Son of God.' Yes, and your relation, Elizabeth, is herself also expecting a son in her old age; indeed it is now her sixth month, though she used to be called barren. For not one word from God will prove powerless!" 35 36 37

"In this I am the servant of the Lord," said Mary, "let it be with me as you say." 38

Then the angel left her.

Mary's Visit to Elizabeth. Soon after this, Mary set out and hurriedly made her way into the hill-country, to a town in Judah; and there she went into Zechariah's house and greeted Elizabeth. As soon as Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child moved within her, and Elizabeth herself was filled with the holy Spirit, and cried out loudly, and said: 39 40 41 42

"Blessed indeed are you among women, and blessed, too, your unborn child! And how have I this honour, that the mother of my Master has come to one like me? Why, as soon as your greeting reached my ears, the child moved within me with delight! Happy indeed is she who believed that the promise which she received from the Lord would actually be fulfilled." 43 44 45

Mary's Song. Then Mary said: 46

"My soul extols the Lord,
My spirit exults in God my Saviour; 47
For he has remembered his servant in her lowliness; 48
And from this hour all ages will count me happy!

Great things has the Almighty done for me; 49
And holy is his name.
Age after age he shows his mercy 50
To those that reverence him.

Great are the deeds of his arm; 51
He confounds the headstrong with their own device,
He dethrones princes, and exalts the lowly, 52
The hungry he loads with gifts and the rich he sends empty-handed away. 53

He has stretched out his hand to his servant Israel, 54
Not forgetful of mercy,
As he promised to our forefathers— 55
Mercy for Abraham and his race for ever."

35 Exod. 13. 12; Ps. 2. 7. 37 Gen. 18. 14. 46 Ps. 104. 1. 47 1 Sam. 2. 1; Ps. 95. 1 (Septuagint). 48 1 Sam. 1. 11; Mal. 3. 12. 49 Ps. 126. 3; 111. 9. 50 Ps. 103. 17. 51 Ps. 89. 10; Job 5. 13. 52 Job 12. 18—19; 5. 11. 53 Ps. 107. 9; 34. 10 (Septuagint). 54 Isa. 41. 8—9; Ps. 98. 3. 55 Mic. 7. 20; Gen. 13. 17.

Mary stayed with Elizabeth about three months and then returned to her own home. 56

Birth and Naming of the Baptist.

When her time came, Elizabeth gave birth to a son; and the neighbours and her relations, hearing of the wonderful kindness the Lord had shown to her, came to share her joy. 57 58

A week later they met to circumcise the child, and were about to call him 'Zechariah' after his father, when his mother interposed: 59 60

"No, he is to be called John."

"You have no relation of that name!" they exclaimed; and they made signs to the child's father to find out what he wished the child to be called. 61 62

Zechariah asked for something to write on, and then wrote the words—'His name is John.' Every one was surprised; and then all at once Zechariah recovered his voice and the use of his tongue, and began to bless God. 63 64

All their neighbours were awe-struck at this; and through all the hill-country of Judaea the whole story was much talked about; and all who heard it kept it in mind, wondering to themselves what the child's future would be; for it was plain that the power of the Lord was with him. 65 66

Zechariah's Song.

His father Zechariah, too, was filled with the holy Spirit, and in his inspiration, said: 67

"Blessed is the Lord, the God of Israel, 68
Who has visited his people and found them deliverance,
And has raised up for us the Hope of our salvation 69
In the House of his servant, David—

For so he promised by the lips of his holy Prophets of old— 70
To be our Salvation from our foes and from the hands of all that 71 hate us,
Thus showing mercy to our ancestors, 72
And not forgetful of his sacred Covenant.

This was the oath which he swore to our ancestor Abraham— 73
That we should be rescued from the hands of our enemies, 74
And should serve him without fear in purity and uprightness, 75
In his very presence all our days.

Thou, too, my child, wilt be called a Prophet of the Most High, 76
For thou wilt go before the Lord to make ready his way,
To give his people the knowledge of salvation 77
Through the forgiveness of their sins,

Due to the tender mercy of our God, 78
Through which the Dawn will break on us from Heaven,
To give light to those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, 79
So as to guide our steps into the Way of Peace."

68 Ps. 41. 13; Exod. 3. 16; Ps. 111. 9. 69 Ps. 18. 2; 89. 24, 20. 71 Ps. 106. 10. 72 Mic. 7. 20; Ps. 105. 8; Dan. 11. 28. 73 Mic. 7. 20. 76 Mal. 3. 1. 78 Zech. 6. 12 (Septuagint). 79 Isa. 9. 2; Ps. 107. 10; Isa. 59. 8.

The child, as he grew, gained strength of character; and he 80 lived in the deserts till the time came for his being brought before Israel.

The Birth of Jesus.

About that time an order was issued by the 1 2
Emperor Augustus that a census should be taken of the whole Empire. (This was the first census taken during 2 the time when Quirinius was Governor of Syria). Accordingly 3 everyone went to his own town to be registered. So 4 Joseph went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Bethlehem, the town of David, in Judaea—because he belonged to the family of David and was one of his descendants—to be registered. Mary, who was engaged to be 5 married to him, and who was shortly to become a mother, went to be registered with him. Her time came while 6 they were there, and she gave birth to her first child, a son. 7
And as there was no room for them in the inn, she wrapped him up, and laid him in a manger.

The Angels and the Shepherds.

In the same district there were some shepherds 8 out in the open fields, watching their flocks that night, when an angel of the Lord suddenly stood 9
by them, and the Glory of the Lord shone around them.
They were very frightened.

"Do not be afraid," the angel said. "Listen, I am bringing 10 you good news of a great joy which is in store for the whole nation, for there has been born to you to-day, in the town of 11 David, a Saviour, who is Christ and Master. And this is the 12 sign you shall have. You will find a baby lying, wrapped up, in a manger."

Then, all in a moment, there appeared with the angel a multi- 13
tude of the army of Heaven, and as they praised God, they
said:

"Glory on high to God, 14
And on earth peace among men—in whom he delights."

Presently, when the angels had left them and gone back to 15
Heaven, the shepherds began to say to one another:

"Let us go to Bethlehem, and see what it is that has happened, of which the Lord himself has told us."

So they went quickly, and found Mary and Joseph, and the 16 baby lying in a manger; and when they saw it, they told 17 what had been said to them about the child. Every one who 18 heard the shepherds was astonished at their story, while 19 Mary, on her part, treasured up every word they said, and turned it all over and over in her mind. Then the shepherds 20 went back, full of praise to God for all that they had heard and seen, agreeing as it did with what they had been told.

11 Ps. 2. 2.

Circumcision of Jesus. Eight days after his birth, when it was time to circumcise the child, he received the name of Jesus—the name given him by the angel before his conception. 21

Presentation of Jesus in the Temple. When the period of purification of mother and child enjoined by the Law of Moses came to an end, they took the child up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord. This was in compliance with the regulation in the Law of the Lord that 'every first-born male shall be dedicated to the Lord.' They also had to offer the sacrifice laid down in the same Law—'a pair of turtle-doves or two young pigeons.' 22 23 24

In Jerusalem there was then a man named Simeon. He was a good, religious man, and lived in constant expectation of the Consolation of Israel, and under the guidance of the holy Spirit. It had, too, been revealed to him by the holy Spirit that he should not die until he had seen the Lord's Christ. Simeon came into the Temple Courts under the influence of the Spirit; and when the parents brought in the infant Jesus, to do for him what the usage of the Law required, Simeon of his own accord took the child into his arms, and blessed God. He said: 25 26 27 28

Simeon's Song.

"Now, Lord, thou wilt let thy servant go, 29
In accordance with thy word, in peace,
For my eyes have seen the Salvation 30
Which thou hast set in the sight of all nations— 31
A Light to give light to the Heathen 32
And the Glory of thy people Israel."

The child's father and mother were wondering at what was said about him, when Simeon gave them his blessing, and said to Mary, the child's mother: 33 34

"Listen, this child is to be the cause of the fall and rise of many an Israelite, and to be a sign much spoken against—you yourself, too, will be pierced to the heart—and so the thoughts in many minds will be disclosed." 35

The Prophetess Hannah. There was also there a Prophetess named Hannah, a daughter of Phanuel and of the tribe of Asher. She was far advanced in years. She had lived with her husband for seven years after marriage, and then by herself as a widow till she had reached the age of eighty-four. She never left the Temple Courts, but fasting and praying, she worshipped God night and day. Just at that moment she came up, and began publicly to thank God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the deliverance of Jerusalem. 36 37 38

22 Lev. 12. 6. 23 Exod. 13. 2. 24 Lev. 12. 8. 30 Isa. 40. 5; 52. 10. 32 Isa. 42. 6; 49. 6. 34 Isa. 8. 15.

The Child Jesus at Nazareth.

When the child's parents had done everything enjoined by the Law of the Lord, they returned to their own town, Nazareth in Galilee. 39

The child, as he grew, gained strength and wisdom, and the blessing of God was upon him. 40

The Boy Jesus in the Temple.

The child's parents used to go every year to Jerusalem at the Passover Festival. When Jesus was twelve years old, they made the customary journey to Jerusalem, and had finished their visit, when, on their way back, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, without their knowing it. Thinking that he was among their fellow-travellers, they went a day's journey before searching for him among their relations and acquaintances. As they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem, searching everywhere for him. It was not till the third day that they found him in the Temple Courts, sitting among the Teachers, now listening to them, now asking them questions. All who listened to him were astounded at his intelligence and his answers. His parents were amazed to see him, and his mother said to him:

"My child, why have you treated us like this? Your father and I have been searching for you in great distress."

"What made you search for me?" was the boy's reply. "Did not you know that I must be at my Father's House?"

His parents did not understand what he meant by that. However he went down with them to Nazareth, and submitted to their control, his mother treasuring all his sayings in her memory.

Meanwhile as Jesus grew up, he increased in wisdom, and gained the blessing of God and men.

II.—The Preparation.

John's Proclamation.

In the fifteenth year of the reign of the Emperor Tiberius, when Pontius Pilate was Governor of Judaea, Herod being Prince of Galilee, his brother Philip, Prince of the district comprising Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias, Prince of Abilene, and at the time when Annas, and Caiaphas were High Priests, a Message from God came to John, the son of Zechariah, while he was in the desert. On this, John went through the whole neighbourhood of the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism upon repentance for forgiveness of sins. This was in fulfilment of what is said in the book of the prophecies of Isaiah— 4

1 3 2 3

[1] 1 Sam. 2. 26.

> ' The voice of one loudly crying in the desert :
> " Make ready the way of the Lord,
> Make his paths straight.
> Every chasm shall be filled, 5
> Every mountain and hill shall be levelled,
> The winding ways shall be straightened,
> The rough roads made smooth,
> And all mankind shall see the Salvation of God." ' 6

John, then, used to say to the crowds of people that went to be baptized by him : 7

"You offspring of vipers ! who has prompted you to seek refuge from the coming judgement ? Make your lives, then, consistent with your repentance. Do not begin saying to yourselves 'Abraham is our ancestor,' for, I tell you, out of these very stones God is able to raise descendants for Abraham ! Indeed already, too, the axe is lying at the root of the trees. So every tree that fails to bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire." 8 9

"What are we to do then ?" the people asked. 10

John's answer was : 11

"Those who have two coats should share with those who have none ; and those who have food should do the same."

Even tax-gatherers came to be baptized, and said to John : 12

"Teacher, what are we to do ?"

"Do not collect more than the sum fixed for you," John replied ; and when some soldiers on active service asked, "And we—what are we to do ?", he said : 13 14

"Never use violence to anyone, or exact anything by false accusation ; and be content with your pay."

Then, while the people were in suspense, and were all debating with themselves whether John could possibly be the Christ, John, addressing them all, said : 15 16

"I, for my part, baptize you with water ; but there is one, who is more powerful than I am, coming, and I am not of sufficient importance even to undo his shoes. He will baptize you in the holy Spirit and in fire. His flail is in his hand, to thoroughly clear his threshing-floor, and store his corn in his barn, while the chaff he will burn with inextinguishable fire." 17

Imprisonment of John. And so with many exhortations of one kind and another, John told the Good News to the people. 18

But Prince Herod, being rebuked by John about Herodias, the wife of Herod's brother, and about all his other wicked acts, crowned them all by shutting John up in prison. 19 20

ing, the sky opened, and the holy Spirit came down, in a visible form, like a dove, upon him, while from the sky came a voice— 22

"Thou art my son, my beloved,
In thee I delight."

Age and Ancestors of Jesus.

When beginning his work, Jesus was about thirty years old. He was supposed to be a son of Joseph, whose ancestors were— 23

Temptation of Jesus.

On returning from the Jordan, full of the holy Spirit, Jesus was led, by the power of the Spirit, through the desert for forty days, and was tempted by the Devil. In all that time he ate nothing; and when it was over, he became hungry. Presently the Devil said to him: 4 1 2 3

"If you are really the Son of God, tell this stone to become a loaf of bread."

Jesus answered him: "Scripture says— 4

'It is not on bread alone that man is to live.'"

The Devil then led Jesus to a height, and showing him in a single moment all the kingdoms of the earth, said to him as he did so: 5 6

"I will give you the sole control of all these, with their grandeur, for it has been placed in my hands and I give it to any one I wish. So if you will do homage before me, it shall all be yours."

7

Jesus answered him thus: "Scripture says—

8

'Thou shalt do homage to the Lord thy God, and worship him only.'"

Then the Devil led him into Jerusalem, and placing him on the parapet of the Temple, said:

9

"If you are really the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for Scripture says—

10

'He will give his angels commands about thee, to guard thee safely,'

and

'On their hands they will upbear thee,
That thou may'st never strike thy foot against a stone.'"

Jesus answered him thus: "It says—

12

'Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.'"

When the temptation was all over, the Devil left Jesus till another opportunity.

III.—The Work in Galilee.

Jesus begins his work.

Under the influence of the Spirit, Jesus returned to Galilee. Reports about him spread through all that neighbourhood; he himself began to teach in their Synagogues, and was held in the highest honour by everyone.

14 15

Jesus teaches at Nazareth.

Coming to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, Jesus, following his usual custom, went on the Sabbath into the Synagogue, and he stood up to read the Scriptures. The book given him was that of the Prophet Isaiah; and Jesus opened the book and found the place where it says—

16 17

'The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,
For he has consecrated me to bring Good News to the poor,
He has sent me to proclaim release to captives and restoration of sight to the blind.
To set the oppressed at liberty,
To proclaim the accepted year of the Lord.'

18

Then rolling up the book and returning it to the attendant, he resumed his seat. All eyes in the Synagogue were fixed upon him, and Jesus began:

19 20 21

"This very day this passage has been fulfilled in your hearing."

All who were present spoke well of him, and they were astonished at the beautiful words that fell from his lips.

22

"Is not he Joseph's son?" they asked.

"No doubt," Jesus said, "you will remind me of the saying—

23

8 Deut. 6. 13. 10—11 Ps. 91. 11—12. 12 Deut. 6. 16. 18—19 Isa. 61. 1—2.

'Doctor, cure yourself,' and tell me to do here in my own country all that you have heard took place at Capernaum.
Believe me," he continued, "no Prophet is acceptable in his 24 own country. There were plenty of widows in Israel, I assure 25 you, in Elijah's days, when the sky was closed for three years and a-half, and a severe famine prevailed throughout the country, and yet it was not to one of them that Elijah was sent, but to a 26 widow at Sarephath in Sidonia. There were, too, plenty of lepers 27 in Israel in the time of the Prophet Elisha, yet it was not one of them who was healed, but Naaman the Syrian."
All the people in the Synagogue, as they listened to this, became 28 exceedingly angry. Starting up, they drove Jesus out of the 29 town, and then took him to the brow of the hill on which their town stood, intending to throw him down. But Jesus passed 30 through the middle of them and went on his way.

Cure of a possessed Man.

Then Jesus went down to Capernaum, a city in 31 Galilee. On the Sabbath he was teaching the people, and they were greatly struck with his 32 teaching, because his words were spoken with authority. In 33
the Synagogue there was a man who had a wicked spirit in him, who called out loudly:
"Stop! What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? 34 Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!"
But Jesus rebuked the spirit. 35
"Silence! Come out from him," he said.
The evil spirit flung the man down in the middle of the people, and then came out from him, without hurting him at all; and 36 in the general amazement, people kept saying to each other:
"What is the meaning of words like these? For he gives his orders with unmistakeable authority to the wicked spirits, and they come out."
And rumours about Jesus spread to every place in the neigh- 37 bourhood.

Cure of Peter's Mother-in-law.

On leaving the Synagogue, Jesus went into 38
Simon's house; and as Simon's mother-in-law was suffering from a severe attack of fever, they asked him about her. Jesus leant over her and rebuked the 39 fever. The fever left her, and she immediately got up and began waiting upon them.

Cure of many Persons.

At sunset, every one who had friends suffering 40 from various diseases took them to Jesus; and he placed his hands upon every one of them and cured them. Even evil spirits came out from many people, 41 calling out as they did so, 'You are the Son of God.' Jesus rebuked them, and would not allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ.

26 1 Kings 17. 9. 34 Ps. 16. 10.

Jesus retires to a lonely Place.

At daybreak, Jesus went out and walked to a lonely spot. But crowds of people began to look for him; and when they came up with him, they tried to detain him and prevent his leaving them. Jesus, however, said to them: 42 43

"I must take the Good News of the Kingdom of God to the other towns as well, for this was the object for which I was sent."

Then he went preaching in the Synagogues of Judaea. 44

The great Catch of Fish.

5 One day when the people were pressing round Jesus as they listened to God's Message, he happened to be standing by the Lake of Gennesaret, and he saw two boats close to the shore. The fishermen had gone away from them and were washing their nets. So getting into one of the boats, which belonged to Simon, Jesus asked him to push off a little way from the shore, and then sat down and taught the people from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon: 1 2 3 4

"Push off into deep water, and then all throw out your nets for a haul."

"We have been hard at work all night, Sir," Simon answered, "and have not caught anything, but, as you say so, I will throw the nets out." 5

They did so, and they enclosed such a great shoal of fish that their nets began to break. So they signalled to their mates in the other boat to come and help them; which they did, filling both the boats so full of fish that they were almost sinking. When Simon Peter saw this, he threw himself down at Jesus' knees, exclaiming: 6 7 8

"Master, leave me, for I am a wicked man!"

For he and all those with him were lost in amazement at the haul of fish which they had made; and so, too, were James and John, Zebediah's sons, who were Simon's partners. 9 10

"Do not be afraid," Jesus said to Simon; "from to-day you shall catch living men."

And when they had brought their boats in, they left everything, and followed Jesus. 11

Cure of a Leper.

Jesus was once staying in one of the towns, when he came upon a man who was suffering badly from leprosy. On seeing Jesus, the leper threw himself on his face and implored his help: 12

"Master, if only you are willing, you are able to heal me."

Stretching out his hand, Jesus touched him, saying as he did so: 13

"I am willing; be healed."

Instantly the leprosy left the man; and then Jesus impressed 14 upon him that he was not to tell any one, "but," he added,
"set out and show yourself to the Priest, and make the offerings in connexion with your healing in the manner that Moses directed, for a proof of your cure to the people."
However, the story about Jesus spread all the more, and great 15 crowds of people kept coming together to listen to him, and to be cured of their illnesses; but he himself used to retire to 16 lonely places and pray.

Cure of a paralyzed Man.

On one of those days, when Jesus was teaching, 17
some Pharisees and Teachers of the Law were sitting near by. (They had come from all the villages in Galilee and Judaea, and from Jerusalem; and the power of the Lord was upon Jesus so that he could work cures.) Here, some men brought on a bed a man who was 18 paralyzed. They tried to get him in and lay him before Jesus; but failing to find any way of getting him in, owing to 19 the crowd, they went up on the roof and lowered him through the tiles, mattress and all, into the very middle of the people and in front of Jesus. When he saw their faith, he said: 20
"Friend, your sins have been forgiven you."
The Rabbis and Pharisees began debating about this: 21
"Who is this man who speaks so blasphemously? Who can forgive sins except God?"
When Jesus became conscious of the way in which they were 22 debating, speaking to them, he said:
"What are you debating with yourselves? Which is the 23 easier?—to say, 'Your sins have been forgiven you'? or to say,
'Get up, and walk'? But that you may know that the Son of 24 Man has power on earth to forgive sins—" here he spoke to the paralyzed man—"To you I say; get up, and take your mattress, and make your way home."
Instantly the man stood up before them, took up what he 25 had been lying on, and went home, praising God.
The people, one and all, were overcome with astonishment, 26 and praised God; and in great awe they said:
"We have seen things to-day beyond all belief!"

Call of Levi.

After this, Jesus went out; and he noticed a tax- 27 gatherer, named Levi, sitting in the tax-office, and said to him: "Follow me."
Levi left everything and got up and followed him. Later 28
Jesus blamed for his Companions. on, Levi gave a great entertainment at his house, 29 in honour of Jesus; and a large number of tax-gatherers and others were at table with them.
The Pharisees and the Rabbis belonging to their party found 30 fault with the disciples of Jesus:

[14] Lev. 13. 49. [24] Dan. 7. 13.

"Why do you eat and drink with tax-gatherers and godless people?"
It was Jesus who answered them. He said: 31
"It is not those who are well who need a doctor, but only those who are ill. I have not come to invite the pious, but 32 the godless, to repent."
"John's disciples," they said to Jesus, "often fast and say 33 prayers, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees, while yours are eating and drinking!"

The Disciples blamed for not Fasting.

Jesus' answer was this— 34
"Is it possible for you to make the bridegroom's friends fast while he is with them? A time, however, will come—a time 35 when the bridegroom will be parted from them; they will fast then—when that time comes."
Then, by way of illustration, Jesus said to them: 36
"No one ever tears a piece from a new garment and puts it upon an old one; for, if he does, he will not only tear the new garment, but the patch from the new one will not match the old. And no one puts new wine into old wine-skins; for, if he 37 does, the new wine will burst the skins, and the wine itself will run out, and the skins be lost. But new wine must be put 38 into fresh skins. Nobody after drinking old wine wishes 39 for new. 'No,' he says, 'the old is excellent.'"

The Disciples accused of Breaking the Sabbath.

One Sabbath Jesus was walking through the 1 6 cornfields; his disciples were picking the ears of corn, and rubbing them in their hands and eating them.
"Why are you doing what it is wrong to do on the Sabbath?" 2 asked some of the Pharisees. It was Jesus who answered them. 3 He said:
"Have you not even read of what David did, when he became hungry, he and his companions—that he went into 4 the House of God, and took the consecrated bread and ate it, besides giving some to his companions,—which no one but the priests alone has a right to eat?"
Then Jesus added: 5
"The Son of Man is master of the Sabbath."

Cure of a Man with a withered Hand.

On another Sabbath Jesus went into the Syna- 6 gogue and taught; and there was a man there whose right hand was withered. The Rabbis and 7 Pharisees watched Jesus closely, to see if he would work cures on the Sabbath, in order to find a charge to bring against him. Jesus, however, knew what was in their minds, 8 and so he said to the man whose hand was withered:
"Get up and stand forward."
The man did so; and Jesus said to them: 9

[a] 1 Sam. 21. 6.

"I want to ask you this, Which is right? to do good on the Sabbath, or harm? to save a life, or let it perish?"
Then looking round at them all, he said to the man: 10
"Stretch out your hand."
The man obeyed; and his hand had become sound.
But the Rabbis and Pharisees were mad with vexation, and 11 began discussing what to do to Jesus.

Choice of the twelve Apostles.

About that time, Jesus went out, up the hill, to 12 pray, and spent the whole night in prayer to God. When day came, he called his disciples to 13 him, and chose twelve of them, whom he also named 'Apostles.'
They were Simon (whom Jesus also named Peter), and his 14 brother Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, 15 Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, the Simon known as the Zealot, Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who turned 16 traitor. Afterwards Jesus came down the hill with them and 17 took his stand on a level place. With him were a large crowd of his disciples and great numbers of people from the whole of Judaea, Jerusalem, and the coast district of Tyre and Sidon.
They had come to hear him and to be made well from their diseases. Those, too, who were troubled with wicked spirits 18 were cured; and everybody in the crowd tried to touch him, 19 because a power proceeded from him which made everyone well.

THE 'SERMON ON THE MOUNT.'

Then raising his eyes and looking at his dis- 20
ciples, Jesus spoke thus:

The truly Happy.

"Happy are you who are poor, for it is to you that the Kingdom of God belongs.
Happy are you who now are hungry, for you 21
will be plentifully fed.
Happy are you who now are in tears, for you will laugh.
Happy are you whenever people hate you, and when they 22
expel you and abuse you and excommunicate you as bad men—on account of the Son of Man. Then you may be glad 23 and dance for joy, for be sure your recompence will be great in Heaven; it was, indeed, in this very way that their ancestors treated the Prophets.

The truly Unhappy.

But 'alas for you who are rich,' for you have 24
your comfort here.
Alas for you who are satisfied now, for you will be hungry. 25
Alas for you who laugh now, for you will be sorrowful and in tears.
Alas for you when every one speaks well of you; it was, 26 indeed, in this very way that their forefathers treated the pretended Prophets.

The New Law—on Love,

But to you who are listening to me I say— 27
Love your enemies, show kindness to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for 28

[20] Isa. 61. 1. [21] Enoch, 94. 8.

those who insult you. When any one strikes one of you on 29 on Revenge. the cheek, offer the other cheek as well; and when any one takes away your cloak, do not keep back your coat either. Always give to those that ask of you; 30 and when people take away what is yours, do not demand its
The Golden Rule. return. Treat others as you like them to treat 31
you. If you love only those that love you, what 32 thanks will be due to you? Why, even godless people love those who love them. For if you are kind only to those who 33 are kind to you, what thanks will be due to you? Even godless people do that. If you only lend to those from whom 34 you expect to get something, what thanks will be due to you? Even godless people lend to godless people in the hope of getting as much in return. But you are to love your enemies, 35 and treat them well, and lend to them, never despairing. Then your recompence will be a great one, and you will be true children of the Most High, for he is kind even to the thankless and the bad. Learn to be merciful just as your Father is. 36

About Judging Others. Do not sit in judgement upon others, and then 37 others will never sit in judgement upon you; do not condemn others, and then you will not be condemned. Let others off, and you will be let off yourselves. Give, and they will give to you. It will be a generous 38 measure, pressed tight, shaken down, and running over, that they will pour into your lap; for the measure that you give to others will be the measure given to you in return."

Then, by way of illustration, Jesus continued: 39

"Can a blind man lead a blind man? Will they not both fall into a ditch? A scholar is not above his teacher; yet 40 every finished scholar will be like his teacher. Why, 41 too, do you look at the splinter in your brother's eye, and pay no attention at all to the beam in your own? How can you 42 say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take out the splinter in your eye,' while you yourself do not see the beam in yours? Hypocrite! Take out the beam from your own eye first, and then you will see clearly how to take out the splinter in your brother's. There is no such thing as a good tree bear- 43 ing unhealthy fruit, or, on the other hand, an unhealthy tree bearing good fruit. Indeed every tree is judged by its own 44 fruit. People do not gather figs off thorn bushes, nor pick a bunch of grapes off a bramble. A good man, from the good 45 stores of his heart, brings out what is good; while a bad one, from his bad stores, brings out what is bad. For his heart is the source of the words on his lips. Why do you call 46

The Two Foundations. me 'Master! Master!' and yet not do what I tell you? Every one who comes to me and listens to 47 my teaching and acts upon it—I will show you whom he may be compared to. He may be compared to a man build- 48 ing a house, who has gone deep in digging his foundations, and has laid them upon rock. Then when a flood occurs, though the river sweeps down upon that house, it has no power to shake it, because of its having been built well.

While those who have listened and not acted upon what they 49 have heard may be compared to a man who has built a house on the ground, without any foundation. The river sweeps down upon it, and the house immediately falls to pieces; and great indeed is the crash that follows."

When Jesus had finished all that he had to say to the people, 1 7
he entered Capernaum.

Cure of an Officer's Servant.

There, there was a Captain in the Roman army 2 who had a servant that he greatly valued, who was so ill as to be at the point of death. Hearing 3 about Jesus, he sent some Jewish Councillors to him, with the request that he would come and save his servant's life. When 4 they found Jesus, they earnestly implored him to do so.

"He is a man who deserves your showing him this favour," they said, "for he is devoted to our nation, and himself built 5 our Synagogue for us."

So Jesus went with them. But when he was already close to 6
the house, the Captain sent some friends with the message—

"Do not trouble yourself, Sir; for I am not important enough for you to come under my roof. This indeed was the 7 reason why I did not think myself fit to come to you; but say the word and let my man-servant be cured. For I myself am 8 a man under the orders of others, with soldiers under me; and if I say to one of them 'Go,' he goes, and to another 'Come,' he comes, and to my servant 'Do so and so,' he does it."

Jesus was surprised to hear these words from him; and turning 9 to the crowd which was following him, he said:

"Believe me, nowhere in Israel have I met with such faith as this!"

And when the messengers returned to the house, they found 10
the servant recovered.

Raising of the Son of the Widow of Nain.

Shortly after, Jesus went to a town called Nain, 11 his disciples and a great crowd going with him. Just as he got near the gate of the town, there 12 was a dead man being carried out for burial, who was the only son of a widowed mother. A large number of the people of the town were with her. The Master's heart 13 was touched at the sight of her, and he said to her: "Do not cry."

Then he went up and touched the bier, and the bearers stopped. 14

"Young man," Jesus said, "it is to you I am speaking, get up."

The dead man sat up and began to talk, and Jesus restored 15 him to his mother. Every one was awe-struck and began 16 praising God.

"A great Prophet has arisen among us," they said. "God has not forgotten his people."
And this story about Jesus spread all through Judaea, as well as in the neighbouring countries. 17

John's Message to Jesus.

All these events were reported to John by his disciples. So he summoned two of them and sent them to the Master to ask— 18 19

"Are you the Coming One, or are we to look for some one else?"
When these men found Jesus, they said: 20

"John the Baptist has sent us to you to ask—'Are you the Coming One, or are we to look for some one else?'"
Just at that very time Jesus had cured many people of diseases, afflictions, and evil spirits, and had given many blind people their sight. So to this question his answer was: 21 22

"Go and report to John what you have noticed and heard—the blind are gaining their sight, the lame are walking, the lepers are being healed, and the deaf are gaining their hearing, the dead are being raised to life; the Good News is being told to the poor. And happy is the man who finds no hindrance in me." 23

Testimony of Jesus to John.

When John's messengers had left, Jesus, speaking to the crowds, began to say with reference to John: 24

"What did you go out into the desert to look at? A reed waving in the wind? If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in rich clothing? Why, those who are accustomed to fine clothes and luxury live in royal palaces. What then did you go to see? A Prophet? Yes, indeed, and something more than a Prophet; for this is the very man of whom Scripture says— 25 26 27

'Behold, I am sending my Messenger before thy face,
And he shall prepare thy way before thee.'

There is, I tell you, no one, born of a woman, who is greater than John; and yet those of least importance in the Kingdom of God are greater than he." 28

(All the people, when they heard this, even the tax-gatherers as well, acknowledged the justice of God, having already accepted John's baptism. But the Pharisees and Teachers of the Law, having rejected John's baptism, frustrated God's purpose in regard to them.) 29 30

"To what then," Jesus continued, "shall I compare the people of the present generation? What are they like? They are like some little children who are sitting in the market-place and calling out to each other— 31 32

'We have played the fife for you, but you have not danced;
We have wailed, but you have not cried!'

22 Ps. 118. 26. 23 Isa. 61. 1 24 Mal. 3. 1

For now that John the Baptist has come—a man who does not 33 eat bread nor drink wine like other people—you are saying,
'He has an evil spirit in him'; and now that the Son of Man 34 has come, eating and drinking like other people, you are saying,
'Here is a glutton and a wine drinker, a friend of tax-gatherers and godless people.' In all this, wisdom is vindicated by all 35 her children."

Jesus anointed by a Woman.

One of the Pharisees asked Jesus to dine with 36 him, so Jesus went to his house and took his place at table. Just then a woman who 37 was leading a bad life in the town, having ascertained that Jesus was at table in the Pharisee's house, procured an alabaster jar of perfume, and placed herself behind Jesus near 38 his feet, sobbing. She began to make his feet wet with her tears, and she dried them with the hair of her head, kissing his feet and sprinkling them with the perfume. When the Phari- 39 see who had invited Jesus saw this, he said to himself:

"Had this man been The Prophet, he would have known who, and what sort of woman, this is who is touching him, and that she is leading a bad life."

But addressing him, Jesus said: 40

"Simeon, I have something to tell you."

"Pray do, Teacher," Simeon answered; and Jesus began:

"There were two people in debt to a money-lender; one 41 owed fifty pounds, and the other five. As they were unable to 42 pay him, he forgave both of them their debts. Which of them, do you think?, will feel the greater love for him?"

"I suppose," Simeon answered, "it will be the man to whom 43 he forgave the greater debt."

"You are right," Jesus said; and then turning to the woman, 44
he went on:

"Do you see this woman? I came to your house—you gave me no water for my feet, while she has made my feet wet with tears and dried them with her hair. You did not give me one 45 kiss, while she, from the moment I came in, has never stopped kissing my feet! You did not sprinkle even my head with oil, 46 while she has sprinkled my feet with perfume. And for this, her 47 sins, many as they are, have been forgiven, because she has loved greatly, but those who have little forgiven them, love but little."

Then he said to the woman: "Your sins have been forgiven." 48

On this, those at table began to say to one another: 49

"Who is this man who actually forgives sins?"

But Jesus said to the woman: 50

"Your own faith has saved you; my blessing go with you."

Women who ministered to Jesus.

Shortly afterwards, Jesus went on a journey 1 8 through the towns and villages, proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom of God. With him 2 went the Twelve, as well as some women who had been cured of evil spirits and of complaints. There were Mary, known as Mary of Magdala (from whom seven evil spirits had come out), and Joanna (the wife of Herod's agent, Chuza), and 3 Susannah, and many others—all of whom ministered to Jesus and his Apostles out of their means.

Parable of the Sower.

One day when a great crowd was collecting— 4 people coming up from town after town round Jesus—he spoke to them in the form of a story:

"A man went out to sow his seed; and as he was sowing, 5 some of the seed fell along the path and got trodden upon; and the wild birds ate it up. Some of it, too, fell upon rock; 6 and as soon as it was out of the ground it withered away, because it had no moisture. Some of the seed fell all among 7 thorn bushes, which grew up with it and choked it entirely. Some of it fell into rich soil; and grew, and produced a crop 8 a hundred times as great."

After saying this, Jesus called out:

"Let all who have ears to listen with, listen."

Explanation of the Parable of the Sower.

His disciples asked Jesus the meaning of this 9 story. "To you," he said, "the knowledge of the 10 secrets of the Kingdom of God has been imparted, but to others they are told in the form of stories, that though they have eyes they may not see, and though they have ears, they may not understand.

This is the meaning of the story:— 11

The seed is God's Message. By the seed which fell along the 12 path are meant those who hear the Message; but then the Devil comes and carries away the Message from their minds, to prevent their believing it and so being saved.

By the seed which fell upon the rock are meant those who, as 13 soon as they hear the Message, welcome it joyfully; but they have no root, and only believe it for a time, and when the time of temptation comes, they draw back.

By that which fell among the thorn bushes are meant those 14 who hear the Message, but who, as they go on their way, are completely choked by this world's anxieties and wealth and pleasures, and bring nothing to perfection.

But by that in the good ground are meant those who, having 15 heard the Message, keep it in the good, rich soil of their hearts, and patiently produce fruit.

Lesson from a Lamp.

No one puts a light to a lamp and then covers 16 it with a bowl or puts it underneath a bench, but he puts it on its stand, so that anyone who comes in may see the light. There is indeed nothing kept secret, 17 which will not have light let in upon it; nor is there any secret which will not some day become known and come to light.

Take care, then, how you listen. For all those who retain 18 anything will have more given them; while all those who retain nothing will have even what they seemed to have taken away from them."

[10] Isa. 6. 10.

The true Brotherhood.

Presently Jesus' mother and brothers came 19
where he was, but they were not able to join him on account of the crowd. So a message was given him— 20
'Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, waiting to see you.'
His reply, spoken to them all, was: 21
"My mother and my brothers are those who listen to God's teaching and do it."

Jesus stills a Storm.

One day about that time, Jesus got into a boat 22 with his disciples and suggested to them that they should cross the lake. So they put off. While they 23 were sailing, Jesus fell asleep. A squall swept down upon the lake, and their boat began to fill and was in danger. So 24 the disciples came and roused him.
"Sir, Sir," they said, "our lives are in danger."
Jesus got up and rebuked the wind and the rising waves, and they fell, and a calm followed.
"Where is your faith?" he exclaimed. 25
But in great awe and amazement they said to one another:
"Who can this be, that he gives his orders even to the winds and the waves, and they obey him?"

Cure of a Madman.

Afterwards they reached the country of the 26
Gerasenes, which is on the other side, opposite Galilee; and after Jesus had got ashore, he met a man coming 27 out of the town, who had evil spirits in him. For a long time this man had not worn any clothing, and he did not live in a house, but in the tombs. Catching sight of Jesus, he called 28 out and threw himself down before him, and exclaimed loudly:
"What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I pray you not to torture me."
For Jesus was commanding the wicked spirit to come out from 29 the man. On many occasions the spirit had seized him, when, though secured with chains and fetters and watched, he would break to pieces what should have secured him, and be driven by the evil spirit into the desert.
"What is your name?" Jesus asked. 30
"Legion," he answered (for many evil spirits had taken possession of him); and the spirits begged Jesus not to order 31 them away into the bottomless pit. There was a drove 32 of a good many pigs feeding upon the hill-side. So the spirits begged Jesus to give them leave to take possession of them; and Jesus did so. They came out from the man and took 33 possession of the pigs; and the drove rushed down the steep slope into the lake and were drowned. When the men 34 who tended them saw what had happened, they ran away, and carried the news to the town, and to the country round. The 35 people went out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the evil spirits had gone out, sitting, clothed and in his right senses, at Jesus' feet; and they were awe-struck. Those who had seen it told 36 them how the possessed man had been made well; upon 37 which all the people in the neighbourhood of the Gerasenes asked him to leave them, for they were filled with awe. Jesus got into a boat and went back. The man from whom the evil 38 spirits had gone out begged Jesus to let him be with him; but Jesus sent him away.

"Go back home," he said, "and relate the story of all that 39 God has done for you."

So the man went through the whole town and made known, as he went, all that Jesus had done for him.

Jair's Request.

On his return, Jesus was welcomed by the 40 people; indeed every one was looking out for him. Here a man named Jair came up to Jesus. Jair 41 was a President of the Synagogue; and he threw himself at Jesus' feet, with entreaties that he would come to his house, because 42 his only daughter, who was about twelve years old, was dying. As Jesus was going, the people kept crushing round him. Meanwhile a woman, 43 who had suffered from haemorrhage for twelve years, and whom no one could cure, came up behind and 44 touched the tassel of his cloak. Instantly the haemorrhage ceased.

"Who was it that touched me?" Jesus asked; and while 45
every one was denying having done so, Peter exclaimed:

"Why, Sir, the people are all round you and pressing upon
you!"

"Somebody did touch me," Jesus said; "for I was myself 46 conscious of a demand upon my powers."

Then the woman, when she saw that she had not escaped 47 notice, came forward trembling, and threw herself down before him; and in presence of all the people she told him her reason for touching him, and that she had been cured at once.

"My daughter," he said, "your own faith has made you well. 48
My blessing be with you."

Before he had done speaking, some one came from the house 49 of the President of the Synagogue and said:

"Your daughter is dead! Do not trouble the Teacher any more."

But Jesus, hearing this, spoke to the President: 50
"Do not be afraid; only have faith, and she will get well."

[44] Num. 15. 38.

When he reached the house, he did not allow any one to go in with him, except Peter, John, James, and the child's father and mother. Every one was weeping and mourning for her. 51 52

"Do not weep," Jesus said, "she is not dead, she is asleep." They began laughing at him, since they knew that she was dead. But taking her by the hand, Jesus said loudly: 53 54

"Child, get up."

The girl's spirit returned to her, and she instantly stood up; and Jesus ordered them to give her something to eat. Her parents were astounded, but Jesus impressed on them not to tell any one what had happened. 55 56

Mission of the twelve Apostles.

Jesus called the Twelve together and gave them power and authority over all evil spirits, as well as to cure diseases. Then he sent them out to proclaim the Kingdom of God, and to work cures. 1 2

"Do not," he said to them, "take anything for your journey; not even a stick, or a bag, or bread, or any silver, or a change of clothes with you. Whatever house you go to stay in, remain there, and leave from that place. If people do not welcome you, as you leave that town, shake even the dust off your feet, as a warning for them." 3 4 5

So they set out, and went to village after village, telling the Good News and curing people everywhere. 6

Herod's Opinion about Jesus.

Now Prince Herod heard of all that was happening, and was puzzled, because it was said by some that John must be risen from the dead. Some again said that Elijah had appeared, and others that one of the old Prophets had arisen. But Herod himself said: 7 8 9

"John I beheaded myself; but who is this of whom I hear such accounts?"

And he was anxious to see him.

Return of the Apostles.

After a time the Apostles returned, and told Jesus the story of all that they had done. 10

Then Jesus retired, without attracting attention, to a town called Bethsaida, taking the Apostles with him. The people became aware of this and followed him in crowds; so Jesus welcomed them and spoke to them about the Kingdom of God, while he cured those who stood in need of help. 11

Jesus provides Food for five thousand Men.

The day was drawing to a close, when the Twelve came up to him, and said: 12

"Send the crowd away, so that they may make their way to the villages and farms round about, and find themselves lodgings and provisions, for we are in a lonely spot here."

"It is for you to give them something to eat," Jesus answered. 13

"We have not more than five loaves and two fishes," they said; "unless indeed we are to go and buy food for all these people."
(For there were about five thousand men among them.) 14
"Get them seated in groups," was his reply, "about fifty in each."
This they did, and got all the people seated. Then, taking the 15 five loaves and the two fishes, Jesus looked up to Heaven and 16 blessed them. After this he broke them into pieces, and proceeded to give them to his disciples to set before the people.
Every one had plenty to eat, and they took away twelve 17 basketsful of spare pieces.

Jesus owned as the Christ.

Afterwards, when Jesus was praying in a retired place, his disciples being with him, he asked them this question— 18

"Who do most people say I am?"
"John the Baptist," was their answer; "others, however, 19 say you are Elijah, while others say, 'One of the old Prophets has arisen.'" "But you," he went on, "who do you say I am?" 20
And to this Peter answered:
"The Christ of God."
Jesus, however, distinctly impressed on them not to say this to 21

Jesus foretells his Death.

any one. He said that the Son of Man had much 22 to undergo, and that he must be rejected by the Councillors, Chief Priests, and Rabbis, and be put to death, and rise on the third day from the grave.

A Call to renounce Self.

And to all present he said: 23
"If any man wishes to always go where I go, he must renounce self, take up his cross daily, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose 24 it; and whoever for my sake loses his life—he will save it.
What good does it do a man if, when he has gained the whole 25 world, he has lost or forfeited himself? For whoever is 26 ashamed of me and of my teaching, the Son of Man will be ashamed of that man, when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels. Indeed, I tell 27 you, some of those who are standing before me will certainly not die, till they have seen the Kingdom of God."

The Transfiguration.

About eight days after speaking these words, 28
Jesus went up the mountain to pray, taking with him Peter, John, and James. As he was praying, the 29 appearance of his face became quite different, while his clothing became of a glittering whiteness. Then suddenly two men 30 were talking with Jesus, who proved to be Moses and Elijah.
They appeared in a glorified state, and spoke of his departure, 31 so soon to come at Jerusalem. Peter and his companions had 32 been overpowered by sleep, but suddenly becoming wide awake they saw Jesus in glory and the two men who were standing beside him. Just as Moses and Elijah were leaving 33

Jesus, Peter exclaimed:

"Sir, it is good to be here; let us make three tents, one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

He did not know what he was saying; and while he was 34 speaking, a cloud came down and enveloped them; and they were greatly alarmed, as they passed into the cloud; and a 35 voice came from it which said:

"This is my Son, my Chosen One. It is to him you must listen."

And as the voice ceased, Jesus was seen to be alone. The 36 Apostles kept silence about this, and did not at that time tell any one about any of the things they had seen.

Cure of an epileptic Boy.

Next day, when they had come down from the 37 mountain, a great crowd met Jesus. Suddenly a 38 man in the crowd cried out:

"Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child; all at once a spirit will seize him and suddenly call out, 39 and throw him into a fit till he foams, and only leave him after a severe struggle, when he is completely broken down. So I 40 begged your disciples to drive the spirit out, but they could not."

"Faithless and perverse generation!" Jesus exclaimed; "how 41 long must I be with you and have patience with you? Lead your son here."

As the boy was coming up to Jesus, the evil spirit dashed him 42 down and threw him into a fit. But Jesus rebuked the wicked spirit, and cured the boy, and gave him back to his father.
And all present were struck with awe at this display of the 43 majesty of God.

Jesus, a second time, foretells his Death.

In the midst of the general astonishment at all that he was doing, Jesus told his disciples that they must listen carefully to what he was saying, 44
"for," he went on, "the Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men."

But the disciples did not understand the meaning of this; 45 indeed it had been concealed from them to prevent their seeing it, and they were afraid to question him as to what he meant.

Lesson in Humility.

A discussion once began among the disciples as 46 to which of them was the greatest; and Jesus, 47 knowing of the discussion that was occupying their minds, took hold of a little child, and placed it beside him, and then said to them: 48

[35] Ps. 2. 7; Isa. 42. 1. [41] Deut. 32. 5.

"Any one who, for my sake, welcomes even this little child is welcoming me; and any one who welcomes me is welcoming him who made me his Messenger. For the lowliest among you all—that is the man who is great."

Lesson in Toleration.

Thereupon John said: 49
"Sir, we saw a man driving out evil spirits by using your name, and we tried to stop him, because he does not follow you with us."
"Do not any of you try to stop him," Jesus said to John; 50
"the man who is not against you is for you."

IV.—The Journey to Jerusalem.

Further Lesson in Toleration.

As the days before his being taken up to Heaven 51 were growing few, Jesus set his face resolutely in the direction of Jerusalem; and he sent on 52 messengers in advance. On their way, they went into a Samaritan village to make preparations for him. The people 53 there did not welcome him, because his face was set in the direction of Jerusalem; and when James and John saw this, 54
they said:
"Master, do you wish us to call for fire to come down from the sky and consume them?"
But Jesus turned and rebuked them; and so they found their 55 56 way to a different village.

Tests of Sincerity.

Here, while they were still on their way, a man 57
said to Jesus:
"I will follow you wherever you go."
"Foxes have holes," replied Jesus, "and wild birds have 58 roosts, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."
To another man Jesus said: "Follow me." 59
"Give me leave," the man replied, "to go and bury my father first."
But Jesus said: 60
"Leave dead men to bury their own dead; but go yourself and carry far and wide the news of the Kingdom of God."
"Master," said another, "I will follow you; but give me leave 61 to say good-bye to my family first."
But Jesus answered: 62
"No one who looks back, after putting his hand to the plough, is fitted for the Kingdom of God."

Mission of the Seventy.

After this, the Master appointed seventy-two 1 10 other disciples, and sent them on, two and two, in advance, to every town and place that he was himself intending to visit.

"The harvest," he said, "is heavy, but the labourers are few. 2
So pray to the Owner of the harvest to send labourers to do the harvesting. Now, go. Remember I am sending you out 3 like lambs among wolves. Do not take a purse with you, or a 4 bag, or shoes; and do not stop to wish well to any one on your journey. Whatever house you go to stay at, begin by praying 5 for a blessing on it. Then, if any one there proves deserving of 6 a blessing, your blessing will stay upon him; but if not, it will come back upon yourselves. Remain at that same house, and 7 eat and drink whatever they offer you; for the worker is worth his wages. Do not keep changing from one house to another.
Whatever town you go to stay at, if the people welcome you, 8 eat what is set before you, cure the sick there, and tell people, 9
'The Kingdom of God is close at hand.' But whatever town 10 you go to stay at, if the people do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, 'We wipe off the very dust of your 11 town which has stuck to our feet; but, for all that, you may be certain that the Kingdom of God is close at hand.' I tell you, 12 the doom of Sodom will be more bearable on That Day than the doom of that town. Alas for you, Chorazin! Alas 13

Doom of the Towns of Galilee.

for you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles which have been done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have sat in sack-cloth and ashes and repented long ago. Yet the doom of Tyre and 14
Sidon will be more bearable at the Judgement than yours.
And you, too, Capernaum! Will you exalt yourself to 15
Heaven? You shall go down to the Place of Death. Those 16

Encouragement of the Seventy.

who listen to you are listening to me, and those who reject you are rejecting me; while those who reject me are rejecting him who made me his Messenger."

Return of the Seventy to Jesus.

When the seventy-two returned, they were ex- 17 ceedingly happy. "Master," they said, "even the evil spirits submit to us when we use your name."
And Jesus replied: 18
"I have had visions of Satan, fallen, like a flash of lightning from the sky. Listen, I have given you the power to trample 19 upon serpents and scorpions, and to meet all the strength of the Enemy. Nothing shall in the least harm you. Yet do not 20 find your happiness in the fact that the spirits submit to you, but in the fact that your names have been enrolled in Heaven.

Blindness of human Wisdom.

At that same time, moved by the holy Spirit, 21
Jesus said in exultation:
"I thank thee, Father, Lord of Heaven and earth, that, though thou hast entirely hidden these things from the wise and clever, thou hast revealed them to the childlike!
Yes, Father, I thank thee that this has seemed good to thee.
Everything has been committed to me by my Father; 22

12 Isa. 2. 11. 15 Isa. 14. 13, 15. 19 Ps. 91. 13.

nor does any one know who the Son is, except the Father, and who the Father is, except the Son and any one to whom the Son may choose to reveal him."

Then turning to his disciples, Jesus said specially to them: 23
"Happy are those that have eyes to see what you are seeing; for, I tell you, many Prophets and Kings wished for the sight of 24 the things which you are seeing, yet never had it, and to hear the things which you are hearing, yet never heard them."

A Question about the Commandments.

Just then a Teacher of the Law, by way of 25 further testing Jesus, stood forward and said:
"Teacher, what must I do if I am to 'share enduring Life'?"

"What is said in the Law?" replied Jesus. "What do you 26 read there?"

His reply was: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy 27 heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as if he were thyself."

"You have answered right," said Jesus; "do that and you 28 will live."

But the man, wanting to make out a case for himself, said to 29 Jesus: "And who is my neighbour?"; to which Jesus replied: 30

The good Samaritan.

"A man was once going down from Jerusalem to Jericho when he fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him of everything, and beat him, and then went off leaving him half dead. It so happened that a priest chanced 31 to be going down by that road. He saw the man, but passed by on the opposite side. In the same way a Levite, too, came up 32 to the spot, but when he saw him, passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan, travelling that way, came up to the 33 man, and when he saw him, his heart melted at the sight. He 34 went to him and bound up his wounds, dressing them with oil and wine, and then put him on his own animal, and led him to an inn, where he took care of him. The next day he took out 35 four shillings, and gave them to the inn-keeper. 'Take care of him,' he said, 'and whatever more you spend I will myself repay on my way back.' Now which, do you think?, of these 36 three men," asked Jesus, "proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the robbers' hands?"

"The one that took pity on him," was the answer; on which 37 Jesus said:
"Go and do the same yourself."

The Sisters of Bethany.

As they continued their journey, Jesus came to 38 a village, where a woman of the name of Martha welcomed him to her house. Martha had a 39 sister called Mary, who seated herself at the Master's feet, and listened to his teaching; but Martha herself was distracted by 40

25 Enoch 40. 1. 27 Deut. 6. 5; Lev. 19. 18. 28 Lev. 18. 5.

the many preparations she was making. So she went up to Jesus and said:

"Master, do you approve of my sister leaving me to make preparations alone? Tell her to help me."

"Martha, Martha," the Master replied, "you are anxious and 41 worry yourself about many things; yet only a few are neces- 42 sary—or indeed only one. Mary has made a good choice, and it is one that shall not be taken away from her."

The 'Lord's Prayer.'

One day Jesus was at a certain place praying, 1 11
and when he had finished, one of his disciples said to him:

"Master, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples."

"When you pray," Jesus answered, "you should say— 2

"Father,
May thy Name be held holy,
and thy Kingdom come.
Give us each day 3
our bread for the day before us;
And forgive us our sins, 4
for we ourselves, too, forgive every one in debt to us;
And do not take us into temptation."

Persistence in Prayer.

Jesus also said to them: 5
"Suppose one of you who has a friend were to go to him in the middle of the night and say, 'Friend, lend me three loaves, for a friend of mine has 6
arrived at my house after a journey, and I have nothing to offer him'; and suppose the other should answer from inside, 7
'Do not trouble me; the door is already fastened, and my children and I are gone to bed; I cannot get up and give you anything'; I assure you that, even if he will not get up and give 8 him anything because he is a friend, yet because of his friend's persistence he will rouse himself and give him all he needs.

Encouragement to Prayer.

So I say to you—Ask, and your prayer will be granted; 9 search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you. Indeed it is always those 10 that ask who get, those that search who find, and those that knock to whom the door will be opened. What 11 father among yourselves, if his son asks him for a fish, will give him a snake instead, or if he asks for an egg, will give 12 him a scorpion? Well then, if you, wicked as you have long 13 been, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the holy Spirit to those that ask him!"

Cure of a dumb Man.

Once Jesus was driving out a dumb spirit, and 14 when the evil spirit had left him, the dumb man spoke. The people were astonished at this. Some of 15 them said:

Jesus accused of Acting by the Help of Satan.

"He drives out evil spirits by the help of Baal-zebub, their own chief"; while others, by way of testing him, asked him for some sign of his power from the sky. Jesus himself, however, was aware of what they were thinking, and said to them:

16 17

"Any kingdom altogether at variance within itself is on the way to desolation; and a divided house falls. So, too, if Satan is altogether at variance with himself, how can his kingdom last? Yet you say that I drive out evil spirits by the help of Baal-zebub. But if it is by Baal-zebub's help that I drive out evil spirits, by whose help is it that your own sons drive them out? Therefore they shall themselves be your judges. But if it is by the hand of God that I drive out evil spirits, then the Kingdom of God must already be upon you. When a strong man is keeping guard, fully armed, over his own mansion, his property is in safety; but as soon as a still stronger attacks and gets the better of him, he takes away all the weapons on which the other had relied, and divides his spoil. Those who are not with me are against me, and those who do not join me in gathering are scattering. No sooner does a wicked spirit leave a man, than it passes through places where there is no water, in search of rest; and failing to find it, it says, 'I will go back to the home which I left'; and on its arrival, it finds it unoccupied, swept out, and put in order. Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in, and make their home there; and the later state of that man proves worse than the earlier."

18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26

A Woman's Exclamation.

As Jesus was saying this, a woman in the crowd, raising her voice, exclaimed:

"Happy was the mother who bore you and nursed you!"

27

But Jesus replied:

"Rather, happy are those who listen to God's Message and keep it."

28

A Sign asked for.

As the crowds grew thicker, Jesus began by saying:

29

"The present generation is a wicked one. It asks for a sign, and no sign shall be given it except the sign of Jonah. For as Jonah proved a sign to the people of Nineveh, so will the Son of Man be to the present generation. The Queen of the South will rise up at the Judgement, side by side with the men of this generation, and will condemn them, because she came from the very ends of the earth to listen to the wisdom of Solomon; and here is more than a Solomon! The men of Nineveh will stand up at the Judgement, side by side with this generation, and will condemn it, because they repented at Jonah's proclamation;

30 31 32

The Sin of rejecting Jesus.

and here is more than a Jonah! No one puts a light 33
Lesson from a Lamp. to a lamp, and then sets it in the cellar or covers it over, but he sets it on the lamp-stand, so that any one who comes in may see the light. The lamp 34 of the body is the eye. When your eye is unclouded, your whole body, too, is lighted up; but as soon as your eye is diseased, your body, too, is dark. Take care, therefore, that 35 the inner Light is not darkness. And then if your whole body 36 is lighted up, and no corner of it dark, the whole will be as much lighted up as when a lamp gives you its brilliant light."

Jesus denounces the Pharisees. As Jesus finished speaking, a Pharisee asked 37 him to lunch with him, and Jesus went in and sat down at table. The Pharisee noticed, to his 38 astonishment, that Jesus had not washed before lunch. But 39
the Master said to him:

"You Pharisees do, it is true, clean the outside of the cup and of the plate, while inside you are full of grasping and wickedness. Fools! did not the maker of the outside make the inside 40 too? Still if you give away the contents in charity, then at 41 once you have the whole clean. But alas for you Pharisees— 42 because you pay tithes on mint, rue, and herbs of all kinds, and pass over justice and love to God. These last you ought to have put into practice without neglecting the first. Alas 43 for you Pharisees—because you like to have the front seat in the Synagogues, and to be greeted in the streets with respect. Alas for you—because you are like unsuspected graves, over 44 which men walk without knowing it."

Here one of the Teachers of the Law interrupted him by saying: 45
"Teacher, when you say this, you are insulting us too."

But Jesus went on: 46

"Alas for you as well, you Teachers of the Law—because while you load people with loads that are difficult to carry, you do not, yourselves, touch them with one of your fingers. Alas for you—because you build monuments for the Prophets 47 whom your forefathers killed. You are actually witnesses to 48 your forefathers' acts and show your approval of them, because, while they killed them, you build tombs for them. This is 49 why the Wisdom of God said—"I will send to them Prophets and Apostles, some of whom they will kill and persecute, in 50 order that the 'blood' of all the Prophets 'that has been spilt' since the creation of the world may be exacted from this generation—from the blood of Abel down to the blood of 51 Zachariah, who was murdered between the altar and the House of God. Yes, I tell you, it will be exacted from this generation. Alas for you Teachers of the Law—because you 52 have taken away the key of the door of Knowledge. You have not gone in yourselves and you have hindered those that were going in."

A Plot against Jesus.

When Jesus left the house, the Rabbis and Pharisees began to press him hard and catechize him upon many subjects, keeping a sharp watch upon his words in the hope of catching him. 53 54

Warning against false Teaching.

Meanwhile the people had gathered in thousands, so that they actually trampled on one another, when Jesus, addressing himself to his disciples, began with the warning: 12 1

"Be on your guard against the leaven—I mean the hypocrisy—of the Pharisees. There is nothing, however covered up, which will not be uncovered, nor anything kept secret which will not become known. Hence all that you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in the ear, within closed doors, will be proclaimed upon the housetops. 2 3

Encouragement to the Disciples.

To you who are my friends I say, Do not be afraid of those that kill the body, but after that can do no more. I will show you whom you should be afraid of. Be afraid of him who, after killing you, has the power to fling you into the Pit. Yes, I say, be afraid of him. Do not five sparrows sell for a penny? and yet not one of them has escaped God's notice. No, the very hairs of your heads are all counted. Do not be afraid, then; you are of more value than many sparrows. 4 5 6 7

Every one, I tell you, who will acknowledge me before his fellow men, the Son of Man, on his part, will acknowledge before God's angels; but those who disown me before their fellow men will be entirely disowned before God's angels. 8 9

All who say anything against the Son of Man will be forgiven, while for those who slander the holy Spirit there will be no forgiveness. 10

Whenever they take you before the Synagogue Courts or the magistrates or other authorities, do not be anxious about how you will defend yourselves, or what your defence will be, or what you will say; for the holy Spirit will show you at the moment what you ought to say." 11 12

A Lesson to a selfish Man.

"Teacher," a man in the crowd said to Jesus, "tell my brother to share the property with me." 13

But Jesus said to him: 14

"Pray, who made me judge or arbitrator for you?"

And then he added: 15

"Take care to keep yourselves free from every kind of covetousness; for even in the hour of his abundance a man's true life does not depend on his wealth."

Then Jesus told them this story— 16

A Rich Fool.

"There was once a rich man who had a very fertile farm; and who began to consider to himself what he should do, as he had nowhere to store his crops. 17

'This is what I will do,' he said; 'I will pull my barns 18 down and build bigger ones, and store all my grain and good things in them; and I will say to myself, Now you have plenty 19 of good things put by for many a year; take your ease, eat and drink, and enjoy yourself.'
But God said to the man, 'You foolish man, this very night 20 your life will be demanded; and who will get the good of all your preparations?'
And so it is with those who lay by wealth for themselves and 21 are not rich for God."

The Cares of Life.

Then Jesus said to his disciples: 22
"That is why I say to you, Do not be anxious about your life here—what you will have to eat; nor yet about the clothes for your body. For your life is more important 23 than its food, and your body than its clothes. Think of the 24 crows—they neither sow, nor reap; nor have they any storehouse or barn; and yet God feeds them! And how much more you are worth than birds! Which of you, however 25 anxious he is about it, can prolong his life a moment? And 26 if you cannot manage even a very little thing, what use is there in being anxious about other things? Think of the lilies, 27 how they grow! They neither toil nor spin; yet, I tell you, even Solomon in all his grandeur was not robed like one of them. If then God dresses in this way the very wild-flowers, 28 which are living to-day and will be used for the oven tomorrow, how much more will he do the same for you, you men of small faith! And so in your case, do not be eager about 29 what you can get to eat or what you can get to drink, and do not live in a state of suspense. For all these things the heathen 30 throughout the world are eager about, and your Father knows that you need them all. No, be eager about his Kingdom, 31 and then these things will be given you in addition. So do 32 not be afraid, my little flock, for your Father has been pleased to give you the Kingdom.

The true Treasure.

Sell what belongs to you, 33 and give the proceeds in charity. Make yourselves purses that will not wear out—an inexhaustible treasure in Heaven, where no thief comes near, nor even a moth works ruin. For where your treasure is, there 34

Watchfulness.

will your heart be too. Be ready, with your 35 lamps alight; and be like men who are waiting 36 for their Master's return from his wedding, so that when he comes and knocks they may open the door for him at once.
Happy are those servants whom, on his return, the Master will 37 find on the alert. Believe me, he will put on his girdle, and make them take their places at table, and will go and wait upon them.
Whether it is late at night, or in the early morning that he 38 comes, if he finds things as they should be, then happy are they. Of this you may be sure, that, had the owner of the 39 house known what time the thief was coming, he would have been on the watch, and would not have let his house be broken into. You also should get ready, since it is just when you are least expecting him that the Son of Man will come."

40

Parable of the good and bad Servants.

"Master," said Peter, "are you telling this story for us or for every one?"

41

"Who, I wonder," the Master replied, "answers to the trustworthy house-steward, the thoughtful man, who will be placed by his master over his attendants, to give them their rations at the proper time? Happy will that servant be whom his Master, when he comes home, will find doing as he was told. His master, I tell you, will give him the management of the whole of his property. But should that servant say to himself, 'My master is a long time coming,' and so begin to beat the menservants and maidservants, and to eat and drink and get drunk, that servant's master will come home on a day when he does not expect him, and at an hour of which he is ignorant, and will flog him severely and allot him a place among the untrustworthy. The servant who knows his master's wishes and yet does not get ready and act according to those wishes will receive many lashes; while one who does not know his master's wishes, but acts so as to deserve a flogging, will only receive a few. From every one to whom much has been given much will be expected, and from the man to whom much has been entrusted more will be demanded than from others.

The Cost of Christ's Service.

I came to bring down fire to earth; and what is my wish? Would it were already kindled! There is a baptism that I must receive, and how great is my distress till it is over! Do you think that I am here to give peace on earth? Not that, I tell you, but to cause division. After this, if there are five people in a house, they will be divided, three against two, and two against three. In the division, father will be against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

Signs of the Times.

And to the people Jesus said:

54

"When you see a cloud rising in the west, you say at once, 'There is a shower coming,' and so it does. And when you see the wind in the south, you say, 'It will be burning hot,' and so it is. Hypocrites! You know how to judge of the earth and the sky, how is it then you cannot judge of this time? Why do you not settle what is right of your own accord? When, for instance, you are going with your opponent before a magistrate, on your way do your best to be quit of him; for fear he should take you before the judge, when the judge will hand you over to the bailiff and the bailiff throw you into prison. You will not, I tell you, get out until you have paid the very last farthing." 59

Accidents and Judgements.

13 1 Just at that very time some people had come to tell Jesus about the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mixed with the blood of their sacrifices.

2 "Do you suppose," Jesus rejoined, "that because these Galilaeans have suffered in this way, they had been worse 3 sinners than any other Galilaeans? It was not so, I assure you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did. The 4 same with those eighteen men at Siloam on whom the tower fell, killing them all, do you suppose that they had been worse offenders than all the other inhabitants of Jerusalem? It was 5 not so, I assure you; but unless you repent, you will all perish like them."

6 Then Jesus went on to tell them this story—

The barren Fig Tree.

"A man had a fig tree growing in his vineyard, but when he went to look for fruit on it, he could not find any. So he said to his gardener, 'Three 7 years now I have come and looked for fruit on this fig tree, without finding any! Cut it down. Why should it take up room for nothing?'

8 'Leave it this one year more, Sir,' the man answered, 9 'till I have dug round it and manured it. Then, if it bears in future, well and good; but if not, you will have to cut it down.'"

A Woman healed on a Sabbath.

10 One Sabbath Jesus was teaching in one of the 11 Synagogues, when there happened to be present a woman who for eighteen years had suffered from a weakness due to her being possessed. She was bent 12 double, and was wholly unable to lift herself up. When Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said:

"Woman, you are free from your weakness."

13 He placed his hands on her, and she was instantly made 14 straight, and began to praise God. But the President of the Synagogue, vexed at Jesus' having worked the cure on the Sabbath, interposed and said to the people:

"There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on one of them and get cured, and not on the Sabbath."

15 "You hypocrites!" the Master exclaimed. "Does not every one of you set free his ox or his ass from its manger, and take 16 it out to drink on the Sabbath? And this woman is a daughter of Abraham, and has been kept in bondage by Satan for now eighteen years. Ought not she to be set free from her bondage on the Sabbath?"

17 As he said this, all his opponents felt ashamed; but all the people were rejoiced to see all the splendid things that he was doing.

Parable of the Mustard Seed.

"What is the Kingdom of God like"? Jesus went on to say, "what can I liken it to? It is like a mustard-seed which a man took and put in his garden. The seed grew and became quite a tree, and the wild-birds roosted in its branches."

18 19

And again Jesus said:

20

Parable of the Leaven.

"What can I liken the Kingdom of God to? It is like some leaven which a woman took and covered in three half-pecks of flour, until the whole was leavened."

21

The narrow Door.

Then Jesus went through the towns and villages, teaching as he went, and making his way up to Jerusalem.

22

"Master," some one asked, "are there only a few in the path of Salvation?"

23

And Jesus answered:

"Try your utmost to go in by the small door. There are, I tell you, many eager to go in, but they will not be able to do so, when once the master of the house has got up and shut the door, while you begin to say, as you stand outside and knock, 'Sir, open the door for us.' His answer will be, 'I do not know where you come from.' At this you will begin to say, 'We have eaten and drunk in your presence, and you have taught in our streets,' when his reply will be, 'I do not know where you come from. Leave me, all you who are living in wickedness.'

24 25 26 27

And there there will be weeping and grinding of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the Prophets in the Kingdom of God, while you yourselves are driven outside. People will come from East and West and from North and South, and take their places at table in the Kingdom of God. Listen! There are some who are last now who will then be first, and some who are first now who will then be last."

A Message to Herod Antipas.

Just then some Pharisees came up to Jesus and said:

31

"Go away and leave this place, for Herod means to kill you."

But Jesus answered:

32

"Go and say to that vixen, 'Take notice that I am going to drive out evil spirits and work cures to-day and to-morrow, and that on the third day I shall complete my work.' But to-day and to-morrow and the day after I must go on my way, because a Prophet cannot meet his end anywhere but in Jerusalem. Jerusalem! Jerusalem! she who slays the Prophets and stones the messengers sent to her—her wings, and you refused to come! I tell you, your House will be left desolate; and never shall you see me until you say— 35

'Blessed is the One who Comes in the name of the Lord.'"

Jesus dines with a Pharisee.

14 1 Once Jesus went on a Sabbath into the house of one of the leading Pharisees for a meal; and they watched him closely. 2 There he saw a man in front of him who was suffering from dropsy.

Cure of a dropsical Man.

3 "Is it allowable," said Jesus, addressing the Teachers of the Law and the Pharisees, "to work a cure on the Sabbath, or not?"
They remained silent. 4 So Jesus took hold of the man and cured him, and sent him away.
5 Then he said to them:
"Which of you yourselves, finding that his son or his ox has fallen into a well, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath?"
6 And they failed to make any answer to this.

A Lesson in Humility for the Guests.

7 Observing that the guests were choosing the best places for themselves, Jesus spoke to them, and used the fact as an illustration:
8 "When you are invited by any one to a marriage feast, do not put yourself in the best place, in case some one of higher rank has been invited by your host; 9 for then he who invited you both will come and say to you, 'Make room for my friend,' when you will begin in confusion to find the lowest place. 10 Instead of that, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place, so that, when he who has invited you comes, he may say to you, 'Go higher up, my friend'; and then you will be honoured in the eyes of all your fellow-guests. 11 For all those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted."

A Lesson in Hospitality for the Host.

12 Then Jesus went on to say to the man who had invited him:
"When you give a lunch or a dinner, do not ask your friends, or your brothers, or your relations, or rich neighbours, for fear they should invite you in return, and so you should be repaid. 13 Instead of that, when you give a party, invite the poor, or the crippled, or the lame, or the blind; 14 and then you will be really happy, for they cannot repay you, but you will be repaid at the resurrection of the good."

Parable of the Invitation refused.

15 One of the guests heard what he said and exclaimed:
"Happy will they be who shall eat bread in the Kingdom of God!"
16 Jesus said to him:
"A man was once giving a great dinner. He invited many 35 Jer. 22. 5; Ps. 118. 26.

people, and sent his servant, when it was time for the dinner, 17 to tell the invited guests to come, as things were quite ready.
But they all alike began begging to be excused. The first 18 man said to the servant, 'I have bought a field and am obliged to go and look at it. I must ask you to consider me excused.'
The next said, 'I have bought five pairs of bullocks, and I am 19 going to try them. I must ask you to consider me excused'; while the next said, 'I am just married, and for that reason I 20 am unable to come.' On his return the servant told his master 21 all these answers. Enraged at them, the owner of the house then said to his servant, 'Go out at once into the streets and alleys of the town, and bring in here the poor, and the crippled, and the blind, and the lame.' Presently the servant said, 22
'Master, your order has been carried out, and there is still room.'

'Go out,' the master said, 'into the roads and hedgerows, 23 and make people come in, so that my house may be filled; for, 24
I tell you all, not one of those men who were invited shall taste my dinner.'"

The Duty and Cost of Self-denial.

Great crowds of people were one day walking 25 along with Jesus, when he turned and said to
them:

"If any man comes to me and does not hate even his father, 26 and mother, and wife, and children, and brothers, and sisters, yes and his very life too, he cannot be a disciple of mine. The 27 man who does not carry his own cross, and go where I go, cannot be a disciple of mine. Why, which of you yourselves, 28 when he wants to build a tower, does not first sit down and calculate the expense, to see if he has enough to complete it?
—for fear that, if he has laid the foundation and is not able to 29 finish it, every one who sees it should begin to laugh at him and say, 'Here is a man who began to build and was not able 30 to finish!' Is not it the same with a king when he is setting 31 out to fight another king? Does not he first sit down and consider if with ten thousand men he is able to meet his opponent who is coming against him with twenty thousand? And if he 32 thinks he cannot, then, while the other is still at a distance, he sends envoys and asks for terms of peace. And it is just the 33 same with every one of you who does not say goodbye to all he has—he cannot be a disciple of mine. Yes, salt is a good thing; but 34 should salt lose its strength, what will you use to restore it?

It is not fit either for the land or for the manure heap. People 35 throw it away. Let all who have ears to listen with listen!

The tax-gatherers and godless people were all drawing near to 1 15
Jesus to listen to him; but the Pharisees and Rabbis found fault: 2

"This man actually welcomes godless people, and has meals with them!" they complained. So Jesus put this case to them— 3

The Parable of the lost Sheep.

"Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and has lost but one of them, does not he leave the ninety-nine on the moor and go after the lost sheep till he finds it? Then, when he finds it, he is rejoiced, 5 and puts it on his shoulders; and on reaching home, he calls 6 his friends and neighbours together and says, 'Come and share my gladness, for I have found my sheep which was lost.' So 7 too, there will be more gladness in Heaven, I tell you, over one godless man that repents than over ninety-nine pious men, who have no need to repent. Or again, suppose a 8 woman has ten florins; if she loses one of them, does not she light a lamp and sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it? Then, 9 when she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbours together and says, 'Come and share my gladness, for I have found the florin which I lost.' So too, I tell you, there is gladness in the 10 presence of God's angels over one godless man that repents."

The Parable of the lost Coin.

Then Jesus continued: 11

The Parable of the lost Son.

"A man had two sons; and the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of the property.' And so the father divided the estate for them. A few days later the younger son got 13 together all he had, and went away into a distant land; and there he squandered his property by his dissolute life. When 14 he had spent all he had, a severe famine set in all over that country, and he began to be in actual want. So he went and 15 engaged himself to one of the people of that country, who sent him into his fields to tend pigs. He even longed to satisfy his 16 hunger with the bean-pods on which the pigs were feeding; and no one gave him anything. At last he came to his senses, 17 and said to himself, 'How many of my father's hired servants have more bread than they can eat, while I am starving to death here! I will get up and go to my father, and say to him, "Father, 18 I sinned against Heaven and to your face; I am no longer fit 19 to be called your son; treat me as one of your hired servants."' So he got up and went to his father. When he was still a long 20 way off, his father saw him, and his heart was touched; he ran and threw his arms round his neck and kissed him. 'Father,' the son said, 'I sinned against Heaven and to your 21 face; I am no longer fit to be called your son; treat me as one of your hired servants.'

But the father turned to his servants and said, 'Be quick and 22 fetch a robe—the best in the house—and put it on him; give him a ring for his finger and shoes for his feet; and bring the 23 calf that has been fattening, and kill it, and let us eat and be merry, for this son of mine was dead, and is come to life; he 24 was lost, and is found.'

So they began merry-making. Meanwhile the elder son was 25 on the farm, but on coming home, when he got near the house, he heard music and dancing. So he called one of the servants 26 and inquired what it all meant. 'Your brother has come back,' 27
the servant told him, 'and your father has killed the calf that was fattening, because he has him back safe and sound.'
This made him angry, and he would not go in. So his father 28 came out and begged him to do so. 'No,' he said to his father, 29
'look at all the years I have been serving you, without ever once disobeying you, and yet to me you have never given even a kid, so that I might have a merry-making with my friends.
But no sooner has this son of yours come, who has eaten up 30 your estate in the company of prostitutes, than you have killed for him the calf that was fattening.'
'My child,' the father answered, 'you are always with me, 31 and everything I have is yours. We could but make merry 32 and be glad, for this brother of yours was dead, but is alive;
he was lost, but is found.'"

The Parable of the Steward.

Jesus went on to say to his disciples: 1 16
"There was once a rich man who had a steward. An accusation was maliciously brought to him against this steward, that he was squandering his property. So the master called him and said, 'What is this I hear 2 about you? Give in your accounts as steward, for you cannot act as steward any longer.'
'What am I to do,' the steward asked himself, 'now that my 3 master is taking away the steward's place from me? I have not the strength to dig, and I am ashamed to beg.——I 4 know what I will do, so that, as soon as I am turned out of my place, people may welcome me into their homes.' One by one 5 he called up his master's debtors. 'How much do you owe my master?' he asked of the first. 'Four hundred and forty 6 gallons of oil,' the man answered. 'Here is your agreement,' he said; 'sit down at once and make it read two hundred and twenty. And you,' the steward said to the next, 'how 7 much do you owe?' 'Seventy quarters of wheat,' he replied.
'Here is your agreement,' the steward said; 'make it read fifty-six.'
His master complimented the false steward on the shrewdness 8 of his conduct. And indeed worldly men are shrewder in dealing with their fellows than those who are truly enlightened.
So my advice to you is to make friends for yourselves with 9 your 'false Gold,' so that, when it comes to an end, they may welcome you into the homes that will endure. Those who 10 can be trusted in a very small matter can be trusted in a great one too; and those who are false in a very small matter are false in a great one too. So if you have proved untrustworthy 11

[9] Enoch, 63. 10.

with your 'false Gold,' who will trust you with real riches? And 12 if you have proved untrustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what belongs to us? No servant can 13 be servant to two masters, for either he will dislike one and like the other, or he will attach himself to one and scorn the other. You cannot serve both God and Gold."

Jesus rebukes the Pharisees.

All this was said within the hearing of the 14 Pharisees, who were fond of their money, and they began to sneer at Jesus.

"You," said Jesus, "are the men who make yourselves out 15 to be right before your fellow-men, but God can read your hearts; and what counts for much with men may be abominable in the eyes of God. The Law and the Prophets 16 sufficed till the time of John. Since then the Good News of the Kingdom of God has been told, and everybody has been forcing his way into it. It would be easier for the 17 earth and the sky to disappear than for the cross of a 't' in the Law to be lost. Every one who divorces his wife and 18 marries another woman is an adulterer, and the man who marries her after her divorce from her husband is an adulterer.

The Parable of the rich Man and the Beggar.

There was once a rich man, who dressed in 19 purple robes and fine linen, and feasted every day in great splendour. There had been laid 20 near his gateway a beggar called Lazarus, who was a mass of sores, and who longed to satisfy his hunger with 21 what fell from the rich man's table. But worse still, the dogs came and licked his sores. After a time the beggar died, and 22 was taken by the angels to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried. In the Place of Death he looked 23 up in his torture, and saw Abraham at a distance and Lazarus with him. So he called out, 'Pity me, Father Abraham, and 24 send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am suffering agonies in this flame.'

'Remember, my son,' answered Abraham, 'that you had 25
your comforts in your lifetime, just as Lazarus had his troubles;
but now he has his consolation here, while you are suffering agonies. And not only that, but between you and us there lies 26 a great chasm, to prevent any who might wish from passing from here to you, or from crossing from there to us.'

'Then, Father,' he said, 'I beg you to send Lazarus to my 27 father's house. I have five brothers there, and I want him to 28 warn them, to prevent them from coming to this place of torture too.'

'They have the writings of Moses and the Prophets,' Abra- 29 ham replied; 'they must listen to them.'

'But, Father Abraham,' he urged, 'if some one from the 30 dead were to go to them, they would repent.'

'If they will not listen to Moses and the Prophets,' Abraham 31 replied, 'they will not be convinced, even if some one were to rise from the dead.'"

Warning against being a Hindrance to Others.

Jesus said to his disciples: 1 17
"It is inevitable that there should be hindrances; but alas for him who occasions them! It would 2 be more to his advantage if he had been flung into the sea with a mill-stone round his neck, than to prove a hindrance to even one of these lowly ones. Be on your guard! 3
If your brother wrongs you, reprove him; but if he repents, forgive him. Even if he wrongs you seven times a day, and, 4 then turns to you each time and says, 'I am sorry,' you must forgive him."

What Faith can do.

"Give us more faith," said the disciples to the 5
Master; but the Master said: 6
"If only your faith were like a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Root yourself up, and plant yourself in the sea,' and it would obey you.

Duty to be done without Expectation of Thanks.

Which of you, if he had a servant ploughing 7 or tending the sheep, would say to him, when he came in from the farm, 'Come and take your place at table at once,' instead of saying, 'Get 8 dinner ready for me, and then get dressed and wait on me while I am eating and drinking, and after that you shall eat and drink yourself'? Does he feel grateful to his servant for 9 doing what he is told? And so with you—when you have 10 done all you have been told, still say, 'We are poor servants indeed; we have only done our plain duty.'"

Jesus heals ten Lepers.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus passed through 11
the middle of Samaria and Galilee. As he 12 was entering a village, ten lepers approached him.
Standing still at a distance, they called out loudly: 13
"Jesus! Sir! pity us!"
When Jesus saw them he said: 14
"Go and show yourselves to the priests."[14]
And as they were on their way, they were healed. One of 15 them, finding he was cured, came back, loudly praising God, and threw himself on his face at Jesus' feet, thanking him for 16 what he had done. This man was a Samaritan.
"Were not all the ten healed?" asked Jesus, addressing him. 17
"Where are the other nine? Were there none to come back 18 and praise God except this foreigner? Get up," he said to him, 19
"and go on your way. Your own faith has made you well."

The Coming of the Kingdom.

Being asked once by the Pharisees when the 20
Kingdom of God was to come, Jesus answered:
"The Kingdom of God does not come in a way

[14] Lev. 13. 49.

that attracts attention, nor will people say, 'Look, here it is!' 21 or 'There it is!'; for, mark me, the Kingdom of God is already among you.

There will be days," he said to his disciples, "when you will 22 long to see but one of the days of the Son of Man, and will not see it. People will say to you, 'Look, there he is!' or 23
'Look, here he is!' Do not go and follow them. For just as 24 lightning will lighten and flare from one side of the sky to the other, so will it be with the Son of Man. But first 25 he has much to undergo, and he must be rejected by the present generation. As it was in the days of Noah, so it will 26 be again in the days of the Son of Man. They were eating 27 and drinking and marrying and being married, up to the day on which Noah entered the ark, and then the flood came and destroyed them all. So too in the days of Lot. People were 28 eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting, building; but on 29
the very day on which Lot came out of Sodom, it rained fire and sulphur from the skies and destroyed them all. This is 30 just how it will be on the day on which the Son of Man reveals himself. On that day, if a man is on his house-top and his 31 goods in the house, he must not go down to get them; nor again must one who is on the farm turn back. Recollect Lot's 32 wife. Whoever is eager to make the most of his life will lose 33 it; but whoever will lose it will preserve it. On that night, I 34 tell you, of two men in one bed, one will be taken and the other left; of two women grinding together, one will be taken 35 and the other left."

"Where will it be, Master?" interposed the disciples. 37

"Where there is a body," said Jesus, "there, too, will the vultures flock."

The Parable of the false Judge.

Jesus told his disciples a story to show them 1 18
the need of always praying and never losing heart.

"There was," he said, "in a certain town a 2 judge, who had no fear of God or regard for man. In the 3 same town there was a widow who went to him repeatedly, asking for justice against some one who had wronged her. For 4 some time the judge refused, but afterwards he said to himself,
'It is true that I am without fear of God or regard for man;
yet as this widow is so troublesome, I will grant her justice, 5 to prevent her plaguing me with her endless visits.'"

Then the Master added: 6

"Listen to what this false judge says! And God—will not 7
God see that his own chosen people, who cry to him night and day, have justice done them while he bears with their impatience? He will have justice done them, I assure you, 8 and that soon! Yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find the Faith on the earth?"

27 Gen. 7. 7. 29, 31 Gen. 19. 24, 26. 37 Isa. 34. 15.

Another time, speaking to people who were confident of their own piety, and who treated every one else with scorn, Jesus told this story— 9

The Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax-gatherer.

"Two men went up into the Temple Courts to pray. One was a Pharisee and the other a tax-gatherer. The Pharisee stood up and began praying to himself in this way— 10 11

'O God, I thank thee that I am not like other people—thieves, rogues, or adulterers, as they all are—or even like this tax-gatherer. I fast twice a week, and give a tenth of everything I get to God.' 12

The tax-gatherer, on the other hand, stood at a distance, not venturing even 'to raise his eyes to Heaven'; but he kept striking his breast and saying, 'O God, have mercy on a sinner like me.' 13

This man, I tell you, went home pardoned, and not the other; for every one who exalts himself will be humbled, while every one who humbles himself will be exalted." 14

Jesus blesses little Children.

Some of the people were bringing even their babies to Jesus, for him to touch them; but when the disciples saw it they began to find fault with those who had brought them. Jesus, however, called the children to him. 15 16

"Let the children come to me," he said, "and do not hinder them; for the Kingdom of God belongs to the childlike. Believe me, unless a man receives the Kingdom of God like a child, he will not even enter it." 17

A rich Man questions Jesus.

Presently one of the Presidents asked Jesus this question— 18

"Good Teacher, what must I do if I am to gain enduring Life?"

"Why do you call me good?" Jesus answered. "There is no one good but one—God himself. You know the commandments—Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not say what is false about others, Honour thy father and thy mother." 19 20

"All these I have observed," he replied, "from childhood." 21

Hearing this, Jesus said to him: 22

"There is one thing still lacking in you; sell every thing that you have, and distribute it to the poor; and you shall have wealth in Heaven; then come and follow me."

But the man grew very sad on hearing this, for he was extremely rich. 23

Lesson about Money.

Seeing this, Jesus said to his disciples: 24

"How hard it is for moneyed men to go into the Kingdom of God! It is easier, indeed, for a camel to 25 18 Enoch, 13. 5. 20 Exod. 20. 12—16.

get through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to get into the Kingdom of God!"

"Then who can be saved?" asked those who heard this. 26
But Jesus said: 27
"What is impossible with men is possible with God."

Rewards of Self-sacrifice.

"But we," said Peter, "we have left what be- 28 longed to us and followed you."
"Believe me," he answered, "there is no one 29 who has left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children, on account of the Kingdom of God, who will not receive 30 many times as much in the present, and in the age that is coming enduring Life."

Jesus, a third time, foretells his Death.

Gathering the Twelve round him, Jesus said to 31
them:
"Listen! We are going up to Jerusalem; and there everything that is written in the Prophets will be done to the Son of Man. For he will be handed over 32 to the heathen and mocked and insulted and spat upon; they 33 will flog him, and then put him to death; and he will rise up again on the third day."
The Apostles did not take in any of this; his meaning was 34 unintelligible to them, and they did not understand what he was saying.

Cure of a blind Man.

As Jesus was getting near Jericho, a blind man 35 was sitting by the roadside, begging. Hearing a 36 crowd going by, the man asked what was the matter; and when people told him that Jesus of Nazareth was 37 passing, he shouted out: 38
"Jesus, Son of David, take pity on me!"
Those who were in front told him to hold his tongue, but he 39 kept calling out the louder:
"Son of David, take pity on me!"
Then Jesus stopped and ordered the man to be brought to him. 40
And when the man had come close to him, Jesus asked him:
"What do you want me to do for you?" 41
"Master," he said, "I want to recover my sight."
"Recover your sight," Jesus said; "your own faith has cured 42
you."
And instantly he recovered his sight, and began to follow Jesus, 43 praising God. All the people, too, on seeing it, gave glory to God.

Zacchaeus the Tax-gatherer.

Jesus entered Jericho and made his way through 1 19
the town. There was a man there known 2 by the nam of Zacchaeus, who was the head of the tax-gatherers and a rich man. He was bent on seeing 3

[33] Hos. 6. 2.

what Jesus was like; but being short, he was unable to do so because of the crowd. So he ran on ahead and climbed up 4 into a mulberry tree, hoping to see Jesus, for he knew that Jesus must go that way. When Jesus reached the spot, he 5 looked up and said to him:

"Zacchaeus, be quick and come down, for I must stop at your house to-day."

So Zacchaeus got down quickly, and gave Jesus a hearty welcome. On seeing this, every one began complaining: 6 7

"He has gone to stay with a godless man."

But Zacchaeus stepped forward and said to the Master: 8

"Listen, Master! I will give half my property to the poor, and where I have defrauded any one of anything, I will give him back four times as much."

"Salvation has come to this house to-day," answered Jesus, 9
"because even this man is a son of Abraham. The Son of Man 10 has come to search for those who are lost and save them."

The Parable of the Servants entrusted with Money.

As people were listening to this, Jesus went on 11 to tell them a story. He did so because he was near Jerusalem and because they thought that the Kingdom of God was going to be proclaimed at once. He said: 12

"A nobleman once went to a distant country to receive his appointment to a Kingdom, and then to return. He called ten 13 of his own servants and gave them ten pounds each, and told them to trade with them during his absence. But his subjects 14 hated him and sent envoys after him to state their unwillingness to have him as their King. On his return, after 15 having been appointed King, he directed that the servants to whom he had given his money should be summoned, so that he might learn what business they had done. The first came 16 up and said, 'Sir, your ten pounds have earned a hundred.'

'Well done, indeed, you good servant!' exclaimed the master. 17
'As you have proved faithful when trusted with a very small matter, I appoint you governor over ten towns.' When the 18 second came, he said, 'Your ten pounds, Sir, have produced fifty.' So the master said to him as well, 'And you are to be 19 over five towns.' Another servant came, too, and said, 'Sir, 20 here are your ten pounds; I have kept them put away in a handkerchief. For I was afraid of you, because you are a stern 21 man. You take what you have not planted and reap what you have not sown.'

'Out of your own mouth,' answered the master, 'I will 22 judge you, you good-for-nothing servant. You knew, did you?, that I am a stern man, that I take what I have not planted and reap what I have not sown. Then why did not you put my 23 money into a bank? In that case, on coming home, I could [10] Ezek. 34. 16.

have claimed it and the interest in addition. Take away from 24 him the ten pounds,' he said to the bystanders, 'and give them to the one who has the hundred.'
'But, Sir,' they interposed, 'he has a hundred pounds 25 already!'
'Yes,' he went on, 'I tell you that all who retain anything 26 will have more given them, but those who retain nothing will have even what they had taken away. But as for my 27 enemies yonder, the men who did not wish me to be their King, bring them here and put them to death in my presence.'"
After speaking thus, Jesus went on in front, on his way up to 28
Jerusalem.

V.—The Last Days.

Jesus enters Jerusalem. When Jesus had nearly reached Bethphage and 29 Bethany—as far as the Mount of Olives, he sent on two of the disciples.
"Go to the village facing us," he said, "and on getting into 30 it, you will find a foal tied up there, on which no one has yet ridden; unfasten it and lead it here. And if anybody 31 asks you, 'Why are you unfastening it?,' you will say this—
'The Master requires it.'"
So the two who were sent set off, and they found it as Jesus 32 had told them. While they were untying the foal, the owners 33 asked them why they were untying the foal; but the two 34 disciples answered: "The Master requires it."
Then they led it back to Jesus, and they threw their cloaks 35 on the foal and put Jesus on it. And then as he went along, 36 people kept spreading their cloaks in the road. When he 37 had almost got as far as where the road led down the Mount of Olives, every one of the many disciples began in their joy to praise God loudly for all the miracles that they had seen:

"Blessed is the One who is Coming— 38
Our King—in the name of the Lord!
Peace in Heaven,
And glory upon high."

Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him: 39
"Teacher, reprove your disciples."
But Jesus answered: 40
"I tell you, that if these men are silent, the very stones will call out."
When he had got near the city—where he could see it, 41
Jesus shed tears over it, and said: 42
"Would that you had learnt, while there was time—yes, even you—the things that make for peace! But as it is, they have been hidden from your sight. For a time is coming for you 43

38 Ps. 118. 25, 26; Zech. 9. 9.

when your enemies will surround you with earthworks, and encircle you, and hem you in on all sides; they will trample you down and your children within you, and they will not leave in you one stone upon another, because you did not see that God was visiting you." 44

Traders driven from the Temple Courts.

Then Jesus entered the Temple Courts and began to drive out those who were selling there, saying as he did so: 45 46

"Scripture says—'My House shall be a House of Prayer'; you, however, have made it a den of robbers."

Jesus continued to teach each day in the Temple Courts; but the Chief Priests and Rabbis were eager to take his life, and so were the leading men. Yet they could not find out how to manage it, for the people all hung upon his lips. 47 48

The Priests question the Authority of Jesus.

On one of these days, when Jesus was teaching the people in the Temple Courts and telling the Good News, the Chief Priests and Rabbis, joined by the Councillors, confronted him, and address- 1 20 2
ing him, said:

"Tell us what right you have to act as you do. Who is it that has given you this right?"

"I, too," said Jesus in reply, "have one question to ask you. Tell me—it is about John's baptism—was it of divine or of human origin?" 3 4

But they began arguing together: 5

"If we say, 'divine,' he will say, 'Why, then, did not you believe him?' But if we say, 'human,' the people will all stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a Prophet." 6

So they answered that they did not know its origin. 7

"I, too," said Jesus, "refuse to tell you what right I have to act as I do." 8

Parable of the wicked Tenants.

Afterwards Jesus began to tell the people this story— 9

"A man once planted a vineyard, and then let it out to tenants and went abroad for a considerable time. At the proper time he sent a servant to the tenants, for them to give him a share of the produce of the vineyard. The tenants, however, beat him and sent him off empty-handed. The owner afterwards sent another servant; but they flogged and ill-used this man too, and sent him off empty-handed. Afterwards the owner sent a third; but this man too they wounded and threw outside. 'What shall I do?' said the owner of the vineyard. 'I will send my son, whom I dearly love. Perhaps they will respect him.' But on seeing him, the tenants discussed the matter among themselves in 10 11 12 13 14

[44] Ps. 137. 9. [46] Isa. 56. 7; Jer. 7. 11. [9] Isa. 5. 1.

this way—'Here is the heir! Let us kill him, and then the inheritance will become ours.' So they threw him outside the 15 vineyard and killed him. Now what will the owner of the vineyard do to them? He will come and put those tenants to 16 death, and let others have the vineyard."

"Heaven forbid!" they exclaimed when they heard it. But 17
Jesus looked at them and said:

"What then is the meaning of this passage?—

'The very stone which the builders despised
Has now itself become the corner-stone.'

All those who fall on that stone will be dashed to pieces, while 18 any one on whom it falls—it will scatter him as dust!"

After this the Rabbis and Chief Priests were eager to take 19
Jesus prisoner that very moment, but they were afraid of the people. They saw that it was at them that he had aimed this

A Question about Taxes. story. Having watched their opportunity, 20 they afterwards sent some spies, who pretended to be honest men, to catch Jesus in conversation and so enable them to hand him over to the Governor's jurisdiction and authority. So these men asked Jesus a question. They said: 21

"Teacher, we know that you are right in what you say and teach, and that you do not take any account of a man's position, but honestly teach the Way of God; are we right in paying 22 tribute to the Emperor or not?"

Seeing through their deceitfulness, Jesus said to them: 23

"Show me a florin. Whose head and title are on it?" 24

"The Emperor's," they said; to which Jesus replied: 25

"Well then, pay to the Emperor what belongs to the Emperor, and to God what belongs to God."

They could not catch hold of this answer before the people; 26 and in their surprise at his reply, they held their tongues.

A Question about the Resurrection. Presently there came up some Sadducees, who 27 maintain that there is no resurrection. Their question was this—

"Teacher, Moses laid down for us in his writings that if a 28 man's married brother dies, and if he is childless, the man, as his brother, should marry the widow, and raise up a family for his brother. Well, there were once seven brothers; of whom the 29 eldest, after taking a wife, died childless. The second and 30 third brothers both took her as their wife; and so, too, did all 31 seven—dying without children. The woman herself was the 32 last to die. About the woman then—after the resurrection, 33 whose wife is she to be, all seven brothers having married her?"

"The men and women of this world," said Jesus, "marry and 34 are given in marriage; but for those who are thought fit to 35

17 Ps. 118. 22. 28 Deut. 25. 5—6.

attain to that other world and to the resurrection from the dead there is no marrying or being married, nor indeed can they 36 die again, for they are on an equality with angels and, having shared in the resurrection, they are God's children. As to the 37 fact that the dead rise, even Moses made that clear in the passage about the Bush, when he calls the Lord 'the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.' Now God 38 is not God of dead, but of living, people—everyone being alive to him."

"Well said, Teacher!" exclaimed some of the Rabbis, for 39
they did not venture to question him any further. 40

Jesus puts a Question about the Christ.

But Jesus said to them: 41
"How is it that people say that the Christ is David's son? For David, in the Book of Psalms, 42
says himself—

> 'The Lord said to my master: "Sit at my right hand, > Until I put thy enemies as a stool for thy feet."' 43

David, then, calls him 'master,' so how is he David's son?" 44

Warnings against the Rabbis.

While all the people were listening, Jesus said 45
to the disciples:

"Be on your guard against the Rabbis, who are 46 fond of walking about in long robes, and like being greeted in the streets with respect, and having the best seats in the Synagogues, and places of honour at dinners. They are the men 47 who eat widows out of house and home, and say long prayers for a pretext. These men will receive all the heavier sentence."

The Widow's Offering.

Looking up, Jesus saw the rich people putting 21 1
their gifts into the chests for the Temple offerings.
He saw, too, a poverty-stricken widow putting two farthings 2 into them. On this he said: 3

"I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all the others; for every one else here put in something from what 4 they had to spare, while she, in her poor circumstances, has put in all she had to live upon."

Jesus foretells the Destruction of the Temple.

When some of them spoke about the Temple 5 being decorated with beautiful stones and offerings, Jesus said:

"As for these things that you are looking at, 6 a time is coming when not one stone will be left upon another here, but all will be thrown down."

"Teacher," asked the disciples, "when, pray, will this be? 7 and what sign will there be when this is near?"

Jesus foretells Wars and Persecutions.

And Jesus said: 8
"Be careful that you are not led astray; for many will come taking my name, and saying 'I am He,' and [37] Exod. 3. 2—6. [38] 4 Macc. 16. 25. [42—43] Ps. 110. 1.

'The time is close at hand.' Do not follow them. And when 9 you hear of wars and disturbances, do not be terrified, for these things must occur first; still the end will not be at once."
Then he said to them: 10
"Nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be great earthquakes, and plagues and famines 11 in various places, and besides these, terrible appearances, and signs in the sky. But before all this, they will take you 12 prisoners and persecute you, and they will give you up to Synagogues and to prisons, when you will be taken before kings and governors for my sake. Then will be your opportunity of 13 witnessing for me. Make up your minds, then, not to prepare 14 your defence; for I will myself give you words, and a wisdom 15 which all your opponents together will be unable to resist or defy. You will be given up even by your parents and brothers 16 and relations and friends, and they will have some of you put to death, and you will be hated by every one on my account. 17 Yet not a single hair of your heads shall be lost! It will be 18 by the endurance you exhibit that you will secure your lives. 19

Jesus foretells the End of the Age.

As soon, however, as you see Jerusalem sur- 20 rounded by armed camps, then you may know that the hour of her desecration is at hand. Then 21 those of you who are in Judaea must take refuge in the mountains, those who are in Jerusalem must leave at once, and those who are in the country places must not go into it. For these 22 are to be the Days of Vengeance, when all that Scripture says will be fulfilled. Alas for the women that are with child, and 23 for those that are nursing infants in those days! For there will be great suffering in the land and anger against this people.
They will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be taken 24 prisoners to every land, and Jerusalem will be under the heel of the heathen, until their day has come—for come it will. There 25 will be signs, too, in the sun and moon and stars, and on the earth despair among the nations, in their dismay at the roar of the sea and the surge. Men's hearts will fail them through fear, 26 in their anticipation of what is coming upon the world; for the forces of the skies will be convulsed. Then they will see the 27 Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. And 28 when these things begin to occur, look upwards and lift your heads, for your deliverance will be at hand."

The Need for Watchfulness.

Then he taught them a lesson thus— 29
"Look at a fig-tree and all the other trees. As 30 soon as ever they shoot, you feel sure, as you look at them, without being told, that summer is near; and so may 31 you, as soon as you see these things happening, feel sure that the Kingdom of God is near. Believe me, even the present 32 generation will not pass away till it has all taken place. Earth 33 and sky will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

Guard yourselves against your minds ever being dulled by 34 debauches or drunkenness or the anxieties of life, and against That Day coming suddenly on you, like a trap. For come 35 it will upon all who are living anywhere on the face of the earth. Always be on the alert, and pray that you may succeed 36 in escaping all that is about to happen, and in standing in the presence of the Son of Man."

During the days, Jesus stayed in the Temple Courts teaching, 37 but he went out and spent the nights on the hill called the 'Mount of Olives.' The people used to get up early in the 38 morning and come to listen to him in the Temple Courts.

The Plot against Jesus.

The Festival of Unleavened Bread, known as 1 22
the Passover, was near. The Chief 2 Priests and Rabbis were eager to find a way of destroying Jesus, for they were afraid of the people.

Judas agrees to betray Jesus.

Now Satan took possession of Judas, who went 3 by the name of Iscariot and who was reckoned as one of the Twelve, and he went and discussed 4 with the Chief Priests and Officers in charge at the Temple the best way of betraying Jesus to them. They were glad of 5 this, and agreed to pay him for it. So Judas assented, and 6 began to watch for an opportunity of betraying Jesus to them, when there were not many people about.

Preparation for the Passover.

When the day of the Festival of Unleavened 7 Bread came, on which the Passover lambs had to be killed, Jesus sent on Peter and John, saying 8
to them:
"Go and make preparation for us to eat the Passover."
"Where would you like us to do so?" they asked. 9
"Why, when you get into the city," he answered, "a man 10 carrying a jug of water will meet you; follow him into the house which he goes into, and you are to say to the owner of 11 the house, 'The Teacher says to you—Where is the room for me to eat the Passover in with my disciples?' The man will 12 show you a large upstairs room all arranged; that is where you are to prepare it."
So Peter and John went on, and found everything just as Jesus 13 had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

The Passover Meal.

When the time came, Jesus took his place at 14
table, the Apostles being with him.
"I have most earnestly wished," he said, "to 15

34—36 Isa. 24. 17.

eat this Passover with you before I suffer. Indeed, I tell 16 you, I shall never eat it again, until it has had its fulfilment in the Kingdom of God."
Then, on receiving a cup, after thanking God, he said: 17
"Take this and share it among you. I tell you I shall never 18 after to-day drink of the juice of the grape, till the Kingdom of God has come."

The 'Lord's Supper.'

Then Jesus took some bread, and after thanking 19
God, broke it in pieces, and gave it to them,
saying as he did so:
"This is my body, [which is now to be given on your behalf.
Do this in memory of me."
And in the same way with the cup, after supper, saying: 20
"This cup is the New Covenant made by my blood which is poured out on your behalf.] Yet see! the hand of the man 21 that is betraying me is beside me upon the table! True, the 22 Son of Man is passing by the way ordained for him, yet alas for that man by whom he is being betrayed!"
Then they began discussing among themselves which of them 23 it could be that was going to do this.

Rank among Christians.

And a dispute arose among them as to which 24 of them was regarded as ranking highest. Jesus, 25
however, said:
"The kings of the heathen lord it over them, and their masters are known as 'Benefactors.' But with you it must not 26 be so. On the contrary, those who are greatest among you must become like the youngest, and those who rule like those who serve. Which is the greater—the master at the table or 27 his servant? Is not it the master at table? Yet I bear myself among you like the servant. You are the men who 28 have stood by me in my trials; and just as my Father has 29 assigned me a Kingdom, I assign you places, so that you 30 may eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom, and be seated upon twelve thrones as judges of the twelve tribes of Israel.

Peter's Fall foretold.

Simon! Simon! listen. Satan demanded leave 31 to sift you all like wheat, but I prayed for you, 32 Simon, that your faith should not fail. And I look to you, when you have returned to me, to strengthen your Brothers."
"Master," Peter said, "with you I am ready to go to prison, 33 and to death too."
"I tell you, Peter," replied Jesus, "the cock will not crow 34 to-day till you have disowned all knowledge of me three times."

The End at Hand.

Then he said to them all: 35
"When I sent you out without either purse, or bag, or shoes, did you come short of anything?"
"No; nothing," they answered.
"Now, however," he said, "those who have purses must take 36 them, and so with their bags; and those who have not must sell their cloaks and buy swords. For, I tell you, that passage of Scripture must be fulfilled in me, which says—'He was counted as one of the godless'; indeed all that refers to me is finding its fulfilment." 37

"Master," they exclaimed, "look, we have a couple of swords here!" 38

"Enough! enough!" said Jesus.

The Agony of Jesus on the Mount of Olives.

Jesus then went out, and made his way as usual on to the Mount of Olives, followed by his disciples. And when he reached the spot, he said to them: 39 40

"Pray that you may not fall into temptation."

Then he withdrew about a stone's throw, and knelt down and began to pray: 41

"Father, if it is thy pleasure, take away this cup from me; only, not my will be done, but thine." 42

[Presently there appeared to him an angel from Heaven, who strengthened him. And as his anguish became intense, he prayed still more earnestly, while his sweat was like great drops of blood falling on the ground.] Then he rose from praying, and came to the disciples and found them sleeping from very sorrow. 43 44 45

"Why are you asleep?" he asked them. "Get up and pray, that you may not fall into temptation." 46

Jesus taken Prisoner.

Hardly had he said the words when a crowd came in sight, led by the man known as Judas, who was one of the Twelve. Judas approached Jesus, to kiss him; on which Jesus said to him: 47 48

"Judas, is it by a kiss that you betray the Son of Man?"

But when those about Jesus saw what was going to happen, they exclaimed: 49

"Master, shall we use our swords?"

And one of them struck the High Priest's servant and cut off his right ear; on which Jesus said: "Let me at least do this;" and touching his ear he healed the wound. Then turning to the Chief Priests and the Officers in charge at the Temple and the Councillors, who were there to take him, he said: 50 51 52

"Have you come out with swords and staffs as if I were a robber? When I was with you day after day in the Temple Courts, you did not lay hands on me; but now your time has come, and the power of Darkness." 53

Trial of Jesus before the High Priest.

Those who had arrested Jesus took him away to the house of the High Priest; Peter, meanwhile, following at a distance. But when they 54 55 had lit a fire in the centre of the court-yard and had all sat down there, Peter seated himself in the middle of them.

Presently a maidservant saw him sitting near the blaze of the 56 fire. Fixing her eyes on him, she said:
Peter disowns Jesus. "Why, this man was one of his companions!"
But Peter denied it. 57
"I do not know him, woman," he replied.
A little while afterwards some one else—a man—saw him and 58
said:
"Why, you are one of them!"
But Peter said: "No, man, I am not."
About an hour later another man declared positively: 59
"This man, too, was undoubtedly with him. Why, he is a Galilaean!"
But Peter said: "I do not know what you are speaking about." 60 Instantly, while he was actually speaking, a cock crowed. And 61 the Master turned and looked at Peter; and Peter recollected the words that the Master had said to him—'Before a cock has crowed to-day, you will disown me three times'; and he 62 went outside and shed bitter tears.
Jesus mocked by his Captors. The men that held Jesus kept making sport of 63 him and belabouring him. They blindfolded 64 him and then questioned him.
"Now play the Prophet," they said; "who was it that struck you?"
And they said many other vile things to him. 65

Trial of Jesus before the Chief Priests. As soon as day came, the National Council 66 met—both the Chief Priests and the Rabbis—and brought Jesus before their High Council.
"If you are the Christ," they said, "tell us so." 67
"If I say so," Jesus answered, "you are sure not to believe 68 me; and if I ask you, you are sure not to answer. But from 69 this hour the Son of Man will be seated on the right hand of God Almighty."
"Are you the Son of God then?" they asked. 70
"Yes," answered Jesus, "I am, as you say."
At this they exclaimed: 71
"Why do we want any more witnesses? We have heard it from his own lips ourselves!"
Trial of Jesus before the Roman Governor. Then they all rose in a body and led Jesus 1 23 before Pilate. Here they began to accuse him: 2
"This is a man whom we found misleading our people, by making difficulties about their paying taxes to the Emperor, and by declaring that he himself is 'Christ, a King.'"
"Are you the King of the Jews?" Pilate asked him. 3
"It is as you say," answered Jesus.

69 Ps. 110. 1; Dan. 7. 13.

But Pilate, turning to the Chief Priests and the people, said: 4
"I do not see anything to find fault with in this man."
But they insisted: 5
"He is stirring up the people by his teaching all through Judaea, starting from Galilee and coming even here."
Hearing this, Pilate asked if the man was a Galilaean; and 6 having satisfied himself that Jesus came under Herod's juris- 7 diction, he sent him to Herod, who was also at Jerusalem at the Jesus before Herod. time. When Herod saw Jesus he was 8 delighted, for he had been wanting to see him for a long time, having heard all about him; and he was in hopes of seeing some sign given by him. So he questioned Jesus at 9 some length; but Jesus made no reply. Meanwhile the Chief 10 Priests and Rabbis stood by and vehemently accused Jesus.
And Herod, and his soldiers as well, treated Jesus with scorn, 11 mocking him by putting gorgeous clothes on him, and then sent him back to Pilate. This led to Herod and Pilate 12 becoming friends again that very day, for before that there had been ill-will between them.

Jesus again before the Roman Governor. So Pilate summoned the Chief Priests and 13 leading men and the people and said to them: 14
"You brought this man before me charged with misleading the people; and yet, for my part, though I have examined him before you, I have failed to find this man to blame for any of the things of which you accuse him; nor 15 has Herod succeeded in doing so either; he has sent him back to us, as you see. And, as a fact, he has not done anything deserving death; so I shall have him flogged, and then release him." 16
But they began to shout as one man: 18
"Kill this man, but release Barabbas for us." (Barabbas was a man who had been put in prison for a riot 19 that had broken out in the city and for murder.) Pilate, how- 20 ever, wanting to release Jesus, called to them again; but they 21 kept calling out:
"Crucify, crucify him!"
"Why, what harm has this man done?" Pilate said to them 22 for the third time. "I have found nothing in him for which he could be condemned to death. So I will have him flogged, and then release him."
However, they persisted in loudly demanding his crucifixion; 23 and their clamour gained the day. Pilate's decision was that 24 their demand should be granted. He released the man who 25 had been put in prison for riot and murder, as they demanded, and handed Jesus over to be dealt with as they liked.

Jesus is taken away to be crucified. Then, as they were leading Jesus away, they 26 laid hold of Simon from Cyrene, who was on his way in from the country, and they put the cross on his shoulders, so that he should carry it behind

Jesus. There was a great crowd of people following 27 him, many being women who were beating their

said to them:
"Women of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and your children. A time, I tell you, 29 is coming, when it will be said—'Happy are the women who are barren, and those who have never borne children and nursed them!' At that time people will begin to say to the mountains, 30
'Fall on us,' and to the hills, 'Cover us.' If what you see is done 31

doing."]

The soldiers, too, came up in mockery, bringing him common 36 hanging beside Jesus, abused him:

"Are not you the Christ? Save yourself and us."
But the other rebuked him. 40
"Have not you," he said, "any fear of God, now that you are under the same sentence? We justly so, for we are only 41 reaping our deserts, but this man has not done anything wrong.
Jesus," he went on, "do not forget me when you have come 42

And Jesus answered: 43

Death of Jesus. It was already about mid-day, when a darkness 44 came over the whole country, lasting till the sun 45 had been eclipsed for three hours; and the Temple curtain was torn down the middle. Then Jesus called out loudly: 46
"Father, into thy hands I commit my spirit."
And with these words he expired. The Roman Captain, 47 on seeing what had happened, praised God, exclaiming:
"This man really must have been a good man!"

Burial of Jesus.

Now there was a man of the name of Joseph who was a member of the Council—a man of good and upright character. (He had not assented to the decision and action of the Council.) Joseph belonged to Ramah, a town in Judaea, and lived in expectation of the Kingdom of God. He now went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus; and when he had taken it down, he wrapped it in a linen sheet, and laid Jesus in a tomb cut out of stone, in which no one had yet been buried. It was the Preparation Day, and just before the Sabbath began. 50 51 52 53 54

The women who had accompanied Jesus from Galilee followed, and saw the tomb and how the body of Jesus was laid; and then they went home, and prepared spices and perfumes. 55 56

VI.—The Risen Life.

The Women visit Jesus' Grave.

During the Sabbath they rested, as directed by the commandment. But very early on the first day of the week they went to the tomb, taking with them the spices they had prepared. They found that the stone had been rolled away from the tomb; and on going into it, they could not find the body [of the Master, Jesus]. While they were at a loss to account for this, all at once two men stood beside them, in dazzling clothing. But when in their terror the women bowed almost to the ground, the men said to them: 24 1 2 3 4 5

"Why are you looking among the dead for one who is alive? [He is not here; but he has risen from the grave.] Recollect how he spoke to you before he left Galilee—how he said that the Son of Man must be betrayed into the hands of wicked men, and be crucified, and would rise from the grave on the third day." 6 7

Then they recollected the words of Jesus, and on getting back from the tomb, they told all this to the Eleven and to all the others. There were Mary of Magdala, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James. The other women, too, spoke about this to the Apostles. What they said seemed to the Apostles mere nonsense, and they did not believe them. 8 9 10 11

[But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping down he saw nothing but the linen wrappings, and he went away, wondering to himself at what had taken place.] 12

[a] Ps. 38. 11.

Two Disciples see Jesus at Emmaus.

It happened that two of the disciples were that very day walking to a village called Emmaus, which was about seven miles from Jerusalem, talking together, as they went, over all that had just taken place. While they were talking these things over and discussing them, Jesus himself came up and joined them in their walk; but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him.

"What is all this that you are saying to each other as you are going along?" asked Jesus.

They stopped, with sad looks on their faces, and then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, said to Jesus:

"Are you staying by yourself at Jerusalem, that you have not heard of the things that have happened there within the last few days?"

"What things do you mean?" Jesus asked.

"Why, about Jesus of Nazareth," they answered, "who, in the eyes of God and all the people, was a Prophet, whose power was felt both in his words and actions; and how the Chief Priests and our leading men handed him over to be sentenced to death, and afterwards crucified him. We, however, were hoping that he was the coming deliverer of Israel; but for all that, it is now the third day since these things occurred. Some women of our number, however, have greatly astonished us; they went to the tomb at daybreak and found that the body of Jesus was not there, and came and told us that they had actually seen a vision of angels who told them that he was alive. So some of our company went to the tomb and found things just as the women had said; but they did not see Jesus."

Then Jesus said to them:

"How foolish you are, and how slow in accepting all that the Prophets have said! Was not the Christ bound to undergo all this before entering upon his glory?"

Then beginning with Moses, and going through all the Prophets, he explained to them all through the Scriptures the passages that referred to himself. When they got near the village to which they were walking, Jesus appeared to be going further; but they pressed him not to do so.

"Stop with us," they said, "for it is getting towards evening, and the sun is already low."

So Jesus went in to stop with them. As soon as he had taken his place at table with them, he took the loaf of bread and blessed it, and then broke it up and handed it to them. Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him; but he disappeared from their sight.

"How our hearts glowed," the disciples said to each other, "while he was talking to us on the road, and when he explained the Scriptures to us!"

Then they got up and returned without loss of time to Jerusalem, where they found the Eleven and their companions all together, who told them that the Master had really risen from the grave, and had appeared to Simon. So they related what had happened on their road, and how they had recognized Jesus on his breaking the bread.

Jesus appears to the Apostles.

While they were still talking about these things, Jesus himself stood among them, [and greeted them with his blessing.] In their terror and alarm they thought they saw a spirit, but Jesus said to them:

"Why are you so agitated? and why do doubts arise in your minds? Look at my hands and my feet, and you will see that it is I myself. Feel me, and look at me, for a spirit has not flesh and bones, as you see I have."

[After saying this he showed them his hands and his feet.]

While they were still unable to believe it all for very joy, and were wondering if it were true, Jesus said to them:

"Have you anything here to eat?"

They handed him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate it before their eyes.

"This is what I told you about," he said, "when I was still with you—that everything that had been written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms, had to be fulfilled."

Jesus explains to the Apostles their Commission.

Then he enabled them to understand the meaning of the Scriptures, and said to them:

"Scripture says that the Christ should suffer in this way, and that he should rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance for forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed on his authority to all the nations—beginning at Jerusalem. You yourselves are to be witnesses to all this. And listen, I am about to send upon you that which my Father has promised. Meanwhile, remain in the city till you have been invested with power from above."

Jesus ascends to Heaven.

After this, Jesus led them out nearly as far as Bethany, and there raised his hands and blessed them. As he was in the act of blessing them, he left them [and was carried up into Heaven]. They [bent low before him and] returned to Jerusalem in great happiness, and were constantly in the Temple Courts, blessing God.

51 2 Kings 2. 11.

THE GOOD NEWS
ACCORDING TO JOHN.

Introduction.

At the Beginning the Word already was: 1 1
The Word was with God;
And the Word was God.

He was with God at the Beginning; 2
It was through him that everything began, 3
And not a single thing began apart from him.
That which began in him was Life itself; 4
That Life was the Light of mankind;
And that Light has been shining in the darkness, 5
And the darkness has never overpowered it.

There appeared, with a message from God, a man whose name was John; 6
He came to bear testimony—to testify to the Light, 7
That every one, through him, might come to believe in it.
Not that he was the Light, 8
But his part was to testify to the Light.

That Light was the true Light, which enlightens every man on his coming into the world. 9
He was already in the world; 10
Through him the world began,
Yet the world did not recognize him.

He came to what was his own, 11
Yet those who were his own did not receive him;
But to all who did he gave the right to become children of God— 12
To those who believe in him.
It was not to natural conception, nor to human instincts, nor to any man's choice, 13
But to God himself, that they owed this Life.

[1] Gen. 1. 1; Ps. 33. 6. [3] Wisd. of Sol. 9. 1. [4] Ps. 36. 9.

The Word then became man, and made a home among us, 14
(We saw the honour given him—such honour as an only son receives from his father),
And he abounded in mercy and truth;
(John himself bears testimony to him; he cried—for the words 15 were his—
'The One who was to Come after me is now in advance of me,
For he was already before me');
Indeed, out of his abundance we have every one received a 16 share,
Yes, mercy upon mercy;
For, while the Law was given through Moses, 17
Mercy and truth came through Jesus Christ.
No one has ever seen God; 18
God the Only Son, who is ever close to the Father's heart—
It was he, who made him known.

I.—The Preparation.

John's Reply to a Deputation of Priests.

This is the testimony of John, which he gave 19 when the Jews sent some Priests and Levites to him from Jerusalem, to ask him who he was—He 20 owned, without attempting to deny it, he owned that he was not the Christ.

"What then? are you Elijah?" they asked. 21

"No," he said, "I am not."

"Are you the Prophet?"

"No," he answered.

"Who then are you?" they continued; "tell us, that we may 22 have some answer to give to those who have sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

"I," he said, "am— 23

> 'The voice of one loudly crying in the desert
> "Straighten the way of the Lord"', as the Prophet Isaiah said."

This deputation had come from the Pharisees; and their next 24 question was: 25

"Why then are you baptizing, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor yet the Prophet?"

"I am baptizing in water," was John's answer, "but there is 26 standing among you one whom you do not know, who is, 27 indeed, coming after me; but I am not worthy even to undo his shoe."

All this took place at Bethany, across the Jordan, where John 28 was then baptizing.

14 Lev. 26. 11. 15 Ps. 118. 26. 17 Ps. 2. 2. 21 Mal. 4. 5; Deut. 18. 15.
23 Isa. 40. 3. 25 Deut. 18. 15.

John's public Recognition of Jesus.

On the following day John saw Jesus coming towards him, and exclaimed: 29

"There is the Lamb of God, who is to take away the sin of the world! It was of him that I spoke when I said, 30 'After me there is coming a man who is now in advance of me, for he was already before me.' I did not myself know 31 him, but it is in order that he may be made known to Israel that I have come, baptizing in water."

John also bore this testimony— 32

"I have seen the Spirit coming down from the sky like a dove, and it remained upon him. I did not myself know him, 33 but he who sent me to baptize in water, he himself said to me, 'The one on whom you see the Spirit coming down and remaining—he is the one who baptizes in the holy Spirit.' I 34 have seen this myself, and have borne my testimony to his being the Son of God."

John's Declaration about Jesus to two Disciples.

Again, on the following day, John was standing 35 with two of his disciples, when, looking at Jesus 36
as he was walking, he exclaimed:

"There is the Lamb of God!"

The two disciples heard him say this, and followed Jesus. 37
Presently Jesus turned round, and saw them following. 38

"What are you looking for?" he asked.

"Rabbi," they answered (or "Teacher," as we should say), "where are you staying?"

"Come, and you shall see," he replied. 39

So they went, and saw where he was staying, and spent that day with him. It was then about four in the afternoon.

One of the two that heard what John said and followed Jesus 40 was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. The first 41 thing he did was to find his own brother Simon, and say to him: "We have found the Messiah!" (a word which means 'Christ,' or 'Consecrated'.)

Andrew calls Peter.

Andrew then brought him to Jesus. Fixing his eyes on him, 42 Jesus said:

"You are Simon, the son of John; you shall be called Cephas" (or 'Peter,' which means 'Rock').

Philip and Nathanael follow Jesus.

The following day Jesus decided to leave for 43 Galilee. He found Philip, and said to him:
"Follow me."

Philip was from Bethsaida, and a fellow-townsman of Andrew 44 and Peter. He found Nathanael and said to him: 45

"We have found him of whom Moses wrote in the Law, and of whom the Prophets also wrote. It is Jesus of Nazareth, Joseph's son!"

"Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Nathanael 46 asked.

[29] Isa. 53. 7, 12. [34] Ps. 2. 7.

"Come and see," replied Philip.
Jesus saw Nathanael coming towards him, and remarked: 47
"Here is a true Israelite, who has no deceit in him!"
"How is it that you know me?" Nathanael asked. 48
"Even before Philip called you," Jesus replied, "when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."
"Rabbi," Nathanael exclaimed, "you are the Son of God, 49 you are King of Israel!"
"Do you believe in me," Jesus asked, "because I told you 50 that I saw you under the fig tree? You shall see greater things than that! Believe me," he added, "you shall all see Heaven 51 wide open, and the angels of God going up and coming down upon the Son of Man."

II.—The Work in Judaea, Galilee, and Samaria.

Water made Wine at a Wedding.

Two days after this there was a wedding at 1 2
Cana in Galilee, at which Jesus' mother was present. Jesus himself, too, was invited, with his 2 disciples. The wine ran short, so his mother said to him: 3
"They have no wine left."
"What do you want with me," Jesus answered; "my time 4 has not come yet."
His mother said to the servants: "Do whatever he tells you." 5
There were six stone water-jars standing there, as required by 6 the Jews' regulations as to 'purification.' They each held twenty or thirty gallons.
"Fill the water-jars with water," Jesus said to the servants. 7
When they had filled them up to the brim, he said to them: 8
"Now take some out, and carry it to the Master of the Feast."
The servants did so. And when the Master of the Feast had 9 tasted the water which had now become wine, without knowing where it had come from—though the servants who had taken out the water knew—he called the bridegroom and said to him: 10
"Every one else puts his good wine on the table first, and his poorer wine as soon as the guests have drunk deeply; but you have kept back the good wine till now!"
This sign of his mission, which Jesus gave at Cana in Galilee, 11 was the earliest of his signs. By it he showed his greatness; and his disciples believed in him.

Jesus stays at Capernaum.

After this, Jesus went down to Capernaum—he, 12 his mother, his brothers, and his disciples; but they stayed there only a few days.

47 Gen. 27. 35. 49 Ps. 2. 6. 51 Gen. 28. 12; Dan. 7. 13.

Traders expelled from the Temple Courts.

Then, as the Jewish Passover was near, Jesus 13 went up to Jerusalem. In the Temple Courts he 14 found those who were selling bullocks, sheep, and pigeons, and the bankers seated there. So 15 he made a whip of cord, and drove all the sheep and bullocks out of the Temple Courts. He scattered the bankers' money, and overturned their tables, and said to the pigeon-dealers: 16
"Take these things away. Do not turn my Father's House into a market-house."
His disciples recollected that Scripture said— 17

'Zeal for thy House will consume me.'

Upon this the Jews asked Jesus: 18
"What sign are you going to show us, since you act in this way?"
"Destroy this temple," was his answer, "and I will raise it 19 in three days."
"This Temple," the Jews replied, "has been building for 20 forty-six years, and are you going to 'raise it in three days'?"
But Jesus was speaking of his body as a temple. 21
Afterwards, when he had risen from the dead, his disciples 22 recollected that he had said this; and they believed the words of Scripture, and what Jesus had said.

Reception of Jesus at the Passover.

When Jesus was at Jerusalem, at the Passover 23 Festival, many came to trust in him, when they saw the signs he was giving of his mission.
But Jesus, for his part, did not trust himself to them, since he 24 could read every heart, and because he had no need for others 25 to tell him about any man; for he could of himself read what there was in a man.

Nicodemus visits Jesus.

There was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, who 1 was a leading man among the Jews. This man 2 went to Jesus by night, and said to him:
"Rabbi, we know that you are a Teacher come from God;
for no one could give such signs as you are giving, unless God was with him."
"Believe me," Jesus replied, "unless a man is born over 3 again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God."
"How can a man," Nicodemus asked, "be born when he is 4 old? Can he enter his mother's womb again, and be born?"
"Believe me," Jesus answered, "unless a man owes his birth 5 to water and Spirit, he cannot enter the Kingdom of God. All 6 that owes its birth to human nature alone is only human, and all that owes its birth to the Spirit is spiritual. Do not be sur- 7 prised at my telling you that you all need to be born over again. The wind blows where it wills, and you can hear the 8

17 Ps. 69. 9. 19 Hos. 6. 2. 3 Dan. 2. 44.

sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from, or where it goes; and it is the same with every one that owes his birth to the Spirit."

"How can that be?" asked Nicodemus. 9

"What! You a teacher of Israel," Jesus replied, "and do 10 not understand this! Believe me, we speak of what we know, 11 and bear testimony about what we have seen; and yet you do not accept our testimony. If, when I tell you about earthly 12 things, you do not believe me, how will you believe me if I tell you about heavenly things? There is no one gone up to Heaven, 13 except the one who came down from Heaven—the Son of Man himself. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so 14 has the Son of Man to be lifted up; that every one who believes 15 in him may have enduring Life."

Mission of the Son.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his 16 only Son, that no one who believes in him might be lost, but that all might have enduring Life. For God 17 did not send his Son into the world to condemn it, but for the world to be saved through him. Those who believe in him 18 escape condemnation, while those who do not believe in him are already condemned, on the ground of their not having believed in God's only Son. Their condemnation lies in this, that 19 though the Light has come into the world, men liked the darkness more than the Light, because their actions were wicked. Indeed all who are living wrongly hate the light, and will not 20 come to it, for fear their actions should be exposed; but those 21 who act up to the truth come to the light, that their actions may be shown to have been done in reliance upon God.

John's last Testimony to Jesus.

After this, Jesus went with his disciples into the 22 country parts of Judaea, where he stayed with them, and baptized. John, too, was baptizing at 23 Aenon near Salim, because there were many streams there; and people were constantly coming and being baptized. (For 24 John had not yet been imprisoned). A discussion arose 25 between some of John's disciples and a Jew on the subject of 'purifications,' and when John's disciples returned to him, they 26
said:

"Rabbi, the man who was with you on the other side of the Jordan, and to whom you have yourself borne testimony—he too is baptizing, and everybody is going to him."

This was John's answer— 27

"A man can receive nothing except as enabled to do so from Heaven. You are witnesses yourselves that I said that I was 28 not the Christ, but that I had been sent as a Messenger in advance of him. It is the bridegroom who has the bride; but 29 the bridegroom's friend, who stands by and listens to him, is [13] Prov. 30. 4.

happy indeed when he hears his voice. This is the happiness which I have experienced to the full. He must become greater, and I less." 30

The Son's Relation to the World.

One who comes from above is above all others; but a child of earth is himself earthly, and his teaching earthly too. He who comes from Heaven is above all others. It is about what he has seen and about what he heard that he bears his testimony, and yet no one accepts it. Those who do so attest the fact that God is true. God's Messenger gives us God's own teaching, for God does not limit the gift of the Spirit. The Father loves his Son, and has put everything in his hands. Those who believe in the Son have enduring Life, while those who reject the Son will not even see the Life, but they remain under God's displeasure. 31 32 33 34 35 36

Jesus talks with a Samaritan Woman.

Now the Master heard that the Pharisees had been told that he was making and baptizing more disciples than John (though it was not Jesus himself, but his disciples, who baptized). When he heard this, he left Judaea, and set out again for Galilee. 4 1 2 3

He had to pass through Samaria, and in doing so, he came to a town there called Shechem, near the plot of land that Jacob gave his son Joseph. Jacob's Spring was there. and Jesus, being tired after his journey, sat down, just as he was, close to it. It was then about mid-day. A woman of Samaria came to draw water; so Jesus asked her to give him some to drink, his disciples having gone into the town to buy provisions. 4 5 6 7 8

"How is it," the Samaritan woman replied, "that you who are a Jew ask for water from a Samaritan woman like me?" (For Jews are not on good terms with Samaritans). 9

"If you knew of the gift of God," Jesus replied, "and who it is that is asking you to give him some water you would have asked him, and he would have given you 'living water'." 10

"You have no bucket, Sir, and the well is deep," she said; "where have you got that 'living water' from? Surely you are not greater than our ancestor Jacob who gave us the well, and used to drink from it himself, and his sons, and his cattle too!" 11 12

"All who drink of this water," Jesus replied, "will be thirsty again; but whoever once drinks of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty any more; but the water that I will give him will become a spring of water within him, welling up for enduring Life." 13 14

"Give me this water, Sir," said the woman, "so that I may not be thirsty, nor yet have to come all the way here to draw water." 15

"Go and call your husband," Jesus said, "and then come here." 16

"I have no husband," the woman answered. 17

[8] Ps. 78. 31. [9] Gen. 48. 22 (Septuagint Version). [10] Enoch 17. 4. [14] Jer. 2. 13.

"You are right in saying that you have no husband," replied Jesus, "for you have had five husbands, and the man that you 18 are now living with is not your husband; in saying that, you have spoken the truth."

"I see, Sir, that you are a Prophet," the woman said. "It 19 was on this mountain that our ancestors worshipped; and yet 20 you Jews say that the proper place for worship is in Jerusalem."

"Trust me," Jesus replied, "a time is coming when it will 21 not be on this mountain or in Jerusalem that you will worship the Father. You Samaritans worship what you do not know; 22 we worship what we do know, because salvation comes from the Jews. But a time is coming, and indeed is already here, 23 when the true worshippers will worship the Father spiritually, with true insight; for such is the worship that the Father desires. God is Spirit; and those who worship him must 24 worship spiritually, with true insight."

"I know," the woman answered, "that the Messiah, who is 25 called the Christ, is coming; when once he has come, he will tell us everything."

"I am the Messiah," Jesus said to her, "I who am speaking 26 to you."

The Woman brings other Samaritans to Jesus.

At this point his disciples came up, and were sur- 27 prised at his talking with a woman; none of them, however, asked what he wanted, or why he was talking with her. So the woman left her pitcher 28 behind, and went back to the town, and said to the people:

"Come and see somebody who has told me everything that 29
I have ever done; can he possibly be the Christ?"

The people set out from the town on their way to see Jesus. 30

Jesus explains his Work.

Meanwhile the disciples kept saying to him: 31
"Take something to eat, Rabbi."

"I have food to eat," he answered, "which you 32 know nothing about."

"Surely no one has brought him anything to eat!" the dis- 33
ciples said to one another.

"My food," Jesus replied, "is to do the will of him who sent 34 me, and to complete the work he has given me to do. Do you 35 not say that it still wants four months to harvest? Why, look up, and see how white the fields are for harvest! Already 36 the reaper is receiving wages and gathering in a crop for enduring Life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the proverb holds good—'One sows, another reaps.' 37
I have sent you to reap a crop on which you have spent no 38 labour; others have laboured, and you are having the benefit of their labour."

Many Samaritans believe in Jesus.

Many from that town came to believe in Jesus— 39
Samaritans though they were—on account of what the woman said, when she declared, 'He has told me everything that I have ever done.' When 40 these Samaritans had come to Jesus, they begged him to stay with them, and he did stay two days there. And many more came to believe in him on account of what he said himself; and they said to the woman: 41 42

"It is no longer because of your talk that we believe in him; for we have heard him ourselves and are sure that he really is the Saviour of the world."

Jesus welcomed back to Galilee.

After these two days Jesus went on to Galilee; for he himself declared that 'a Prophet gets no honour in his own country.' When he reached Galilee, the Galilaeans welcomed him, for they had seen all that he did at Jerusalem during the Festival, having themselves also gone to it. 43 44 45

Jesus cures an Officer's Son.

So Jesus came again to Cana in Galilee, where he had made the water into wine. Now there was one of the King's officers whose son was lying ill at Capernaum. When this man heard that Jesus had returned from Judaea to Galilee, he went to him, and begged him to go down and cure his son; for he was at the point of death. Jesus answered: 46 47 48

"Unless you all see signs and wonders, you will never believe in me."

"Do come down, Sir," said the officer, "before my child dies." 49

"You can go," Jesus answered; "your son is alive and well." The man believed what Jesus said to him, and went; and he was already on his way down, when his servants met him, and told him that his boy was alive and well. So he asked them at what time he began to get better. 50 51 52

"It was yesterday, about one o'clock," they said, "that the fever left him."

The father knew by this that it had left him at the very time that Jesus had said to him, 'Your son is alive and well'; and he himself believed in Jesus, and all his household too. 53

This was the second occasion on which Jesus gave a sign of his mission on returning from Judaea to Galilee. 54

Cure of a Cripple at Jerusalem.

Sometime after this there was a Jewish Festival; so Jesus went up to Jerusalem. There is at Jerusalem, near the Sheep-gate, a Bath with five colonnades round it. It is called in Hebrew 'Bethesda.' In these colonnades a large number of invalids were lying— some blind, some lame, and some crippled. One man who was there had been an invalid for thirty-eight years. Jesus saw 5 1 2 3 5 6 the man lying there, and finding that he had been in this state a long time, said to him:

"Do you want to get well?"

"I have no one, Sir," the invalid answered, "to put me into the Bath when there is a movement of the water, and while I am getting to it, some one else steps down before me." 7

"Get up," Jesus said, "take your mat and walk." 8

Immediately the man got well, and took his mat and began walking. 9

Beginning of Opposition to Jesus.

Now it was the Sabbath. So the Jews said to the man who had been cured: 10

"This is the Sabbath; you must not carry your mat."

"The man who made me well," he answered, "told me to take my mat and walk." 11

"Who was it," they asked, "that told you to do this?" 12

But the man who had been cured did not know who it was; for Jesus had moved away, as there was a crowd there. 13

Afterwards, Jesus found the man in the Temple Courts, and said to him: 14

"You are well now; do not go on sinning, for fear of something worse befalling you."

The man went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well. 15

And that was why the Jews began to persecute Jesus—because he did things like this on the Sabbath. 16

Jesus explained: 17

Jesus explains his divine Mission.

"My Father has gone on working to the present moment; I go on working too."

This made the Jews all the more eager to kill him, because not only was he doing away with the Sabbath, but he actually called God his own Father—putting himself on an equality with God. 18

So Jesus gave this further explanation: 19

"The Son, believe me, cannot do anything of himself; he only does what he sees the Father doing; for whatever the Father does, the Son does also. The Father loves his Son, and shows him everything that he is doing; and he will show him greater things still—to your astonishment. 20

For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them Life, so also the Son gives Life to whomever he pleases. 21

Indeed the Father does not judge any one, but has 'entrusted the work of judging entirely to his Son,' so that everybody may honour the Son, just as they honour the Father. Those who do not honour the Son are not honouring the Father who sent him. 22 23

I assure you, those who listen to my teaching and believe him who sent me have enduring Life, and do not come under condemnation, but have already passed out of Death into Life. 24

I assure you, a time is coming, and is already here, when the Dead will listen to the voice of the Son of God, and when 25

those who listen will live. For just as the Father has life within himself, so he has given his Son Life, that he too may have it within himself. And because he is man, he has also given him authority to act as judge. Do not be surprised at this; for the time is coming when all who are in their graves will hear his voice, and will come out—those that have acted rightly rising to Life, and those that have lived wrongly rising for condemnation. I cannot do anything of myself; it is as I am taught that I judge; and the judgement I pass is just, because my aim is not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me.

If I bear testimony to myself, my testimony is not trustworthy; it is another who bears testimony to me, and I know that the testimony which he bears to me is trustworthy. You have yourselves sent to John, and he has testified to the Truth. But the testimony which I receive is not from man; I am only saying this for your salvation. He was the Lamp that was burning and shining, and you were ready to rejoice, for a time, in his light. But the testimony which I have is of greater weight than John's; for the things which the Father has given me to carry out—the very things which I am doing—are proof that I have come with a message from the Father. The Father who has sent me has himself, too, borne testimony to me. You have never either listened to his voice, or seen his form; and you have not his teaching always in mind, for you do not believe his Messenger. You search the Scriptures because you suppose that you find in them enduring Life; and though it is those very Scriptures that bear testimony to me, you refuse to come to me to have Life. I do not, in any case, receive honour from men, but I know this of you, that you have not the love of God in your hearts. I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me; if another comes in his own name, you will receive him. How can you possibly believe in me when you receive honour from one another, while you do not try to obtain the honour which comes from the only God? Do not suppose that I shall accuse you to the Father; your accuser is Moses, on whom you have been resting your hopes. If you believed Moses, you would have believed me, for it was about me that Moses wrote; but if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe my words?"

Jesus provides Food for five thousand Men.

Afterwards Jesus crossed the Lake of Galilee—otherwise called the Lake of Tiberias. A great crowd of people, however, followed him, because they saw the signs of his mission in his work among those who were ill. Jesus walked up the hill, and sat down there with his disciples. It was near the time of the 4 Jewish Festival of the Passover. On looking up, and noticing 5 that a great crowd was coming towards him, Jesus said to Philip:

[35] Ecclesiasticus 48. 1.

"Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?"

He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he meant 6 to do.

"Twenty pounds' worth of bread is not enough," Philip 7 answered, "for each of them to have a little."

"There is a boy here," said Andrew, another of his disciples, 8 Simon Peter's brother, "who has five barley loaves and two 9 fishes; but what is that for so many?"

"Make the people sit down," Jesus said. 10

There was plenty of grass at the spot; so the men among them sat down—about five thousand in number—after which 11
Jesus took the loaves, and having given thanks, gave them round to those who had seated themselves, and the same with the fish, giving the people as much of these as they wanted.
When they were satisfied, Jesus said to his disciples: 12

"Pick up the pieces that are to spare, so that nothing may be wasted."

The disciples did so, and loaded twelve baskets with the 13 pieces of the five barley loaves, which were to spare after all had had enough.

The people, when they saw the signs which Jesus gave, said: 14

"This is certainly the Prophet, who was to Come into the world."

So having discovered that they were intending to come and 15 carry him off to make him King, Jesus retired again to the hill quite alone.

Jesus walks on the Water.

After evening had fallen, his disciples went 16 down to the lake, and getting into a boat, began 17 to cross to Capernaum. By this time darkness had set in, but Jesus had not yet come back to them; the lake, 18 too, was getting rough, for a strong wind was blowing. When 19 they had rowed three or four miles, they caught sight of Jesus walking on the water and getting near the boat; and they were afraid. But Jesus said to them: 20

"It is I; do not be afraid!"

After this, they were willing to take him into the boat; and 21 the boat at once arrived off the shore, at the place for which they had been making.

Jesus followed by the People to Capernaum.

The people who remained on the further side 22 of the lake had seen that only one boat had been there, and that Jesus had not got into it with his disciples, but that they had left without him.
Some boats, however, had come from Tiberias close to the spot 23 where they ate the bread after the Master had given thanks.

[14] Deut. 18. 15; Ps. 118. 26.

So, next day, when the people saw that Jesus was not there, 24 or his disciples either, they themselves got into the boats, and went to Capernaum to look for him. They found him on the 25 other side of the lake, and said:

"When did you come here, Rabbi?"

"I tell you," answered Jesus, "it is not on account of the 26 signs which you saw that you are looking for me, Jesus the Life-giving Bread. but because you had plenty of bread to eat. Do 27 not work for perishable food, but work for that which lasts, and is food for enduring Life. This the Son of Man will give you, for it is upon him that the Father—God himself—has set the seal of his approval."

"How," they asked, "are we to do the things that God would 28 have us do?"

"The thing God would have you do," Jesus answered, "is to 29 believe in God's Messenger."

"What sign, then, are you giving, which we may see, and so 30 believe you? What is the work you are doing?" they asked.
"Our ancestors had manna to eat in the desert, for Scripture 31 says—'He gave them bread from Heaven to eat.'"

"Believe me," Jesus replied, "Moses did not give you the 32 bread from Heaven, but my Father does give you the true Bread from Heaven; for the Bread God gives is that which 33 comes down from Heaven, and gives Life to the world."

"Master," they said, "give us that Bread always!" 34

"I myself am the Life-giving Bread," Jesus said to them; 35
"those that come to me will never be hungry, and those that believe in me will never be thirsty any more. But, as I have said 36 already, you have actually seen me, and yet you do not believe in me. All whom the Father gives me will come to me; 37 and no one who comes to me will I ever turn away. I have 38 come down from Heaven—not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me; and his will is this—that I should not lose 39
one of all those whom he has given me, but should raise them from death at the Last Day. For it is the will of my Father 40 that every one who sees the Son, and believes in him, should have enduring Life; and then I myself will raise him from death at the Last Day."

Upon this the Jews began finding fault with Jesus for saying 41 that he was the Bread which came down from Heaven.

"Is not this Jesus, Joseph's son," they asked, "whose father 42 and mother we know? How is it that he says now that he has come down from Heaven?"

"Do not find fault with me among yourselves," said Jesus in 43 reply. "No one can come to me, unless the Father who sent 44 me draws him to me; and then I will myself raise him from death at the Last Day. It is said in the Prophets—'And they 45 shall all be taught by God.' All who are instructed by the Father 31 Exod. 16. 4, 15. 45 Isa. 54. 13.

and learn from him come to me. Not that any one has seen 46 the Father, with the exception of the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. I assure you, those who believe in me 47 have enduring Life. I myself am the Life-giving Bread. 48
Your forefathers had manna to eat in the desert, and yet died. 49
The Bread that comes down from Heaven is such that any one 50 may eat of it, and never die. I myself am the living Bread that 51 has come down from Heaven. If any one eats of this Bread, he will live for ever; yes, and the Bread which I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the Life of the world."

Upon this the Jews began disputing with one another: 52
"How is it possible for this man to give us his flesh to eat?"

"Believe me," Jesus answered, "unless you eat the flesh of 53 the Son of Man, and drink his blood, you have not Life within you. Those who take my flesh for their food, and drink my 54 blood, have enduring Life; and I will raise them from death at the Last Day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood true 55 drink. Those who take my flesh for their food, and drink my 56 blood, are always in union with me, and I with them. As the 57 living Father made me his Messenger, and as I live because the Father does, so those who take me for their food will live because I do. Such then is the Bread that has come down 58 from Heaven—not such as your forefathers ate, and yet died;
those who take this Bread for their food will live for ever."

All this Jesus said in a Synagogue, when he was teaching in 59 Capernaum.

Desertion of many Disciples.

On hearing it, many of his disciples said: 60
"This is a harsh saying! Who can bear to listen to it?"

But Jesus, conscious that his disciples were finding fault with 61
it, said to them:

"Is this a hindrance to you? What then if you should see the 62 Son of Man going up to where he was before? It is the Spirit 63 that gives Life; mere flesh is of no avail. The truths that I have been teaching you are spiritual and life-giving; yet there 64 are some of you who do not believe them."

Jesus knew from the first who they were that did not believe, and who it was that would betray him; and he added: 65

"This is why I told you that no one can come to me, unless enabled to do so by the Father."

In consequence of this many of his disciples drew back, and 66 did not go about with him any longer. So Jesus said 67 to the Twelve:

"Do you also wish to leave me?"

"To whom shall we go, Master?" Simon Peter answered. 68
"Your teaching leads to enduring Life; and we have learnt 69 to believe and are sure that you are the Holy One of God."[69]

[69] Ps. 16. 10.

"Did not I myself choose you to be the Twelve?" Jesus replied; "and yet, even of you, one is an enemy." 70
He meant Judas, the son of Simeon Iscariot, who was about to betray him, though he was one of the Twelve. 71

Jesus taunted by his Brothers.

After this, Jesus went about in Galilee, for he would not do so in Judaea, because the Jews were eager to put him to death. The time of the Jewish 1 2
Feast of Tabernacles being near, his brothers said to him: 3
"You should leave this part of the country, and go into Judaea, so that your disciples, as well as we, may see the things you are doing. For no one does a thing privately when his aim is to be widely known. Since you do these things, you should show yourself publicly to the world." 4
For even his brothers did not believe in him. 5
"My time," Jesus answered, "is not come yet, but your time is here always. The world cannot hate you, but it does hate me, because I testify that its ways are wicked. Go up to the Festival yourselves; I am not going up to it yet, because the time for me to do so has not quite come." 6 7 8
After telling them this, he still stayed on in Galilee. 9
But when his brothers had gone up to the Festival, Jesus went up too—not publicly, but privately. The Jews were looking for him at the Festival and asking where he was; and there were many whispers about him among the people, some saying: "He is a good man;" others: "No, no, he is leading the people astray." 10 11 12
No one, however, spoke freely about him for fear of the Jews. 13

Jesus at the Feast of Tabernacles.

About the middle of the Festival week, Jesus went up into the Temple Courts, and began teaching. The Jews were astonished. 14 15
"How has this man got his learning, when he has never studied?" they asked.
In reply, Jesus said: 16
"My teaching is not my own; it is his who sent me. If any one has the will to do God's will, he will find out whether my teaching is from God, or whether I speak on my own authority. A man who speaks on his own authority is eager for honour for himself; but a man who is eager for the honour of him that sent him is sincere, and there is nothing false about him. Was it not Moses who gave you the Law? Yet none of you obey it! Why are you eager to put me to death?" 17 18 19
"You must be possessed!" the people exclaimed. "Who is eager to put you to death?" 20

"There was one thing I did," replied Jesus, "at which you 21 are all still wondering. This is why Moses has instituted cir- 22 cumcision among you—not that it began with him, but with our ancestors—and why you circumcise even on a Sabbath.
When a man receives circumcision on a Sabbath to prevent 23
the Law of Moses being broken, how can you be angry with me for making a man sound and well on a Sabbath? Do not 24 judge by appearances; judge justly."

At this some of the people of Jerusalem exclaimed: 25

"Is not this the man that they are eager to put to death?
Yet here he is, speaking out boldly, and they do not say any- 26 thing to him! Is it possible that our leading men have really discovered that he is the Christ? Yet we know where this man 27 is from; but when the Christ comes, no one will be able to tell where he is from."

So Jesus, as he was teaching in the Temple Courts, raised his 28 voice, and said:

"Yes; you know me, and you know where I am from. Yet
I have not come on my own authority, but he who sent me is trustworthy; and him you do not know. For myself, I do 29 know him, for it is from him that I have come, and I am his Messenger."

This made them eager to arrest him; but no one touched him, 30 for his time was not come yet. Many of the people, 31
however, believed in him.

"When the Christ comes," they said, "will he give more signs of his mission than this man has?"

Attempt to arrest Jesus. The Pharisees heard the people whispering 32 about him in this way, and so the Chief Priests and the Pharisees sent constables to arrest him;
on which Jesus said: 33

"I shall be with you but a little longer, and then I am going to him who sent me. You will look for me, and you will 34 not find me; and you will not be able to go where I shall be."

"Where is he going," the Jews asked one another, "that we 35 shall not find him? Will he go to our countrymen scattered among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? What does he mean 36 by saying, 'You will look for me, and you will not find me;
and you will not be able to go where I shall be'?"

Jesus proclaims himself the Fountain of living Water. On the last and greatest day of the Festival, 37
Jesus, who was standing by, exclaimed:

"If any one is thirsty, let him come to me, and drink. From the heart of those who believe 38 in me will flow, as is said in Scripture, rivers of living water."

(By this he meant the Spirit, which those who had believed in 39

[88] Jer. 2. 13; Enoch, 17. 4.

him were to receive; for the Spirit had not yet come, because Jesus had not yet been exalted.) Some of the people, 40 when they heard these words, exclaimed:
"This is certainly the Prophet!", others: "This is the 41 Christ!"; but some said:
"What! does the Christ come from Galilee? Is it not said 42 in Scripture that it is of the race of David, and from Bethlehem, the village to which David belonged, that the Christ is to come?"
So there was a division of opinion among the people on his 43 account; some of them wanted to arrest him, but yet no one 44 touched him.
When the constables returned to the Chief Priests and 45
Pharisees, they were met with the question:
"Why have you not brought him?"
"No man has ever spoken as he does!" they answered. 46
"What! have you been led astray too?" the Pharisees 47 replied. "Have any of our leading men believed in him, or 48 any of the Pharisees? As for these people who do not know the 49 Law—they are cursed."
But one of their number, Nicodemus, who had formerly visited 50
Jesus, said to them:
"Does our Law pass judgement on a man without first 51 giving him a hearing, and finding out what he has been doing?"
"Are you also from Galilee?" they retorted. "Search, and 52 you will find that no Prophet is to arise in Galilee."

Jesus the Light of the World.

Jesus again addressed the people: *12 8
"I am the Light of the World. Those who follow me will never have to walk in darkness, but will have the Light of Life."
"You are bearing testimony to yourself!" the Pharisees 13 exclaimed; "your testimony is not trustworthy."
"Even if I do so," answered Jesus, "my testimony is trust- 14 worthy; for I know where I came from, and where I am going; but you do not know where I come from, or where I am going. You are judging by appearances; I am not judging 15 any one. Yet even if I were to judge, my decisions would be 16 trustworthy; because I am not alone, but I have with me the Father who sent me. Why, in your own Law it is said that 17 the testimony of two persons is trustworthy. I, who bear testi- 18 mony to myself, am one, and the Father who sent me is the second."
"Where is your father, then?" they asked. 19
"You do not know either me or my Father," Jesus replied; "if you had known me, you would have known my Father too."

40 Deut. 18. 15. 41 Ps. 2. 2. 42 Ps. 89. 3—4; Mic. 5. 2. 17 Deut. 17. 6.
* (See p. 197).

These statements were made by Jesus in the Treasury, while he was teaching in the Temple Courts. Yet no one arrested him, for his time had not then come. 20

Jesus defends his Mission and Authority.

Jesus again spoke to them. 21
"I am going away," he said, "and you will look for me, yet you will die in your sin; you cannot come where I am going."
"Is he going to kill himself," the Jews exclaimed, "that he says that we cannot go where he is going?" 22
"You," Jesus added, "are from below, I am from above; you are of this present world, I am not; and so I told you that you would die in your sins, for unless you believe that I am what I say, you will die in your sins." 23 24
"Who are you?" they asked. 25
"Why ask the very thing about which I have been speaking to you all along?" said Jesus. "I have still much that concerns you to speak of and to pass judgement on; yet he who sent me is trustworthy, and the things I speak of to the world are only those which I have learnt from him." 26
They did not understand that he meant the Father. So Jesus added: 27 28
"When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will understand that I am what I say, and that I do nothing of myself, but that I speak just as the Father has taught me. Moreover, he who sent me is with me; he has not left me alone; for I always do what pleases him." 29
As he was speaking in this way, many believed in him. 30
So Jesus went on to say to those Jews who had believed him: 31
"If you remain constant to my teaching, then even you are really my disciples; and you will find out the Truth, and the Truth will set you free." 32
"We are descendants of Abraham," was their answer, "and have never yet been in slavery to any one. What do you mean by saying 'you will be set free'?" 33
"Believe me," Jesus replied, "all who sin are slaves to sin. Now a slave does not remain in the home always; but a son does. So if the Son sets you free, then you will be free without doubt. I know that you are descendants of Abraham; yet you are eager to put me to death, because my teaching finds no place in your hearts. I tell you only what I have myself seen when in the presence of the Father. Your part therefore is to do what you have learnt from the Father." 34 35 36 37 38
"Our father is Abraham," was their answer. 39
"If you are Abraham's children," Jesus answered, "do what Abraham did. But, as it is, you are eager to put me to death—a man who has told you the Truth as he heard it from God. Abraham did not act in that way. You are doing what your own father does." 40 41

"We are not bastards," they said, "we have one Father—God himself."

"If God were your Father," Jesus replied, "you would love me, for I came out of God himself, and am now here; nor have I come of myself, but I am his Messenger. Why is it that you do not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to listen to my Message. As for you, you are children of your father the Devil, and you are determined to do what your father loves to do. He was a murderer from the first, and has no place in the truth, because there is no truth in him. Whenever he lies, he is doing what is natural to him; because he is a liar, and the father of lying. But, as for me, it is because I speak the truth to you that you do not believe me. Which of you can convict me of sin? Why then do you not believe me, if I am speaking truth? God's children listen to God's teaching; the reason why you do not listen is because you are not God's children."

"Are we not right, after all," the Jews replied, "in saying that you are a Samaritan, and are possessed?"

"I am not possessed," Jesus answered, "but I am showing reverence for my Father; and yet you have no reverence for me. Not that I am eager for honour for myself; there is one who is eager for my honour, and he decides. Believe me, if any one lays my Message to heart, he will never really die."

"Now we are sure that you are possessed," the Jews replied. "Abraham died, and so did the Prophets; and yet you say, 'If any one lays my Message to heart, he will never die.' Are you greater than our ancestor Abraham, who died? And the Prophets died too. Whom do you make yourself out to be?"

"If I do honour to myself," Jesus answered, "such honour counts for nothing. It is my Father who does me honour—and you say that he is your God; and yet you have not learnt to know him; but I know him; and if I were to say that I do not, I should be a liar like you; but I do know him, and I lay his Message to heart. Your ancestor Abraham rejoiced that he would see my day; and he did see it, and was glad indeed."

"You are not fifty years old yet," the Jews exclaimed, "and have you seen Abraham?"

"Believe me," Jesus replied, "before Abraham was born I was already what I am."

At this they took up stones to throw at him; but Jesus hid himself, and left the Temple Courts.

Jesus cures a Man born blind.

Jesus, in passing, noticed a man who had been blind from his birth.

"Rabbi," the disciples asked, "who was it that sinned, this man or his parents, that he should have been born blind?"

"It was not that the man sinned, or his parents either," 3 Jesus replied; "but he was born blind that what God is doing might be exhibited in his case. We must do what he who 4 sent me is doing, while it is day; night is coming, when no one can do anything. As long as I am in the world, I am the Light 5 of the world."

Saying this, Jesus spat on the ground, made paste with the 6 saliva, and put it on the man's eyes.

"Go," he said, "and wash your eyes in the Bath of Siloam" 7 (a word which means 'Messenger'). So the man went and washed his eyes, and returned able to see.

Talk of the Blind Man's Neighbours.

Upon this the neighbours, and those who had 8 formerly known him by sight as a beggar, exclaimed:

"Is not this the man who used to sit and beg?"

"Yes, it is," some said; while others said: "No, but he is 9 like him."

He himself said: "I am the man."

"How did you get your sight, then?" they asked. 10

"The man they call Jesus," he answered, "made paste, and 11 anointed my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to Siloam and wash your eyes.' So I went and washed my eyes, and gained my sight."

"Where is he?" they asked. 12

"I do not know," he answered.

The Blind Man questioned by the Pharisees.

They then took the man who had been blind to 13
the Pharisees. Now it was a Sabbath when Jesus 14 made the paste and gave him his sight. So the 15 man was again questioned—this time by the Pharisees—as to how he had gained his sight.

"He put paste on my eyes," he answered, "and I washed them, and I can see."

"The man is not from God," said some of the Pharisees, 16
"for he does not keep the Sabbath."

"How is it possible," retorted others, "for a bad man to give signs like this?"

So there was a division of opinion among them. They again 17 questioned the man:

"What do you yourself say about him, now that he has given you your sight?"

"He is a Prophet," the man replied.

The Blind Man's Parents questioned.

The Jews, however, refused to believe that he 18 had been blind and had gained his sight, until they had called his parents, and questioned them.

"Is this your son, who you say was born blind?" they asked. 19
"If so, how is it that he can see now?"

"We know that this is our son," the parents answered, "and 20
we know that he was born blind; but how it is that he can see 21 now we do not know; nor do we know who it was that gave him his sight. Ask him himself—he is old enough—he will tell you about himself."

His parents spoke in this way because they were afraid of the 22 Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that, if any one should acknowledge Jesus as the Christ, he should be expelled from their synagogues. This was why his parents said, 'He is old 23 enough; ask him himself.' So the Jews again called 24

The Blind Man further questioned.

the man who had been blind, and said to him: "Give the honour of your cure to God; we know that this is a bad man."

"I do not know about his being a bad man," he replied; 25
"one thing I do know, that although I was blind, I can see now."

"What did he do to you?" they asked. "How did he give 26
you your sight?"

"I told you just now," he answered, "and you did not listen. 27 Why do you want to hear it again? You, surely, do not want to become his disciples?"

"You are his disciple," they retorted scornfully; "but 28
we are disciples of Moses. We know that God spoke to 29 Moses; but as for this man, we do not know where he comes from."

"Well," the man replied, "this is very strange; you do not 30 know where he comes from, and yet he has given me my sight! We know that God never listens to bad men, but when a man 31 is religious and does God's will, God listens to him. Since the 32 world began, such a thing was never heard of as any one giving sight to a person born blind. If this man had not been from 33 God, he could not have done anything at all."

"You," they retorted, "were born totally depraved; and is it 34 for you to teach us?"

So they put him out.

Jesus tells the Blind Man who he is.

Jesus heard of their having put him out; and 35 when he had found the man, he asked: "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"

"Who is he, Master," he replied, "so that I may believe 36 in him?"

"You have already seen him," Jesus said; "and he it is who 37 is now speaking to you."

"Then, Master, I do believe," the man said, bending low 38
before him; and Jesus added: 39

"I came into this world to carry out God's decisions, in order that those that cannot see may see, and that those that can see may become blind."

Hearing this, some of the Pharisees who were with him said: 40

"Then are we blind too?"

"If you had been blind," Jesus replied, "you would have 41 had no sin to answer for; but as it is, you say, 'We can see'; so your sin remains.

The Good Shepherd.

Believe me, any one who does not go into the sheepfold through the door, but climbs up at some other place, is undoubtedly a thief and a robber; but the man who goes in through the door is shepherd of the sheep. For him the watchman opens the door; and the sheep listen to his voice; and he calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out. When he has got his own sheep all out, he walks in front of them, and the sheep follow him, because they know his voice. They will never follow a stranger, but will run away from him; because they do not know a stranger's voice." 10. 1 2 3 4 5

Jesus gave them this illustration; yet they did not understand of what he was speaking. 6

So he continued: 7

"I, believe me, am the Door for the sheep. All who 'came' before me are thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the Door; those who go in through me will be safe, and they will go in and come out and find pasture. The thief only comes to steal, and kill, and destroy; I have come that they may have Life, and may have it in abundance. 8 9 10

I am the Good Shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for his sheep. A hired man who is not the shepherd, and does not own the sheep, when he sees a wolf coming, leaves them, and runs away; then the wolf catches them, and scatters the flock. It is because he is only a hired man that he does this, and because he does not care about the sheep. I am the Good Shepherd; and I know my sheep, and my sheep know me—just as the Father knows me and I know the Father—and I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep besides, which do not belong to this fold; I must lead those also, and they will listen to my voice; and they will become one flock under one Shepherd. This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life—to receive it again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to receive it again. This is the command which I received from my Father." 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18

In consequence of these words, a division of opinion again arose among the Jews. Many of them said: "He is possessed and is mad; why do you listen to him?" Others said: "This is not the teaching of one who is possessed by an evil spirit. Can an evil spirit give sight to the blind?" 19 20 21

Jesus at the Re-dedication Festival.

After this the Festival of the Re-dedication took place at Jerusalem. It was winter; and Jesus was walking in the Temple Courts, in the Colonnade of Solomon, when the Jews came round him, and said: 22 23 24

[16] Ezek. 34. 23. [22] Macc. 4. 59.

"How long are you going to keep us in suspense? If you really are the Christ, tell us so frankly."

"I have told you so," Jesus replied, "and you do not believe me. All the things that I am doing by my Father's authority bear testimony to me. You, however, do not believe me, because you are not among my sheep. My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me; and I give them enduring Life, and they shall never be lost; nor shall any one snatch them out of my hands. What my Father has entrusted to me is of more importance than all else; and no one can snatch anything out of my Father's hands. The Father and I are one."

The Jews again armed themselves with stones, to throw at him. Seeing this, Jesus said:

"I have done in your presence many good actions, which were due to the Father; which of them would you stone me for?"

"It is not for any good action that we stone you," the Jews answered, "but for blasphemy; and because you, who are only a man, make yourself out to be God."

"Are there not," Jesus replied, "these words in your Law—'I said "Ye are gods"'? If those to whom God's words were addressed were said to be 'gods'—and Scripture cannot be set aside—do you say of one whom the Father has consecrated and made his Messenger to the world 'You are blasphemous,' because I said 'I am God's Son'? If I am not doing the things my Father is doing, do not believe me; but if I am doing them, even though you do not believe me, believe what these things show; so that you may learn, and continue to learn, that the Father is in union with me, and I with the Father."

This made the Jews again eager to arrest him; but he escaped their hands.

Jesus retires beyond the Jordan.

Then Jesus crossed the Jordan again to the place where John used to baptize at first, and stayed there some time, during which many people came to see him.

"John gave no sign of his mission," they said; "but everything that he said about this man was true."

And many learnt to believe in him in that place.

Jesus hears of the illness of Lazarus.

Now a man named Lazarus of Bethany was lying ill; he belonged to the same village as Mary and her sister Martha. This Mary, whose brother Lazarus was ill, was the Mary who anointed the Master with perfume, and wiped his feet with her hair. The sisters sent a message to Jesus to tell him that his friend was ill. On hearing it, Jesus said:

"This illness is not to end in death, but is for the honour of [14] Ps. 82. 6.

God, in order that the Son of God may win honour through it."
Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus were very dear to Jesus. 5
Yet when he heard of the illness of Lazarus, he still stayed 6 two days in the place where he was. Then, after that, he said 7 to his disciples:
"Let us go to Judaea again."
"Rabbi," they replied, "the Jews were but just now eager to 8 stone you; and are you going there again?"
"Are not there twelve hours in the day?" answered Jesus; 9
"now if any one travels by day, he does not stumble, because he can see the light of the sun; but if any one travels by night, 10 he stumbles, because he has not the light."
When he had said this, he added: 11
"Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep; but I am going there to wake him."
"If he has fallen asleep, Master, he will get well," said the 12
disciples.
But Jesus meant that he was dead; they, however, supposed that 13 he was speaking of natural sleep. Then he said to them plainly: 14
"Lazarus is dead; and I am glad for your sakes that I was 15 not there, so that you may learn to believe in me. But let us go to him."
At this, Thomas, who was called 'The Twin,' said to his fellow- 16
disciples:
"Let us go too, so that we may die with him."

Martha meets Jesus.

When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had 17 been four days in the tomb already. Bethany being only about 18 two miles from Jerusalem, a number of the Jews had come 19
there to condole with Martha and Mary about their brother.
When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet 20 him; but Mary remained sitting in the house.
"Master," Martha said to Jesus, "if you had been here, my 21 brother would not have died! Even now, I know that God 22 will grant you whatever you ask him."
"Your brother shall rise to life," Jesus said. 23
"I know that he will," Martha replied, "at the resurrection 24 at the Last Day."
"I myself," Jesus said, "am the Resurrection and the Life. 25
Those that believe in me, though they die, will live; and all 26 who are alive and believe in me will never die at all. Do you believe this?"
"Yes, Master," she answered; "I have learnt to believe that 27 you are the Christ, the Son of God, who was to Come into the world."

Martha sends Mary to Jesus.

After saying this, Martha went and called her 28
sister Mary, and whispered:
"The Teacher is here, and is asking for you."
As soon as Mary heard that, she got up quickly, and went to 29

27 Ps. 118. 26.

meet him. Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was 30 still at the place where Martha met him. So the Jews who were 31 in the house with Mary, condoling with her, when they saw her get up quickly and go out, followed her, under the impression that she was going to the tomb to weep there.
When Mary came where Jesus was, and saw him, she threw 32 herself at his feet.

"Master," she exclaimed, "if you had been here, I should not have lost my brother!"

When Jesus saw her in tears, as well as the Jews who had come 33 with her, he groaned deeply, and became greatly agitated.

"Where have you buried him?" he asked. 34

"Come and see, Master," they answered.

Jesus burst into tears. 35

"How he must have loved him!" the Jews exclaimed; but 36
some of them said: 37

"Could not this man who gave sight to the blind man have also prevented Lazarus from dying?"

Jesus raises Lazarus to Life.

Again groaning inwardly, Jesus came to the 38 tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against the mouth of it.

"Move the stone away," said Jesus. 39

"Master," said Martha, the sister of the dead man, "by this time the smell must be offensive, for this is the fourth day since his death."

"Did I not tell you," Jesus replied, "that if you would 40 believe in me, you should see the glory of God?"

So they moved the stone away; and Jesus, with uplifted eyes, 41
said:

"Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard my prayer; for 42 myself, I knew that thou always hearest me; but it is for the sake of the people standing round me that I say this, so that they may believe that I am thy Messenger."

After saying this, Jesus called out loudly: 43

"Lazarus, come here."

The dead man walked out, wrapped hand and foot in a wind- 44
ing-sheet; his face, too, had been wrapped in a cloth.

"Set him free," Jesus said, "and let him go."

In consequence of this, many of the Jews, who had come to 45 visit Mary and had seen what Jesus did, learnt to believe in him. Some of them, however, went to the Pharisees, and 46 told them all that he had done.

The Chief Priests plot the Death of Jesus.

Upon this the Chief Priests and the Pharisees 47 called a meeting of the High Council, and said:

"What are we to do, now that this man is giving so many signs? If we let him alone like this, 48 everybody will believe in him; and the Romans will come and will rob us of our Sacred Place and of our People."

48 Dan. 11. 30 (Septuagint Version).

One of them, however, named Caiaphas, who was High Priest that year, said to them: 49

"You know nothing about it. You do not consider that it is for your advantage that one man should die for the people, instead of the whole nation being destroyed." 50

Now he did not say this of his own accord; but as High Priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was to die for the nation— 51 and not for the nation only, but that he might also unite in one body the children of God now scattered far and wide. 52

So from that day they plotted to put Jesus to death. 53

Jesus retires to Ephraim.

In consequence of this, Jesus did not go publicly about among the Jews any more, but left that neighbourhood, and went into the country bordering on the desert, to a town called Ephraim, where he stayed with his disciples. 54

But the Jewish Festival of the Passover was near; and numbers of people had gone up from the country to Jerusalem for their 'purification' before the Festival began. 55

So they looked for Jesus there, and said to one another, as they stood in the Temple Courts: 56

"What do you think? Do you think he will not come to the Festival?"

The Chief Priests and Pharisees had already issued orders that, if any one learnt where Jesus was, he should give information, so that they might arrest him. 57

III.—The Last Days.

Jesus anointed by Mary.

Six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead, was living. 12 1

There a supper was given in his honour, Martha waiting at table, and Lazarus being one of the guests. 2

Mary took a pound of choice spikenard perfume of great value, and anointed the feet of Jesus with it, and then wiped them with her hair, the whole house being filled with the scent of the perfume. 3

One of the disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was about to betray Jesus, asked: 4

"Why was not this perfume sold for thirty pounds, and the money given to the poor?" 5

He did not say this, however, because he cared about the poor, but because he had charge of the purse and was a thief, and used to take what was put in it. 6

"Let her alone," said Jesus, "so that she may keep it for the day of my burial. 7

You always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me." 8

Now great numbers of the Jews found out that Jesus was at Bethany; and they came there, not solely on his account, but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. 9

The 10

Chief Priests, however, plotted to put Lazarus, as well as Jesus, to death, because it was owing to him that many of the Jews 11 had left them, and were becoming believers in Jesus.

Jesus enters Jersualem.

On the following day the great crowd of people 12 who had come to the Festival, hearing that Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem, took some of the branches of 13 the palm trees, and went out to meet him, shouting aloud as they went:

"'God bless him!
Blessed is the One who Comes in the name of the Lord'—
Even the King of Israel!"

Jesus, having found a young ass, seated himself on it, in 14 accordance with the passage of Scripture—

'Fear not, Daughter of Zion; 15
Behold, thy King is coming to thee,
Sitting on the foal of an ass.'

His disciples did not understand all this at first; but when 16
Jesus had entered on his glory, then they remembered that these things had been said in Scripture about him, and that they had done these things to him. Meanwhile the 17 people who were with him, when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead, were telling every one about it. This, indeed, was why the crowd met him—because 18 people had heard that he had given this sign of his mission. So 19
the Pharisees said to one another:

"You see that you are gaining nothing! Why, all the world has run after him!"

Jesus closes his public Ministry.

Among those who had come up to worship at 20
the Festival were some Greeks, who went to 21
Philip of Bethsaida in Galilee, and said:

"We should like, Sir, to see Jesus."

Philip went and told Andrew, and then together they went and 22 told Jesus. This was his reply— 23

"The time is come for the Son of Man to enter on his glory.
Believe me, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and 24 dies, it remains solitary; but if it dies, it becomes very fruitful.
Those who love their lives lose them; while those who hate their 25 lives in the present world will preserve them for enduring Life.
If any one is serving me, he must follow me; and where I am, 26 my servant will be. If any one is serving me, my Father will honour him. Now I am troubled at heart, and what can I say? 27 Father, bring me safe out of this time of trial—yet it was for this very reason that I came to this time—Father, honour 28 thine own name."

At this there came a voice from the sky, which said:

13 Ps. 118. 25, 26. 14—15 Zech. 9. 9, 27 Ps. 42. 6.

"I have already honoured it, and I will honour it again."
The crowd of bystanders, who heard the sound, exclaimed: 29
"That was thunder!"
Others said: "It was an angel speaking to him."
"It was not for my sake that the voice came," Jesus said, "but 30 for yours. This world is now on its trial. The Spirit that rules 31 it will now be driven out; and I, when I am lifted up from the 32 earth, will draw all men to myself."
By these words he indicated what kind of death he was going 33 to die.
"We have learnt from the Law," the people replied, "that 34
the 'Christ is to remain for ever'; how is it, then, that you say that the Son of Man must be 'lifted up'? Who is this 'Son of Man'?"
"It is only a little while longer," Jesus answered, "that you will 35 have the Light among you. Travel on while you have the Light, so that darkness may not overtake you; for those who travel in the darkness do not know where they are going.
While you still have the Light, believe in it, so that you may 36 become truly enlightened."

Results of the Ministry.

Having said this, Jesus went away, and hid himself from them. But though Jesus had 37 given so many signs of his mission before their eyes, they still did not believe in him, in fulfilment of the words 38 of the Prophet Isaiah, where he says—

> 'Lord, who has believed our report?
> And to whom has the might of the Lord been revealed?'

The reason why they were unable to believe is given by Isaiah 39 elsewhere, in these words—

> 'He has blinded their eyes, 40
> And blunted their mind,
> So that they should not see with their eyes,
> And understand with their mind, and turn—
> And then I should cure them.'

Isaiah said this, because he saw Christ's glory; and it was of him 41 that he spoke. Yet for all this, even among the leading 42 men there were many who came to believe in Jesus; but on account of the Pharisees they did not acknowledge it, for fear they should be expelled from their Synagogues; for they valued 43
the praise of men more than that of God.

Summary of the last Teaching.

Now Jesus, speaking loudly, had said: 44
"Those who believe in me believe not so much in me as in him who sent me; and those who see 45 me see him who sent me. I have come as a Light into the 46 world, so that all who believe in me may not remain in the darkness. If any one hears my teaching and pays no attention to 47 it, it is not I who judge him; for I have not come to judge 34 Isa. 9. 7 (Aramaic Version). 38 Isa. 53. 1. 40 Isa. 6. 10. 41 Isa. 6. 1—3.

the world, but to save it. Those who reject me, and disregard 48 my teaching, have a judge already—the very Message which I have delivered will itself be their judge at the Last Day. For 49
I have not delivered it on my own authority; but the Father, who sent me, has himself given me his command as to what I should say, and what message I should deliver.
Moreover, I know that enduring Life lies in what he com- 50 mands. So, whatever I say, I only say what the Father has told me."

Jesus washes the Disciples' Feet.

Before the Passover Festival began, Jesus knew 1 13 that the time had come for him to leave the world and go to the Father; but he had loved those who were his own in the world, and he loved them to the last.

The Devil had already put the thought of betraying Jesus 2 into the mind of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simeon; and at supper, Jesus—knowing that the Father had put everything into 3 his hands, and that he had come from God, and was returning to God—got up from his place, and taking off his upper 4 garments, tied a towel round his waist. He then poured some 5 water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel which was tied round him.
When he came to Simon Peter, Peter said: 6

"You, Master! Are you going to wash my feet?"

"You cannot understand now what I am doing," replied 7
Jesus, "but you will learn by and by."

"You shall never wash my feet!" Peter exclaimed. 8

"Unless I do wash you," Jesus answered, "you have nothing in common with me."

"Then, Master, not my feet only," exclaimed Simon Peter, 9
"but my hands and head too!"

"Those who have bathed," replied Jesus, "have no need to 10 wash, unless it be their feet, but are altogether clean; and you,"
he said to the disciples, "are clean, but not every one of you."
For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why 11
he said that they were not every one of them clean.
When he had washed their feet, and had put on his upper 12 garments and taken his place, he spoke to them again.

"Do you understand what I have been doing to you?" he asked. "You call me 'the Teacher' and 'the Master', and 13 you are right, for I am both. If I, then—'the Master' and 'the 14 Teacher'—have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet; for I have given you an example, so that you 15 may do just as I have done to you. A servant, believe me, 16 is not greater than his master, nor yet a messenger than the man who sends him. Now that you know these things, you 17 will be happy if you do them. I am not speaking about all of you. I know whom I have chosen; but this is in fulfilment of the words of Scripture— 18

'He that is eating my bread
Has lifted his heel against me.'

For the future I shall tell you of things before they take place, so that when they do, you may believe that I am what I say. 19
Those, I assure you, who receive any one that I send are receiving me; and those who receive me are receiving him who sent me." 20

Jesus points out the Betrayer.

After saying this, Jesus was deeply moved, and said very solemnly: 21
"It is one of you who will betray me."
The disciples looked at one another, wondering whom he meant. Next to Jesus, in the place on his right hand, was one of his disciples, who was very dear to him. Simon Peter made signs to that disciple, and whispered: 22 23 24
"Tell me who it is that he means."
Being in the position in which he was, this disciple leant back on Jesus' shoulder, and asked him: 25
"Who is it, Master?"
"It is the one," answered Jesus, "to whom I shall give a piece of bread after dipping it." 26
And when Jesus had dipped the piece of bread, he took it and gave it to Judas, the son of Simeon Iscariot: and it was then, after he had received it, that Satan took possession of him. So Jesus said to him: 27
"Do what you are going to do at once."
No one at table understood why he said this to Judas. Some thought, as Judas kept the purse, that Jesus meant that he was to buy some things needed for the Festival, or to give something to the poor. After taking the piece of bread, Judas immediately went out. It was then night. 28 29 30

The new Commandment.

When Judas had gone out, Jesus said: 31
"Now the Son of Man has been honoured, and God has been honoured in him; and God will in himself honour him—and that immediately. 32
My children, I am to be with you but a little while longer. You will look for me; and what I said to the Jews—'You cannot come where I am going'—I now say to you. I give you a new commandment—Love one another; love one another just as I have loved you. It is by this that every one will recognize you as my disciples—by the love you bear one another." 33 34 35
"Where are you going, Master?" Peter asked. 36
"I am going where you cannot now follow me," Jesus answered, "but you shall follow me later."

18 Ps. 41. 9.

"Why cannot I follow you now, Master?" asked Peter. "I will lay down my life for you." 37

"Will you lay down your life for me?" Jesus replied. "Believe me, the cock will not crow till you have disowned me three times." 38

Jesus comforts the Disciples.

Do not any of you be disheartened. Believe in God, and believe in me, too. In my Father's house there are many rooms. If it had not been so, I should have told you; I am going to prepare a place for you. And if I do go and prepare it, I shall return, and will take you to be with me, so that you may be where I am; and you know the way to the place where I am going." 14 1 2 3 4

"We do not know where you are going, Master," said Thomas, "so how can we know the way?" 5

"I myself," Jesus answered, "am the Way, the Truth, and the Life; no one ever comes to the Father except through me. If you had recognized me, you would have known my Father too; for the future, however, you will recognize him; indeed you have already seen him." 6 7

"Master, show us the Father," said Philip, "and we shall be satisfied." 8

"Have I been all this time among you," Jesus said, "and yet you, Philip, have not recognized me? Those who have seen me have seen the Father, so how can you still say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in union with the Father, and the Father with me? The truths which I tell you are not given on my own authority; but it is the Father who, being always in union with me, is doing these things himself. Believe me," he said to them all, "when I say that I am in union with the Father and the Father with me, or else believe me on account of these very things which you see. 9 10 11

I tell you, those who believe in me will themselves do the things that I am doing; and will do greater things still, because I am going to the Father. Whatever you ask as my followers, I will do; so that the Father may be honoured in the Son. If you ask anything as my followers, I will do it. 12 13 14

Jesus promises another Helper.

If you love me, you will lay my commands to heart, and I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you always—I mean the Spirit of Truth. The world cannot receive this Spirit because it does not see him or recognize him, but you recognize him, because he is always with you, and is within you. I will not leave you bereaved; I will come to you. In a little while the world will see me no more, but you will still see me, because I am always living and you will be living also. At that time you will recognize that I am in union with the Father, and you with me, and I with you. It is those who have my commands and lay 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 them to heart that love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I, too, will love them, and will reveal myself to them."

"What has happened, Master," said Judas (not Judas Iscariot), 22
"that you are going to reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?"

"Whoever loves me," Jesus answered, "will lay my teaching 23 to heart; and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. Those who do not love 24 me will not lay my teaching to heart; and the teaching you are listening to is not my own, but that of the Father who sent me.

A fare-well Blessing.

I have told you all this while still with you, but 25
the Helper—the holy Spirit whom the Father will 26 send to represent me—will teach you everything, and will remind you of everything that I have said to you. And 27 now I leave you a blessing; it is my own blessing that I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not be disheartened, or dismayed. You heard me say that I was going 28 away and would return to you. If you loved me you would have been glad that I was going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I am. So I have told you now before it 29 happens, that when it does, you may still believe in me. I 30 shall not talk with you much more, for the Spirit that rules the world is coming. Not that he has anything in common with me; but he is coming that the world may see that I love the 31
Father, and that I do just as the Father commanded me.
Come, let us be going.

The Vine and the Branches.

I am the True Vine, and my Father is the Vine- 1 15 grower. He removes any of my branches that 2 do not bear fruit, and cleans every branch that does, that it may bear still more. You are already clean be- 3 cause of the teaching that I have given you. Remain united 4 to me and I will remain united to you. As a branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it remain united to the vine; no more can you, unless you remain united to me. I am the 5
Vine, you are the branches. Those that remain united to me while I remain united to them are those who bear fruit plentifully; for you can do nothing apart from me. Any one 6 who does not remain united to me is thrown away, as a branch would be, and withers up. Such branches are collected and thrown into the fire, and are burnt. If you remain united to 7 me, and my teaching remains in your hearts, ask whatever you wish, and you shall have it. It is by your bearing fruit plenti- 8 fully, and so showing yourselves my disciples, that my Father is honoured. As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you; 9 keep in my love always. If you lay my commands to heart, 10 you will keep in my love; just as I have laid the Father's commands to heart and always keep in his love. I have told 11

Mutual Relation of the Branches.

you all this so that my own happiness may be yours, and that your happiness may be complete.
This is the command I give you—Love one another, 12 as I have loved you. No one can give greater proof of love 13 than by laying down his life for his friends. And you are my 14 friends, if you do what I command you. I no longer call you 15
'servants,' because a servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have given you the name of 'friends,' because I have made known to you everything that I learnt from my Father.
It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you, and I sent 16 you to go and bear fruit—fruit that should be lasting, so that the Father might grant you whatever you ask as my followers.
I am giving you these commands so that you may love 17
one another. If the world hates you, 18 do not forget that it has first hated me. If 19 you belonged to the world, the world would love what was its own; but because you do not belong to it, but I have chosen you out of it—that is why the world hates you. Remember what I said to you—'A servant is 20 not greater than his master.' If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have laid my teaching to heart, they will lay yours to heart too. But they will do all 21 this to you on my account, because they do not know him who sent me. If I had not come and spoken to them, they 22 would have had no sin to answer for; but as it is, they have no excuse for their sin. Those who hate me hate my Father 23 too. If I had not done among them such things as no one 24 else ever did, they would have had no sin to answer for; but as it is, they have both seen and hated both me and my Father.
And so is fulfilled what is said in their Law—'They hated me 25 without cause.' But when the Helper comes, whom I 26 will send to you from the Father—I mean the Spirit of Truth, who comes from the Father—he will bear testimony to me; yes, and you also are to bear testimony, because you have been 27 with me from the first.

I have spoken to you in this way so that you may not falter. 1 16
They will expel you from their Synagogues; indeed the time 2 is coming, when any one who kills you will think that he is making an offering to God. They will do this, because they 3 have not learnt to know the Father, or even me. But I have 4 spoken to you of these things, that when the time for them comes, you may remember that I told you about them myself.
I did not tell you all this at first, because I was with you. Now, 5 however, I am returning to him who sent me; and yet not one of you asks me where I am going, although your hearts are 6 full of sorrow at all that I have been saying to you. Yet I am 7 only telling you the truth. It is for your good that I am going away. Otherwise the Helper will never come to you, but if I leave you, I will send him to you. And he, when he comes, will bring conviction to 8 the world about Sin, and about Righteousness, and about Judgement; about Sin, as proved by men not believing in me; 9 about Righteousness, as proved by my going to the Father, and 10 your not seeing me any longer; about Judgement, as proved 11

by the judgement passed upon the Spirit that rules this world. I have still much to say to you, but you cannot 12 bear it at present. But when he—the Spirit of Truth—comes, 13 he will guide you into the whole Truth; for he will not speak on his own authority, but will speak all that he learns; and he will tell you of the things that are coming. He will honour 14 me; because he will take of what is mine, and will tell it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; that is why I 15 say that he takes of what is mine, and will tell it to you.

Jesus announces his Departure.

In a little while you will no longer see me; and 16
then in a little while you will see me indeed."
At this some of his disciples said to one another: 17
"What does he mean by saying to us, 'In a little while you will no longer see me, and then in a little while you will see me indeed'; and by saying, 'Because I am going to the Father'? What does he mean by, 'In a little while'?" they 18 kept saying; "we do not know what he is talking about."
Jesus noticed that they were wanting to ask him a question, 19
and said:
"Are you trying to find out from one another what I meant by saying, 'In a little while you will no longer see me; and then in a little while you will see me indeed'? Believe me, you 20 will weep and mourn, but the world will be happy; you will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will turn to happiness. A 21 woman in labour is sorry that her time has come; but no sooner is the child born, than she forgets her trouble in her happiness that another life has been brought into the world.
You, in the same way, are sorry now; but I shall see you 22 again, and your hearts will be happy, and no one will rob you of your happiness. And at that time you will not ask any 23 questions of me; believe me, if you ask the Father for anything, he will grant it to you as my followers. So far, you have 24 not asked for anything as my followers; ask, and you will have, so that your happiness may be complete. I have spoken 25

Words of Farewell.

to you of all this in figurative language; a time is coming, however, when I shall not speak any longer to you in such language, but shall tell you about the Father in plain words. You will ask, at that 26 time, as my followers; and I do not say that I will intercede with the Father for you; for the Father loves you himself, 27 because you have loved me, and have believed that I came from beside the Father. I did come out of the Father, and 28

[22] Isa. 66 14.

have come into the world; and further, I am leaving the world, and going to the Father."

"Now," exclaimed the disciples, "you are using plain words, 29 and not speaking figuratively at all. Now we are sure that you 30 know everything, and need not wait for any one to question you. This makes us believe that you did come from God."

"Do you believe that already?" Jesus answered. "Listen! 31 a time is coming—indeed it has already come—when you are 32 to be scattered, each going his own way, leaving me alone; and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. I have 33 spoken to you in this way, so that in me you may find peace. In the world you will find trouble; yet take courage! I have conquered the world."

Jesus prays for himself.

After speaking thus, Jesus raised his eyes hea- 1 17
venwards, and said:

"Father, the time has come; honour thy Son, so that thy Son may honour thee. Thou gavest him power over 2 all mankind, so that he should give enduring Life to all those whom thou hast given him. And this enduring Life is to 3 know thee as the only true God, and thy Messenger, Jesus, as the Christ. I have honoured thee on earth by completing the 4 work which thou hast given me to do; and now do thou 5 honour me, Father, at thy own side, with the honour which I had beside thee before the world began.

Jesus prays for his Apostles.

I have revealed thee to the men whom thou 6 gavest me from the world; they were thy own, and thou gavest them to me; and they have laid thy Message to heart. They recognize now that everything 7 that thou gavest me was from thee; for I have given them the 8 teaching which thou gavest me, and they received it, and clearly understood that it was from beside thee that I came, and they believed that I was thy Messenger. I intercede 9 for them; I am not interceding for the world, but for those whom thou hast given me, for they are thy own—as indeed all 10 that is mine is thine, and all that is thine is mine—and I am honoured in them. Now I am to be in this world no longer, 11 but they are still in it, and I am coming to be with thee. Holy Father, keep them in the knowledge of thyself which thou hast given me, so that they may be one, as we are. While 12 with them, I kept them in that knowledge, and I have protected them; and not one of them has been lost, except the one who was sure to be lost—in fulfilment of Scripture. But now 13
I am coming to be with thee; and I am speaking thus while still in the world, so that they may have my own happiness, in all its fulness, in their hearts. I have given them thy 14 Message; and the world hated them, because they do not belong to it any more than I. I do not ask thee to take them 15 away from the world, but to keep them away from Evil. They 16 do not belong to the world any more than I. Make them 17 devoted to the Truth; the Message thou sendest is Truth. Just 18 as I am thy Messenger to the world, so they are my Messengers to it. And it is for their sakes that I am devoting myself, so 19 that they also may be truly devoted.

Jesus prays for his future Disciples.

But it is not only for them that I am inter- 20
ceding, but also for those who become believers in me through their teaching, that they all may 21 be one—that just as thou, Father, art in union with me and I with thee, so they also may be in union with us—and so the world may believe that I was thy Messenger. I have given 22 them the honour which thou hast given me, that they may be one just as we are—I in union with them and thou with me— 23 that so they may be perfectly one, and thus the world may know that I was thy Messenger, and that thou hast loved them just as thou hast loved me. Father, my desire for all 24 those whom thou hast given me is that they may be with me where I shall be, so that they may see the honour which thou hast given me; for thou didst love me before the beginning of the world. O righteous Father, though the world did 25 not know thee, I knew thee; and these men knew me to be thy Messenger. I have made thee known to them, and will do 26 so still; so that such love as thou hast to me may be in their hearts, as I myself will be."

Jesus in Gethsemane.

When Jesus had said this, he went out with his 1 18 disciples and crossed the brook Kidron to a place where there was a garden, into which he and his disciples went. The place was well known to Judas, the 2 betrayer, for Jesus and his disciples had often met there. So 3 Judas, who had obtained the soldiers of the Roman garrison, and some constables from the Chief Priests and Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons. Jesus, 4 aware of all that was coming upon him, went to meet them,
and said to them:

"Who is it that you are looking for?"

"Jesus of Nazareth," was their answer. 5

"I am he," said Jesus.

(Judas, the betrayer, was also standing with them.)

When Jesus said, 'I am he,' they drew back and fell to the 6 ground. So he again asked who they were looking for, and 7 they answered: "Jesus of Nazareth."

"I have already told you that I am he," Jesus replied, "so if 8 you are looking for me, allow these men to go."

This was in fulfilment of his words, 'Of those whom thou 9 hast given me I have not lost one.'

At this, Simon Peter, having a sword with him, drew it, and 10 aimed a blow at the High Priest's servant, and struck off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. Jesus, however, 11 said to Peter:

"Sheathe your sword. Shall I not drink the cup which the Father has given me?"

Jesus taken Prisoner.

The Colonel, with the soldiers of the garrison 12 and the Jewish constables, arrested Jesus and put him in chains, and took him first of all to Annas. Annas was 13 the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was High Priest that year. It was Caiaphas who had counselled the Jews, that 14 it was for their advantage that one man should die for the people.

Peter disowns Jesus.

Meanwhile Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so 15 did another disciple. That disciple, being well-known to the High Priest, went with Jesus into the High Priest's court-yard, while Peter stood outside by the 16 door. Presently the other disciple—the one well-known to the High Priest—went out and spoke to the portress, and brought Peter in. But she said to Peter: 17

"Are not you one of this man's disciples too?"

"No, I am not," he said.

The servants and constables were standing round a charcoal 18 fire (which they had made because it was cold), and they were warming themselves. Peter, too, was with them, standing and warming himself.

Jesus examined by the High Priest.

The High Priest questioned Jesus about his 19 disciples and about his teaching.

"For my part," Jesus answered, "I have spoken 20 to all the world openly. I always taught in some Synagogue, or in the Temple Courts, places where all the Jews assemble, and I never spoke of anything in secret. Why put these 21 questions to me? Question those who have listened to me as to what I have spoken about to them. They must know what I said."

When Jesus said this, one of the constables, who was standing 22 near, gave him a blow with his hand.

"Do you answer the High Priest like that?" he exclaimed.

"If I said anything wrong, give evidence about it," Jesus 23 replied; "but if not, why do you strike me?"

Annas sent him in chains to Caiaphas the High Priest. 24

Peter twice more disowns Jesus.

Meanwhile Simon Peter was standing, warming 25 himself; so they said to him:

"Are not you one of his disciples too?"

Peter denied it.

"No, I am not," he said.

One of the High Priest's servants, a relation of the man whose 26 ear Peter had struck off, asked Peter:

"Did not I myself see you with him in the garden?"

Peter again denied it; and at that moment a cock crowed. 27

Trial of Jesus before the Roman Governor.

From Caiaphas they took Jesus to the Govern- 28 ment House. It was early in the morning. But they did not enter the Government House themselves—to avoid becoming 'defiled' and so being unable to eat the Passover. So Pilate came outside to speak to 29 them.

"What charge do you bring against this man?" he asked.

"If he had not been a criminal, we should not have handed 30 him over to you," they answered.

"Take him yourselves," said Pilate, "and try him by your 31 own Law."

"We have no power to put any one to death," the Jews replied—in fulfilment of what Jesus had said when alluding to 32
the kind of death he was going to die.

After that, Pilate went into the Government House again, 33 and calling Jesus, asked him:

"Are you the King of the Jews?"

"Is that a suggestion of your own?" Jesus replied, "or have 34 other people said that to you about me?"

"Do you take me for a Jew?" was Pilate's answer. "It is 35 your own nation and the Chief Priests who have handed you over to me. What is it that you have done?"

"My Kingdom," replied Jesus, "is not one of the world's 36 kingdoms. If it had been so, my servants would have been fighting hard to prevent my being handed over to the Jews;
but, as it is, my Kingdom is nothing of that kind."

"So you are a King after all!" Pilate exclaimed. 37

"Yes, I am a King, as you say," Jesus answered. "I was born for this, I have come into the world for this—to bear testimony to the Truth. Every one who is on the side of Truth listens to my voice."

"Truth! what is that?" exclaimed Pilate. 38

After saying this, he went out to the Jews again, and
said:

"For my part, I find nothing with which he can be charged.
It is, however, the custom for me to grant you the release of 39 one man at the Passover Festival. Do you wish for the release of the King of the Jews?"

"No, not him," they shouted again, "but Barabbas!" 40
This Barabbas was a robber.

19 After that, Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged. The 1 soldiers made a crown with some thorns and put it on his head 2 and threw a purple robe round him. They kept coming up to him and saying: "Long live the King of the Jews!"—giving him 3 blow after blow with their hands. Pilate again came 4 outside, and said to the people:

"Look! I am bringing him out to you, so that you may know that I find nothing with which he can be charged."

So Jesus came outside, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe; and Pilate said to them: 5

"Look, here is the man!"

When the Chief Priests and the constables saw him, they shouted: 6

"Crucify him! Crucify him!"

"Take him yourselves and crucify him," said Pilate. "For my part, I find nothing with which he can be charged."

"But we," the Jews replied, "have a Law, under which he deserves death for making himself out to be the Son of God." 7

When Pilate heard what they said, he became still more alarmed; and going into the Government House again, he said to Jesus; 8 9

"Where do you come from?"

But Jesus made no reply. So Pilate said to him: 10

"Do you refuse to speak to me? Do not you know that I have power to release you, and have power to crucify you?"

"You would have no power over me at all," answered Jesus, "if it had not been given you from above; and for that reason the man who handed me over to you has the greater sin to answer for." 11

After that, Pilate was anxious to release him; but the Jews shouted: 12

"If you release that man, you are no friend of the Emperor's! Any one who makes himself out to be a King is setting himself against the Emperor!"

On hearing what they said, Pilate brought Jesus out, and took his seat upon the Bench at a place called 'The Stone Pavement', in Hebrew 'Gabbatha.' It was the Passover Preparation Day, and it was about noon. Then he said to the Jews: 13 14

"Look! here is your King!"

They, however, shouted: 15

"Kill him! Kill him! Crucify him!"

"Am I to crucify your King?" exclaimed Pilate.

"We have no King but the Emperor," the Chief Priests replied; whereupon Pilate handed Jesus over to them to be crucified. 16

Crucifixion of Jesus.

So they took Jesus; and he went out, carrying the cross for himself, to the place that is called, after a skull, 'Golgotha'—so it is called in Hebrew. There they crucified him, and two others with him —one on each side, and Jesus in the middle. Pilate had a notice, too, written, and put up over the cross. It ran—'JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.' This notice was read by many of the Jews, because the part of the city where Jesus was crucified was near by; and the notice was written in 17 18 19 20

Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. So the Jewish Chief Priests 21 said to Pilate:
"Do not write 'The King of the Jews', but write what the man said—'I am King of the Jews.' But Pilate answered: 22
"What I have written, I have written."

When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his clothes 23 and divided them into four shares—a share for each soldier—and they took the coat too. The coat had no seam, being woven in one piece from top to bottom. So they said to one another: 24
"Do not let us tear it, but let us draw for it, to settle whose it is to be." This was in fulfilment of the words of Scripture—

'They shared my clothes between them,
And over my clothing they cast lots.'

This was what the soldiers did. Meanwhile, near the cross of 25
Jesus were standing his mother and his mother's sister, as well as Mary the wife of Clopas and Mary of Magdala. When 26 Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple who was very dear to him, standing near, he said to his mother:
"There is your son."
Then he said to that disciple: 27
"There is your mother."
And from that time the disciple took her to live with him.

Death of Jesus.

Afterwards, knowing that everything was now 28 finished, Jesus said, in fulfilment of the words of Scripture:
"I am thirsty."
There was a bowl standing there full of common wine; so they 29 put a sponge soaked in the wine on the end of a hyssop-stalk, and held it up to his mouth. When Jesus had received the 30 wine, he exclaimed:
"All is finished!"
Then, bending his head, he resigned his spirit to God.

It was the Preparation Day, and so in order to prevent the 31 bodies remaining on the crosses during the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a great day), the Jews asked Pilate to have the legs broken and the bodies removed. Accordingly the soldiers 32 came and broke the legs of the first man, and then those of the other who had been crucified with him; but on going up 33 to Jesus, seeing that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. One of the soldiers, however, pierced his side with 34 a lance, and blood and water immediately flowed from it. This 35 is the testimony of one who actually saw it—and his testimony is trustworthy, and he knows that he is speaking the truth—and it is given in order that you also may be convinced. For 36 all this took place in fulfilment of the words of Scripture—

"Not one of its bones shall be broken."

24 Ps. 22. 18. 23–29 Ps. 69. 21. 36 Exod. 12. 46.

And another passage also says— 37
"They will look upon him whom they pierced."

Burial of Jesus.

After this, Joseph of Ramah, a disciple of Jesus— 38
but a secret one, owing to his fear of the Jews—begged Pilate's permission to remove the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him leave; so Joseph went and removed the body. Nicodemus, too—the man who had formerly visited 39 Jesus by night—came with a roll of myrrh and aloes, weighing nearly a hundred pounds. They took the body of Jesus, and 40 wound it in linen with the spices, according to the Jewish way of burial. At the place where Jesus had been crucified there 41 was a garden, and in the garden a newly-made tomb in which no one had ever been laid. And so, because of its being the 42
Preparation Day, and as the tomb was close at hand, they laid Jesus there.

IV.—The Risen Life.

Mary visits Jesus' Tomb.

On the first day of the week, early in the 1 20 morning, while it was still dark, Mary of Magdala went to the tomb, and noticed that the stone had been removed. So she came running to Simon Peter and to 2 that other disciple who was dear to Jesus, and said to them:
"They have taken away the Master out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him!"
Upon this, Peter set out with that other disciple—to go to the 3 tomb. The two began running together; but the other disciple 4 ran faster than Peter, and reached the tomb first. Stooping 5 down he saw the linen wrappings lying on the ground, but did not go inside. Presently Simon Peter came following behind 6 him, and went inside the tomb. There he perceived the linen wrappings lying on the ground, and the cloth which had been 7 over Jesus' head, not lying with the wrappings, but rolled up on one side separately. Then the other disciple, who had reached 8 the tomb first, went inside too, and he himself saw and was convinced. For they were not even then familiar with the 9 passage of Scripture which says that Jesus had to rise from the dead. The disciples then returned to their companions. 10

Jesus appears to Mary of Magdala.

Meanwhile Mary was standing close outside the 11 tomb, sobbing. Still sobbing, she leant forward into the tomb, and perceived two angels in white 12 sitting there, one where the head of Jesus, and the other where his feet, had been lying.
"Why are you sobbing?" asked the angels. 13
"They have taken my Master away," she answered, "and I do not know where they have laid him."

[87] Zech. 12. 10.

After saying this, she turned round, and perceived Jesus 14 standing there, but did not know it was he.
"Why are you weeping? Who is it that you are looking 15 for?" he asked her.
Supposing him to be the gardener, Mary answered:
"If it was you, Sir, who carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away myself."
"Mary!" said Jesus. 16
She turned round, and exclaimed in Hebrew:
"Rabboni!" (or, as we should say, 'Teacher').
"Do not touch me," Jesus said; "I have not yet gone up to 17 the Father. But go to my Brothers, and tell them that I am going up to him who is my Father and their Father, my God and their God."
Mary of Magdala went and told the disciples that she had seen 18
the Master, and that he had said this to her.

Jesus appears to ten Apostles.

In the evening of the same day—the first day of 19
the week—after the doors of the room, where the disciples were, had been shut for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and gave them his blessing; after which he showed them his hands and his side. The 20 disciples were delighted at seeing the Master. After blessing 21 them again, Jesus said:
"As the Father has made me his Messenger, so I am sending you."
When he had said this, he breathed on them, and said: 22
"Receive the holy Spirit; if you forgive any one's sins, they 23 are forgiven them; and if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven."

But Thomas, one of the Twelve, called 'The Twin,' was not 24 with them when Jesus came; so the rest of the disciples began 25 telling him that they had seen the Master.
"Unless I see the marks of the nails in his hands," he exclaimed, "and put my finger into the marks, and put my hand into his side, I will never believe it."

Jesus appears to the eleven Apostles.

A week later the disciples were again in the 26 house, and Thomas with them. After the doors had been shut, Jesus came and stood among them, and gave them his blessing. Then he said to Thomas: 27
"Place your finger here, and examine my hands; and place your hand here, and put it into my side; and do not be an unbeliever, but a believer."
In answer to this, Thomas exclaimed: 28
"My Master, and my God!"
"Is it because you have seen me that you have believed?" 29
Jesus said. "Happy are those who have not seen, and yet have believed!"

Object of this Gospel.

There were many other signs of his mission which Jesus gave in presence of the disciples which are not recorded in this book; but these have been recorded that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God—and that, through your belief, you may have Life in the knowledge of him. 30 31

Jesus appears to seven Disciples.

21 Later on, Jesus showed himself again to the disciples. It was by the Lake of Tiberias, and it came about in this way:—Simon Peter, Thomas, 1 2 called 'The Twin,' Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, Zebediah's sons, and two other disciples of Jesus, were all together, when 3 Simon Peter said: "I am going fishing."

"We will come too," said the others.

They went out and got into the boat, but caught nothing that night. Just as day was breaking, Jesus came and stood on the 4 beach; but the disciples did not know it was he.

"My children," he said, "have you any fish?" 5

"No," they answered.

"Cast your net on the right-hand side of the boat," he said, 6
"and you will find some."

They did so, and now they could not haul it in on account of the quantity of fish in it. Upon this, the disciple who was very 7 dear to Jesus said to Peter:

"It is the Master!"

When Simon Peter heard that it was the Master, he fastened his coat round him (for he had taken it off), and threw himself into the lake. But the rest of the disciples came in the boat 8 (for they were only about a hundred yards from shore), dragging in the net full of fish. When they had come ashore, they 9 found a charcoal fire ready laid with some fish on it, and some bread.

"Bring some of the fish which you have just caught," said Jesus. 10

So Simon Peter got into the boat and hauled the net to shore 11 full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three of them; and yet, although there were so many, the net had not been torn.

"Come and have breakfast," said Jesus. 12

Not one of the disciples ventured to ask him who he was, knowing it was the Master. Jesus went and took the bread 13 and gave it to them, and the fish too. This made the 14 third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples after he had risen from the dead.

Jesus' Last Words to Peter.

When breakfast was over, Jesus said to Simon Peter: 15

"Simon, son of John, are you more devoted to me than the others are?"

"Yes, Master," he answered, "you know that I love you."

"Feed my lambs," said Jesus.

Then, a second time, Jesus asked: 16

"Simon, son of John, are you devoted to me?"

"Yes, Master," he answered, "you know that I love you."

"Be a shepherd to my sheep," said Jesus.

The third time, Jesus said to him: 17

"Simon, son of John, do you love me?"

Peter was pained at his third question being 'Do you love me?; and exclaimed:

"Master, you know everything! You can tell that I do love you."

"Feed my sheep," said Jesus. "Believe me," he continued, 18 "when you were young you used to put on your own girdle, and walk wherever you wished; but when you have grown old, you will have to hold out your hands, while some one else will put on your girdle, and take you where you do not wish." Jesus said this to show the kind of death by which Peter was 19 to honour God; after saying it he added: "Follow me."

Peter turned round, and saw the disciple who was very dear 20 to Jesus following—the one who at the supper leant back on the Master's shoulder, and asked him who it was that would betray him. Seeing him, Peter said to Jesus: 21

"Master, what about this man?"

"If I were to choose that he should wait till I come," 22 answered Jesus, "what has that to do with you? Follow me yourself."

Consequently the report spread among the Brethren that that 23 disciple was not to die; but Jesus did not say that he was not to die, but said, "If I were to choose that he should wait till I come, what has that to do with you?"

Conclusion. It is this disciple who testifies to these things, 24 and who recorded them; and we know that his testimony is trustworthy.

There are many other things which Jesus did; but if every 25 one of them were to be recorded in detail, I do not suppose that even the world itself would hold the books that would have to be written.

A Passage about an Adulteress.

(Inserted in some manuscripts from an ancient source, and found either after John 7. 53, or after Luke 21. 38.)

[And every one went home except Jesus, who went to the Mount of Olives. But he went again into the Temple Courts early in the morning, where all the people came to him; and he sat down and taught them. Presently, however, the Rabbis and Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery, and placed her in the middle of the Court, and said to Jesus:

"Teacher, this woman was found in the very act of adultery. Now Moses, in the Law, commanded us to stone such women to death; what do you say?"

They said this to test him, in order to have a charge to bring against him. But Jesus stooped down, and wrote on the ground with his finger. However, as they continued asking him, he raised himself, and said:

"Let the man among you who has never done wrong throw the first stone at her."

And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. When they heard that, they went out one by one, beginning with the eldest; and Jesus was left alone with the woman in the middle of the Court. Raising himself, Jesus said to her:

"Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?"

"No one, Master," she answered.

"Nor do I condemn you," said Jesus; "go, and never sin again."]

Deut. 22. 24.

THE DOINGS OF THE APOSTLES.

(COMMONLY CALLED "THE ACTS.")

I.—The Church Among The Jews.

Doings of the Apostles Peter and John.

Introduction. The first account which I compiled, Theophilus, 1 1 dealt with all that Jesus did and taught from the very first, down 2 to the day on which he was taken up to Heaven after he had,
by the help of the holy Spirit, given instructions to his chosen Apostles. He had already shown himself to them alive, after 3 his death, in many convincing ways. He appeared to them from time to time during forty days, and spoke about the Kingdom of God. And once, when at a meal with them, he 4 charged them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for that which the Father had promised, "of which," he said, "you have heard me speak. For John baptized with water, but you shall 5 be baptized in the holy Spirit before many days have passed."

Ascension of Jesus. On one occasion, when the Apostles had met 6 together, they asked Jesus this question—

"Master, is this the time when you will re-establish the Kingdom for Israel?"

His answer was: 7

"It is not for you to know the times or dates which the Father has fixed by his own authority; but yet you shall 8 receive power, when the holy Spirit has come upon you, and you shall be witnesses for me not only in Jerusalem, but in the whole of Judaea and Samaria, and to the very ends of the earth."

Jesus had no sooner said this than he was caught up before their 9 very eyes, and a cloud received him, and hid him from their sight. The Apostles were still gazing into the sky, as he was 10 going, when they suddenly found two men in white standing by them, who said: 11

[a] Dan. 2. 44.

"Why are you Galileans standing here with your eyes fixed on the sky? This very Jesus, who has been taken from you into the sky, will come in just the same way as you have seen him going there."

The Apostles in Jerusalem.

Then the Apostles returned from the hill called Olivet to Jerusalem. It is about three quarters of a mile from the city. 12

When they got there, they went to the upstair room, where they were then staying. There were Peter, John, James, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas the son of James. They all met regularly for united Prayer, some women—of whom Mary the mother of Jesus was one—and his brothers joining with them. 13 14

Appointment of Matthias.

About this time, at a gathering of the Brethren, Peter rose to speak—the number present being about a hundred and twenty. 15

"Brothers," he said, "that prediction of Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the holy Spirit made by the lips of David about Judas, who acted as guide to the men that arrested Jesus—he being one of our number and having had his part allotted him in this work of ours." 16 17

(This man had bought a piece of land with the payment for his treachery; and falling from a height, his body burst open, and all his bowels protruded. This became known to every one living at Jerusalem, and so the field got its name, in their language, of 'Aceldama', which means 'Blood-Field'). 18 19

"For in the Book of Psalms," Peter continued, "it is said— 20

'Let his dwelling be made desolate,
And let no one live in it;'

and also—

'His office let another take.'

Therefore from among the men who have been with us all the time that Jesus, our Master, moved about among us—from his baptism by John down to the day on which he was taken up away from us—some one must be found to join us as a witness of his resurrection." 21 22

On this they proposed two men, Joseph called Barsabas, whose other name was Justus, and Matthias; and they offered this prayer— 23 24

"O Lord, who readest all hearts, appoint, we pray thee, the one of these two whom thou hast chosen, to take his place 25 [20] Ps. 69. 25; Ps. 109. 8.

in this work and apostleship, which Judas has deserted to go—to his proper place."

Then they drew lots between them; and the lot falling on 26
Matthias, he was added to the number of the eleven Apostles.

The Gift of the holy Spirit.

2 In the course of the Harvest Thanksgiving-day 1
the disciples had all met together, when a noise 2 like that of a strong wind coming nearer and nearer suddenly came from the sky, and filled the whole house in which they were sitting. Then they saw tongues of what 3 appeared to be flame, separating, so that one settled on each of them; and they were all filled with the holy Spirit, and 4 began to speak with strange 'tongues' as the Spirit prompted their utterances.

There were then staying in Jerusalem religious Jews from 5 every country in the world; and when this sound was heard, 6 numbers of people collected, in the greatest excitement because each of them heard the disciples speaking in his own language. They were utterly amazed, and kept saying in their 7 astonishment:

"Why, are not all these Galileans who are speaking! How 8 is it that we each of us hear them in our own native language?
Some of us are Parthians, some Medes, some Elamites; and 9 some of us live in Mesopotamia, in Judaea and Cappadocia, in Pontus and Roman Asia, in Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt 10 and the districts of Libya adjoining Cyrene; some of us are visitors from Rome, either Jews by birth or converts, and some Cretans and Arabians—yet we all alike hear them 11 speaking in our tongues of the great things God has done."
Every one was utterly amazed and bewildered. 12

"What does it mean?" they asked each other.
But others said with a sneer: "They have had too much new 13 wine."

Peter's Address.

Then Peter, surrounded by the eleven other 14 Apostles, stood up, and raising his voice, addressed the crowd.

"Men of Judaea," he began, "and all you who are staying in Jerusalem, let me tell you what this means, and mark my words. You are wrong in thinking that these men are drunk; 15 indeed it is only nine in the morning! No! This is what was 16 spoken of in the prophet Joel—

'It shall come about' in the last days, God said, 17
'That I will pour out my Spirit on all mankind;
Your sons and your daughters shall become Prophets,
Your young men shall see visions,
And your old men dream dreams;

25 Num. 24. 25. 17 Joel 2. 28.

Even on the servants—for they are mine—both men and women, 18
I will in those days pour out my Spirit,'
And they shall become prophets;
'And I will show wonders in the sky above, 19
And signs on the earth below,
Blood and fire and mist of smoke;
The sun will become darkness, 20
And the moon blood-red,
Before the Day of the Lord comes—that great and awful day.
Then shall every one who invokes the name of the Lord be saved.' 21

Men of Israel, listen to this. It was Jesus of Nazareth, a 22 man whose mission from God to you was proved by miracles, wonders, and signs, which God showed through him among you, as you yourselves know—it was he, I say, who, in accor- 23 dance with God's definite plan and with his previous knowledge, was betrayed, and whom you, with the help of heathen men, nailed to a cross and put to death. God, however, released 24 him from the pangs of death and raised him to life, it being impossible for death to retain its hold upon him. It was 25 indeed with reference to him that David said—

'I have had the Lord ever before my eyes,
For he stands at my right hand, that I should not be disquieted.
Therefore my heart was cheered and my tongue told its delight; 26
Yes, even my body, too, will rest in hope;
For thou wilt not abandon my soul to the Place of Death, 27
Nor give up me, thy holy one, to undergo corruption.
Thou hast shown me the path to life, 28
Thou wilt fill me with happiness in thy presence.'

Brothers, I can speak to you confidently about the Patriarch 29 David, because he is dead and buried, and because his tomb is here among us to this very day. Speaking, then, as a 30 Prophet, and knowing that God had solemnly sworn to him to set one of his descendants upon his throne, David looked into the 31 future, and was referring to the resurrection of the Christ when he said that 'he had not been abandoned to the Place of Death, nor had his body undergone corruption.' It was 32 this Jesus, whom God raised to life—and of that fact we are ourselves all witnesses. So then, now that he has been exalted 33 to the right hand of God, and has received from the Father the promised gift of the holy Spirit, he has begun to pour it out, as you now see and hear for yourselves. For it was not 34 David who went up into Heaven. Indeed he says himself—

'The Lord said to my master: "Sit on my right hand, Till I put thy enemies as a footstool under thy feet."' 35

So let all Israel know beyond all doubt, that God has made him 36 both Master and Christ—this very Jesus whom you crucified."

17—21 Joel 2. 29—32. 25—28 Ps. 16. 8—11. 30 Ps. 132. 11. 34—35 Ps. 110. 1.

When the people heard this, their consciences pricked them, 37 and they said to Peter and the rest of the Apostles:
"What are we to do, Brothers?"
"You must repent," Peter answered, "and must every one 38 of you be baptized in Jesus Christ's name for the forgiveness of your sins; and then you will receive the gift of the holy Spirit. For the promise is for you and your children, and also 39 for all those far away, who may be called by the Lord our God."
In many other ways Peter bore his testimony, and urged the 40 people to find safety from that perverse age. So those 41 who welcomed his teaching were baptized, and about three thousand joined the disciples on that day alone. They were 42 regularly present at the teaching of the Apostles and at the sharing of the offerings, as well as at the Breaking of the Bread and at the Prayers.

Early Days of the Christian Society.

A deep impression was made upon every one, 43 and many wonders and signs were done through the Apostles. All who had become believers in 44 Christ agreed in having everything in common, and sold their property and their belongings, and divided them 45 among them all, according to their individual needs. Every 46 day, too, they met regularly in the Temple Courts, and at their homes for the Breaking of Bread, partaking of their food in simple-hearted gladness, continually praising God, and win- 47 ning respect from all the people. And the Lord daily added to their company those who were in the path of Salvation.

Cure of a lame Beggar.

One day as Peter and John were going up into 1 3
the Temple Courts during the time of the three o'clock Prayers, a man, who had been lame from 2 his birth, was carried past. The man used to be set down every day at the gate of the Temple called 'the Beautiful Gate', so as to beg of those who went in. Seeing Peter and 3
John on the point of going in, he asked them to give him something. Peter fixed his eyes on him—John doing the 4 same—and then said: "Look at us."
The man gave them his attention, expecting to get something 5 from them; but Peter added: 6
"I have no gold or silver, but I will give you what I have.
In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth I bid you walk."
Grasping the lame man by the right hand, Peter lifted him up. 7 Instantly the man's feet and ancles became strong, and jump- 8 ing up, he began to walk about, and then went with them into the Temple Courts, walking, jumping, and praising God. All 9 the people saw him walking about and praising God; and 10 recognizing him as the man who used to sit begging at the [39] Dan. 9, 7; Joel 2. 32.

Beautiful Gate of the Temple, they were utterly astonished and amazed at what had happened to him.

While the man still kept fast hold of Peter and John, all the 11 people quickly gathered round them in the Colonnade called after Solomon, in the greatest astonishment. On seeing this, 12 Peter spoke to the people.

Peter's Address in the Temple.

"Men of Israel," he said, "why do you wonder at this? and why do you stare so at us, as though we, by any power or piety of our own, had enabled this man to walk? The God of Abraham, Isaac, and 13
Jacob, the God of our ancestors, has done honour to his Servant Jesus, though you indeed surrendered him, and disowned him even before Pilate, when he had decided to discharge him. You, I say, disowned the Holy and Righteous One, and asked 14 for yourselves the release of a murderer! The very Guide to 15 Life you put to death; but God raised him from the dead—and of that fact we are ourselves witnesses. And it is by faith 16 in the name of Jesus, that this man, whom you all see and know, has—by his name—been made strong. Yes, it is the faith inspired by Jesus that has made this complete cure of the man, before the eyes of you all. And yet, my Brothers, I 17 know that you acted as you did from ignorance, and your rulers also. But it was in this way that God fulfilled all that 18 he had long ago foretold, as to the sufferings of his Christ, by the lips of all the Prophets. You must, therefore, repent and 19 turn, for your sins to be wiped away; and then better and brighter days will come direct from the Lord himself, and he 20 will send you, in Jesus, your long-appointed Christ. But 21 Heaven must be his home, until those times of universal restoration, of which God has spoken by the lips of his holy Prophets, even the very first. It was Moses himself who said— 22

'The Lord your God will raise up from among your brothers a Prophet, as he did me. To him you will listen in everything that he says to you. And it shall be that any one among the people, who will 23 not listen to that Prophet, will be utterly destroyed.'

Yes, and all the Prophets from Samuel onwards, and all of 24 their successors who taught the people, have also told of these days. You are yourselves the heirs of the Prophets, and heirs, 25 too, of the Covenant which God made with your ancestors, when he said to Abraham—

'In your descendants will all the nations of the earth be blessed.'

It was for you first that God raised up his Servant, and sent 26 him with blessings for you, by turning each of you from his wicked ways."

Trial of Peter and John.

While Peter and John were still speaking to the 1 4 people, the Chief Priests, with the Officer in charge at the Temple and the Sadducees, came 13 Exod. 3. 15; Isa. 52. 13. 21 Mal. 4. 6. 22—23 Deut. 18. 15—19; Lev. 23. 29 25 Gen. 12. 3.

up to them. They were much annoyed because they were 2 teaching the people, and because, on the strength of the resurrection of Jesus, they were preaching the resurrection from the dead. They arrested the Apostles and put them in prison till 3 the next day, as it was already evening. Many, however, of 4 those who had heard their Message believed it; and the number of the men alone mounted up to some five thousand.

The next day, a meeting of the leading men, Councillors, 5 and Rabbis was held in Jerusalem. Annas the High Priest 6 was there, as well as Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and all the High Priest's relations. They had Peter and John brought 7 before them, and began by questioning them as to the power or authority by which men like them had done what they had.
On this, Peter, filled with the holy Spirit, spoke as follows: 8
"Leaders of the people and Councillors, we are called to 9 account to-day for a kind act done to a helpless man, and we are asked in what way the man here before you has been made well. So let me tell you all and all the people of Israel, that 10 it is by the authority of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified and whom God raised from the dead—it is, I say, by his authority that this man stands here before you cured. It 11 is Jesus who is the stone which, scorned by you, the builders, has yet become the corner stone. And Salvation comes through no 12 one else; for there is no other in the whole world who has been named to men as the only means of our Salvation."
Seeing how boldly Peter and John spoke, and having found 13 that they were uneducated and obscure persons, the Council was surprised, and realized that they had been companions of Jesus. They looked at the man who had been healed, standing 14 there with them, and had nothing to say. So they ordered 15 them out of court, and then began consulting together.
"What are we to do to these men?" they asked each other. 16
"That a remarkable sign has been given through them is obvious to every one living in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it. But, to prevent its spreading further among the people, 17 let us warn them not to plead the Cause any more before any one whatever."
So they called them in, and ordered them to give up speaking 18 or teaching for the Cause of Jesus altogether. But Peter and 19 John replied:
"Whether it is right, in God's eyes, to listen to you rather 20 than to him—you must decide; as for us, we cannot help speaking of what we have seen and heard."
However, after further threats, the Council set them at liberty, 21 not seeing any safe way of punishing them, because all the people were praising God for what had occurred—the more 22

[11] Ps. 118. 21—22.

so as the man who was the subject of this miraculous cure was more than forty years old.

Prayer of the Church.

23 After they had been set at liberty, the Apostles went to their friends and told them all that the Chief Priests and Councillors had said to them.
24 When they had heard their story, moved by a common impulse, they raised their voice to God in prayer:

"O Sovereign Lord, it is thou who hast made sky, earth, and sea, and everything that is in them, and who 25 by the lips of our ancestor, thy servant David, speaking under the influence of the Holy Spirit, hast said—

'Why did the Heathen rage,
And the nations form vain designs?
The kings of the earth set their array,
26 And its rulers gathered together,
Against the Lord and against his Christ.'

27 There have indeed gathered together in this city against thy holy Servant Jesus, whom thou hast consecrated the Christ, not Herod and Pontius Pilate only, but the Heathen and the people of Israel
28 besides, but only to do all that thy providence and thy 29 will had already determined should be done. Now, therefore, O Lord, give heed to their threats, and enable thy servants, with all fearlessness, to tell thy 30 Message, while thou stretchest out thy hand to heal, and allowest signs and wonders to take place through the power of thy holy Servant Jesus."

31 When their prayer was ended, the place in which they were assembled was shaken; and one and all were filled with the holy Spirit, and continued to tell God's Message fearlessly.

The Common Fund.

32 The whole body of those who had become believers in Christ were animated by one spirit. Not one of them claimed any of his belongings as 33 his own, but everything was held for the common use. The Apostles continued with great power to bear their testimony to the resurrection of Jesus, their Master, and divine help was 34 given to them all abundantly. Indeed, there was no poverty among them, for all who were owners of land or houses sold 35 them, and brought the proceeds of the sales and laid them at the Apostles' feet; when every one received a share in 36 proportion to his needs. A Levite of Cyprian birth, named Joseph, (who had received from the Apostles the additional 37 name of 'Barnabas'—which means 'The Preacher,') sold a farm that belonged to him, and brought the money and laid it at the Apostles' feet.

24 Exod. 20. 11. 25—26 Ps. 2. 1.

Punishment of Hananiah and Sapphira.

There was, however, a man named Hananiah, 1 5 who, with his wife Sapphira, sold some property, but, with her connivance, kept back some of the 2 proceeds. He brought only a part and laid it at the Apostles' feet.

"Hananiah," Peter said, "how is it that Satan has so taken 3 possession of your heart, that you have defrauded the holy Spirit and kept back a part of the money paid for the land?
While it was unsold, was it not your own? and after it was sold, 4 was not the money at your own disposal? How did you come to think of such a thing? You have not defrauded men, but God."
As Hananiah heard these words, he fell down and expired; 5 and every one who was listening was appalled. But the 6 younger men got up, and after winding the body in a sheet, carried it out and buried it.

After an interval of about three hours Hananiah's wife came 7 in, in ignorance of what had happened.

"Is it true," Peter asked, addressing her, "that you sold 8 your land for such and such a sum?"

"Yes," she answered, "we did."

"How was it," Peter replied, "that you both agreed to 9 provoke the Spirit of the Lord? Listen! The foot-steps of those who have buried your husband are at the door; and they will carry you out too."

Instantly Sapphira fell down at Peter's feet and expired. On 10 coming in, the younger men found her dead; so they carried her out and buried her by her husband's side. The whole 11 Church and all who heard of these events were appalled.

Miracles done by the Apostles.

Many signs and wonders continued to occur 12 among the people, through the instrumentality of the Apostles. They were accustomed to meet all together in the Colonnade of Solomon, but none of the rest 13 ventured to stand by them. On the other hand, the people continued to make much of them; while large numbers both 14 of men and women kept joining them more readily than ever, as they became believers in the Master. The consequence was 15 that people would bring their sick even out into the streets, and lay them on mattresses and mats, in the hope that, as Peter came by, at least his shadow might fall on one or other of them. Besides this, the inhabitants of the towns round 16 Jerusalem flocked there, bringing sick people with them and those who were harassed by wicked spirits, and they were all alike cured.

Second Trial, and Deliverance, of the Apostles.

On this the High Priest and all his supporters 17 (who formed the party of the Sadducees) were aroused, and in a fit of jealousy arrested the 18 Apostles, and gave them in custody. An 19 angel of the Lord, however, opened the prison doors at night and led them out.

"Go," he said, "and take your stand in the Temple Courts, and tell the people all you have to say about the new Life." 20

When they heard this, they went, just at daybreak, into the Temple Courts, and began to teach. 21

On the arrival of the High Priest and his supporters, they summoned the High Council and all the representatives of the Israelites, and sent to the gaol to fetch the Apostles. But the officers who went did not find them in the prison; so they returned and reported that, while they had found the gaol quite securely shut and the warders on guard at the doors, yet, on opening the doors, they had not found any one inside. 22 23

When the Officer in charge at the Temple and the Chief Priests heard their story, they were quite puzzled as to what would come of this trouble about the Apostles. 24

But presently some one came and told them, that the men they had put in prison were actually standing in the Temple Courts, teaching the people. 25

On this, the Officer and his men went and fetched the Apostles—though without using violence, for they were afraid of being stoned by the people—and then brought them up before the Council. 26 27

The High Priest demanded an explanation from them.

"We gave you strict orders," he said, "not to teach in support of this Cause. Yet you have actually flooded Jerusalem with your teaching, and are wishing to make us responsible for the death of this man." 28

The reply of Peter and the Apostles was: 29

"We must obey God rather than men. The God of our ancestors has raised Jesus from the grave, whom you yourselves put to death, by hanging him on a cross. It is this Jesus, whom God has exalted to his right hand, to be a Guide and a Saviour, to give Israel repentance and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to the truth of this, and so is the holy Spirit—the gift of God to those that obey him." 30 31 32

The members of the Council grew furious on hearing this, and were for putting the Apostles to death. 33

But 34

Gamaliel's Advice.

Gamaliel, a Pharisee, who was a Teacher of the Law and held in universal respect, rose in the Council, and directed that the men should be taken out of court for a little while. He then said: 35

"Men of Israel, take care what you are going to do with these men. For it is not long ago that Theudas appeared, claiming to be a somebody, and was joined by a body of some four hundred men. He himself was killed, and all his following scattered and dwindled to nothing. 36

After him, Judas the Galilean appeared at the time of the census, and got people to follow him; yet he too perished and all his followers 37

[30] Deut. 21. 22.

dispersed. And in this present case, my advice to you is not 38 to interfere with these men, but to let them alone—for if these designs and these proceedings are only of human origin, they will come to an end; but if they are of divine origin, you will 39 be powerless to end them—or else you may find yourselves in opposition to God!"
The Council followed his advice, and calling the Apostles in, 40 had them flogged, and then, after cautioning them not to speak for the Cause of Jesus, discharged them. The Apostles 41 left the Council, glad that they had had the honour to be disgraced in support of the Cause. And never for a single 42 day, either in the Temple or in private houses, did they discontinue teaching, or telling the Good News of Jesus, the Christ.

Appointment of the Seven.

About this time, when the number of the disci- 1 6 ples was constantly increasing, complaints were made by the Greek-speaking Jews against the native Jews, that their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution. The Twelve, therefore, summoned the 2 general body of the disciples and said to them:
"It will not do for us to neglect God's Message to attend to tables. So, Brothers, look for seven men of reputation from 3 your own number, wise and spiritually-minded men, and we will appoint them to take charge of this business; while we, 4 for our part, will devote ourselves to Prayer, and to the delivery of the Message."
This proposal was unanimously agreed to; and they chose 5
Stephen—a man who was full of faith and of the holy Spirit—and Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicholas from Antioch, a former convert to Judaism; and 6
they brought these men up to the Apostles, who then prayed and placed their hands on them.

So God's Message spread, and the number of the disciples 7
continued to increase in Jerusalem rapidly, and a large body of the priests accepted the Faith.

Stephen's Ministry and Trial.

Meanwhile Stephen, divinely helped and streng- 8 thened, was showing great wonders and signs among the people. But some members 9 from the Synagogue known as that of the Freed Slaves and the Cyrenians and the Alexandrians, as well as visitors from Cilicia and Roman Asia, were roused to action and began disputing with Stephen; they were, however, quite unable to 10 withstand his wisdom and the inspiration with which he spoke.

Then they induced some men to say that they had heard 11
Stephen saying blasphemous things against Moses, and also against God; and they stirred up the people, as well as the 12 Councillors and Rabbis, and set upon Stephen, and arrested him, and brought him before the High Council. There they 13 produced witnesses who gave false evidence.

"This man," they said, "is incessantly saying things against this Holy Place and the Law; indeed we have heard him 14 declare that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this Place, and change the customs handed down to us by Moses."

All who composed the Council had fixed their eyes on Stephen, 15 and they saw his face looking like the face of an angel.

Stephen's Defence.

7 Then the High Priest asked him if he admitted 1
this, on which Stephen spoke as follows: 2

"Brothers and Fathers, listen. The Glorious God appeared to our ancestor Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, and before he settled in Haran, and said to him—'Leave your country and your kindred, and come into the country that I shall show you.' On this Abraham left the country of the 3 4 Chaldaeans and settled in Haran; and from there, after his father's death, God made him move into this very country, in which you are now living. God did not give him any property 5 in it, not even a foot of ground. But he promised to give him the country as a possession, for himself and for his descendants after him, though up to that time he had no children. What God 6 said was this—'Abraham's descendants will live in a foreign country, where they will be enslaved and ill-treated for four hundred years. But I will myself judge the nation, to which they will be 7 enslaved,' God said, 'and after that they will leave the country and worship me in this very place.' Then God made with Abraham 8 the Covenant of Circumcision; and it was under these circumstances that Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him when he was eight days old; and Isaac became the father of Jacob; and Jacob of the Twelve Patriarchs.

The Patriarchs, out of jealousy, sold Joseph into slavery in Egypt; 9 yet God was with him there, and rescued him out of all his 10 troubles, and enabled him to win favour and a reputation for wisdom with Pharaoh, King of Egypt, who appointed him Governor of Egypt and of his whole household. Then a famine spread over 11 the whole of Egypt and Canaan, causing great distress, and our ancestors could find no food. Hearing, however, that there was 12 corn in Egypt, Jacob sent our ancestors there. This was their first visit. In the course of their second visit, Joseph made 13 himself known to his brothers, and Pharaoh learnt the parentage of Joseph. Then Joseph sent an invitation to his father 14

Jacob and to all his relations, seventy-five persons in all; and so 15
Jacob went down into Egypt. There he died and our ancestors too, and their bodies were removed to Shechem, and were laid in the 16 tomb which Abraham had bought for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor in Shechem. Now as the time drew near for 17 the fulfilment of the promise which God had made to Abraham, the people increased largely in numbers in Egypt, till a new 18 king, who knew nothing of Joseph, came to the throne. This king 19 acted deceitfully towards our race and ill-treated our ancestors, making them abandon their own infants, so that they should not survive. It was just at this time that Moses was born. He 20 was a wonderfully beautiful child, and for three months was reared in his own father's house; and when abandoned, the 21 daughter of Pharaoh found him and reared him as her own son.
And so Moses was educated in all the learning of the Egyptians, 22 and showed ability in both speech and action. When 23 he was in his fortieth year, the thought came into his mind that he would visit his brother Israelites; and seeing an Israelite 24 ill-treated, he went to his help, and avenged the man who was being wronged, by striking down the Egyptian. He supposed 25 that his brothers would understand that God was using him to deliver them; but they failed to do so. The next day he 26 appeared on the scene again, as some of them were fighting, and tried to make peace between them. 'Men,' he said, 'you are brothers; how is it that you are ill-treating one another?'
The man who was ill-treating his fellow-workman pushed Moses 27 aside with the words—'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? Do you mean to make away with me as you did yesterday with 28 that Egyptian?' At these words Moses took to flight, and became 29 an exile in Midian; in which country he had two sons born to him. At the end of forty years, there appeared to him, in 30 the Desert of Mount Sinai, an angel in a flame of fire in a bush.
When Moses saw it, he was astonished at the sight; but, on his 31 going nearer to look at it more closely, the voice of the Lord was heard to say—'I am the God of your ancestors, the God of 32 Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.' Moses trembled all over, and did not dare to look. Then the Lord said to him—'Take your shoes off 33 your feet, for the spot where you are standing is holy ground. I have 34 indeed seen the oppression of my people, who are in Egypt, and heard their groans, and I have come down to deliver them. So come now and I will send you into Egypt.' This same Moses, whom 35 they had disowned with the words 'Who made you a ruler and a judge?', was the very man whom God sent to be both a ruler and a deliverer with the help of the angel that had appeared to him in the bush. He it was who led them out, after he had 36 shown wonders and signs in Egypt, in the Red Sea, and in the Desert for forty years. This was the Moses, who said to the 37 people of Israel, 'God will raise up for you, from among your brothers, a Prophet, as he did me.' He, too, it was who appeared 38 at the assembly in the Desert, in the company of the angel who talked to him on Mount Sinai, and in the company of our ancestors, and who received living truths to impart to you.

Yet our ancestors refused him obedience; more than that, 39 they rejected him, and in their hearts turned back to Egypt, while they said to Aaron, 'Make us some Gods, who will lead the way 40 for us, for, as for this Moses who has brought us out of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.' That was the time when they 41 made the Calf and offered sacrifice to their idol, and held festivities in honour of their own handiwork! So God turned away 42 and gave them up to the worship of the Starry Host, as is said in the Book of the Prophets—

> 'Did you offer victims and sacrifices to me, O House of Israel,
> All those forty years in the Desert?
> You took with you the tabernacle of Moloch 43
> And the Star of the god Rephan—
> The images which you had made to worship.
> So I will exile you beyond Babylon.'

Our forefathers had the Tabernacle of Revelation in the Desert, 44 constructed just as he who spoke to Moses had directed him to make it, after the model which he had seen. This Tabernacle, 45 which was handed on to them, was brought into this country by our forefathers who accompanied Joshua, (at the conquest of the nations that God drove out before the advance of our ancestors), and remained here down to the time of David. David won 46 favour with God, and asked permission to find a dwelling for the God of Jacob. But it was Solomon who built a House for God. 47
Yet it is not in buildings made by hands that the Most High 48 dwells. As the Prophet says—

> 'The sky is a throne for me 49
> And the earth a stool for my feet.
> What manner of House will you build me, saith the Lord,
> Or what place is there where I may rest?
> Was it not my hand that made all these things?' 50

You obstinate race, heathen in heart and ears, you are always 51 resisting the holy Spirit; your ancestors did it, and so do you.
Which of the Prophets escaped persecution from your an- 52 cestors? They actually killed those who told long before of the coming of the Righteous One; of whom you, in your turn, have now become the betrayers and murderers—you who 53 received the Law as transmitted by angels and yet failed to keep it."

Stephen's Martyrdom.

As they listened to this, the Council grew frantic with rage, and gnashed their teeth at Stephen. 54
He, filled as he was with the holy Spirit, fixed his eyes intently on the sky, and saw the Glory of God and Jesus standing at God's right hand. 55
"Look," he said, "I see Heaven open and the Son of Man standing at God's right hand." 56
At this, with a loud shout, they stopped their ears and rushed all together upon him, forced him outside the city, and began to stone him, the witnesses laying their clothes at the feet of a young man called Saul. 57 58
And they continued stoning Stephen, while he appealed to the Master. 59
"Jesus, Master," he exclaimed, "receive my spirit."
Falling on his knees, he cried out loudly: 60
"Master, do not charge them with this sin"; and with these words he fell asleep.
Saul assented to his being put to death. 8 1

The first Persecution.

On that very day a great persecution broke out against the Church which was in Jerusalem; and its members were all scattered over the districts of Judaea and Samaria, with the exception of the Apostles. 2
Some religious men buried Stephen, with loud lamentations for him.
As for Saul, he proceeded to harass the Church; entering house after house, he dragged out men and women alike and gave them into custody. 3

Philip's Ministry at Samaria.

Now those who were scattered in different directions went from place to place, with the Good News of the Message. 4
Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and there began to proclaim the Christ. 5
The people, one and all, listened attentively to what Philip told them, when they heard of, and saw, the signs which he was giving. 6
For there were many cases of people with wicked spirits, where the spirits, with loud screams, came out of them; and many who were paralyzed and lame were cured, so that there was great rejoicing there. 7 8
Staying in the city was a man named Simon, who had been practising magic there and mystifying the Samaritan people, giving himself out to be some great person. 9
Every one, high and low, listened attentively to him. 'This man,' they used to say, 'must be the Power of God which men call 'The Great Power.' 10
Their attention was due to their having for a long time been mystified by his magic arts. 11
However, when they came to believe Philip, as he told them the Good News about the Kingdom of God and the Cause of Jesus Christ, they were 12 baptized, men and women alike. Indeed Simon himself believed, and after his baptism attached himself to Philip, and was himself mystified at seeing signs and great miracles constantly occurring. 13

Peter and John at Samaria.

When the Apostles at Jerusalem heard that the Samaritans had welcomed God's Message, they sent to them Peter and John. On their arrival, they prayed that the Samaritans might receive the holy Spirit. (As yet it had not come upon any of them; they had only been baptized into the Faith of Jesus, the Master). Then Peter and John placed their hands on them, and they received the holy Spirit. When Simon saw that it was through the placing of the Apostles' hands on them that the Spirit was given, he brought them a sum of money, with the request: 14 15 16 17 18 19

"Give me, too, the power you possess, so that, if I place my hands upon any one, he may receive the holy Spirit."

"Take your money to perdition with you!" Peter exclaimed, "for thinking God's free gift could be bought with gold! You have no share or part in our Message, for your heart is not right with God. So repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord, that, if possible, you may be forgiven for such a thought; for I see that you have fallen into bitter jealousy and are in bondage to iniquity." 20 21 22 23

"Pray to the Lord for me, all of you," Simon answered, "so that none of the things you have spoken of may come upon me." 24

So Peter and John, having borne their testimony and delivered the Lord's Message, made their way back to Jerusalem, telling the Good News, as they went, in many Samaritan villages. 25

Philip and the Abyssinian.

Meanwhile an angel of the Lord had said to Philip: 26

"Set out on a journey southwards, along the road that runs down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (It is now deserted.)

So he set out on his journey; and on his way he came upon an official of high rank, in the service of Candace, Queen of the Abyssinians. He was her Treasurer, and had been to Jerusalem to worship. He was now on his way home, and was sitting in his carriage, reading the Prophet Isaiah, when the Spirit said to Philip: 27 28 29

"Go up and keep close to the carriage."

So Philip ran up, and he heard the Abyssinian reading the Prophet Isaiah. 30

"Do you really understand what you are reading?" he asked.

"How can I," the other answered, "unless some one will 31 explain it to me?"—inviting Philip to get up and sit by his side. The passage of Scripture, which he was reading, was this— 32

'Like a sheep, he was led away to slaughter,
And as a lamb is mute in the hands of its shearer,
So he refrains from opening his lips.
In his lowly condition justice was denied him. 33
Who will tell the story of his age?
For his life was cut off from earth.'

Continuing the conversation, the Treasurer said to Philip: 34
"Will you tell me whom the Prophet is speaking about? himself, or someone else?"
Then Philip began, and taking this passage as his text, told him 35 the Good News about Jesus. Presently, as they were going 36 along the road, they came to some water, and the Treasurer exclaimed:
"Look! here is water; what is to prevent my being baptized?"
So he ordered the carriage to stop, and they both got down 38 into the water—both Philip and the Treasurer—and Philip baptized him. But when they came up out of the water, the 39 Spirit of the Lord hurried Philip away, and the Treasurer saw no more of him, for he went on his way, with a joyful heart.
Philip was found at Ashdod, and as he went along, he told the 40
Good News in all the towns he passed, till he came to Caesarea.

Saul's Conversion.

Meanwhile Saul, still uttering murderous threats 1 9 against the disciples of the Master, went to the High Priest, and asked him for letters addressed to the Jewish 2 congregations at Damascus, so that if he found there any supporters of the Cause, whether men or women, he might have them put in chains and taken to Jerusalem.
While on his journey, as he was getting near Damascus, 3 suddenly a light from the sky flashed all round him. He fell 4 to the ground and heard a voice saying to him—"Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?"
"Who are you, my lord?" he asked. 5
"I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting," the voice answered; 6
"but get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do."
The men travelling with Saul were meanwhile standing speech- 7 less, hearing the sound of the voice, but not seeing any one.
When Saul got up from the ground, though his eyes were open, 8 he could see nothing. So his men led him by the hand till they got him into Damascus; and for three days he was 9 unable to see, and took nothing either to eat or drink.

32—33 Isa. 53. 7. 8.

Hananiah's Visit to Saul.

Now there was at Damascus a disciple named Hananiah. In a vision which he had the Master called him by name, and Hananiah answered: 10
"Yes, Master."

"Get up," the Master said, "and go to the street called 'Straight Street', and ask at Judas' house for a man named Saul, a native of Tarsus. He is at this moment praying, and 11 12 he has seen, in a vision, a man named Hananiah coming in and placing his hands on him, so that he might recover his sight."

"Master," Hananiah replied, "I have heard from many 13 people about this man—how much harm he has done at Jerusalem to your People there. And here, too, he holds 14 authority from the Chief Priests to put in chains all those who invoke your name."

"Still, you must go," the Master said to him, "for this man 15 is my chosen instrument to support my Cause before the heathen and their kings, and the people of Israel. I will 16 myself show him all that he has to suffer in my Cause."

So Hananiah went, entered the house, and placing his hands 17
on Saul, said:

"Saul, my Brother, I have been sent by the Master—I mean Jesus, who appeared to you as you came here—so that you may recover your sight and be filled with the holy Spirit."

Instantly something like scales fell from Saul's eyes, and his 18 sight was restored. Then he got up and was baptized, and 19 after he had taken food, felt his strength return.

Saul's Ministry at Damascus.

Saul after this made a stay of some days with the disciples who were at Damascus, and began, 20 even in the Synagogues, at once to proclaim Jesus as the Son of God. The astonishment of all who heard him 21 was extreme.

"Is not this," they asked, "the man who worked havoc at Jerusalem among those that invoke this name, and who had also come here for the express purpose of having such persons put in chains and taking them before the Chief Priests?"

Saul's power, however, kept steadily increasing, and he con- 22 founded the Jews who lived at Damascus by the proofs he gave that Jesus was the Christ.

After some time had gone by, the Jews laid a plot to kill 23
Saul, but the plot came to his ears. They even watched the 24 gates day and night, for a chance of killing him; but his dis- 25 ciples let him down by night through an opening in the wall, lowering him in a basket.

Saul at Jerusalem and Tarsus.

On his arrival at Jerusalem, Saul attempted to 26 join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, as they did not believe that he really was a disciple. Barnabas, however, introduced him to the Apostles, 27 and told them the story of how Saul on his journey had seen the Master, and how the Master had talked to him, and how at Damascus he had spoken out fearlessly in the Cause of Jesus. After that, Saul remained at Jerusalem, on familiar terms with 28

the Apostles; and he spoke fearlessly in the Cause of the 29 Master, talking and arguing with the Greek-speaking Jews; who, however, made various attempts to kill him. But when 30 the Brethren found this out, they took him down to Caesarea, and sent him on his way to Tarsus.

And so it came about that the Church throughout Judaea, 31
Galilee, and Samaria enjoyed peace and became well-established; and guided by reverence for the Lord and by the help of the holy Spirit, it increased in numbers.

Peter's Miracles at Lydda and Jaffa.

While travelling about in all directions, Peter 32 went down to visit the People of Christ living at Lydda. There he found a man named Aeneas, 33 who had been bed-ridden for eight years with paralysis.

"Aeneas," Peter said to him, "Jesus Christ cures you. Get 34 up, and make your bed."

Aeneas got up instantly; and when all the inhabitants of 35
Lydda and the Plain of Sharon saw him, they came over to the Master's side.

At Jaffa there lived a woman who was a disciple. Her name 36 was Tabitha, which is in Greek 'Dorcas.' Her life was full of kind and charitable actions, which she was always doing. Just 37 at that time she had fallen ill and died; and they had washed her and laid her out in an upstair room. Lydda being near 38 Jaffa, the disciples heard that Peter was there, and sent two men with the request that he would come on to them without delay. Peter started with them at once. On his arrival, he 39 was taken upstairs, and all the widows came round him in tears showing the coats and other clothing which Dorcas had made while she was among them. But Peter sent everybody 40 out of the room, and knelt down and prayed. Then turning to the body, he said:

"Tabitha! stand up."

She opened her eyes, and, seeing Peter, sat up. Giving her 41 his hand, Peter raised her up, and calling in the widows and others of Christ's People, presented her to them alive. This 42 became known all through Jaffa, and numbers of people believed in the Master. Meanwhile Peter stayed some 43 days in Jaffa with a tanner called Simon.

Peter and Cornelius.

There was then in Caesarea a man named 1 10
Cornelius, a Captain in the regiment known as the 'Italian Regiment,' a religious man and one 2 who reverenced God, as also did all his household. He was liberal in his charities to the people, and prayed to God constantly. One afternoon, about three o'clock, he distinctly saw 3 in a vision an angel from God coming into his room, and calling him by name. Cornelius fixed his eyes on him and, in 4 great alarm, said: "What is it, Sir?"

"Your prayers and your charities," the angel answered,
"have proved an acceptable offering to God. And now, send 5 messengers to Jaffa and fetch a man called Simon, whose other name is Peter. He is lodging with a tanner, who is also called 6 Simon, and who has a house near the sea."

When the angel, who had spoken to him, had gone, Cornelius 7 called two menservants and a religious soldier who was one of his constant attendants, and after telling them the whole story, 8 sent them to Jaffa.

On the next day, while these men were on their way and 9 just as they were getting near the town, Peter went up on the house-top to pray, about mid-day. There he became hungry 10 and wanted something to eat; but while it was being prepared he fell into a trance, and saw that the sky was open, and that 11 something like a great sail was descending, let down by its four corners towards the earth. In it were all kinds of quad- 12 rupeds, reptiles, and birds. Then a voice came to him—"Peter, 13 get up, kill something and eat it."

"No, Sir, I cannot," Peter answered, "for I have never eaten 14 anything 'defiled' and impure."

Then a voice came again, a second time. "What God has 15 pronounced pure," it said, "you must not call 'defiled'."

This happened, in all, three times, and then suddenly it was 16 all taken up into the sky.

While Peter was still puzzling over the meaning of the 17 vision he had seen, the men who had been sent by Cornelius, having just asked the way to Simon's house, came up to the gate, and called out to enquire if Simon, whose other name 18 was Peter, was staying there. Peter was still pondering 19 over the vision, when the Spirit said to him:

"There are two men looking for you at this moment. So get 20 up and go down, and do not hesitate to go with them, for I have sent them myself."

Peter went down to the men and said: 21

"I am the man you are looking for. What is your object in coming?"

The men replied: 22
"Captain Cornelius, a pious officer who reverences God and is well spoken of by the whole Jewish nation, has been instructed by a holy angel to send for you to his house and listen to what you have to say."
Upon this Peter invited them in and entertained them. 23
The next day he lost no time in setting out with them, accompanied by some of the Brethren from Jaffa; and the 24 following day he entered Caesarea. Cornelius was expecting them and had invited his relations and intimate friends to meet them. So when Peter entered the city, Cornelius 25 met him, and throwing himself at Peter's feet, bowed low to him. Peter, however, lifted him up, saying as he did so: 26
"Stand up, I am only a man like you."
Talking with him as he went, Peter entered the house, where 27
he found a large gathering of people, to whom he said: 28
"You are aware, without my telling you, that it is forbidden for a Jew to be on intimate, or even visiting, terms with a foreigner; yet, as far as I am concerned, God has shown me that I ought never to call any man 'defiled' or impure. That was 29 why I came, when I was sent for, without raising any objection. And now I ask what your reason was in sending for me."
"Just three days ago this very hour," Cornelius said, "I was 30 in my house, observing the time of the three o'clock Prayer, when a man in dazzling clothing suddenly stood before me. 'Cornelius,' he said, 'your prayer has been heard, and your 31 charities have been accepted, by God. So send to Jaffa, and 32 invite Simon, whose other name is Peter, to come here. He is lodging in the house of a tanner who is also called Simon, near the sea.' Accordingly, I sent to you at once, and you 33 have done well in coming. And now we are all here in the presence of God, to listen to all that you have been instructed by the Lord to say."
Then Peter began. 34
"I see, beyond all doubt," he said, "that God is not one to show partiality, but that in every nation those who reverence him 35 and do as he requires are acceptable to him. God has sent his 36 Message to the Israelite people and told them, through Jesus Christ, the Good News of peace—and Jesus is Master of all men!
You know, yourselves, the story which spread through all 37
Judaea, how, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism which John proclaimed—the story, I mean, of Jesus of Nazareth, and 38 how God consecrated him his Christ by endowing him with the holy Spirit and with power, and how he went about doing good and curing all who were under the power of the Devil, because God was with him. We are ourselves, too, witnesses 39 to all that he did in all Judaea and in Jerusalem; yet they put him to death by hanging him on a cross! This Jesus God raised 40

34 Deut. 10. 17. 36 Ps. 147. 18—19; Isa. 52. 7. 38 Isa. 61. 1. 39 Deut. 21. 22.

from the grave on the third day, and enabled him to show himself openly, not indeed to every one, but to witnesses chosen 41 beforehand by God—to us, who ate and drank with him after his resurrection from the dead. Further, he charged us to 42 make our proclamation to the people, and to bear our testimony that it is he who has been appointed by God Judge of the living and the dead. To him it is that all the Prophets 43 bear witness, when they say that every one who believes in him receives through him forgiveness of sins."

First Conversion of Heathen.

Before Peter had finished saying these words, 44 the holy Spirit fell on all who were listening to the Message. Those who held to circumcision, 45 though they had accepted the Faith, and who had come with Peter, were amazed at the gift of the holy Spirit having been bestowed even upon the heathen; for they could hear them 46 speaking with 'tongues' and extolling God. At this Peter asked:

"Can any one refuse the water for the baptism of these 47 people, now that they have received the holy Spirit just as we did ourselves?"

So he directed that they should be baptized in the name of 48
Jesus Christ; after which they asked him to stay there a few days longer.

Peter's Defence of his Action.

The Apostles and the Brethren throughout 1 11 Judaea heard that even the heathen had welcomed God's Message. But when Peter went up 2 to Jerusalem, those converts who held to circumcision began attacking him on the ground that he had visited people who 3 were not circumcised, and had had meals with them. So 4
Peter began, and explained the facts to them as they had occurred.

"I was in the town of Jaffa," he said, "and was praying; and 5 while in a trance, I saw a vision. There was something like a great sail descending, let down by its four corners out of the sky; and it came right down to me. Looking closely at it, I 6 began to distinguish quadrupeds, wild beasts, reptiles, and birds; and I heard, besides, a voice saying to me, 'Peter, get 7 up, kill something and eat it.' 'No, Sir, I cannot,' I answered, 8
'for nothing 'defiled' or impure has ever passed my lips.' In 9 reply there came, a second time, a voice from the sky. 'What God has pronounced pure,' it said, 'you must not call defiled.'
This happened, in all, three times, when everything was drawn 10 up again into the sky. Just at that moment three men came 11 up to the house in which we were, having been sent from Caesarea to see me. The Spirit told me to go with them with- 12 out hesitation. The six Brothers, too, who are now here, went with me. We went into the man's house, and he told us how 13 he had seen the angel standing in his house, and how the angel had said to him, 'Send to Jaffa and fetch Simon whose other name is Peter: for he will tell you truths, which will 14 prove the means of Salvation to you and all your household.'

I had but just begun to speak," Peter continued, "when the 15 holy Spirit fell on them, exactly as it did on us at the first;
and I recollected the saying of the Master—'John baptized 16 with water, but you will be baptized in the holy Spirit.' As, 17 then, God had given them the very same gift as he gave us when we learnt to believe in the Master, Jesus Christ—who was I that I should be able to thwart God?"
On hearing this statement, they ceased to object, and broke out 18 into praise of God. "So even to the heathen," they said, "God has granted the repentance which leads to Life!"

'Christians' at Antioch.

Now those who had been scattered in different 19 directions, in consequence of the persecution that broke out about Stephen, went as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, telling the Message—but only to Jews.
Some of them, however, were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, and 20 they, on coming to Antioch, addressed themselves also to those who spoke Greek, telling them the Good News about Jesus, the Master. The Lord's power was with them, so that a great 21 number who believed them came over to the Master's side.
The news about them reached the ears of the Church at 22
Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas down to Antioch. On com- 23 ing there, he was delighted at seeing what God, in his mercy, had done, and encouraged them all to make up their minds to be faithful to the Master—for Barnabas was a good man and 24 full of the holy Spirit and of faith—and a large number of people joined the Master's Cause. Afterwards Barnabas left 25 for Tarsus to look for Saul; and when he found him, he 26 brought him to Antioch; and so it came about that, for a whole year, they attended the meetings of the Church, and taught a large number of people; and it was in Antioch that the disciples first got the name of 'Christians.'

Errand of Barnabas and Saul to Jerusalem.

About this time, some Prophets came to Antioch 27 from Jerusalem. One of them, named Agabus, 28 came forward and, under the influence of the Spirit, foretold a great famine that was to spread all the world over—a famine which actually occurred in the reign of Claudius. So the disciples, without exception, deter- 29 mined, in proportion to their means, to send something to help the Brethren living in Judaea. This they did, and sent it to 30 the Officers of the Church by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Persecution of the Church by Herod Agrippa I.

12 It was at that time that King Herod began to 1 illtreat some of the members of the Church. He 2 had James, the brother of John, put to the sword; and when he saw that the Jews were pleased 3 with this, he went further and arrested Peter as well. (This was during the Festival of Unleavened Bread.) After seizing 4 Peter, Herod put him in prison, and entrusted him to the keeping of four Guards of four soldiers each, meaning to bring him up, after the Passover, before the people. So Peter 5 was kept in prison, but meanwhile the prayers of the Church were being earnestly offered to God on his behalf. On 6

Peter's Deliverance.

the very night before the day on which Herod meant to bring him up for trial, Peter was asleep between two soldiers, fastened to them with two chains, while there were sentries in front of the door, guarding the prison.
All at once an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light 7 shone in the cell. The angel struck Peter on the side, and roused him, saying as he did so: "Get up quickly."
The chains dropped from his wrists, and then the angel said: 8
"Put on your belt and your sandals."
When Peter had done so, the angel added: "Throw your cloak round you and follow me."
Peter went out and followed the angel, without knowing 9 that what was happening under the angel's guidance was real, but under the impression that he was seeing a vision. After 10 passing the first Guard, and then a second, they came to the iron gate leading into the city, which opened to them of itself.
When they had gone out, and had walked along one street, all at once the angel left him. Then Peter came to himself and 11
said:
"Now I know for certain that the Lord has sent his angel and has rescued me from Herod's hands, and from all that the Jewish people expected."
As soon as he understood what had happened, he went to the 12 house of Mary the mother of the John whose other name was Mark, where there were a good many people gathered together, praying. On his knocking at the door in the gate, a maid- 13 servant, named Rhoda, came to answer it. She recognized 14 Peter's voice, but in her joy, left the gate unopened and ran in and told them that Peter was standing outside.
"You are mad!" they exclaimed. 15
But as she persisted that it was so, they said:
"Then it is his angel!"
Meanwhile Peter went on knocking, and when they did open 16 the gate and saw him, they were very much astonished. Peter 17 made signs to them to be quiet, and then told them all about the way in which the Lord had brought him out of the prison, adding:

"Tell James and the Brethren about it."

Then he left the house, and went away to another place.

In the morning there was a great stir among the soldiers, as to what could possibly have become of Peter; and when Herod had had search made for Peter and had failed to find him, he cross-questioned the Guard, and ordered them away to execution. Afterwards he went down from Judaea to stay at Caesarea.

Herod's Death.

Just then Herod was highly offended with the people of Tyre and Sidon, but they went together to him, and having won over Blastus, the Chamberlain, they begged Herod for a peaceful arrangement, because their country was dependent on the King's for its food supply. So on an appointed day Herod put on his state-robes, and having seated himself on his throne in the Theatre, began to make them a speech. The people kept shouting: "It is the voice of a God and not of a man!"

All at once an angel of the Lord struck him, because he did not give the honour to God; and he was attacked by worms, and died.

Meanwhile the Lord's Message kept extending, and spreading far and wide.

Barnabas and Saul returned, after visiting Jerusalem in the discharge of their commission, and brought with them John, whose other name was Mark.

II.—The Church among the Gentiles.

Doings of the Apostle Paul.

PAUL'S FIRST MISSIONARY JOURNEY.

The Start from Antioch.

There were at Antioch, among the members of the Church there, some Prophets and Teachers. Their names were Barnabas, Simeon who went by the name of 'Black', Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen, foster-brother of Prince Herod, and Saul. While they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the holy Spirit said:

"Set Barnabas and Saul apart for me, for the work to which I have called them."

Accordingly, after fasting and prayer, they placed their hands on them and sent them on their way.

Paul and Barnabas at Cyprus.

So Barnabas and Saul, sent on this mission by the holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia, and sailed from there to Cyprus. On reaching Salamis, they began to tell God's Message in the Jewish Synagogues; and they also had John with them to help them.

After passing through the whole island, they reached 6
Paphos, where they met with a Magian and pretended Prophet, a Jew by birth, whose real name was Barjoshua. He was at 7 the court of the Governor, Sergius Paulus, a man of considerable intelligence, who sent for Barnabas and Saul and asked to be told God's Message. But Elymas the Magian (for that 8 is the meaning of the name) opposed them, eager to divert the Governor's attention from the Faith. However, Saul (who 9 is the same as Paul), full of the holy Spirit, fixed his eyes on him and said; 10

"You incarnation of deceit and fraud! You son of the Devil! You enemy of all that is right! Will you never cease diverting the straight paths of the Lord? Listen! The hand of 11 the Lord is upon you even now, and you shall be blind for a time and unable to see the sun."

Immediately a mist and a darkness came upon him, and he went feeling about for some one to guide him. When the 12
Governor saw what had happened, he became a believer in Christ, being greatly struck with the teaching about the Master.

Paul and Barnabas at Pisidian Antioch.

After this, Paul and his companions set sail 13
from Paphos and went to Perga in Pamphylia, where John left them and returned to Jerusalem.

The rest went on from Perga and arrived at Antioch in 14
Pisidia. There they went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath and took their seats. After the reading of the Law and the 15 Prophets, the Presidents of the Synagogue sent them this message—"Brothers, if you have any helpful words to address to the people, now is your opportunity."

So Paul, rising and motioning with his hand, spoke as follows: 16

"Men of Israel and all here who reverence God, listen to me. The God of this people Israel chose our an- 17 cestors, and raised the position of the people during their stay in Egypt, and with uplifted arm brought them out from it. For 18 about forty years he bore with them in the Desert; then, after 19 destroying seven heathen nations in Canaan, he allotted their land to the people—for about four hundred and fifty years. Later 20 on he gave them Judges, of whom the Prophet Samuel was the last. And when, after a while, they demanded a king, God 21 gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, who reigned for forty years. After removing him, he raised 22
David to the throne, and he bore also this testimony to him—
'I have found in David, Jesse's son, a man after my own heart, who will carry out all my purposes.' It was from this man's 23 descendants that God, in accordance with his promise, brought Israel a Saviour—in Jesus. John had proclaimed, before Jesus 24 came among them, a baptism upon repentance, for all the people of Israel. As John was drawing towards the end of his 25 career, he used to say, 'What do you think I am? I am not the Christ. But listen! There is One Coming after me, whose shoe, even, I am not worthy to untie.' Brothers," Paul con- 26 tinued, "descendants of Abraham, and others, too, among you who reverence God, it was to us that the Message of this Salvation was sent. For the people at Jerusalem and their 27 leading men, failing to recognize Jesus, fulfilled the very utterances of the Prophets that are read every Sabbath, by bringing him to trial. They found no ground at all for condemning 28 him to death, and yet demanded his execution from Pilate.

After carrying out everything written about him, they took 29
Jesus down from the cross, and laid him in a tomb. But God 30 himself raised him from the dead; and he appeared for many 31 days to those who had gone up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, and who are now witnesses for him to the people.
We, too, have the Good News to tell you, about the promise 32 made to our ancestors—that our children have had this 33 promise fulfilled to them by God to the very letter, by his raising Jesus from the grave. This is just what is said in the second Psalm—

> 'Thou art my Son,
> This day thou hast been born to me.'

As to his raising Jesus from the dead, no longer in danger of 34 returning to corruption, this is what is said—

> 'I will give to you the sacred promises made to David.'

For the same reason, too, in another Psalm, it is said— 35

> 'Thou wilt not give up thy Holy One to undergo corruption.'

David, of course, after obediently doing God's will in his own 36 time, fell asleep and was laid by the side of his ancestors, and did undergo corruption; but Jesus, whom God raised from the 37 dead, did not. I would, therefore, have you know, 38 Brothers, that our announcement is, that there is forgiveness of sins for you through Jesus, and that, in union with him, all 39 who believe in him are cleared from every charge from which you could not be cleared under the Law of Moses. Take care, 40 therefore, that what is said in the Prophets does not come true of you—

> 'Look, you despisers, then wonder and hide your heads; 41
> For I am about to do a great work myself in your days—
> A work which you will never believe, even if told you in full.'"

33 Ps. 118. 26. 33 Ps. 2. 7. 34 Isa. 55. 3. 35 Ps. 16. 10. 38 1 Kings 2. 10.
41 Hab. 1. 5.

As Paul and Barnabas were going out, the people begged for 42 a repetition of this teaching on the next Sabbath. After the 43 congregation had broken up, many of the Jews and converts who joined in their worship followed Paul and Barnabas, who, in conversation with them, urged them to continue to rely on the mercy of God.

So, on the following Sabbath, almost all the city gathered to 44 hear God's Message. But when the Jews saw the crowds of 45 people they became exceedingly jealous, and kept contradict-ing Paul's statements in abusive language. Then Paul and 46
Barnabas spoke out fearlessly, and said:

"It was necessary that God's Message should be told to you first; but since you reject it and do not reckon yourselves worthy of the Enduring Life—why, we turn to the heathen!
For this is the Lord's order to us— 47

> 'I have destined thee for a light to the heathen,
> To be the means of salvation to the ends of the earth.'[a]'

On hearing this, the heathen were delighted and extolled God's 48
Message, and all those believed it who were ready for enduring Life; and the Lord's Message was carried throughout that 49 district. The Jews, on their part, roused the ladies of position 50 who worshipped with them, and the leading men of the town, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them out of their neighbourhood. They, however, shook 51 the dust off their feet in protest, and went to Iconium, leaving 52
the disciples full of joy and of the holy Spirit.

Paul and Barnabas at Iconium.

The same thing occurred in Iconium, where 1 14
Paul and Barnabas went into the Jewish Synagogue, and spoke in such a way that a large number of both Jews and Greeks believed them. But the Jews 2 who refused to believe stirred up the heathen, and poisoned their minds against the Brethren. Therefore Paul and 3 Barnabas spent a considerable time there, speaking out fearlessly in dependence on the Lord, who supported the Message of his mercy, by permitting signs and wonders to take place at their hands. But the townspeople were divided, some siding 4 with the Jews, some with the Apostles; and when a movement 5 was made on the part of both heathen and Jews, with their leading men, to illtreat and stone them, the Apostles heard of 6
it, and took refuge at Lystra and Derbe, towns in Lycaonia, and in the district round; where they continued to tell the 7 Good News.

Paul and Barnabas at Lystra.

There used to sit in the streets of Lystra a man 8 who had no power in his feet; he had been lame from his birth, and had never walked at all. This 9

[a] Isa. 49. 6.

man was listening to Paul speaking, when Paul, fixing his eyes on him, and seeing that he had the faith to be healed, said loudly: "Stand up on your feet." 10

The man jumped up, and began walking about. The crowds of people, seeing what Paul had done, called out in the Lycaonian language: 11

"The Gods have made themselves like men and come down to us."

They called Barnabas 'Jupiter,' and Paul 'Mercury,' because he took the lead in speaking. The priest of Jupiter-beyond-the-Walls, accompanied by the crowd, brought bullocks and garlands to the gates, with the intention of offering sacrifices. 12 13

But when the Apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of it, they tore their clothes and rushed out into the crowd. 14

"Friends, why are you doing this?" they shouted. "We are only men like you, and we have come with the Good News, that you should turn away from these follies to a living God, who made the sky, the earth, the sea, and everything that is in them. 15

In bygone times he permitted all the heathen to go their own ways. 16

Yet he has not omitted to give you, in his kindly acts, evidence about himself, sending you, as he does, rain from Heaven and harvest, and satisfying your desires with food and good cheer." 17

Even with this appeal they could hardly prevent the people from offering sacrifice to them. 18

Presently, however, there came some Jews from Antioch and Iconium who, after they had won over the people, stoned Paul and dragged him out of the town, thinking him to be dead. 19

But when the disciples had gathered round him, he got up and went back into the town. The next day Paul went with Barnabas to Derbe. 20

Paul and Barnabas return to Pisidian Antioch.

After telling the Good News throughout that town and making a number of converts, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, reassuring the minds of the disciples, urging them to remain true to the Faith, and showing that it is only through many troubles that we can enter the Kingdom of God. 21 22

They also appointed Officers for them in every Church, and, after prayer and fasting, commended them to the Master in whom they had already learnt to believe. 23

Paul and Barnabas then went through Pisidia, and came into Pamphylia. 24

There, at Perga, they told the Message, and then went down into Attalia. 25 26

Paul and Barnabas again at Syrian Antioch.

From there they sailed to the Antioch from which they had been commended to the help of God for the work which they had now finished. 27

After their arrival, they gathered the Church together, and gave an account of all that God had done with and through them, especially how he had opened to the heathen a door to the Faith; and at Antioch they stayed with the disciples for a long time. 28

[16] Ps. 146. 5—6.

The Council at Jerusalem.

15 1 While Paul and Barnabas were still at Antioch, certain persons came down from Judaea, who began teaching the Brethren that unless they were circumcised, in accordance with the custom enjoined by Moses, they could not be saved. 2 A serious dispute and discussion arose between Paul and Barnabas and these men, and it was therefore settled that Paul and Barnabas and others of their number should go up to Jerusalem, to consult the Apostles and Officers of the Church about the matter under discussion.

3 The Church set them on their way, and they went through Phoenicia and Samaria, telling the story of the conversion of the heathen, to the great joy of all the Brethren. 4 On their arrival at Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the Church there, as well as by the Apostles and Officers, and gave them an account of all that God had done with and through them.

5 Some of the Pharisees' party, however, who had become believers in Christ, came forward, and declared that they were bound to circumcise converts and direct them to observe the Law of Moses.

6 The Apostles and Officers of the Church held a meeting to look into this question. 7 After a good deal of discussion, Peter rose and said:

"You, my Brothers, know well how God chose long ago that, of all of us, I should be the one by whose lips the heathen should hear the Message of the Good News and believe it. 8 Now God, who reads all hearts, bore his testimony to them, by giving them the holy Spirit, just as he did to us. 9 He made no distinction between them and us, when he purified their hearts by the Faith. 10 Why, then, are you now provoking God, by putting on the necks of these disciples a yoke which neither our ancestors nor we have been able to bear? 11 Indeed, it is only on the mercy of Jesus, our Master, that we, like them, are relying for Salvation."

12 Every voice in the assembly was hushed, while all listened to Barnabas and Paul, as they gave an account of all the signs and wonders which God had shown among the heathen through them. 13 After they had finished speaking, James addressed the meeting.

14 "Brothers," he said, "listen to me. Simon has described the manner in which God first visited the heathen, in order to take from among them a people for himself. 15 This agrees, too, with the words of the Prophets, where they say—

"'After this I will return; 16
And I will rebuild the House of David which has fallen—
Its very ruins I will rebuild,
And will set it up once more;
That so the rest of mankind may earnestly seek after the Lord— 17
Even all the heathen, for they, too, are called after me,"
Says the Lord, as he does these things, foreknown from of old.' 18

I am therefore of opinion that we should not add to the difficulties of those heathen who are turning to God, but that we should write to them to abstain from things contaminated by association with idols, from unchastity, from eating the flesh of strangled animals, and from blood. For Moses, for generations past, has had in every town those who preach him, read, as he is, in the Synagogues every Sabbath." 19 20 21

The Council's Decision.

It was then resolved by the Apostles and Officers, with the assent of the whole Church, to choose some men of their number, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. Those who were chosen were Judas (called Barsabas) and Silas, who were leading men among the Brethren. They were bearers of the following letter— 22 23

'The Apostles and the Brothers who are Officers of the Church send their greetings to the Brethren of heathen birth in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia. As we have heard that some of our number have upset you by their statements, and unsettled your minds—without instructions from us—we have met and resolved to choose certain men and send them to you with our dear brothers Barnabas and Paul, who have risked their lives for the Cause of Jesus Christ, our Master. We have accordingly sent Judas and Silas, and they will tell you by word of mouth what we are now writing. We have resolved then, under the guidance of the holy Spirit, to lay no further burden on you beyond the necessary duty of abstaining from food offered to idols, from blood, from eating the flesh of strangled animals, and from unchastity. If you keep yourselves clear from such things, you will take the best course. Farewell.' 24 25 26 27 28 29

So the bearers of this letter were sent on their way, and went down to Antioch. There they called a general meeting of the Brethren, and delivered the letter, the reading of which gave great satisfaction by its encouraging contents. Judas and Silas, as they were themselves Prophets, further encouraged the Brethren by a long address, and strengthened their 30 31 32 faith. After some stay, they were sent back, with kindly wishes from the Brethren, to those who had sent them. 33

Paul and Barnabas, however, remained in Antioch, teaching, and telling, with the assistance of many others, the Good News of the Lord's Message. 35

PAUL'S SECOND MISSIONARY JOURNEY.

Disagreement with Barnabas.

Some time after this, Paul said to Barnabas: "We ought, I think, to go back, and visit the Brethren in every town in which we have told the Lord's Message, and see how they are getting on." 36

Barnabas wished to take John also with them— 37 the one who was called Mark; but Paul was of opinion that a 38 man, who had deserted them in Pamphylia, and had not gone on with them to their work, ought not to be taken with them now. In consequence of the irritation which this caused, they 39 parted, Barnabas taking Mark and sailing for Cyprus, while Paul chose Silas for his companion and started on his journey— 40 being first commended by the Brethren to the help of the Lord—and went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the 41 Churches in the Faith.

Paul joined by Timothy at Lystra.

Among other places Paul went to both Derbe 16 1 and Lystra. At the latter place they found a disciple, named Timothy, whose mother was a Jewess and a believer in Christ, while his father was a Greek, and who was well spoken of by the Brethren in Lystra and 2 Iconium. Paul, wishing to take this man with him on his 3 journey, had him circumcised on account of the Jews in that neighbourhood, for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

As they travelled from town to town, they delivered into the 4 charge of the Brethren the resolutions which had been passed by the Apostles and Officers of the Church at Jerusalem.

So the Churches grew stronger in the Faith and increased in 5 numbers from day to day.

Paul determines to cross to Macedonia.

They next went through the Phrygian district 6 of Galatia, but were restrained by the holy Spirit from delivering the Message in Roman Asia. So 7 when they got as far up as Mysia, they made attempts to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not permit them. So entering Mysia, they went down to Troas; 8 and there one night Paul saw a vision. A Macedonian was 9 standing and appealing to him. 'Come over to Macedonia and help us,' he was saying. So, after Paul had seen the 10 vision, we were eager to start at once for Macedonia, concluding that God had summoned us to tell the Good News to the people there.

Paul at Philippi.

Accordingly we set sail from Troas, and made 11
a straight run to Samothrace, reaching Neapolis the next day. From there we made our way to Philippi, 12 which is the principal city of that part of Macedonia and also a Roman Settlement.

In that city we spent several days. On the Sabbath we went 13 outside the gate to the river side, where we supposed there would be a Place of Prayer; and we sat down and talked to the women who were gathered there. Among the listeners 14 was a woman named Lydia belonging to Thyatira, a dealer in purple dyes, who joined in the worship of God. The Lord touched this woman's heart, so that she gave attention to the Message delivered by Paul. When she and her household 15 had been baptized she urged us to become her guests.

"If you are convinced," she said, "that I really am a believer in the Master, come and stay in my house."

And she made us do so.

One day, as we were on our way to the Place of Prayer, we 16 were met by a girl possessed by a divining spirit, who made large profits for her masters by fortune-telling. This girl 17 followed Paul and the rest of us, calling out:

"These men are servants of the most high God, and they are bringing you news of a way to Salvation."

She had been doing this for several days, when Paul, much 18 annoyed at it, turned and said to the spirit within her:

"In the name of Jesus Christ I order you to leave her."

Then and there the spirit left her. When her masters 19 saw that there was no more profit to be hoped for from her, they seized Paul and Silas, dragged them into the public square to the authorities, and took them before the Magistrates. 20

"These men are causing a great disturbance in our town," they complained; "they are Jews, and they are teaching 21 customs which it is not right for us as Romans to sanction or adopt."

On this the mob rose as one man against them, while the 22
Magistrates stripped them of their clothing and ordered them to be flogged. After they had received many lashes, the Magis- 23 trates put them in prison, with orders to the Governor of the Gaol to keep them in safe confinement. On receiving so strict 24 an order, the Governor put them into the inner cell, and even secured their feet in the stocks. At midnight, while 25 Paul and Silas were at prayer, singing hymns to God, and while the prisoners were listening to them, suddenly there was 26 such a violent earthquake that the Gaol was shaken to its foundations; all the doors flew open, and all the prisoners' chains came off. Roused from his sleep, the Governor saw 27 the prison doors open, and drew his sword intending to kill himself, under the impression that the prisoners had escaped.
But Paul called out loudly: 28

"Do not harm yourself; we are all here."
Asking for a light, the Governor rushed in, and flung himself 29 trembling at the feet of Paul and Silas. Then he led the way 30 out, and said to them:
"What must I do to be saved?"
"Believe in Jesus, our Master," they replied, "and you shall 31 be saved, you and your household too."
Then they spoke to him of God's Message, and to all his 32 household as well. And that very hour of the night he took 33 them and washed their wounds, and he himself and every one belonging to him were then and there baptized. Afterwards 34 he took them up to his house, and gave them something to eat, exceedingly glad that he and all his household had come to believe in God. In the morning the Magistrates sent 35 the police with an order for the men to be discharged. The 36 Governor of the Gaol told Paul of his instructions.
"The Magistrates have sent an order for your discharge," he said, "so you had better leave at once and go quietly away."
But Paul's answer to them was: 37
"They have flogged us in public without trial, though we are Roman citizens, and have put us in prison, and now they are going to send us out secretly! No indeed! Let them come and take us out themselves."
The police reported all this to the Magistrates, who, on hearing 38 that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, were alarmed, and 39 went to the prison, and did their best to conciliate them; and then took them out, and begged them to leave the town. On 40 coming out of the prison, they went to Lydia's house, and, after they had seen the Brethren, and encouraged them, left the place.

Paul at Thessalonica. After passing through Amphipolis and Apol- 1 17 lonia, Paul and Silas came to Thessalonica. The Jews had a Synagogue there; and following his usual custom, 2
Paul joined them, and for three successive Sabbaths addressed them, drawing his arguments from the Scriptures. He 3 fully explained to them that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead; and "It is this man," he declared, "who is the Christ—this Jesus about whom I am telling you."
Some of the people were convinced, and threw in their lot 4 with Paul and Silas, as well as a large body of Greeks who joined in the Jewish services, besides a considerable number of ladies belonging to the leading families. However, 5 the Jews, becoming jealous, engaged some worthless fellows from the streets, and getting a mob together, kept the city in an uproar. They attacked Jason's house, with the intention of bringing Paul and Silas before the Popular Assembly. As 6 they did not find them there, they proceeded to drag Jason and some of the Brethren before the City Magistrates, bawling out:

"These men who have turned the world upside down have come here now, and have been harboured by Jason! They are 7 all acting in opposition to the decrees of the Emperor. They say that some one else is king—a man called Jesus!"
On hearing this, the people and the City Magistrates were 8 much concerned; they took security from Jason and the others 9 and then let them go.

Paul at Beroea.

The Brethren sent Paul and Silas to Beroea in 10
the course of that very night. On reaching that place, they went to the Jewish Synagogue. These Jews of 11 Beroea were better disposed than those in Thessalonica, for they welcomed the Message with great readiness, and daily examined the Scriptures to see if what was said was true. As 12 a consequence, many of them believed it, besides a considerable number of Greek ladies of position, as well as men.
But when the Jews of Thessalonica found out that God's 13 Message had been delivered by Paul at Beroea, they came there too, exciting and disturbing the people. Immediately 14 upon that, the Brethren sent Paul off on his way to the sea coast, while both Silas and Timothy stayed behind in Beroea.
The friends who escorted Paul took him as far as Athens, and 15 after receiving a message to Silas and Timothy for them to join him as quickly as possible, they started back.

Paul at Athens.

While Paul was waiting for them at Athens, 16 his indignation was roused at seeing the whole city full of idols. So he argued in the Synagogue with the Jews 17 and with those who joined their worship there, and also every day in the public Square with those who came up to him.
Among others, some of the Epicurean and Stoic Philosophers 18 encountered him; and some would ask, "What is this tattler wanting to make out?", while others would say, "He seems to be a Preacher of some foreign Deities." (This was because he was telling the Good News about Jesus and the Resurrection.) So they laid hold of him and took him to the Court of 19 Areopagus.

"Would you tell us," they asked, "what new teaching this is which you are giving? For you are bringing some strange 20 things to our notice, and we should like to know what they mean."
(All Athenians and the Foreigners staying in the city found 21 time for nothing else but telling, or listening to, the last new thing.) So Paul took his stand in the middle of the Court, and 22 this is what he said—

"Men of Athens, on every hand I see signs of your being very religious. Indeed as I was going about and looking at 23 the objects that you worship, I observed an altar on which the dedication was inscribed 'To AN UNKNOWN GOD.' What then you are worshipping without knowledge, is what I am now preaching to you. The God who made the world and all things 24 in it—he, I say, Lord, from the first, of Heaven and Earth, does not dwell in Temples made by hands, nor yet do human hands 25 minister to his wants, as though he could need anything, since he is himself the giver to every one of life, breath, and everything else. He made every race of men from one stock, and 26 caused them to settle on all parts of the earth's surface—first fixing a duration for their Day, and the limits of their settlement—so that they might search for God, if after all they 27 might feel their way to him and find him. And yet he is never really far from any one of us; for it is in him that we 28 live and move and are. To use the words of some of your own poets—

'His offspring, too, are we.'

As the offspring, then, of God, we ought not to think that the 29 divine nature has any resemblance to anything made of gold, or silver, or stone—a work of human art and imagination. True, 30 God looked with indulgence on the days of men's ignorance, but now he is announcing to every one everywhere the need for repentance, because he has fixed a day on which he in- 31 tends to judge the world righteously, by a man whom he has appointed—and of this he has given every one a pledge by raising this man from the dead."
On hearing of a resurrection of the dead, some began jeering, 32 but others said that they would hear what he had to say about that another time. Under these circumstances Paul left the 33 Court. There were some men, however, who joined him, and 34 became believers in Christ, and among them were Dionysius, a member of the Court of Areopagus, and a woman named Damaris, and several other persons.

Paul at Corinth.

Leaving Athens, Paul next went to Corinth. 1 18
There he met a Jew of the name of Aquila, a 2 native of Pontus, who, with his wife Priscilla, had lately come from Italy, in consequence of the order which had been issued by the Emperor Claudius for all Jews to leave Rome. Paul paid them a visit, and since their trade was the 3 same, he stayed and worked with them. Their trade was that of tent-making. Every Sabbath Paul gave addresses in the 4 Synagogue, trying to convince both Jews and Greeks.
But when Silas and Timothy had come down from Mace- 5
donia, Paul devoted himself entirely to delivering the Message, earnestly maintaining before the Jews that Jesus was the Christ. However, as they set themselves against him and 6

24 Ps. 146. 5—6. 25 Isa. 42. 5. 26 Gen. 9. 19. 28 Aratus 5. 31 Ps. 9. 8.

became abusive, Paul shook his clothes in protest and said to them;

"Your blood must be on your own heads. I am clear of it. After this I shall go to the heathen."

So he left, and went to the house of a certain Titus Justus, a 7 man who joined in the worship of God, and whose house was next door to the Synagogue. Crispus, the President of the 8 Synagogue, came to believe in the Master, and so did all his household; and many of the Corinthians, as they listened to Paul, believed him and were baptized. One night the 9
Master said to Paul, in a vision:

"Do not be afraid; continue to speak and refuse to be silent;
for I am myself with you, and no attack will result in any injury 10 to you, for I have many people in this city."

So he settled down there for a year and a half, teaching God's 11
Message among the people.

During Gallio's governorship of Greece, the Jews made a 12 combined attack on Paul, and brought him before the Governor's Bench, with the complaint that he was persuading people 13 to worship God in a way forbidden by the Law. Just as Paul 14 was on the point of speaking, Gallio said to the Jews:

"Jews, had this been a case of misdemeanour or some serious crime, there would have been some reason for my listening patiently to you; but since it is a dispute about 15 words, and names, and your own Law, you must see to it yourselves. I do not choose to be a judge in such matters." 16

Saying this, he drove them back from the Bench. Then 17 they all set upon Sosthenes, the President of a Synagogue, and beat him in front of the Bench, but Gallio did not trouble himself about any of these things.

Paul's Return. Paul remained there some time after this, and 18 then took leave of the Brethren, and sailed to Syria with Priscilla and Aquila, but not until he had had his head shaved at Cenchreae, because of a vow he had been under.
They put into Ephesus, and there Paul, leaving his companions, 19 went into the Synagogue and addressed the Jews. When they 20 asked him to prolong his stay, he declined, saying, however, 21 as he took his leave, "I will come back again to you, please God," and then set sail from Ephesus. On reaching Caesarea, 22 he went up to the capital and exchanged greetings with the Church, and then went down to Antioch.

PAUL'S THIRD MISSIONARY JOURNEY.

Tour In Galatia. After making some stay in Antioch, he set out 23 on a tour through the Phrygian district of Galatia, strengthening the faith of all the disciples as he went.

Apollos. Meanwhile there had come to Ephesus an 24
Alexandrian Jew, named Apollos, an eloquent

9—10 Isa. 43. 5.

man, who was well read in the Scriptures. He had received some instruction in the Master's Cause, and with burning zeal he spoke of, and taught accurately, the facts about Jesus, though he knew of no baptism but John's. This man began to speak out fearlessly in the Synagogue; but Priscilla and Aquila, happening to hear him, took him home and explained to him God's Cause more accurately still. When he wanted to cross to Greece, the Brethren furthered his plans, and wrote to the disciples there to welcome him. On his arrival he proved of great assistance to those who had, by the help of God, become believers in Christ, for he vigorously confuted the Jews, publicly proving by the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

Paul at Ephesus.

While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the inland districts and went to Ephesus. There he found some disciples, of whom he asked:

"Did you, when you became believers in Christ, receive the holy Spirit?"

"No," they answered, "we did not even hear that there was a holy Spirit."

"What then was the baptism which you received?" Paul asked.

"John's baptism," was their answer.

"John's baptism was a baptism upon repentance," Paul rejoined, "and John told the people (speaking of the One Coming after him) that they should believe in him—in Jesus, that is."

On hearing this, they were baptized into the Faith of Jesus, the Master, and after Paul had placed his hands on them, the holy Spirit came on them, and they began to speak with 'tongues' and with prophetic inspiration. There were about twelve men in all.

Paul went to the Synagogue there, and for three months spoke out fearlessly, giving addresses, and trying to convince his hearers, about the kingdom of God. Some of them, however, hardened their hearts and refused to believe him, denouncing the Cause before the people. So Paul left them and withdrew his disciples, and gave daily addresses in the lecture-hall of Tyrannus. This went on for two years, so that all who lived in Roman Asia, Jews and Greeks alike, heard the Lord's Message.

God did miracles by Paul's hands of no ordinary kind; in fact people would carry home to the sick handkerchiefs or aprons that had touched his body, and their diseases would leave them and the wicked spirits go out of them. An attempt was made by some itinerant Jews who were exorcists to use the name of Jesus, the Master, over those who had wicked spirits in them.

[4] Ps. 118. 26.

"I adjure you," they said, "by Jesus, whom Paul preaches."
It was the seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish Chief Priest, who 14 were doing this; when the wicked spirit answered them: 15
"Jesus I acknowledge, and Paul I know, but you—who are you?"
Then the man, in whom this wicked spirit was, sprang upon 16 them, and mastering both of them, so completely overpowered them, that they ran out of the house, stripped of their clothes, and wounded. This incident came to the knowledge of all the 17
Jews and Greeks living at Ephesus; they were all awestruck, and the name of Jesus, the Master, was held in the highest honour. Many, too, of those who had become believers in 18
Christ came with a full confession of their practices; while a 19 number of people, who had practised magic, collected their books and burnt them publicly; and on reckoning up the price of these, they found it amounted to five thousand pounds.
In this irresistible way the Lord's Message kept spreading 20 and increasing in power.

Paul plans to visit Jerusalem and Rome.

When these events had become things of the 21 past, Paul resolved in his own mind to go on a journey through Macedonia and Greece, and then on to Jerusalem; "and after going there," he said, "I must visit Rome as well."
So he sent to Macedonia two of his helpers, Timothy and 22
Erastus, while he himself stayed for some time longer in Roman Asia.

The Riot at Ephesus.

Just about that time a great disturbance arose 23 about the Cause. A silversmith named Demetrius, 24 who made silver models of the shrine of Diana, and so gave a good deal of work to the artisans, got these men 25 together, as well as the workmen engaged in similar occupations, and addressed them.
"Men," he said, "you know that this trade is the source of our prosperity, and your eyes and ears tell you that not only at 26
Ephesus, but in almost the whole of Roman Asia, this Paul has convinced and won over great numbers of people by his assertion that those Gods which are made by hands are not Gods at all. So that not only is this business of ours likely to 27 fall into discredit, but there is the further danger that the Temple of the great Goddess Diana will be neglected, and she herself be in risk of being robbed of her magnificence—though all Roman Asia and the whole world worship her."
On hearing this, the men were greatly enraged, and began 28 shouting—"Great is Diana of the Ephesians!" The com- 29 motion spread through the whole city, and the people rushed all together into the amphitheatre, dragging with them Gaius and Aristarchus, two Macedonians who were Paul's travelling companions. Paul wished to go into the amphi- 30 theatre and face the people, but the disciples would not let him, while some of the chief religious officials of the province, 31 who were friendly to him, sent repeated entreaties to him not to trust himself inside. Meanwhile some were shouting one 32 thing and some another, for the Assembly was all in confusion, most of those present not even knowing why they had met. Some of the crowd put forward Alexander, whom the Jews had 33 pushed to the front. He waved his hand to show that he wanted to speak in their defence to the people. But when 34 they recognised him as a Jew, one cry broke from them all, and they continued shouting for two hours—"Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"

The Mayor succeeded in quieting the crowd, and then 35
said:

"Men of Ephesus, who is there, I ask you, who needs to be told that this city of Ephesus is the Temple-Keeper of the great Diana, and of the statue which fell down from Jupiter? As these are undeniable facts, you ought to keep calm and do 36
nothing rash; for you have brought these men here, though 37 they are neither robbers of Temples nor blasphemers of our Goddess. If, however, Demetrius and the artisans who are 38 acting with him have a charge to make against any one, there are Court Days and there are Magistrates; let both parties take legal proceedings. But if you want anything more, it 39 will have to be settled in the regular Assembly. For I tell you 40 that we are in danger of being proceeded against for to-day's riot, there being nothing to account for it; and in that case we shall be at a loss to give any reason for this disorderly gathering."

With these words he dismissed the Assembly. 41

Paul again in Greece and Macedonia.

After the uproar had ceased, Paul sent for the 1 20 disciples, and after words of encouragement to them, took his leave, and started on his journey to Macedonia. After going through those districts and speak- 2 ing many encouraging words to the disciples, he went into Greece, where he stayed three months. He was about to sail 3 to Syria, when a plot was laid against him by the Jews; so it was decided that he should return by way of Macedonia. He 4 was accompanied by Sopater the son of Pyrrhus, of Beroea, Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy, as well as by Tychicus and Trophimus of Roman Asia. These men went to Troas and waited there for 5 us; while we ourselves sailed from Philippi after 6
the Passover, and joined them five days later at Troas, where we stayed a week.

Paul at Troas.

On the first day of the week, when we had met for the 7
Breaking of Bread, Paul, who was intending to leave the next day, began to address those who were present, and prolonged his address till midnight. There were a good many lamps in 8 the upstair room, where we had met; and a young man named 9 Eutychus, sitting at the window, was gradually overcome with great drowsiness, as Paul went on with his address. At last, quite overpowered by his drowsiness, he fell from the third storey to the ground, and was picked up for dead. Paul went 10 down, threw himself upon him, and put his arms round him.

"Do not be alarmed," he said; "he is still alive."

Then he went upstairs again; and after the Breaking of Bread 11 and taking something to eat, he talked with them at great length till daybreak, and then left. Meanwhile they had taken 12 the lad away alive, and were greatly comforted.

Paul goes on to Miletus.

We ourselves started first. We went on board 13 ship and sailed for Assos, our intention being to take Paul on board there. This was his own arrangement, as he intended to go by land himself. So when 14 he met us at Assos, we took him on board and went on to Mitylene. The day after we had sailed from there, we arrived 15 off Chios, touched at Samos the following day, and the next day reached Miletus; for Paul had decided to sail past 16
Ephesus, so as to avoid spending much time in Roman Asia.
He was making haste to reach Jerusalem, if possible, by the Harvest Thanksgiving-day.

From Miletus, however, he sent to Ephesus and invited the 17
Officers of the Church; and when they came, he spoke to them 18
as follows:

"You know, without my telling you, the way in which I bore myself towards you, always, from the very first day that I set foot in Roman Asia. You know how I served the Master in 19 all humility, amid the tears and trials which fell to my lot through the plots of the Jews. There was nothing of benefit 20 to you which I shrank from telling you, and I taught you in public and in private, impressing strongly both upon Jews and 21 Greeks the repentance due to God, and the duty of faith in Jesus, our Master. And now, from an impulse which I cannot 22 resist, I am here on my way to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there, except that in town after town the 23 holy Spirit impresses upon me that imprisonment and troubles are awaiting me. But then I count my life of no value to 24 myself whatever, provided that I may complete the course marked out for me, and the task that was allotted me by Jesus, the Master—which was to bear my earnest testimony to the Good News of the mercy of God. And now, mark me, I am 25 quite aware that none of you will ever see my face again—you among whom I have gone about proclaiming the Kingdom.

Therefore I declare to you this day, that I am not responsible 26 for the fate of any of you, for I have not shrunk from telling 27 you all that God purposes for you. Be watchful over your- 28 selves, and over the whole flock—of which the holy Spirit has made you Officers-in-charge—so that you should act as shepherds of the Church of God, which he bought at the cost of his own life. I know well that, after my departure, merciless 29 wolves will get in among you, who will not spare the flock; and from among yourselves, too, men will arise, teaching per- 30 versions of truth, so as to draw away the disciples after themselves. Be on the watch, then, and remember how for three 31 years, night and day, I never ceased, even with tears, to warn each one of you. And now I entrust you to the Lord and to 32 the Message of his mercy—a Message which has the power to build up your characters, and to give you your place among all those who have become God's People. I have never coveted any 33 one's gold or silver or clothing. You know, yourselves that not 34 only my wants were provided for, but that my companions were provided for also, by these hands of mine. I left nothing 35 undone to show you that, like me, you ought to help the weak by your labour, bearing in mind the words of Jesus, the Master, how he said himself—'It is a far happier thing to give than to receive.'"

When Paul had finished, he knelt down and prayed with 36 them all. Every one was in tears; and throwing their arms 37 round Paul's neck, they kissed him again and again, grieving 38 most of all over what he had said—that they would never see his face again. Then they went with him to the ship to see him off.

Paul sails to Tyre.

When we had torn ourselves away, and had set 1 21
sail, we made a straight run to Cos; the next day
we came to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.
There we found a ship crossing to Phoenicia, so we went on 2 board and set sail. After sighting Cyprus and leaving it on 3 the left, we sailed to Syria, and put into Tyre, for the ship was to discharge her cargo there. So we found out the disciples 4 and stayed a week with them. Speaking under the influence of the Spirit, they warned Paul not to set foot in Jerusalem.
However, when we had come to the end of our stay, we set 5 out on our journey, the whole of the disciples with their wives and children escorting us out of the city. We knelt down on the beach, and prayed, and then said good-bye to one another; 6 after which we went on board, and they returned home.

Paul at Caesarea.

After we had made the run from Tyre, we 7 landed at Ptolemais, and exchanged greetings with the Brethren there, and spent a day with them. The next day we left, and got as far as Caesarea, where 8

[28] Ps. 74. 2. [32] Deut. 33. 3—4.

we went to the house of Philip, the Missionary, who was one of 'the Seven,' and stayed with him. He had four unmarried 9 daughters who were Prophetesses. During our visit, 10 which lasted several days, a Prophet, named Agabus, came down from Judaea, and came to see us. He took Paul's girdle, 11 and bound his own feet and hands with it, saying as he did so:

"This is what the holy Spirit says—'The man to whom this girdle belongs will be bound like this at Jerusalem by the Jews, and they will hand him over to the heathen.'"

When we heard that, we and the people of the place kept 12 entreating Paul not to go up to Jerusalem. It was then that 13
Paul made the reply:

"Why are you crying and breaking my heart like this? For my part, I am not only ready to go to prison, but to suffer death at Jerusalem for the Cause of Jesus, the Master."

So, as he would not yield, we left off persuading him, and said: 14
"The Lord's will be done."

Paul arrives at Jerusalem.

At the end of our visit, we packed up, and 15 started on our way up to Jerusalem. Some of the 16 disciples from Caesarea went with us, and conducted us to Mnason, a Cypriot disciple of long standing, with whom we were to stay. On our arrival at Jerusalem, the 17 Brethren there gave us a hearty welcome. The next day Paul 18 went with us to have an interview with James, at which the Officers of the Church were all present. After the usual 19 greetings, Paul related in detail all that God had done among the heathen through his efforts. After hearing what he had to 20 tell, they began praising God, and said to Paul:

"You see, Brother, that the Jews who have become believers in Christ may be numbered by tens of thousands, and they are all naturally earnest in upholding the Jewish Law. Now they 21 have heard it said about you, that you teach all Jews in heathen countries to discard Moses, for you tell them not to circumcise their children or even to observe Jewish customs. Very well 22 then, as they are certain to hear of your arrival, do what we 23 are going to suggest. We have four men here, who have of their own accord put themselves under a vow. Make friends 24 with these men, join in their abstinence, and bear their expenses, so that they will be able to complete their vows by shaving their heads; and then every one will see that there is no truth in what they have been told about you, but that, on the contrary, you yourself rule your life in obedience to the Jewish Law. As to the heathen who have become believers in 25 Christ, we ourselves have sent our decision that they should avoid food offered to idols, and blood, and the flesh of strangled animals, and unchastity."

On this Paul made friends with the men, and the next day joined them in their abstinence, and went into the Temple, with notice of the expiration of the period of abstinence so soon as the usual offering should have been made on behalf of each of them. 26

Paul's Arrest.

But just as the seven days were drawing to a close, the Jews from Roman Asia caught sight of Paul in the Temple, and began to excite all the people present. They seized Paul, shouting: 27 28

"Men of Israel! help! This is the man who is teaching everybody everywhere in opposition to our People, our Law, and this Place; and, what is more, he has actually brought Greeks into the Temple and has defiled this sacred Place."

(For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in Paul's company in the city, and were under the impression that Paul had taken him into the Temple.) The whole city was thrown into excitement; the people quickly collected, and seized Paul and dragged him out of the Temple, when the doors were immediately shut. They were bent upon killing him, when the news reached the Colonel of the garrison regiment, that the whole of Jerusalem was in commotion. So he instantly got together some officers and men, and ran down upon the crowd. When they saw the Colonel and his men, they stopped beating Paul. Then the Colonel went up and arrested Paul, and ordered him to be doubly chained; and proceeded to enquire who he was, and what he had been doing. Some of the people said one thing, and some another, and as he could get at nothing definite on account of the din, he ordered him to be taken into the barracks. When Paul reached the steps, he was actually being carried by the soldiers, owing to the violence of the mob; for the people were following in a mass, shouting: "Kill him!" 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36

Just as he was about to be taken into the barracks, Paul said to the Colonel: 37

"May I have a word with you?"

"Do you know Greek?" the Colonel asked. "Are not you the Egyptian who once before raised a rebellion, and led the four thousand Bandits out into the desert?" 38

"No," Paul said, "I am a Jew of Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of a city of some note; and I beg you to give me permission to speak to the people." 39

The Colonel gave his permission, and Paul, standing on the steps, made signs with his hand to the people, and when comparative silence had been obtained, he spoke to them in Hebrew, as follows: 40

[28] Num. 6. 5.

Paul's Defence to the People of Jerusalem.

"Brothers and Fathers, listen to the defence which I am about to make." 1 22
When they heard that he was speaking to them in Hebrew, they were still quieter; and Paul went on: 2

"I am a Jew, a native of Tarsus in Cilicia, but I was brought up in this city under the teaching of Gamaliel, and trained in the strict system of our ancestral Law. I was as zealous in God's service as any of you who are here to-day. In my persecution of this Cause I did not stop even at the taking of life. I put in chains, and imprisoned, men and women alike— and that the High Priest himself and all the Council can testify. Indeed, I had letters of introduction from them to their brother Jews at Damascus, and I was on my way to that place, to bring those who were there, too, prisoners to Jerusalem for punishment. 3 4 5 6
While I was still on my way and getting close to Damascus, about mid-day there suddenly flashed from the sky a great light all round me. I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?' 'Who are you, my lord?' I replied. Then the voice said, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth whom you are persecuting.' The men with me saw the light, but did not hear the speaker's voice. Then I said, 'What am I to do, my lord?' 'Get up, and go into Damascus,' the Master said to me, 'and there you shall be told all that has been appointed for you to do.' In consequence of that dazzling light I could not see, but my companions led me by the hand, and so I reached Damascus. There a man named Hananiah, a strict observer of our Law, well spoken of by all the Jewish inhabitants, came to see me. Standing close to me, he said, 'Saul, my Brother, recover your sight.' And then and there I recovered my sight and looked up at him. Then he said, 'The God of our ancestors has appointed you to learn his will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear words from his lips; for you shall be a witness for him to all the world of what you have just seen, and have heard. Why wait any longer then? Get up and have yourself baptized and your sins washed away, and invoke his name.' 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16
While I was praying one day in the Temple after my return to Jerusalem, I fell into a trance and saw Jesus saying to me, 'Make haste and leave Jerusalem at once, because they will not accept your testimony about me.' 'Master,' I answered, 'these people know that I used to imprison and flog, in Synagogue after Synagogue, those who believed in you; and when the blood of your witness, Stephen, was being shed, I was myself standing by, assenting to it, and took charge of the clothes of those who were putting him to death.' 'Still you must go,' Jesus said to me, 'for I myself will send you far away to the heathen.'" 17 18 19 20 21

Paul's Claim as a Roman Citizen.

Up to this point the people had been listening to Paul, but at these words they called out: 22

"Kill him! A fellow like this ought not to have been allowed to live!"

They were shouting, tearing off their clothes, and throwing dust in the air, so the Colonel ordered Paul to be taken into the barracks, with directions that he was to be examined under the lash, that he might find out the grounds they had for the outcry they were making against him. But just as they had strapped him up to be flogged, Paul said to the Captain standing there: 23 24 25

"If a man is a Roman citizen and unconvicted, have you the right to flog him?"

On hearing what he said, the Captain went and reported it to the Colonel. 26

"What do you mean to do?" he said. "This man is a Roman citizen."

So the Colonel went up to Paul and said: 27

"Tell me, do you mean that you are a Roman citizen?"

"Yes," Paul replied.

"I had to pay a heavy price for my position as citizen," said the Colonel. 28

"I am one by birth," Paul rejoined.

Then those who were to have examined Paul left him at once, and the Colonel himself, finding that Paul was a Roman citizen, was alarmed because he had put him in chains. 29

Paul before the High Council of the Jews.

On the next day the Colonel, wishing to find out the real reason why Paul was denounced by the Jews, unbound him, and ordered the Chief Priests and the whole of the High Council to assemble, and then took Paul down and brought him before them. Paul looked hard at the Council, and began: 30 1 23

"Brothers, for my part, I have done what I believed to be my duty to God with a clear conscience, up to this very day."

At this, the High Priest Ananias ordered the people standing near to strike him on the mouth; upon which Paul turned to him and said: 2 3

"God will strike you, you white-washed wall! Are you sitting there to try me in accordance with law, and yet, in defiance of law, ordering them to strike me?"

The people standing near said to Paul: 4

"Do you mean to insult God's High Priest?"

"I did not know, Brothers, that it was the High Priest," Paul said, "for Scripture says—'Of the Ruler of your People thou shalt speak no ill.'[5]" 5 [5] Exod. 22. 28.

Observing that some of those present were Sadducees and others Pharisees, Paul called out in the Council: 6

"Brothers, I am a Pharisee and a son of Pharisees. It is on the question of hope for the dead and of their resurrection that I am on my trial."

He had hardly said this when a dispute arose between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the Council was divided. 7
(For Sadducees say there is no such thing as a resurrection, and that there are no angels or spirits, while Pharisees believe in both.) So a great uproar ensued, and some of the Rabbis belonging to the Pharisees' side stood up and hotly protested: 8 9

"We find nothing whatever wrong in this man. Suppose a spirit did speak to him, or an angel——"

At this point the dispute was becoming so violent, that the Colonel, fearing that Paul would be really torn in pieces between them, ordered the Guard to go down among them and rescue him, and take him into the barracks. 10

On the following night the Master came and stood by Paul, and said: 11

"Courage! As you have borne witness for me in Jerusalem so well, you must do the same at Rome."

The Plot against Paul.

In the morning the Jews combined together, and took an oath that they would not eat or drink till they had killed Paul. There were more than forty in the plot; and they went to the Chief Priests and Councillors, and said: 12 13 14

"We have taken a solemn oath not to touch anything till we have killed Paul. So we want you now, with the consent of the Council, to suggest to the Colonel that he should bring Paul down before you, as though you intended to go more fully into the details of his case; but before he gets there we will be ready to make away with him." 15

But the son of Paul's sister, hearing of the plot, went to the barracks, and getting admitted, told Paul about it. So Paul called one of the Captains of the garrison and asked him to take the lad to the Colonel, as he had something to tell him. 16 17

The Captain went with the lad to the Colonel, and said: 18

"The prisoner Paul called me and asked me to bring this lad to you, as he has something to say to you."

The Colonel took the lad by the hand, and stepping aside, asked what it was he had to tell him. 19

"The Jews have agreed," the lad answered, "to ask you to bring Paul down before the Council to-morrow, on the plea of your making further enquiry into his case. But pray do not let them persuade you, for more than forty of them are lying in wait for him, who have taken an oath that they will not eat or drink, till they have made away with him; and they are at this very moment in readiness, in anticipation of your promise." 20 21

The Colonel then dismissed the lad, cautioning him not to say 22 a word to anybody of his having given him that information.

Paul sent to Felix at Caesarea.

Then he summoned two Captains, and ordered them to be prepared with two hundred infantry to go to Caesarea, as well as seventy troopers and two hundred lancers, by nine o'clock that night, and to have horses ready for Paul to ride, so that they might take him safely to Felix, the Governor. To him he wrote a letter, somewhat as follows— 23 24 25

'Claudius Lysias sends his compliments to His Excellency the Governor. 26

The man whom I send with this had been seized by the Jews, and was on the point of being killed by them when I came upon them with the force under my command, and rescued him, as I learnt that he was a Roman citizen. Wishing to ascertain exactly the ground of the charges they made against him, I brought him before their Council, when I found that their charges were connected with questions of their own Law, but that there was nothing alleged involving either death or imprisonment. However, having information of a plot against the man, which was about to be put into execution, I am sending him to you at once, and have also directed his accusers to prosecute him before you.' 27 28 29 30

The soldiers, in accordance with their orders, took Paul over and conducted him by night to Antipatris; and on the next day, leaving the troopers to go on with him, they returned to their barracks. On arriving at Caesarea, the troopers delivered the letter to the Governor, and brought Paul before him. As soon as Felix had read the letter, he enquired from what province Paul was, and learning that he came from Cilicia, he said: 31 32 33 34

"I will hear all you have to say as soon as your accusers have arrived." 35

And he ordered Paul to be kept under guard in Herod's Government House.

Paul before Felix.

Five days afterwards the High Priest Ananias came down with some of the Councillors and a barrister named Tertullus. They had laid an information with the Governor against Paul, and when the hearing came on, Tertullus began his speech for the prosecution. 24 1 2

"We owe it to you, your Excellency," he said, "that we are enjoying profound peace, and we owe it to your foresight that this nation is constantly securing reforms—advantages which we very gratefully accept at all times and places. But—not to be tedious—I beg you, with your accustomed fairness, to listen to a brief statement of our case. We have found this man a public pest; he is one who stirs up disputes among the Jews 3 4 5

all the world over, and is a ringleader of the Nazarene heretics.
He even attempted to desecrate the Temple itself, but we 6 caught him; and you will be able, by examining him yourself 8 on all these points, to satisfy yourself as to the charges which we are bringing against him."
The Jews also joined in, confirming the accuracy of his state- 9 ments. On a sign from the Governor, Paul made this 10 reply:

"Knowing, as I do, for how many years you have acted as Judge to this nation, it is with confidence that I undertake my own defence. For you can readily satisfy yourself that it is 11 not more than twelve days ago that I went up to worship at Jerusalem, where my prosecutors never found me holding dis- 12 cussions with any one or causing a crowd to gather—either in the Temple, or in the Synagogues, or about the city; and they cannot establish the charges which they 13 are now making against me. This, however, I do acknowledge 14 to you, that, as a supporter of the Cause which they call heretical, I worship the God of my ancestors. I believe everything that is in accordance with the Law and that is written in the Prophets; and I have confidence in God—a 15 confidence which they also cherish themselves—that there is one day to be a resurrection of good and bad alike. This 16 being so, I do my best myself to have at all times a clear conscience where either God or man is concerned. After 17 some years' absence I had come to bring charitable gifts to my nation, and to make offerings; and it was while engaged 18 in these that they found me in the Temple, after completing a period of abstinence, but without any crowd or disorder.
There were, however, some Jews from Roman Asia who ought 19 to have been here before you and have made any charge they had against me—Or else let my opponents here say themselves 20 what they found wrong in me when I came before the Council, except as to the one sentence that I shouted out as I stood 21
among them—'The resurrection of the dead is the question about which I am on my trial before you to-day.'" Felix, however, adjourned the case—though he had a fairly 22 accurate knowledge of all that concerned the Cause—with the promise:

"When Colonel Lysias comes down, I will give my decision in your case."
So he gave orders to the Captain in charge of him to keep 23
Paul in custody, but to relax the regulations, and not prevent any of his personal friends from showing him attention.

After several days Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who 24 was herself a Jewess, and sending for Paul, listened to what he had to say about faith in Christ Jesus. But while Paul was 25 discoursing about righteousness, self-control, and the coming judgement, Felix became terrified, and broke in with—

"You may go for the present, but when I find an opportunity, I will send for you again."
He was all the time hoping for a bribe from Paul, and so he 26 used to send for him pretty frequently and talk with him.
But after the lapse of two years Felix was succeeded by 27
Porcius Festus; and wishing to curry favour with the Jews, he left Paul a prisoner.

Paul before Festus.

Festus having in due course taken over the 1 25 governorship, left Caesarea three days later and went up to Jerusalem. There the Chief Priests 2 and leading men among the Jews laid an information before him against Paul, and begged Festus to grant them a favour, 3 which would be to Paul's injury—to send for him to Jerusalem.
All the while they were plotting to make away with him on the road there. However, Festus answered that Paul was in 4 prison at Caesarea, and that he himself would be leaving for that place shortly.
"So let the influential men among you," he said, "go down 5 with me, and if there is anything that is wrong in the man, charge him formally with it."
After staying among them some eight or ten days, Festus 6 went down to Caesarea. The next day he took his seat on the Bench, and ordered Paul to be brought before him. On 7 Paul's appearance, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem surrounded him, and made many serious charges, which they quite failed to establish, Paul defending himself with the 8 plea that he had not committed any offence against the Jewish Law, or the Temple, or the Emperor. But as Festus wished 9 to curry favour with the Jews, he interrupted Paul with the question:
"Would you like to go up to Jerusalem and be tried on these charges before me there?"
"No," Paul replied, "I am standing at the Emperor's Bar, 10 the place where I ought to be tried. I have not wronged the Jews, as you yourself can see clearly enough. If, however, I 11 have done wrong and have committed any offence deserving death, I do not ask to escape it; but if there is nothing in the accusations of these people, no one has power to give me up to them. I appeal to the Emperor."
Upon that, Festus, after conferring with his Council, answered: 12
"You have appealed to the Emperor; to the Emperor you shall go."

Paul before Herod Agrippa II.

Some days later King Agrippa and Bernice 13 came down to Caesarea, and paid a visit of congratulation to Festus; and as they were staying 14 several days there, Festus laid Paul's case before the King.

"There is a man here," he said, "left a prisoner by Felix, about whom, when I came to Jersualem, the Jewish Chief 15 Priests and Councillors laid an information, asking at the same time for sentence upon him. My answer to them was, that it 16 was not the custom with Romans to give up any man to his accusers till the accused had met the accusers face to face, and had also had an opportunity of answering the charges brought against him. So they met here, and without loss of time I took 17 my seat on the Bench the very next day, and ordered the man to be brought before me. But when his accusers came forward, 18 they brought no charge of wrong-doing such as I had expected about him; but there were certain questions in dispute between 19 them about their own religion, and about some dead man called Jesus, whom Paul declared to be alive. And as I was 20 at a loss how to enquire into questions of this kind, I asked Paul if he would like to go up to Jerusalem, and be put upon his trial about them there. As, however, Paul appealed to 21 have his case reserved for the consideration of his Imperial Majesty, I ordered him back into custody, until I could send him to the Emperor."

"I should have liked," Agrippa said to Festus, "to hear this 22 man myself."

"You shall hear him to-morrow," Festus answered.

So the next day when Agrippa and Bernice had come in full 23 state and had entered the Audience Chamber, with the superior officers and the principal people of the city, by the order of Festus Paul was brought before them.

Then Festus said: 24

"King Agrippa, and all here present, you see before you the man about whom the whole Jewish people have applied to me, both at Jerusalem and here, loudly asserting that he ought not to be allowed to live any longer. I found, however, that he 25 had not done anything deserving death; so, as he had himself appealed to his Imperial Majesty, I decided to send him. But 26
I have nothing definite to write about him to my Imperial Master; and for that reason I have brought him before you, and especially before yourself King Agrippa, that, after examining him, I may have something to write. For it seems to me 27 absurd to send a prisoner, without at the same time stating the charges made against him."

So Agrippa turned to Paul and said: 1 26

"You are at liberty to speak for yourself."

At this, Paul stretched out his hand and began his defence.

"I have been congratulating myself, King Agrippa," he said, 2
"that it is before you that I have to make my defence to-day, with regard to all the charges brought against me by Jews, especially as you are so well versed in all the customs and 3 questions of the Jewish world. I beg you therefore to hear me with patience. My life, then, from youth upwards, 4 was passed, from the very first, among my own nation, and at Jerusalem itself, and is within the knowledge of every Jew; and they have always known—if they choose to give evidence— 5 that, in accordance with the very strictest form of our religion, I lived a true Pharisee. Even now, it is for my hope in the 6 promise given by God to our ancestors that I am standing my trial—a promise which our Twelve Tribes, by earnest 7 service night and day, hope to see fulfilled. It is for this hope, your Majesty, that I am accused—and by Jews themselves! Why do you all hold it to be beyond belief that God 8 should raise the dead? However, I myself once thought 9 it my duty to oppose in every way the Cause of Jesus of Nazareth; and I actually did so at Jerusalem. Acting on the 10 authority of the Chief Priests, I myself put many of the People of Christ in prison, and when it was proposed to kill them, I gave my vote for it. Time after time, in every one of their 11 Synagogues, I tried by punishments to force them to blaspheme.

I was so frantic against them, that I pursued them even to towns outside Judaea. It was while I was travelling to 12 Damascus on an errand of this kind, entrusted with full powers by the Chief Priests, that in the middle of the day, your Majesty, 13
I saw right in my path, coming from the sky, a light brighter than the glare of the sun, which shone all round me and those travelling with me. We all fell to the ground, and then I 14 heard a voice saying to me in Hebrew—'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? You are punishing yourself by kicking against the goad.' 'Who are you, my lord?' I asked. 'I am 15 Jesus, whom you are persecuting,' the Master said; 'but get 16 up; stand upright, for I have appeared to you for the express purpose of appointing you to work for me, and to bear witness to the revelations of me which you have already seen, and to those in which I shall yet appear to you, when delivering you 17 from your own people and from the heathen. It is to them that I am now sending you, to open their eyes, and to turn them from 18 darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, so that they may receive pardon for their sins, and a place among those who have become God's People, by faith in me.' After that, 19 your Majesty, I did not fail to obey the heavenly vision; but 20 on the contrary, first to those at Damascus and Jerusalem, and then through the whole of Judaea, and to the heathen as well, I began to preach repentance and conversion to God, and a life befitting their repentance. This is why the Jews seized 21 me in the Temple, and made attempts to kill me. However I 22 have received help from God to this very day, and so I stand here, and bear my testimony to high and low alike—without adding a word to what the Prophets, as well as Moses, declared should happen—that the Christ had to suffer, and that he was 23

16 Ezek. 2. 1. 17 1 Chron. 16. 35. 17—18 Isa. 42. 7, 16; Deut. 33. 3. + to be the first, by rising from the dead, to bring news of light to our nation and to the heathen."

While Paul was making this defence, Festus called out loudly: 24

"You are mad, Paul; your great learning is driving you mad."

"No, I am not mad, your Excellency," he replied; "on the contrary, the statements I am making are true and sober. 25 Indeed his Majesty knows all about these matters, so I speak before him without constraint. I am sure that there is nothing 26 whatever of what I have been telling him that has escaped his attention; for this has not been done in a corner. Do you 27 believe the Prophets, your Majesty? I know you do."

But Agrippa said to Paul: 28

"You are very soon trying to make a Christian of me!"

"Whether it is soon or late," Paul answered, "I would to God 29 that not only you, but all who are listening to me, might to-day become just what I am myself—except for these chains!"

Then the King rose, with the Governor and Bernice and 30 those who had been sitting with them, and after retiring, they 31 talked the case over among themselves.

"There is nothing," they said, "deserving death or imprisonment in this man's conduct"; and, speaking to Festus, Agrippa 32 added:

"The man might have been discharged, if he had not appealed to the Emperor."

Paul's Voyage to Rome.

As it was decided that we were to sail to Italy, 1 27
Paul and some other prisoners were put in charge of a Captain of the Imperial Regiment, named Julius. We went on board a ship from Adramyttium, which 2 was on the point of sailing to the ports along the coast of Roman Asia, and put to sea. Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, went with us. The next day, we put into Sidon, 3 where Julius was kind to Paul, and allowed him to go and see his friends and receive their hospitality. Putting to sea again, 4 we got under the lee of Cyprus, because the wind was against us; and after crossing the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we 5 put into Myra in Lycia. There the Roman Captain 6 found an Alexandrian ship on her way to Italy, and put us on board of her. For several days our progress was slow, and it 7 was only with difficulty that we arrived off Cnidus. As the wind was still unfavourable, when we came off Cape Salmone, we got under the lee of Crete, and with difficulty, by keeping 8 close in shore, we reached a place called 'Fair Havens,' near which was the town of Lasea.

This had taken a considerable time, and sailing was already 9 dangerous, for the Fast was already over; and so Paul began to warn them.

"Friends," he said, "I see that this voyage will be attended with damage and much loss—loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but of our own lives also." 10

Captain Julius, however, paid more attention to the sailing-master and the ship's captain than to what was said by Paul. 11

And as the harbour was not a suitable one to winter in, the majority were in favour of sailing further, in the hope of being able to reach Phoenix, and winter there. Phoenix was a Cretan harbour open to the north-east and south-east. 12

So when a light wind sprang up from the south, thinking that they had secured their object, they weighed anchor and kept along the coast of Crete, close in shore. But shortly afterwards a perfect hurricane came down on us off the land—a North-Easter, as it is called. The ship was caught by it and was unable to keep her head to the wind, so we had to give way and let her drive before it. Running under the lee of a small island called Cauda, we only just managed to secure the ship's boat, and after hoisting it on board, the men used cables to brace the ship. But, afraid of being driven on to the Syrtis Sands, they lowered the yard and drifted under bare poles. So violently were we tossed about by the storm, that the next day they began throwing the cargo overboard, and on the day after, they threw out the ship's tackle with their own hands. As neither sun nor stars were visible for several days, and as the gale still continued severe, all hope of our being saved was at last reluctantly abandoned. 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20

It was then, when they had gone a long time without food, that Paul stepped forward, and said: 21

"Friends, you should have listened to me, and not have sailed from Crete and so incurred this damage and loss. Yet even as things are, I urge you not to lose heart, for there will not be a single life lost among you—nothing but the ship. For last night an angel of the God to whom I belong, and whom I serve, came and stood by me, and said—'Do not be afraid, Paul; you are to appear before the Emperor, and I assure you that God has given you the lives of all your fellow-voyagers.' So do not lose heart, friends, for I can trust God that things will be exactly as I have been told. We shall, however, have to be wrecked on some island." 22 23 24 25 26

It was now the fourteenth night of the storm, and we were being driven about in the Ionian Sea, when, about midnight, the sailors began to suspect that they were drawing near land. So they took soundings, and found twenty fathoms of water. After waiting a little, they took soundings again, and found only fifteen. Then, as they were afraid of our being wrecked upon some rocky coast, they let go four anchors from the stern, and longed for day to come. 27 28 29

The sailors wanted to 30

leave the ship, and had therefore lowered the boat, on pretence of running out anchors from the bows, when Paul said to 31
Captain Julius and his men:

"Unless the sailors remain on board, you cannot escape."

Upon that the soldiers cut the ropes which held the boat, and 32 allowed her to drift away. In the interval before day- 33 break Paul kept urging them all to take something to eat.

"It is a fortnight to-day," he said, "that, in your anxiety, you have gone without meals, hardly touching anything at all. So 34
I urge you to take something to eat; indeed it is necessary for your safety, for not one of you will lose even a hair of his head."

With these words he took some bread, and after thanking God 35 before them all, broke it in pieces, and began to eat; and the 36 men all felt cheered and had something to eat themselves.
There were seventy-six of us on board, all counted. When 37 they had had enough, they began lightening the ship by throw- 38 ing the corn into the sea. When daylight came, they could 39 not make out what land it was, but observing a creek in which there was a beach, they consulted as to whether they could run the ship safely into it. So they 40 cast off, and abandoned the anchors, and at the same time unlashed the gear of the steering oars, hoisted the foresail to the wind, and headed for the beach. They got, however, into a 41 kind of channel, and there ran the ship aground. The bows stuck fast and could not be moved, while the stern began breaking up under the strain. The advice of the 42 soldiers was that the prisoners should be killed, for fear any of them should swim away and make their escape. But Captain 43

Julius, anxious to save Paul, prevented their carrying out their intention, and ordered that those who could swim should be the first to jump into the sea and try to reach the shore; and 44 as to the rest, that some should get on planks, and others cling to different pieces of the ship. In these various ways every one managed to get safely ashore.

Paul at Malta.

When we were all safe, we found out that the 1 28 island was called Malta. The natives showed us 2 extraordinary kindness, for they lit a fire and took us all under shelter, because it had come on to rain and was cold. Paul 3 had gathered a quantity of dry sticks and laid them on the fire, when a viper, driven out by the heat, fastened on his hand.
When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, 4
they said to one another:

"Evidently this man is a murderer, for though he has been saved from the sea, Justice has not allowed him to live."

However Paul shook the creature off into the fire, and was 5 none the worse. The natives were expecting inflammation to 6 set in, or that he would suddenly fall dead; but after waiting for a long time, and seeing nothing unusual happening to him, they changed their minds and said that he was a God.

In that neighbourhood there was an estate belonging to the 7
Governor of the island, whose name was Publius. He took us up to his house, and for three days entertained us most courteously. It happened that Publius' father was lying ill of 8 fever and dysentery. So Paul went to see him; and after praying, he placed his hands on him and cured him. After 9 this, all the people in the island who had any complaints came to Paul, and were cured. They also presented us with many 10 gifts, and they put supplies of necessaries on board when we set sail.

We set sail, after three months, in a ship that had 11 wintered at the island. She was an Alexandrian vessel, and had the Twin Sons of Jupiter for her figure-head. We put in at Syracuse and stayed there three 12 days, and from there we worked to windward and so got to 13 Rhegium. A day later a south wind sprang up and took us to Puteoli in two days. There we found some of the Brethren, 14 and were invited to stay a week with them; after which we went on to Rome. The Brethren there had heard about us, 15 and came out as far as the Market of Appius and the Three Taverns to meet us. At sight of them Paul thanked God and was much cheered.

On our reaching Rome, Paul was allowed his liberty, except 16 for the soldier who was in charge of him.

Paul at Rome.

Three days after our arrival, Paul invited the 17 leading Jews to meet him; and when they came, he spoke to them as follows:

"Brothers, although I had done nothing hostile to the interests of our nation or our ancestral customs, I was yet sent from Jerusalem as a prisoner and handed over to the Romans, who, for their part, when they had examined me, were ready 18 to release me, because there was nothing in my conduct deserving death. But as the Jews opposed my release, I was 19 forced to appeal to the Emperor—not, indeed, that I had any charge to make against my own nation. This then is my 20 reason for inviting you to come and see and talk with me; because it is for the sake of the Hope of Israel that I am here in chains."

"We, on our side," was their reply, "have not had any letter 21 about you from Judaea, nor have any of our brother Jews come and reported or said anything bad about you. But we shall be 22 glad to hear from you what your views are, for, with regard to this heresy, we are well aware that it is spoken against on all sides."

They then fixed a day with him, and came to the place 23 where he was staying, in even larger numbers, when Paul proceeded to lay the subject before them. He bore his testimony to the Kingdom of God, and tried to convince them about Jesus, by arguments drawn from the Law of Moses and from the Prophets—from morning till evening. Some 24 were inclined to accept what he said; others, however, rejecting it. So, as they disagreed among themselves, they 25 began to disperse, Paul adding this one remark—

"How true was the declaration made by the holy Spirit, through the Prophet Isaiah to your ancestors—

'Go to this nation and say— 26
"You will hear with your ears without ever understanding,
And though you have eyes, you will see without ever perceiving.
For the mind of this nation has grown dense, 27
And their ears are dull of hearing,
Their eyes also have they closed;
Lest some day they should perceive with their eyes,
And with their ears should hear,
And in their mind should understand, and should turn—
And then I should cure them."'

Understand, then, that this Salvation of God was sent to the 28 heathen; and they will listen."

Paul stayed two whole years in a house which he rented for 30 himself, welcoming all who came to see him, proclaiming the 31 Kingdom of God, and teaching all about Jesus Christ, the Master, with perfect fearlessness, and unmolested.
